(7) Failure to comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice promulgated by the appraisal standards board of the appraisal foundation;

(8) Failure or refusal without good cause to exercise reasonable diligence in developing an appraisal, preparing an appraisal report, or communicating an appraisal;

(9) Negligence or incompetence in developing an appraisal, in preparing an appraisal report, or in communicating an appraisal;

(10) Violating, assisting or enabling any person to willfully disregard any of the provisions of sections 339.500 to 339.549 or the regulations of the commission for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of sections 339.500 to 339.549;

(11) Accepting an appraisal assignment when the employment itself is contingent upon the appraiser's reporting a predetermined analysis or opinion or where the fee to be paid for the performance of the appraisal assignment is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached or upon the consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment;

(12) Violating the confidential nature of governmental records to which the person gained access through employment or engagement to perform an appraisal assignment or specialized appraisal services for a governmental agency;

(13) Violating any term or condition of a certificate or license issued by the commission pursuant to the authority of sections 339.500 to 339.549;

(14) Violation of any professional trust or confidence;

(15) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any fee, charge, tuition or other compensation by fraud, deception or misrepresentation;

(16) Assisting or enabling any person to practice or offer to practice any profession licensed or regulated by sections 339.500 to 339.549 who is not licensed or certified and currently eligible to practice pursuant to sections 339.500 to 339.549;

(17) Use of any advertisement or solicitation which is false, misleading or deceptive to the general public or persons to whom the advertisement or solicitation is primarily directed;

(18) Disciplinary action against the holder of a license, certificate or other right to practice any profession regulated pursuant to sections 339.500 to 339.549, imposed by another state, territory, federal agency or country upon grounds for which revocation or suspension is authorized in this state.

3. After the filing of such complaint, the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 621, RSMo. Upon a finding by the administrative hearing commission that the grounds, provided in subsection 2 of this section, for disciplinary action are met, the commission may, singly or in combination, publicly censure or place the person named in the complaint on probation on such terms and conditions as the commission deems appropriate for a period not to exceed five years, or may suspend, for a period not to exceed three years, or revoke, the certificate or license. The holder of a certificate or license revoked pursuant to this section may not obtain certification as a state-certified real estate appraiser or licensure as a state-licensed real estate appraiser for at least five years after the date of revocation.

4. A certification of a state-certified real estate appraiser or a license of a state-licensed real estate appraiser that has been suspended as a result of disciplinary action by the commission shall not be reinstated, and a person may not obtain certification as a state-certified real estate appraiser or licensure as a state-licensed real estate appraiser subsequent to revocation, unless the applicant presents evidence of completion of the continuing education required by section 339.530 during the period of suspension or revocation as well as fulfillment of any other conditions imposed by the commission. Applicants for recertification, relicensure or reinstatement also shall be required to successfully complete the examination for original certification or licensure required by section 339.515 as a condition to reinstatement of certification or licensure, or recertification or relicensure subsequent to revocation.”; and

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1660 & 1269, Page 39, Section 334.1009, Line 2, by striking the word “twelve” and inserting in lieu thereof the word “seven”; and

Further amend said substitute, Page 71, Section 383.130, by striking all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following;

“383.130. As used in sections 383.130, 383.133 and 383.500, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Disciplinary action", any final action taken by the board of trustees or similarly empowered officials of a hospital, home health agency, or ambulatory surgical center as defined in chapter 197, RSMo, or any long-term care facility licensed under chapter 198, RSMo, or any other entity that employs or contracts with licensed health care professionals to provide services to individuals or to any hospital, home health agency, ambulatory surgical center, or long-term care facility, or any employer of registered nurses and licensed practical nurses, including nurse agencies and subcontractors of nurse agencies, to reprimand, discipline or restrict the practice of a health care professional. [If the health care professional is a physician or surgeon,] Only such reprimands, discipline, or restrictions in response to activities which are also grounds for disciplinary actions [pursuant to section 334.100, RSMo,] according to the professional licensing law for that health care professional shall be considered disciplinary actions for the purposes of this definition. [If the health care professional is a dentist, only such reprimands, discipline, or restrictions in response to activities which are also grounds for disciplinary actions pursuant to section 332.321, RSMo, shall be considered disciplinary actions for the purposes of this definition] If the health care professional is a nurse, only such reprimands, discipline, or restrictions in response to activities which are also grounds for disciplinary actions pursuant to chapter 335, RSMo, shall be considered disciplinary actions for the purposes of this definition;

(2) "Health care professional", a physician or surgeon licensed under the provisions of chapter 334, RSMo, a dentist licensed under the provisions of chapter 332, RSMo, or a podiatrist licensed under the provisions of chapter 330, RSMo, or a pharmacist licensed under the provisions of chapter 338, RSMo, a psychologist licensed under the provisions of chapter 337, RSMo, or a nurse licensed under the provisions of chapter 335, RSMo, while acting within their scope of practice;

(3) "Hospital", a place devoted primarily to the maintenance and operation of facilities for the diagnosis, treatment or care for not less than twenty-four hours in any week of three or more nonrelated individuals suffering from illness, disease, injury, deformity or other abnormal physical conditions; or a place devoted primarily to provide for not less than twenty-four hours in any week medical or nursing care for three or more nonrelated individuals. The term "hospital" does not include convalescent, nursing, shelter or boarding homes as defined in chapter 198, RSMo;

(4) "Licensing authority", the appropriate board or authority which is responsible for the licensing or regulation of the health care professional."; and

Further amend said substitute, Page 72, Section 383.133, by striking all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following;

"383.133. 1. [Beginning on January 1, 1987,] The chief executive officer or similarly empowered official of any hospital, home health agency, or ambulatory surgical center, as such [term is] terms are defined in [section 197.200,] chapter 197, RSMo, or any long-term care facility licensed under chapter 198, RSMo, or any entity that employs or contracts with licensed health care professionals to provide services to individuals or to any hospital, home health agency, ambulatory surgical center, or long-term care facility, and any other employer of registered nurses and licensed practical nurses, including nurse agencies and subcontractors of agency nurses, shall report to the appropriate health care professional licensing authority any disciplinary action against any health care professional including termination of contracted services due to complaints or reports, or the voluntary resignation of any health care professional against whom any complaints or reports have been made which might have led to disciplinary action.

2. All reports required by this section shall be submitted within fifteen days of the final disciplinary action and shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

- (1) The name, address and telephone number of the person making the report;
- (2) The name, address and telephone number of the person who is the subject of the report;
- (3) A brief description of the facts which gave rise to the issuance of the report, including the dates of occurrence deemed to necessitate the filing of the report;
- (4) If court action is involved and known to the reporting agent, the identity of the court, including the date of filing and the docket number of the action.

3. Upon request, the licensing authority may furnish a report of any disciplinary action received by it under the provisions of this section to any [of the hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers] entity required to report under this section. Such licensing authority may also furnish, upon request, a report of disciplinary action taken by the licensing authority to any other administrative or law enforcement agency acting within the scope of its statutory authority.

4. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any health care professional licensing authority or any [hospital or ambulatory surgical center] entity required to report under this section, or any of their agents or employees for any action taken in good faith and without malice in carrying out the provisions of this section.

5. Neither a report required to be filed under subsection 2 of this section nor the record of any proceeding shall be used against a health care professional in any other administrative or judicial proceeding.

6. Violation of any provision of this section is an infraction.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Behnen offered House Amendment No. 6.

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1660 & 1269, Page 14, Section 317.019, Line 26, by inserting immediately after said line the following;

"319.300. Sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall be known as the "Missouri Blasting Safety Act". The purpose of sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall be to foster the safe use of explosives in mining and construction by establishing and enforcing consistent statewide industry standards for licensing of blasters and persons using explosives. The provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder shall not be construed to amend, supersede, or conflict with any requirement of federal law or regulation governing the manufacturing, transporting, or storage of explosives.

319.303. As used in sections 319.300 to 319.339, the following terms shall mean:

- (1) "Blaster", a person qualified to be in charge of and responsible for the loading and firing of an explosive or explosive material;
- (2) "Blast", detonation of explosives;
- (3) "Blasting", the use of explosives in mining or construction;
- (4) "Blast site", the area where explosives are handled during loading of a borehole, including fifty feet in all directions from the perimeter formed by loaded holes. A minimum of thirty feet may replace the fifty feet requirement if the perimeter of loaded holes is marked and separated from nonblast site areas by a barrier. The fifty feet or thirty feet distance requirements, as applicable, shall apply in all directions along the full depth of the borehole;
- (5) "Board", the state blasting safety board created in section 319.324;
- (6) "Borehole", a hole made with a drill, auger, or other tool in which explosives are placed in preparation for detonation;
- (7) "Burden", the distance from an explosive charge to the nearest free or open face at the time of detonation;
- (8) "Business day", any day of the week except Saturday, Sunday, or a federal or state holiday;
- (9) "Deck", charge of explosives separated from other charges by stemming;
- (10) "Delay period", the time delay provided by blasting caps which permits firing of bore holes in sequence;
- (11) "Detonation", the action of converting the chemicals in an explosive charge to gases at a high pressure by means of a self-propagating shock wave passing through the charge;
- (12) "Detonator", any device containing initiating or primary explosive that is used for initiating detonation of another explosive material. A detonator may not contain more than ten grams of total explosives by weight, excluding ignition or delay charges. The term includes, but is not limited to, electric blasting caps of instantaneous and delay types, blasting caps for use with safety fuse, detonating cord delay connectors, and non-electric instantaneous and delay blasting caps which use detonating cord, shock tube, or any other replacement for electric leg wires;
- (13) "Explosives", any chemical compound, mixture, or device, the primary or common purpose of which is to function by explosion, including, but not limited to, dynamite, black powder, pellet powder, initiating explosives, detonators, safety fuses, squibs, detonating cord, igniter cord, and igniters; includes explosive materials such as any blasting agent, emulsion explosive, water gel, or detonator. Explosive materials determined to be within the coverage of sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall include all such materials listed in 18 U.S.C. Chapter 40, Importation, Manufacture, Distribution, and Storage of Explosive Materials, as issued at least annually by the Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives;

- (14) "Firing", causing explosives to be detonated by the use of a fuse or electric detonator;
- (15) "Fire protection official", an authorized representative of a municipal fire department, fire protection district, or volunteer fire protection association for the area where blasting occurs;
- (16) "Fugitive from justice", any person who has fled from the jurisdiction of any court of record to avoid prosecution for any crime or to avoid giving testimony in any criminal proceeding. The term shall also include any person who has been convicted of any crime and has fled to avoid case disposition;
- (17) "Initiation system", components of an explosive charge that cause the charge to detonate, such as primers, electric detonators, and detonating charge;
- (18) "Loading", placing of explosives in a hole in preparation for detonation;
- (19) "Local government", a city, county, fire protection district, volunteer fire protection association, or political subdivision of the state;
- (20) "Person", any individual, proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, company, joint venture, association, teaching institution, municipality, county, political subdivision, or department, board, commission, institution, or agency of the state of Missouri;
- (21) "Person using explosives", any business, company, or other person that is required to hold authority to receive or use explosives under statutes or regulations administered by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and who employs blasters as required to be licensed by section 319.306;
- (22) "Regulatory authority", the Missouri division of fire safety, office of the state fire marshal;
- (23) "Scaled distance", the linear distance, in feet, from the blast to a specified location, divided by the square root of the maximum weight of explosives, in pounds, to be detonated in any eight millisecond period;
- (24) "Seismograph", an instrument that measures ground vibration and acoustic effects;
- (25) "Spacing", the distance between adjacent bore holes;
- (26) "Stemming", inert material that is placed above explosives that have been placed in a blast hole in preparation for detonation or vertically between columnar decks of explosives that have been placed in a hole in preparation for detonation;
- (27) "Uncontrolled structure", any dwelling, public building, school, church, commercial building, or institutional building, that is not owned or leased by the person using explosives, or otherwise under the direct contractual responsibility of the person using explosives. For the purposes of sections 319.300 to 319.339, RSMo, the term uncontrolled structure shall include but not be limited to any cemetery established or regulated pursuant to chapter 42, RSMo and chapter 214, RSMo.

319.306. 1. Any individual who uses explosives in Missouri shall obtain a blaster's license, except those exempted in subsection 18 of this section. A company, business or other person defined as a "person using explosives" shall not be required to hold a blaster's license, but all blasting on behalf of such company, business, or other person as governed by sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall be performed only by licensed blasters. Applications for a blaster's license or renewal of a blaster's license shall be on a form designated by the Missouri division of fire safety, but may obtain only the following:

- (1) The applicant's full name;
- (2) The applicant's home address;
- (3) The applicant's date of birth;
- (4) The applicant's sex;
- (5) The applicant's physical description;
- (6) The applicant's drivers license number;
- (7) The applicant's current place of employment;
- (8) A listing of any other blasting license or certification held by the applicant, to include the name, address, and phone number of the regulatory authority that issued the license or certification;
- (9) Any other information required to fulfill the obligations of sections 319.300 to 319.339.

2. Any individual who has met the qualifications set forth in subsection 4 of this section may apply for a blaster's license.

3. An applicant for a blaster's license shall submit an application fee and two copies of the applicant's photograph with the application submitted to the division of fire safety. The amount of such fee shall be established by rule promulgated by the division of fire safety under rulemaking authority established in section 319.327. The fee established by rule shall be no greater than the cost of administering this section, but shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

4. Any applicant for a blaster's license shall meet the following qualifications:
 - (1) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
 - (2) Has not willfully violated any provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339;
 - (3) Has not knowingly withheld information or has not made any false or fictitious statement intended or likely to deceive in connection with the application;
 - (4) Has familiarity and understanding of relevant federal and state laws relating to explosives materials;
 - (5) Has not been convicted in any court of, or plead guilty to, a felony;
 - (6) Is not a fugitive from justice;
 - (7) Is not an unlawful user of any controlled substance in violation of chapter 195, RSMo;
 - (8) Except as provided in subsections 11 and 13 of this section, has completed an approved blaster's training course that meets the requirements of subdivision (1) of subsection 14 of this section and has successfully passed the licensing examination under the provisions of subdivisions (1) to (5) of subsection 15 of this section;
 - (9) Has accumulated at least one thousand hours of experience directly relating to the use of explosives within two years immediately prior to applying for a blaster's license and shall provide signed documentation from an employer, supervisor, or other responsible party verifying the applicant's experience;
 - (10) Has not been adjudicated as mentally defective; and
 - (11) Is a citizen of the United States and does not advocate or knowingly belong to any organization or group that advocates violent action against any federal, state, or local government, or against any person.
5. Any individual holding a blaster's license under the provisions of this section shall promptly notify the division of fire safety if he or she has had any change of material fact relating to these qualifications of holding a blaster's license.
6. If the division of fire safety finds that the requirements for a blaster's license have been satisfied, such a license shall be issued to the applicant.
7. A blaster's license shall expire three years from the date of issuance. To qualify for a renewal of a blaster's license, an individual will be required to provide documentation of completing eight hours of training in an explosives-related course of instruction that is approved by the division of fire safety, half of which shall have been completed within the year prior to renewal. The remainder of such training for renewal of the license may be acquired at any time during the three-year period that a license is valid. Additional training beyond an accumulated eight hours during any three-year period is not valid for more than one subsequent renewal of the license.
8. Each license issued under the provision of this section shall provide documentation to the license holder in the form of a letter or letter-sized certificate and a card that is approximately two inches by three inches in size. Each shall specify a unique license number, the name of the individual, his or her driver's license number, the individual's photograph, the blaster's license's effective date and its expiration date, and any other record-keeping information needed by the division of fire safety. In addition, the card form of the license shall contain a photographic image of the license holder.
9. Each individual required to have a blaster's license shall provide documentation that he or she has a currently valid license to a representative of the division of fire safety within two business days of a written or verbal request. No enforcement action shall be taken against any individual that cannot comply with such as request so long as the division of fire safety's records provide documentation that the individual has a valid blaster's license.
10. (1) A blaster's license issued under the provisions of this section may be suspended or revoked, or in lieu thereof, a civil penalty assessed, upon substantial proof that the individual holding the license has:
 - (a) Knowingly failed to monitor the use of explosives as provided in section 319.309;
 - (b) Negligently or habitually exceeded the limits established under section 319.312;
 - (c) Knowingly or habitually failed to create a record of blasts as required by section 319.315;
 - (d) Had a change in material fact relating to their qualifications for holding a blaster's license as described in subsection 4 of this section;
 - (e) Failed to advise the division of fire safety of any change of material fact relating to his or her qualification of holding a blaster's license; or
 - (f) Knowingly made a material misrepresentation of any information by any means of false pretense, deception, fraud, misrepresentation, or cheating for the purpose of obtaining training or otherwise meeting the qualifications of obtaining a license.
- (2) The division of fire safety shall provide any notice of suspension or revocation, as provided in subdivision (1) of this subsection, in writing, sent by certified mail to the last known address of the holder of the license. The notice may also be verbal, but this does not eliminate the requirement for written notice. Upon receipt of a verbal or written notice of suspension or revocation from the division of fire safety, the person holding the license shall immediately surrender all copies of the license to a representative of the division of fire safety and shall immediately cease all blasting activity.

(3) The person holding the license may appeal any suspension or revocation or fine to the state blasting safety board established under section 319.324 within forty-five days of the date written notice was received. The division of fire safety shall immediately notify the chairman of the board that an appeal has been received and an informal hearing shall be held. The board shall consider and make a decision on any appeal received by the division of fire safety within thirty days of the date the appeal is received by the division of fire safety. The board shall make a decision on the appeal by majority vote of the board and shall immediately notify the licensee of its decision in writing. The written statement of the board's decision shall be prepared by the division of fire safety or its designee and shall be approved by the chairman of the board. The approved statement of the board's decision shall be sent by certified mail to the last known address of the holder of the license.

11. Any person whose license has been expired for a period of three years or less shall be required to successfully pass the examination as provided in subdivisions (1) to (5) of subsection 15 of this section and attend the eight hours of training required for renewal of a license as minimum qualifications for submitting an application for reinstatement of the license. Any person whose license has been expired for a period of more than three years shall meet the qualifications set forth in subsection 4 of this section, including completing twenty hours of training and passing the examination, prior to applying for a blaster's license.

12. License reciprocity may be granted to applicants that within the last three years have held a valid license or certification from any other source if all of the qualifications for obtaining the license or certification meets or exceeds the provisions of this section. Licenses or certifications held prior to the effective date of the rule required by subsection 19 of this section shall be deemed to meet requirements for reciprocity, provided they meet the requirements of the rule. It is the duty of the division of fire safety to investigate the qualifications required for obtaining a license or certification that is listed on a completed application on which the applicant is attempting to obtain a license issued by the division of fire safety.

13. License reciprocity may also be granted upon the application of a person employed as a blaster on or before December 31, 1995, and who has accumulated one thousand hours of experience working for a specific person using explosives within two years immediately prior to applying for reciprocity. The application shall include a statement of hours of experience in the form of an affidavit signed by the person using explosives who has employed or contracted with the blaster for the preceding two years. Such applicant for reciprocity shall also meet the requirements of subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (10), and (11) of subsection 4 of this section. Any person granted a license under this subsection shall be limited to blasting performed for the person submitting the affidavit required by this subsection. Such blaster granted reciprocity shall meet the requirements for continuing training required by subsection 7 of this section.

14. (1) The division of fire safety or its authorized agent shall offer at least two courses of instruction annually that fulfills the training requirement of qualifying for a blaster's license and renewal of a blaster's license. In addition, any person may apply to the division of fire safety for approval of a course of instruction that meets the training requirement of obtaining a blaster's license or renewal of a blaster's license. The application shall include a description of the qualifications of the instructor, a description of instructional materials to be used in the course, and an outline of the subject matter to be taught, including minimum hours of instruction on each topic. The division of fire safety shall review the application regarding the knowledge and experience of proposed instructors, the total hours of training and the adequacy of proposed training in subject matter with regard to the provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339. If the division of fire safety determines that training proposed by the applicant is adequate, a letter of approval shall be issued to the applicant. The letter of approval shall be effective for a period of three years. If at any time the division of fire safety determines that an approved training course no longer meets the standards of this section, the letter of approval may be revoked with written notice. The division of fire safety or any person providing a course of instruction may charge an appropriate fee to recover the cost of conducting such instruction.

(2) To be approved by the division of fire safety, a blaster's training course shall contain at least twenty hours of instruction to prepare attendees for obtaining a blaster's license the first time, or eight hours of instruction to prepare attendees for obtaining a license renewal.

(3) Any person providing training in a course of instruction approved by the division of fire safety shall submit a list of individuals that attended any such course to the division of fire safety within ten working days after completion of the course.

(4) The division of fire safety shall maintain a current list of persons who provide approved training and shall make this list available by any reasonable means to professional and trade associations, labor organizations, universities, vocational schools, and others upon request.

15. (1) The division of fire safety shall approve a standard examination or examinations for the purpose of qualifying an individual to obtain a blaster's license. Each individual taking the examination shall pay a fee to the division of fire safety, or the division's agent, that is established by regulation. Testing fees shall not exceed fifty dollars per test, and shall be no greater than what is required to administer the testing provisions of this section.

(2) Except as provided in subsection 11 of this section, no individual shall be allowed to take an examination for purposes of obtaining a blaster's license unless that individual has completed a training course approved by the division of fire safety. The individual must have completed an approved course of instruction as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 14 of this section no longer than two years prior to taking the examination. The examination may be administered by any person approved to provide a course of instruction, as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 14 of this section, at the site of instruction, provided that any such examination may at the discretion of the fire marshal be conducted under the supervision of the state fire marshal or his or her designee. The division of fire safety may also administer such examinations at other times and locations.

(3) Standards for passing the examination shall be set by the division of fire safety by rule.

(4) The division of fire safety or its authorized agent shall provide a written statement within thirty days to the individual taking the examination as to whether that individual passed or failed.

(5) Any individual failing to pass the examination may retake the examination within six months without having to complete an additional approved course of instruction. If the individual fails the second examination, the person must complete another course of instruction as required in subdivision (1) of subsection 14 of this section before taking the examination again. No limit will be placed on how many times any individual may take the examination, subject to the provisions of this subdivision of this subsection.

(6) Individuals having previously taken an approved course, and passed an approved examination, and having taken an approved refresher training course, or that have obtained a blaster's license as provided in subsections 12 and 13 of this section are eligible for renewal of a blaster's license after meeting the requirements of subsection 7 of this section. The fee for renewal of a license shall be the same as the fee specified in subsection 3 of this section.

16. No individual shall load or fire explosives or direct, order, or otherwise cause any individual to load or fire explosives in this state unless that individual has a valid blaster's license or is under the direct supervision and responsibility of an individual having a valid blaster's license. An individual without a blaster's license that is loading or firing explosives while under the direct supervision and responsibility of an individual holding a blaster's license shall not be in violation of sections 319.300 to 319.339.

17. Persons found guilty of loading or firing explosives, or directing, ordering, or otherwise causing any individual to load or fire explosives in this state without having a valid blaster's license, or that loads and fires explosives without being under the direct supervision and responsibility of an individual holding a blaster's license as provided in sections 319.300 to 319.339, shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor for the first offense or a class A misdemeanor for the second offense. Any individual convicted of a class A misdemeanor under the provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall be permanently prohibited from obtaining a blaster's license in this state.

18. The requirement for obtaining a blaster's license shall not apply to:

(1) Individuals employed by universities, colleges, or trade schools when the use of explosives is confined to instruction or research;

(2) Individuals using explosives materials in the forms prescribed by the official U.S. Pharmacopoeia or the National Formulary and used in medicines and medicinal agents;

(3) Individuals conducting training or emergency operations of any federal, state, or local government including all departments, agencies, and divisions thereof, provided they are acting in their official capacity and in the proper performance of their duties or functions;

(4) Individuals using explosives that are members of the armed forces or any military unit of Missouri or the United States who are using explosives while on official training exercises or who are on active duty;

(5) Individuals using pyrotechnics, commonly known as fireworks, including signaling devices such as flares, fuses, and torpedoes;

(6) Individuals using small arms ammunition and components thereof which are subject to the Gun Control Act of 1968, Title 18, Chapter 44 U.S.C., and regulations promulgated thereunder;

(7) Any individual performing duties in underground mines regulated by 30 CFR Part 48, Subpart A and 30 CFR Part 57; or performing duties in coal mining regulated by 30 CFR Part 76, and 30 CFR Part 77 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended; or using explosives within an industrial furnace;

(8) Any individual having a valid blaster's license or certificate issued under the provisions of any requirement of the U.S. government in which the requirements for obtaining the license or certificate meet or exceed the requirements of sections 319.300 to 319.339;

(9) Individuals using agricultural fertilizers when used for agricultural or horticultural purposes;

(10) Individuals handling explosives while in the act of transporting them from one location to another;

(11) Individuals assisting or training under the direct supervision of a licensed blaster;

(12) Individuals handling explosives while engaged in the process of explosives manufacturing;

(13) Employees, agents, or contractors of rural electric cooperatives organized or operating under chapter 394, RSMo;

(14) Individuals discharging historic firearms and cannon or reproductions of historic firearms and cannon.

19. The division of fire safety shall promulgate rules under this section to become effective no later than July 1, 2007. Any individual loading or firing explosives after the effective date of such rule shall obtain a license within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of such rule. Any experience or training prior to the effective date of such rule which meets the standards established by the rule shall be deemed to comply with this section.

319.309. 1. Any person using explosives in the state of Missouri shall calculate the scaled distance to the nearest uncontrolled structure. If more than one uncontrolled structure is the same approximate distance from the blast site, then the person using explosives may select one representative structure for calculation of scaled distance.

2. For the purposes of this section, the term uncontrolled structure shall not apply to the following:

(1) Buildings in a state of disrepair or neglect which are not being used as a permanent residence;

(2) Noncommercial storage sheds;

(3) Temporary structures;

(4) Any unoccupied mobile recreational vehicle, trailer, or camper;

(5) Agricultural barns, storage sheds, and animal shelters;

(6) Any building on mine property that is owned by the mine operator or contained on property leased by the mine operator.

3. In any instance when the scaled distance value is fifty-five or less, any person using explosives, except as provided in 319.321, shall use at least one seismograph to record the ground vibration and acoustic levels that occur from the use of such explosives or explosive materials. When measuring ground vibration and acoustic levels, the seismograph shall be placed in the proximity of the nearest uncontrolled structure or, at the option of the person using explosives, closer to the blast site. If more than one uncontrolled structure is the same approximate distance from the blast site, then the person using explosives may select one representative structure for placement of the seismograph.

4. Any person voluntarily using a calibrated seismograph for all blasting is exempt from the requirements of this section.

319.312. 1. (1) Any person using explosives in the state of Missouri in which monitoring with a seismograph is required, as provided in section 319.309, shall comply with ground vibration limits based on the U.S. Bureau of Mines Report of Investigations 8507, Appendix B.

(2) In lieu of the ground vibration limit established in subdivision (1) of this subsection, the person using explosives may submit a written request to the division of fire safety to use an alternate compliance method. Such written request must be supported by sufficient technical information, which may include but not limited to, documented approval of such method by other federal, state, or local political subdivisions which regulates the use of explosives. Upon submittal by the person using explosives of a request to use an alternate compliance method, the state blasting safety board shall issue a written determination as to whether the technical information submitted provides sufficient justification for the alternate method to be used as a method of demonstrating compliance with the provisions of this section.

2. Any person using explosives in the state of Missouri in which monitoring with a seismograph is required, as provided in section 319.309, shall limit acoustic values from blasting to one hundred thirty-three decibels using a two hertz flat response measuring system based on the Office of Surface Mining regulation 816.67(b)(1)(I).

319.315. 1. Seismograph recordings of the ground vibration and acoustic levels created by the use of explosives, when required by section 319.309, shall be retained for at least three years. Such recordings shall be made available to the division of fire safety within twenty-four hours of a request by any representative of the division of fire safety. Each seismograph recording and the accompanying records shall include the:

- (1) Maximum ground vibration and acoustics levels recorded;
- (2) Specific location of the seismograph equipment, its distance from the detonation of the explosives, the date of the recording, and the time of the recording;
- (3) Name of the individual responsible for operation of the seismograph equipment and performing an analysis of each recording;
- (4) Type of seismograph instrument, its sensitivity and calibration signal or certification date of the last calibration.

2. When seismograph recordings of the use of explosives are required by section 319.309, a record of each such use of explosives shall be made and retained for at least three years. The record shall be completed by the end of the work day following the day in which the explosives were detonated. Such records shall be made available to the division of fire safety, upon request, within twenty-four hours of the request. Each record shall include the:

- (1) Name of the person using the explosives;
- (2) Location, date, and time of the detonation;
- (3) Name of the licensed blaster responsible for use of the explosives;
- (4) Type of material blasted;
- (5) Number of bore holes, burden, and spacing;
- (6) Diameter and depth of bore holes;
- (7) Type of explosives used;
- (8) Weight of explosives used per bore hole and total weight of explosives used;
- (9) Maximum weight of explosives detonated with any eight millisecond period;
- (10) Maximum number of bore holes or decks detonated within any eight millisecond period;
- (11) Initiation system, including number of circuits and the timer interval, if a sequential timer is used;
- (12) Type and length of stemming;
- (13) Type of detonator and delay periods used, in milliseconds;
- (14) Sketch of delay pattern, including decking;
- (15) Distance and scaled distance, if required under the provisions of 319.309, to the nearest uncontrolled structure;
- (16) Location of the nearest uncontrolled structure, using the best available information.

3. It shall be the duty of each licensed blaster and each person using explosives to assure that the requirements of this section are met. Any person using explosives shall provide properly calibrated seismographic equipment at the closest practical proximity to the nearest uncontrolled structure, or at the option of the person using explosives the seismograph equipment may be located nearer to the blast site on an approximate line between the nearest uncontrolled structure and the blast site. Licensed blasters shall create the record required in subsection 2 of this section and provide such record to the person using explosives, who shall be responsible for maintaining records required in this section.

319.318. 1. Any person using explosives shall comply with the provisions of this section.

2. Provisions of federal law and regulation regarding the manufacturing, transportation, distribution, and storage of explosives shall be enforced by the appropriate federal agency and shall not be subject to enforcement under sections 319.300 to 319.339.

3. Within sixty days after the effective date of sections 319.300 to 319.339, each person using explosives or intending to use explosives in Missouri shall register with the state fire marshal. Any person not required to register on the effective date, who subsequently uses explosives in Missouri, shall register with the state fire marshal prior to first using explosives in Missouri. The initial registration shall state the name of the person, address, telephone number, facsimile number, e-mail address, and name of the principal individual having responsibility for supervision of the use of explosives. A fee of one hundred dollars shall be submitted with the initial registration.

4. Each person using explosives that is required to register under subsection 3 of this section shall by January 31 of each year after registering, file an annual report with the state fire marshal for the preceding calendar year.

(1) The annual report shall state any material change or addition to the information stated in the report required by subsection 3 of this section.

(2) The initial annual report shall only include that portion of the preceding calendar year after the date the person became subject to the requirement to register under subsection 3 of this section.

(3) The report shall include:

(a) The name and address of the explosives distributors from which explosives were purchased;

(b) The total number of pounds of explosives purchased during the period required to be covered by the report. For persons who purchase explosives for use in multiple states, the report need only state the total number of pounds which were delivered for use in Missouri. Persons required to annually report shall maintain records sufficient to prove the accuracy of the information reported.

(4) The person shall submit with the annual report a fee per ton, as established under this section, based on the amount of explosives reported. If the report of total pounds purchased results in a portion of a ton, the cumulative total of the fee shall be rounded to the nearest ton. The minimum total fee submitted by any person required to annually report shall be five hundred dollars. In addition to the minimum fee, any person using explosives during any year shall pay a fee of one dollar and fifteen cents on each ton of explosives used. The fee authorized under this subdivision may be adjusted by rule provided the fee shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents per ton. The state blasting safety board shall review the fee schedule on a biennial basis and make recommendations for adjustments.

5. (1) The state fire marshal may audit the records of any person required to annually report under subsection 4 of this section to determine the accuracy of the number of pounds of explosives reported. In connection with such audit, the state fire marshal may also require any distributor of explosives to provide a statement of sales during the year to persons required to report under subsection 4 of this section.

(2) It shall be a violation of sections 319.300 to 319.319 to fail to register as required by subsection 3 of this section or to knowingly report false information in the reports required under subsections 3 and 4 of this section. The state fire marshal may issue a notice of violation for reporting false information. The notice of violation shall be subject to the same procedures and rights of appeal as established in sections 319.324, 319.327, and 319.333. Upon conviction for knowingly filing a false report, the person shall be subject to a penalty as a class B misdemeanor. Conviction upon a second or subsequent offense shall be subject to penalty as a class A misdemeanor.

6. It shall also be a violation of sections 319.300 to 319.339 for any person using explosives to:

(1) Engage in blasting other than by a licensed blaster or an individual working under the direct supervision of a licensed blaster;

(2) Fail to calculate the scaled distance, conduct monitoring of vibration and noise levels, and conduct record keeping as required by sections 319.300 to 319.339.

(3) Fail to carry a minimum of one million dollars in commercial general liability insurance.

7. Upon a conviction or guilty plea to violation of subsection 6 of this section, the person shall be subject to a penalty as a class B misdemeanor upon the first offense, and upon a second or subsequent offense, the person shall be subject to a penalty as a class A misdemeanor as provided in subsection 1 of section 560.021, RSMo.

319.321. Sections 319.309, 319.312, 319.315, and 319.318 shall not apply to:

(1) Universities, colleges, or trade schools when confined to the purpose of instruction or research;

(2) The use of explosive materials in the forms prescribed by the official U.S. Pharmacopoeia or the National Formulary and used in medicines and medicinal agents;

(3) The training or emergency operations of any federal, state, or local government including all departments, agencies, and divisions thereof, provided they are acting in their official capacity and in the proper performance of their duties or functions;

(4) The use of explosives by the military or any agency of the United States;

(5) The use of pyrotechnics, commonly known as fireworks, including signaling devices such as flares, fuses, and torpedoes;

(6) The use of small arms ammunition and components thereof which are subject to the Gun Control Act of 1968, Title 18, Chapter 44, U.S.C., and regulations promulgated thereunder. Any small arms ammunition and components thereof exempted by the Gun Control Act of 1968 and regulations promulgated thereunder are also exempted from the provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339;

(7) Any individual performing duties in underground mines regulated by 30 CFR Part 48, Subpart A and 30 CFR Part 57; or performing duties in coal mining regulated by 30 CFR Part 76 and 30 CFR Part 77 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended; or using explosives within an industrial furnace;

(8) The use of agricultural fertilizers when used for agricultural or horticultural purposes;

(9) The use of explosives for demolition of structures;

(10) The use of explosives by employees, agents, or contractors of rural electric cooperatives organized or operating under chapter 394, RSMo;

(11) Individuals discharging historic firearms and cannon or reproductions of historic firearms and cannon.

319.324. 1. A state blasting safety board is hereby created and assigned to the division of fire safety under the state fire marshal. There shall be seven members of this board, as appointed by the governor, to be comprised of:

(1) One representative of a municipality who serves in the capacity of director of public works or a similar position;

(2) One representative of a person using explosives that is engaged in surface mining which is subject to the requirements of sections 319.300 to 319.339;

(3) One representative of a person using explosives that is engaged in construction;

(4) One representative of a person that is in the business of providing contract blast monitoring services;

(5) Two representatives of persons that manufacture or distribute explosives; and

(6) The state fire marshal or his or her designee.

2. Each board member shall serve for a term of six years, except for the members initially appointed one term shall be for one year, one term shall be for two years, one term shall be for three years, one term shall be for four years, one term shall be for five years, and one term shall be for six years. Members appointed and serving shall serve until their successor is named and shall be eligible for reappointment. The state fire marshal or his or her designee shall be a standing member of the board and shall have the power to vote.

3. Members of the board shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed by the division of fire safety for reasonable and necessary expenses. Meetings of the board shall be held in facilities arranged for by the division of fire safety. Hearings under the duties of the board may be held at a location in Missouri agreed upon by the state fire marshal and the chairman of the board. Upon agreement by the appellant, the state fire marshal, and the chairman of the state blasting safety board, hearings may be conducted by conference call.

4. The board shall annually by January 31 elect a chairman from one of the persons other than the state fire marshal or his or her designee. The chairman shall be elected by majority vote of the board and shall preside over all meetings and hearings and perform any specific duties set out in sections 319.300 to 319.339.

5. The state fire marshal or his or her designee shall perform the duties of secretary of the board.

6. The board shall meet as needed at the call of the chairman or upon written notice by the state fire marshal. The board shall meet at least once each calendar year.

7. It shall be the duty of the board to:

(1) Advise the state fire marshal in the development of application and registration forms, training and examinations, and setting fees for the filing of required applications, registrations, and reports;

(2) Approve or disapprove any examination for licensing of blasters;

(3) Hold hearings and make decisions by majority vote upon appeals under section 319.306 and upon notices of violation under section 319.333;

(4) Approve or disapprove any rule proposed by the division of fire safety for administration or enforcement of sections 319.300 to 319.339;

(5) Advise or assist the division of fire safety in any other matter regarding administration or enforcement, within the scope and requirements of section 319.300 to 319.339.

8. For any matter upon which a hearing is held under subdivision (3) of subsection 7 of this section, any referral of a notice of violation or request for criminal or civil enforcement action or injunctive relief shall be made by the state fire marshal to the attorney general or a prosecuting or circuit attorney, only upon a positive majority vote by the board.

319.327. It shall be the duty of the division of fire safety to:

(1) Develop and distribute all forms, certificates, and printed material necessary for carrying out duties relating to applications, registrations, training, testing, and licensing required by sections 319.300 to 319.339.

(2) Publish, distribute, and administer an examination that tests the knowledge of applicants for a blaster's license in the safe and proper use of explosives. The examination may be given to applicants by representatives of the division of fire safety, persons approved by division of fire safety to provide training under section 319.306, or by other persons designated by the division of fire safety.

(3) Upon approval by majority vote of the state blasting safety board, promulgate any rule necessary for carrying out the purposes of sections 319.300 to 319.339. No rule promulgated by the state fire marshal shall duplicate, amend, supersede, or conflict with the provisions of any statute, regulation, or policy established by:

(a) The U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives;

(b) 18 U.S.C., Chapter 40, Importation, Manufacturing, Distribution and Storage of Explosive Materials;

(c) The U.S. Department of Transportation;

(d) The federal Mine Safety and Health Administration;

(e) The federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration;

(4) Investigate possible violations of sections 319.300 to 319.339 upon the complaint of any citizen that believes explosives are being used in such a way to endanger the public's safety or property, or upon any cause for the state fire marshal to believe that a violation is occurring. To conduct such investigations, the state fire marshal shall assign adequately trained personnel within the division of fire safety to inspect blasting sites, examine records and seismograph recordings, inspect blaster's licenses, inspect registration and reporting records required by section 319.315, or determine if any other provision of sections 319.300 to 319.339 has been violated. Such inspectors shall be employees of the division of fire safety and may act on a full-time or part-time basis. Any such inspector shall meet the requirements of section 319.306 for being licensed as a blaster in the state of Missouri.

(5) The division of fire safety may enforce any provision of sections 319.300 to 319.339 by referral of violations to the attorney general or a prosecuting or circuit attorney and may seek criminal penalties and may seek injunctive relief. For any matter upon which a hearing is held under subdivision (3) of subsection 7 of section 319.324, any referral of a notice of violation or a request for criminal or civil enforcement action or injunctive relief shall be made by the state fire marshal to the attorney general or a prosecuting or circuit attorney, only upon a positive majority vote by the board.

(6) Receive and provide information and assistance, in cooperation with local governments, federal agencies, and agencies of other states, in administration and enforcement of sections 319.300 to 319.339 and similar laws, regulations, and requirements in other jurisdictions.

319.330. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Missouri Explosives Safety Act Administration Fund", which shall consist of all fees collected under sections 319.300 to 319.339, appropriations of the general assembly, federal grants, and private donations. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. In accordance with sections 30.170 and 30.180, RSMo, the state treasurer may approve disbursements. Upon appropriation, money in the fund shall be used solely for the administration of sections 319.300 to 319.339. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund. The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. The state fire marshal shall submit a report to the state blasting safety board and the public each year that describes the revenue created by fees established under the provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339 and how the revenue was expended to enforce the provisions of sections 319.300 to 319.339, including the number of employees used and activities performed.

319.333. Any person the state fire marshal or his or her representative determines, upon substantial evidence, to be in violation of sections 319.300 to 319.339 may be issued a notice of violation by the division of fire safety. Any hearings regarding suspension or revocation of a blaster's license shall be conducted under the provisions of subsection 10 of section 319.306, rather than the provisions of this section. The notice of violation shall be in writing and shall state the section or sections violated and the circumstance of the violation, including date, place, person involved, and the act or omission constituting the violation. The notice shall also inform the person receiving the notice of the right to request a hearing before the state blasting safety board. The recipient may request a hearing within forty-five days of the date the notice was received. If a hearing is requested, the state fire marshal shall immediately inform the chairman of the board. The person receiving the notice, the state fire marshal, and the chairman of the board shall establish a mutually acceptable date and place for the hearing, which in no case shall be more than thirty days after the hearing was requested. The hearing shall be conducted as an uncontested case, although the person or the state fire marshal may be represented by an attorney. Within fifteen days of such hearing, the board shall notify the appellant of its decision on the appeal, which may include upholding, modifying, or disapproving the notice of violation. The board's action upon the appeal shall be decided by majority vote. If the notice of violation is upheld by the board, in whole or part, upon a separate majority vote of the board, the person may be referred for enforcement action as provided in section 319.327.

319.336. Any person aggrieved by any official action of the state blasting safety board affecting their licensed status, including revocation, suspension, failure to renew, or refusal to grant a license may seek a determination thereon by the administrative hearing commission under the provisions of section 621.045, RSMo.

319.338. 1. Any person using explosives within Missouri shall notify the division of fire safety in writing or by telephone at least two business days in advance of first using explosives at a site where blasting has not previously been conducted at that location. If blasting will be conducted at an ongoing project, such as a long term construction project, or at a permanent site, such as a surface mine, the person shall only be required to make one notice to the division of fire safety in advance of the first use of explosives.

2. The notice required by this section shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the person using explosives, the name of the individual responsible for supervision of blasting, the date or approximate period over which blasting will be conducted, the location of blasting by street address, route, or other description, and the nature of the project or reason for blasting.

3. This section shall not apply to any blasting required by a contract with any agency of the state of Missouri, any federal agency, or any political subdivision.

319.339. 1. Any person using explosives which will conduct blasting within the jurisdiction of a municipality shall notify the appropriate representative of the municipality in writing or by telephone at least two business days in advance of blasting at that location. An appropriate representative shall be deemed to be the city's public works department, code enforcement official or an official at the main office maintained by the city. In any area where blasting will be conducted, whether in a municipality or in an unincorporated area, the person using explosives shall also notify the appropriate fire protection official for the jurisdiction where blasting will occur, which may be a city fire department, fire protection district, or volunteer fire protection association. The notice required by this section shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the person using explosives, the name of the individual responsible for supervision of blasting, the date or approximate period over which blasting will be conducted, the location of blasting by street address, route, or other description, and the nature of the project or reason for blasting. If blasting will be conducted at an ongoing project, such as a long term construction project, or at a permanent site, such as a surface mine, the person shall only be required to make one notice to the municipality or appropriate fire protection official in advance of the first use of explosives. Any such ongoing projects or permanent sites in existence at the time of the effective date of sections 319.300 to 319.339 shall not be required to provide notice as described in this subsection.

2. Any person using explosives which will conduct blasting within the jurisdiction of a municipality shall notify the owner or occupant of any residence or business located within a scaled distance of fifty-five from the site of blasting prior to the start of blasting at any new location. One notification by mail, telephone, or by printed notification posted prominently on the premises or property, or delivered in person to any such owner or occupant meets the requirements of this subsection. A municipality may provide the name, last known address, and telephone number of the owners or occupants of any residence or business that may be located within the scaled distance of fifty-five from the site of blasting to the person using explosives upon request.

3. Any municipality or county may by ordinance:

(1) Require that a permit be obtained in addition to the notice required by subsection 1 of this section, with such application for permit being due no more than ten days prior to the first use of explosives;

(2) Require that the application for the permit contain specific information about the type of explosives to be used and their storage location at the site where used;

(3) Require the applicant to demonstrate an acceptable plan for signage or other means of informing the public of blasting in proximity to public streets or highways and any request for temporary closing of streets or routing of traffic;

(4) Specify the times of day blasting may be conducted, which shall not be less than eight consecutive hours, and provide that blasting may not be conducted on Sunday except upon application of the person using explosives and approval by the municipality;

(5) Require the applicant to submit proof that the person using explosives is registered with the division of fire safety and that blasting will be conducted by blasters licensed by the state of Missouri, division of fire safety;

(6) Require that the applicant submit proof of commercial general liability insurance in an acceptable amount, which shall not be less than one million dollars and no more than five million dollars;

(7) Require that the applicant conduct a preblast survey of any uncontrolled structures within a scaled distance of fifty-five from the blast site.

4. A permit for blasting under a municipal ordinance authorized by subsection 3 of this section shall be granted by the municipality upon satisfying the requirements of the ordinance and upon the applicant's payment of a reasonable fee to cover the administration of the permit system.

5. Any authorized representative of a municipality or an appropriate fire protection official may:

(1) Require any person using explosives to show proof that he or she is registered with the division of fire safety and blasting is being conducted by an individual that is licensed under the provisions of section 319.306;

(2) Request and be allowed access to the site of blasting by the person using explosives and shall be allowed to observe blasting from a safe location designated by the blaster;

(3) Examine records of blasting required to be maintained by sections 319.300 and 319.315. However, no municipality or fire protection official shall require a person using explosives or a blaster to surrender such records or a copy of such records to the municipality or fire protection official;

(4) Report suspected violations of sections 319.300 to 319.339 to the division of fire safety.

6. Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this section shall not apply to any blasting required by a construction contract with any agency of the state of Missouri, any federal agency, or any political subdivision.

7. The state of Missouri hereby preempts existing regulation, licensing, and inspection of persons using explosives, blasters, and blasting by local governments or other political subdivisions, except as authorized in this section. It shall be unlawful for any local government or other political subdivision to impose any future ordinance, order, permit or regulation upon persons using explosives or blasters which duplicates, exceeds or conflicts with the requirements of sections 319.300 to 319.339. Nothing in this section shall preempt the rights and remedies afforded by the general assembly or common law to persons damaged by blasting.;" and

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1660 & 1269, Page 34, Section 334.103, Line 19, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"334.104. 1. A physician may enter into collaborative practice arrangements with registered professional nurses. Collaborative practice arrangements shall be in the form of written agreements, jointly agreed-upon protocols, or standing orders for the delivery of health care services. Collaborative practice arrangements, which shall be in writing, may delegate to a registered professional nurse the authority to administer or dispense drugs and provide treatment as long as the delivery of such health care services is within the scope of practice of the registered professional nurse and is consistent with that nurse's skill, training and competence.

2. Collaborative practice arrangements, which shall be in writing, may delegate to a registered professional nurse the authority to administer, dispense or prescribe drugs and provide treatment if the registered professional nurse is an advanced practice nurse as defined in subdivision (2) of section 335.016, RSMo. Such collaborative practice arrangements shall be in the form of written agreements, jointly agreed-upon protocols or standing orders for the delivery of health care services.

3. The state board of registration for the healing arts pursuant to section 334.125 and the board of nursing pursuant to section 335.036, RSMo, may jointly promulgate rules regulating the use of collaborative practice arrangements. Such rules shall be limited to specifying geographic areas to be covered, the methods of treatment that may be covered by collaborative practice arrangements and the requirements for review of services provided pursuant to collaborative practice arrangements. Any rules relating to dispensing or distribution of medications or devices by prescription or prescription drug orders under this section shall be subject to the approval of the state board of pharmacy. In order to take effect, such rules shall be approved by a majority vote of a quorum of each board. Neither the state board of registration for the healing arts nor the board of nursing may separately promulgate rules relating to collaborative practice arrangements. Such jointly promulgated rules shall be consistent with guidelines for federally funded clinics. The rulemaking authority granted in this subsection shall not extend to collaborative practice arrangements of hospital employees providing inpatient care within hospitals as defined pursuant to chapter 197, RSMo.

4. The state board of registration for the healing arts shall not deny, revoke, suspend or otherwise take disciplinary action against a physician for health care services delegated to a registered professional nurse provided the provisions of this section and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied. Upon the written request of a physician subject to a disciplinary action imposed as a result of an agreement between a physician and a registered professional nurse or registered physician assistant, whether written or not, prior to August 28, 1993, all records of such disciplinary licensure action and all records pertaining to the filing, investigation or review of an alleged violation of this chapter incurred as a result of such an agreement shall be removed from the records of the state board of registration for the healing arts and the division of professional registration and shall not be disclosed to any public or private entity seeking such information from the board or the division. The state board of registration for the healing arts shall take action to correct reports of alleged violations and disciplinary actions as described in this section which have been submitted to the National Practitioner Data Bank. In subsequent applications or representations relating to his medical practice, a physician completing forms or documents shall not be required to report any actions of the state board of registration for the healing arts for which the records are subject to removal under this section.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, a registered nurse who has graduated from a school of nurse anesthesia accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Educational Programs of Nurse Anesthesia or its predecessor and has been certified or is eligible for certification as a nurse anesthetist by the Council on Certification of Nurse Anesthetists shall be permitted to provide anesthesia services without a collaborative practice arrangement provided that he or she is under the supervision of an anesthesiologist or other physician, dentist, or podiatrist who is immediately available if needed.

6. No physician shall enter into a collaborative practice arrangement with an advanced practice nurse who employs a collaborating physician."; and

House Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1660 & 1269, Page 4, Section 167.195, by deleting all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"167.195. 1. Beginning July 1, 2007, every child enrolling in kindergarten or first grade in a public elementary school in this state shall receive one comprehensive vision examination performed by a state licensed optometrist, ophthalmologist, physician, or doctor of osteopathy. The examination, or a copy of a prior examination if the child has previously received a vision examination under this section, shall be submitted to the school no later than January 1 of the first year in which the student is enrolled at the school.

2. The state board of education, in conjunction with the department of health and senior services, shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria for meeting the requirements of subsection 1 of this section, which may include, but are not limited to, forms or other proof of such examination, or other rules as are necessary for the enforcement of this section. The form or other proof of such examination shall include but not be limited to identifying the result of the examinations performed under subsection of 4 of this section, the cost for the examination, the examiner's qualifications, and method of payment through either:

- (1) Insurance;
- (2) The state Medicaid program;
- (3) Personal injury;
- (4) Complimentary; or
- (5) Other form of payment.

3. The department of elementary and secondary education, in conjunction with the department of health and senior services, shall compile and maintain a list of sources to which children who may need vision examinations or children who have been found to need further examination or vision correction may be referred for treatment on a free or reduced cost basis. The sources may include individuals, and federal, state, local government, and private programs. The department of elementary and secondary education shall ensure that the superintendent of schools, the principal of each elementary school, the school nurse or other person responsible for school health services, and the parent organization for each district elementary school receives an updated copy of the list each year prior to school opening. Professional and service organizations concerned with vision health may assist in gathering and disseminating the information, at the direction of the department of elementary and secondary education.

4. For purposes of this section, the following comprehensive vision examinations shall be performed:

- (1) Complete case history;
- (2) Visual acuity at distance:
 - (a) Unaided (mono plus binocular);
 - (b) Last prescription or habitual prescription (mono plus binocular);
- (3) External examination, including pupil reactivity;
- (4) Internal examination (ophthalmoscopic examination);
- (5) Retinoscopy;
- (6) Refractive status:
 - (a) Subjective refraction to best visual acuity at distance;
 - (b) Subjective refraction at near;
- (7) Measurement of binocularity, including vergences, phoric, and accommodative ability;
- (8) Color vision screening;
- (9) Glaucoma screening, including tonometry.

5. Findings from the examination shall be kept by the optometrist, ophthalmologist, physician, or doctor of osteopathy for a period of six years.

6. For purposes of this section, the office of any optometrist, ophthalmologist, physician, or doctor of osteopathy conducting a comprehensive vision examination shall contain, in good working condition, the following minimum equipment:

- (1) Ophthalmoscope;
- (2) Retinoscope or its equivalent;
- (3) Tonometer;

- (4) Visual Field Testing Device;
- (5) Color Vision Testing Device;
- (6) Keratometer or its equivalent;
- (7) Biomicroscope;
- (8) Lenses for subjective testing;
- (9) Blood pressure measuring device.

7. In the event that a parent or legal guardian of a child subject to this section shall submit to the appropriate school administrator a written request that the child be excused from taking a vision examination as provided in this section on the grounds of religious beliefs, that child shall be so excused.

8. Pursuant to section 23.253, RSMo, of the Missouri sunset act:

- (1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset four years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly; and
- (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset eight years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and
- (3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

"192.935. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Blindness Education, Screening and Treatment Program Fund". The fund shall consist of moneys donated pursuant to subsection 7 of section 301.020, RSMo, and subsection 3 of section 302.171, RSMo. Unexpended balances in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not be transferred to the general revenue fund or any other fund, the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding.

2. Subject to the availability of funds in the blindness education, screening and treatment program fund, the department shall develop a blindness education, screening and treatment program to provide blindness prevention education and to provide screening and treatment for persons who do not have adequate coverage for such services under a health benefit plan.

3. The program shall provide for:

- (1) Public education about blindness and other eye conditions;
- (2) Screenings and eye examinations to identify conditions that may cause blindness; [and]
- (3) Treatment procedures necessary to prevent blindness;

(4) Any additional costs for vision examinations under section 167.195, RSMo, that are not covered by existing public health insurance. Subject to appropriations, moneys from the fund shall be used to pay for those additional costs, provided that the costs do not exceed ninety-nine thousand dollars per year. Payment from the fund for vision examinations under section 167.195, RSMo, shall not exceed the allowable state Medicaid reimbursement amount for vision examinations.

4. The department may contract for program development with any department-approved nonprofit organization dealing with regional and community blindness education, eye donor and vision treatment services.

5. The department may adopt rules to prescribe eligibility requirements for the program.

6. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Jerry Jones, General Secretary of the United Pentecostal Church International.

Our Father, we are grateful for the kindness You have shown us, the wonderful gifts of life You have given us, and the opportunities to use them for good that You have afforded us. We thank You for the privilege of living in the United States of America, and in our beautiful state of Missouri. For liberty and prosperity we are deeply grateful.

We ask Your blessing on those who lead our State: our Governor and those who serve with him in the executive branch, the members of this legislature, as well as those who serve in our judiciary. Grant all of them Your wisdom and Your guidance in these crucial times. Give them courage to do the right in all they attempt.

Father, bless the leader of our great country: the President and Vice-President of the United States, members of our Congress, and all who serve this nation. Especially we ask You to keep Your hand upon the men and women who serve in our armed forces. Grant them Your protection as they complete their mission and come safely home.

Give each of us a heart of compassion and concern for our neighbors. Teach us to genuinely care about one another. Help us lift someone's burden, share someone's pain, and rejoice in someone's happiness, and to do it all, every day, until all our days here are over.

Forgive us our shortcomings, empower us to rise above them by Your Holy Spirit, and inspire us in all things to follow You.

This all we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Michaela Whitt, Larry Jones, Rachel Bryan, Adam Bexten, Grant Haarmann, Stoney Jackson, Chelsea Faubion, Shawn Boyd, Summer Smith, Brittany Schonhorn, Scott Harris, Samantha Cwak, Tannor Kraus, Tylor Kraus, Katie Davis, Megan Vincent, Nick Schwetz, Daniel Schneier, Sara Ahlers, Stacey Hankins, Jessie Horseman, Alexis Hartenstein, Sam Sutton, Reece Frizzell, Timothy Imperiale, Lawrence Beck and Wyatt Hartenstein.

The Journal of the fifty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Page 2, Section 100.420, Line 15, by inserting after said line the following language:

“238.247. 1. The district may condemn lands for a project in the name of the state of Missouri, upon prior approval by the commission, or the local transportation authority and by ordinance of the local governing body as appropriate, as to the necessity for the taking of* the description of the parcel and the interest taken in that parcel.

2. If condemnation becomes necessary the district shall act under chapter 523, RSMo, and may condemn a fee simple or other interest in land.

3. The district may, after prior notice to the owner to enter upon private property, survey and determine the most advantageous route and design. The district shall be liable for all damages done to the property by such inspection.

4. Any person who involuntarily transfers any interest in land to a district which becomes insolvent and comes under the jurisdiction of a court may reacquire that property by paying to the district the total amount of the condemnation award for that parcel, plus statutory interest at the statutory rate from the date of taking on the amount of that award, if the project will not be completed by either the district, the commission or a local transportation authority.

5. Whenever a district undertakes any project which results in the acquisition of real property or in any person or persons being displaced from their homes, businesses, or farms, the district shall provide relocation assistance and make relocation payments to such displaced person and do such other acts and follow such procedures as would be necessary to comply with the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended.”; and

“3. In any project where redevelopment rights are acquired through the use of the power of eminent domain only after making a determination of blight, and when such redevelopment rights have been granted to two or more entities having equal rights to the redevelopment, any entity having equal rights and actively redeveloping the property shall have a cause of action against another entity in the same project who has failed to actively redevelop the property;

4. Failure to actively redevelop property shall be defined as a failure to perform any significant demolition, construction or improvement on the property in any one year period. The mere acquisition of property shall not be construed as active redevelopment;

5. The remedy for failure to actively redevelop any property acquired through the use of the power of eminent domain only after making a determination of blight shall allow the actively redeveloping party to purchase the interests and property of the party who has failed to actively redevelop the property for the fair market value of such property.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Storch offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 10

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Section 523.205, Page 5, by deleting all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“523.205. 1. Any public agency as defined in section 523.200 which is required, as a condition to the receipt of federal funds, to give relocation assistance to any displaced person is hereby authorized and directed to give similar relocation assistance to displaced persons when the property involved is being acquired for the same public purpose through the same procedures, and is being purchased solely through expenditure of state or local funds.

2. The governing body of any city, or agency thereof, prior to approval of a plan, project or area for redevelopment under the operation of chapter 99, RSMo, chapter 100, RSMo, or chapter 353, RSMo, which proposes or includes within its provisions or necessitates displacement of persons, when such displacement is not subject to the provisions of the Federal Uniform Relocation and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (42 U.S.C. sections 4601 to 4655, as amended) or subsection 1 of this section, shall establish by ordinance or rule a relocation policy which shall include, but not be limited to, the provisions and requirements of subsections 2 to 15 of this section, or in lieu thereof, such relocation policy shall contain provisions and requirements which are equivalent to the requirements of the Federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (42 U.S.C. sections 4601 to 4655, as amended).

3. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Business", any lawful activity that is conducted:

(a) Primarily for the purchase, sale or use of personal or real property or for the manufacture, processing or marketing of products or commodities; or

(b) Primarily for the sale of services to the public;

(2) "Decent, safe and sanitary dwelling", a dwelling which meets applicable housing and occupancy codes.

The dwelling shall:

(a) Be structurally sound, weathertight and in good repair;

- (b) Contain a safe electrical wiring system;
- (c) Contain an adequate heating system;
- (d) Be adequate in size with respect to the number of rooms needed to accommodate the displaced person; and
- (e) For a handicapped person, be free of any barriers which would preclude reasonable ingress, egress or use of the dwelling;

(3) "Handicapped person", any person who is deaf, legally blind or orthopedically disabled to the extent that acquisition of another residence presents a greater burden than other persons would encounter or to the extent that modifications to the replacement residence would be necessary;

(4) "Initiation of negotiations", the delivery of the initial written offer of just compensation by the acquiring entity, to the owner of the real property, to purchase such real property for the project, or the notice to the person that he will be displaced by rehabilitation or demolition;

(5) "Person", any individual, family, partnership, corporation, or association who has a legal right to occupy the property, including but not limited to, month-to-month tenants.

4. Every urban redevelopment corporation acquiring property within a redevelopment area shall submit a relocation plan as part of the redevelopment plan.

5. Unless the property acquisition under the operation of chapter 99, RSMo, chapter 100, RSMo, or chapter 353, RSMo, is subject to federal relocation standards or subsection 1 of this section, the relocation plan shall provide for the following:

(1) Payments to all eligible displaced persons, as defined in section 523.200, who occupied the property to be acquired for not less than ninety days prior to the [initiation of negotiations] execution of the redevelopment agreement who are required to vacate the premises;

(2) A program for identifying special needs of displaced persons with specific consideration given to income, age, size of family, nature of business, availability of suitable replacement facilities and vacancy rates of affordable facilities;

(3) A program for providing proper and timely notice to all displaced persons whether or not they may be displaced, including a general description of their potential rights and benefits if they are displaced, their eligibility for relocation assistance, and the nature of that assistance. The notices required for compliance with this section are as follows:

(a) A general information notice that shall be issued at the approval and selection of a designated redeveloper and shall inform residential and nonresidential owners and occupants of a potential project, including the potential acquisition of the property;

(b) A notice of relocation eligibility that shall be issued as soon as feasible after the execution of the redevelopment agreement and shall inform residential and nonresidential occupants within the project area who will be displaced of their relocation assistance and nature of that assistance, including ninety days' advanced notice of the date the occupants must vacate;

(4) A program for referrals of displaced persons with provisions for a minimum of three decent, safe and sanitary housing referrals for residential persons or suitable referral sites for displaced businesses, a minimum of ninety days' notice of referral sites for [handicapped displaced persons and sixty days' notice of referral sites for] all [other] displaced persons prior to the date such displaced persons are required to vacate the premises, and arrangements for transportation to inspect referral sites; and

[(4)] (5) Every displaced person shall be given a ninety-day notice to vacate, prior to the date such displaced person is required to vacate the premises.

6. All displaced residential persons eligible for payments shall be provided with relocation payments based upon one of the following, at the option of the person:

(1) A [five-hundred-dollar] one-thousand-dollar fixed payment; or

(2) Actual reasonable costs of relocation including actual moving costs, utility deposits, key deposits, storage of personal property up to one month, utility transfer and connection fees and other initial rehousing deposits including first and last month's rent and security deposit.

7. All displaced businesses eligible for payments shall be provided with relocation payments based upon the following, at the option of the business:

(1) A [one-thousand-five-hundred-dollar] three-thousand-dollar fixed moving expense payment and up to an additional ten thousand dollars for reestablishment expenses; [or]

(2) Actual costs of moving including costs for packing, crating, disconnection, dismantling, reassembling and installing all personal equipment and costs for relettering similar signs and similar replacement stationery[.]; or

(3) A fixed payment of a minimum of one thousand dollars up to a maximum of twenty thousand dollars instead of moving expenses (including reestablishment expenses) if the business meets the following criteria:

- (a) The business discontinues operations;
- (b) The ownership is the same as the displaced business; and
- (c) The business does not have other locations engaged in similar business activities.

The amount of the fixed payments shall be based upon the average annual net earnings for a two-year period of business operations. The two-year period shall be the two tax years prior to the tax year in which the displacement is occurring.

8. If a displaced person demonstrates the need for an advance relocation payment, in order to avoid or reduce a hardship, the developer or public agency shall issue the payment subject to such safeguards as are appropriate to ensure that the objective of the payment is accomplished. Payment for a satisfactory claim shall be made within thirty days following receipt of sufficient documentation to support the claim. All claims for relocation payment shall be filed with the displacing agency within six months after:

- (1) For tenants, the date of displacement;
- (2) For owners, the date of displacement or the final payment for the acquisition of the real property, whichever is later.

9. Any displaced person, who is also the owner of the premises, may waive relocation payments as part of the negotiations for acquisition of the interest held by such person. [Such waiver shall be in writing, shall disclose the person's knowledge of the provisions of this section and his entitlement to payment and shall be filed with the acquiring public agency.] However, any such waiver shall not include any notice provisions of this section, and a displaced person shall remain entitled to all of the provisions regarding programs which are contained in subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection 5 of this section.

10. All persons eligible for relocation benefits shall be notified in writing of the availability of such relocation payments and assistance, with such notice to be given concurrently with the notice of referral sites as required in subdivision [(3)] (4) of subsection 5 of this section.

11. Any urban redevelopment corporation, its assigns or transferees, which have been provided any assistance under the operation of chapter 99, RSMo, chapter 100, RSMo, chapter 353, RSMo, or this chapter, with land acquisition by the local governing body, shall be required to make a report to the local governing body or appropriate public agency which shall include, but not be limited to, the addresses of all occupied residential buildings and structures within the redevelopment area and the names and addresses of persons displaced by the redeveloper and specific relocation benefits provided to each person, as well as a sample notice provided to each person.

12. An urban redevelopment corporation which fails to comply with the relocation requirements provided in this section shall not be eligible for tax abatement as provided for in chapter 353, RSMo.

13. The requirements set out in this section shall be considered minimum standards. In reviewing any proposed relocation plan under the operation of chapter 99, RSMo, chapter 100, RSMo, or chapter 353, RSMo, the local governing body or public agency shall determine the adequacy of the proposal and may require additional elements to be provided.

14. Relocation assistance shall not be provided to any person who purposely resides or locates his business in a redevelopment area solely for the purpose of obtaining relocation benefits.

15. The provisions of sections 523.200 and 523.205 shall apply to land acquisitions under the operation of chapter 99, RSMo, chapter 100, RSMo, or chapter 353, RSMo, filed for approval, approved or amended on or after August 31, 1991.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 11*

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Section 523.271, Page 11, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“In any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than eight thousand three hundred but fewer than eight thousand four hundred inhabitants, where property is acquired through the use of eminent domain, tax increment financing shall not be used for development of such property.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Cooper (120) assumed the Chair.

Representative Kuessner offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 11.

Representative Johnson (47) raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 11 is out of order in that House Amendment No. 1 to House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 11 is the same as the original amendment.

Representative Yates raised an additional point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 11 is a substitute amendment and is in the third degree.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden resumed the Chair.

The Chair ruled the second point of order well taken.

On motion of Representative Johnson (47), House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 11 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (120) resumed the Chair.

Representative Meadows offered House Amendment No. 12.

“one hundred eighty days” and inserting “sixty days”.

Representative Nieves assumed the Chair.

Representative Meadows moved that House Amendment No. 12 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

Representative Pratt assumed the Chair.

Representative Henke offered House Amendment No. 13.

House Amendment No. 13

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Page 10, Section 523.259, Line 2, by deleting the word “may” and inserting in lieu thereof “shall”; and

Further amend House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Page 10, Section 523.259, Line 3, by deleting the word “may” and inserting in lieu thereof “shall”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Henke, House Amendment No. 13 was adopted.

Representative Harris (110) offered House Amendment No. 14.

House Amendment No. 14

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Section 99.120, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting immediately before said line the following:

“99.020. The following terms, wherever used or referred to in sections 99.010 to 99.230, shall have the following respective meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Area of operation", in the case of a housing authority of a city, shall include such city; in the case of a housing authority of a county, shall include all of the county except that portion which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city as herein defined;

(2) "Authority" or "housing authority" shall mean any of the municipal corporations created by section 99.040;

(3) "Blighted" shall mean any area where [dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, lack of ventilation, light or sanitary facilities or any combination of these factors are detrimental to safety, health and morals] there has been an inability to pay reasonable taxes, that is abandoned and is a significant hazard to the public health and safety. A blight determination must be made on a property by property basis;

(4) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by the authority pursuant to this chapter;

(5) "City" shall mean any city, town or village in the state;

(6) "The city" shall mean the particular city for which a particular housing authority is created;

(7) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk of the city or the clerk of the county commission, as the case may be, or the officer charged with the duties customarily imposed on such clerk;

(8) "County" shall mean any county in the state;

(9) "The county" shall mean the particular county for which a particular housing authority is created;

(10) "Federal government" shall include the United States of America, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America;

(11) "Governing body" shall mean, in the case of a city, the city council, common council, board of aldermen or other legislative body of the city, and in the case of a county, the county commission or other legislative body of the county;

(12) "Housing project" shall mean any work or undertaking, whether in a blighted or other area:

(a) To demolish, clear or remove buildings. Such work or undertaking may include the adaptation of such area to public purposes, including parks or other recreation or community purposes; or

(b) To provide decent, safe and sanitary urban or rural dwellings, apartments or other living accommodations for persons of very low and lower income. Such work or undertaking may include buildings, land, equipment, facilities and other real or personal property for necessary, convenient or desirable appurtenances, streets, sewers, water service, site preparation, gardening, administrative, community, health, welfare or other purposes. Such work or undertaking may also include housing, for persons of moderate income, offices, stores, solar energy access, parks, and recreational and educational facilities, provided that such activities be undertaken only in conjunction with the provision of housing for persons of very low and lower income, and provided further that any profit of the authority shall be distributed as provided in subsection 3 of section 99.080; or

(c) To accomplish a combination of the foregoing. The term "housing project" also may be applied to the planning of the buildings and improvements, the acquisition of property; the demolition of existing structures, the construction, reconstruction, alteration and repair of the improvements and all other work in connection therewith;

(d) In the planning and carrying out of any housing project owned and operated by a housing authority, a housing authority shall establish procedures for allocating any training and employment opportunities which may arise from such activity to qualified persons of very low and lower income who have been unemployed for one year or more and reside within the area of operation of the housing authority;

(13) "Mayor" shall mean the elected mayor of the city or the elected officer thereof charged with duties customarily imposed on the mayor or executive head of the city;

(14) "Obligee of the authority" or "obligee" shall include any bondholder, trustee or trustees for any bondholders, or lessor demising to the authority property used in connection with a housing project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the federal government when it is a party to any contract with the authority;

(15) "Persons of very low income" means those persons or families whose annual income does not exceed fifty percent of the median income for the area. "Persons of lower income" means those persons or families whose annual income is greater than fifty but does not exceed eighty percent of the median income for the area. "Persons of moderate income" means those persons or families whose annual income is greater than eighty but does not exceed one hundred and fifty percent of the median income for the area. For purposes of this subdivision, median income for the area shall be determined in accordance with section 1437a, Title 42, United States Code, including any amendments thereto. Any and all references to "persons of low income" in this chapter shall mean persons of very low, lower or moderate income as defined herein;

(16) "Profit" shall mean the difference between gross revenues and necessary and ordinary business expenses, including debt service, if any;

(17) "Real property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest and right, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage or otherwise and the indebtedness secured by such liens."; and

Further amend said substitute, Section 100.420, Page 2, Line 15, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"353.020. The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this chapter, mean:

(1) "Area", that portion of the city which the legislative authority of such city has found or shall find to be blighted so that the clearance, replanning, rehabilitation, or reconstruction thereof is necessary to effectuate the purposes of this law. Any such area may include buildings or improvements not in themselves blighted, and any real property, whether improved or unimproved, the inclusion of which is deemed necessary for the effective clearance, replanning, reconstruction or rehabilitation of the area of which such buildings, improvements or real property form a part;

(2) "Blighted area", that portion of the city within which the legislative authority of such city determines [that by reason of age, obsolescence, inadequate or outmoded design or physical deterioration have become economic and social liabilities, and that such conditions are conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, crime or] on a property by property basis to be abandoned, a significant hazard to public health and safety, and that the property owner has the inability to pay reasonable taxes;

(3) "City" or "such cities", any city within this state and any county of the first classification with a charter form of government and a population of at least nine hundred thousand inhabitants or any county with a charter form of government and with more than six hundred thousand but less than seven hundred thousand inhabitants. The county's authority pursuant to this chapter shall be restricted to the unincorporated areas of such county;

(4) "Development plan", a plan, together with any amendments thereto, for the development of all or any part of a blighted area, which is authorized by the legislative authority of any such city;

(5) "Legislative authority", the city council or board of aldermen of the cities affected by this chapter;

(6) "Mortgage", a mortgage, trust indenture, deed of trust, building and loan contract, or other instrument creating a lien on real property, to secure the payment of an indebtedness, and the indebtedness secured by any of them;

(7) "Real property" includes lands, buildings, improvements, land under water, waterfront property, and any and all easements, franchises and hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal, and every estate, interest, privilege, easement, franchise and right therein, or appurtenant thereto, legal or equitable, including restrictions of record, created by plat, covenant or otherwise, rights-of-way and terms for years;

(8) "Redevelopment", the clearance, replanning, reconstruction or rehabilitation of any blighted area, and the provision for such industrial, commercial, residential or public structures and spaces as may be appropriate, including recreational and other facilities incidental or appurtenant thereto;

(9) "Redevelopment project", a specific work or improvement to effectuate all or any part of a development plan;

(10) "Urban redevelopment corporation", a corporation organized pursuant to this chapter; except that any life insurance company organized pursuant to the laws of, or admitted to do business in, the state of Missouri may from time to time within five years after April 23, 1946, undertake, alone or in conjunction with, or as a lessee of any such life insurance company or urban redevelopment corporation, a redevelopment project pursuant to this chapter, and shall, in its operations with respect to any such redevelopment project, but not otherwise, be deemed to be an urban redevelopment corporation for the purposes of this section and sections 353.010, 353.040, 353.060 and 353.110 to 353.160.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative El-Amin offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 14.

to

AMEND House Amendment No. 14 to House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1944, Page 5, Line 22, by inserting after said line the following:

“Further amend said bill, Section 523.274, Page 11, Lines 4-5, by deleting “If the condemning authority finds that the area is predominantly blighted, it may proceed with condemnation of any parcels in such area.”“; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative El-Amin, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 14 was adopted by the following vote:

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 34

WHEREAS, sport fishing is a great industry, recreation, and occupation in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, hand fishing, which is also referred to as "noodling", for channel, blue, and flathead catfish is one of the ultimate challenges in the arena of sport fishing; and

WHEREAS, The United States Fish and Wildlife Service survey in 2001 found that there are approximately 467,000 catfish anglers in Missouri over the age of sixteen and by Missouri law, they can catch five flathead fish 365 days a year or 1,825 flathead fish for each permit sold; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Mark Morgan at the University of Missouri-Columbia conducted a study and found that there are approximately 2,000 hand fishers in Missouri, who are asking the Missouri Department of Conservation to allow them to hand catch five channel, blue, or flathead catfish in a sixty-day statewide season for each permit sold, which would be 0.000012 percent of the available catch of catfish anglers; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Department of Conservation is responsible for all Missouri state fishing and game regulations and should provide hand fishers with appropriate information and regulations; and

WHEREAS, recognizing and respecting the Research Division of the Missouri Department of Conservation, they should continue balanced research on hand fishing for channel, blue, and flathead catfish; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire for some sport fishers to participate in hand fishing of channel, blue, and flathead catfish in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, hand fishing is a legalized sport in 12 States, 5 of which surround Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the legalization of hand fishing is supported by the Missouri Farm Bureau, the Missouri Farmer's Union, MoFED, and the Missouri Trappers Association:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby strongly encourage the Missouri Department of Conservation to have a regulated statewide hand fishing season for channel, blue, and flathead catfish from June first to July thirty-first beginning in 2007 to allow hand fishers to take five of these fish by hand; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Commissioners of the Missouri Department of Conservation.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

*Today is the birthday of Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826),
In honor of Whom Jefferson City is named.
And the third president of the United States.*

A question he posed:

“... can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God?”

(Notes on the State of Virginia)

Let us pray.

Almighty God, we thank You that most of the people of our nation believe in You. Your Holy Spirit has placed this awareness in their minds and allowed them to experience Your presence in their lives.

Help us all, O God, to grow to a greater faith in You; so that we, like Jefferson, may recognize that You, the Creator, are the basis of our liberties, and that Your Commandments are the basis of our choices and actions.

We pray to You our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Theodore Muschany, Kramer Knipp, Jordan Esry, Andrew "Drew" Vines, Greg Fleissner, Micah Gaeddert, Jenny Baldwin, Caroline Moore, Jessica Probst, Jennifer Probst, Julia Probst and Jimmy Siettmann.

The Journal of the fifty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL

HCS HB 1441, as amended, with House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 3 and House Amendment No. 3, pending, relating to the Large Carnivore Act, was taken up by Representative Sutherland.

House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 3 was withdrawn.

Representative Baker (25) offered House Substitute Amendment No. 2 for House Amendment No. 3.

*House Substitute Amendment No. 2
for
House Amendment No. 3*

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1441, Page 4, Section 578.610, Lines 7-9, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“insurance in an amount of not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars. Each person subject to the provisions”; and

Further amend said page, Line 11, by deleting the words “for the large carnivore. However, the director of”; and

Further amend said page, Lines 12-13, by deleting all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Baker (25), House Substitute Amendment No. 2 for House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

Representative Smith (150) offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1441, Page 1, In the Title, Line 2, by deleting the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fourteen"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 1, by deleting the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fourteen"; and

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 40

WHEREAS, Taiwan and the United States enjoy one of the most important economic and strategic international relationships; and

WHEREAS, together, Taiwan and the United States promote a shared faith and respect for freedom, democracy, and free market principles; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan and the United States have worked hand-in-hand to preserve peace and stability within the Asia-Pacific region and to help improve the lives of their citizens and people around the world; and

WHEREAS, trade between Taiwan and the United States has increased significantly during the past decades, with the United States being Taiwan's second-largest source of imports and Taiwan being the eighth-largest trading partner of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan is a major trading partner with the United States and also an important overseas market for United States agricultural products, and given the remarkable economic performance of Taiwan and the strong purchasing power of its 23 million people, there are plenty of opportunities to further expand bilateral trade between the United States and Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, streamlined foreign investment procedures developed under a Taiwan-United States free trade agreement would lead to further investment by firms in both Taiwan and the United States and would create new business opportunities and new jobs; and

WHEREAS, a Taiwan-United States free trade agreement would encourage greater innovations and manufacturing efficiencies by stimulating joint technological development, practical applications, and new cooperative ventures; and

WHEREAS, a recent study by the United States International Trade Commission supports the negotiation of a Taiwan-United States free trade agreement to further boost trade between the two countries and serve the broader interests of the United States in the Asia-Pacific region:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby support the negotiation of a Taiwan-United States free trade agreement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for President George W. Bush, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Secretary Carlos M. Gutierrez of the U.S. Department of Commerce, Ambassador Rob Portman of the Office of the United States Trade Representative, each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation, and the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Kansas City, Missouri.

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1131

WHEREAS, despite its foundation on the ideals of liberty and representation in government, the United States' history of granting voting rights mirrors the struggles of other representative democracies. Voting rights spread slowly, from white male landowners to white males, to men of all races, and in the twentieth century, to women. Even after Constitutional amendments were adopted to ratify these rights, there have been instances of minority groups having to jump extra hurdles to be allowed to vote: passing literacy tests, for example. Voters have sometimes been intimidated from exercising this most basic of constitutional rights; and

WHEREAS, four decades ago, the modern civil rights movement achieved one of its greatest accomplishments when it persuaded the United States Congress and President Lyndon B. Johnson to enact the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (P.L. 89-10); and

WHEREAS, since its enactment, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 has played a major role in protecting the voting rights of African-Americans, Latinos, and people who are not fully proficient in English; and

WHEREAS, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 outlawed the requirement that would-be voters in the United States take literacy tests to qualify to register to vote, and it provided for federal registration of voters in areas that had less than 50% of eligible voters registered. The Act also provided for Department of Justice oversight to registration, and the Department's approval for any change in voting laws in districts whose populations were at least 5% African-American; and

WHEREAS, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 has been renewed many times and remains in force. It was renewed in 1970 and 1975. In 1982, Congress amended and renewed the Act for another 25 years, with some portions of the Act up for renewal in 2007; and

WHEREAS, three key portions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 will expire in 2007 unless renewed:

(1) Section 5 of the Act which requires certain jurisdictions to obtain preclearance from the Department of Justice before they can put into effect any changes to voting practices and procedures. The following states are currently impacted by Section 5 of the Act: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Texas, and portions of Virginia, California, Florida, Michigan, New Hampshire, New York and North Carolina; and

(2) Section 203 of the Act which requires certain jurisdictions to provide bilingual language assistance to voters in communities where there is a concentration of citizens who are limited English proficient; and

(3) Portions of Sections 6 to 9 of the Act which authorize the federal government to send federal election examiners and observers to certain jurisdictions covered by Section 5 of the Act where there is evidence of attempts to intimidate minority voters at the polls; and

WHEREAS, widely viewed as the nation's most effective civil rights legislation, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 removed barriers to voting for African-Americans, Asian Americans, Latino Americans, and Native Americans; and

WHEREAS, the Act enables large numbers of minorities to register and vote, and empowers minority communities to have a greater voice concerning election of national, state, and local office holders; and

WHEREAS, the gains of the last 40 years will be severely compromised if these provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 are not renewed:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, urge the United States Congress to renew the portions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 that are scheduled to expire in 2007; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS SCR 24.

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 24

Relating to the Poultry Industry Committee.

WHEREAS, the poultry industry is a vital, profitable, and important industry in this state; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly wishes to maintain and enhance the positive economic impacts while making every attempt to eliminate negative aspects of the industry; and

WHEREAS, the poultry industry produces waste products which have significantly impacted the environment of the state; and

WHEREAS, the Poultry Industry Committee was created in 2002 to study the economic and environmental impact of the poultry industry in this state, especially the impacts this industry has on sensitive environmental areas; and

WHEREAS, while the Poultry Industry Committee has officially completed its duties, there is still work to be accomplished:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby reauthorize the "Poultry Industry Committee" to continue its review and evaluation of both the economic impact of the poultry industry, waste disposal issues, and environmental impacts of this industry, and as well as making recommendations on further action or legislative remedies, if any, to be taken as necessary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such Committee shall be composed of twenty-nine members, one member to be a member of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, one member to be a member of the Senate to be appointed by the Senate Minority Leader, one member to be a member of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, one member to be a member of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the House Minority Leader, two county commissioners or their designees, a representative from the Food and Agricultural Policy Research Institute (FAPRI), a representative of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), a representative of the Department of Natural Resources, a representative of the United States Department of Agriculture, a representative of the Natural Resources Conservation Services (NRCS), a representative of the university extension system, a representative of the poultry federation, a representative of the Missouri Farmer's Association, a representative of the Farm Bureau, a representative of the Department of Conservation, a representative of the University of Missouri Department of Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources, a representative of the Missouri State University Department of Agriculture, a representative of the University of Missouri Commercial Agriculture Program, a member appointed by the Resource Conservation & Development Council, a representative of the Department of Economic Development, a representative of the Department of Agriculture, a representative of the Clean Water Commission, two active poultry farmers, two poultry industry contractors or processors, a person active in the processing/value-added portion of poultry waste, and one person from Missouri Farm Credit Services. Each member of the Committee shall serve until December 31, 2007; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Committee may conduct its business by various means but shall meet no less than twice each year as a full Committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all state agencies shall cooperate with the Committee in carrying out its duties, including allowing access to closed records, provided that the Committee shall not disclose any identifying information contained in such records closed pursuant to statute or general order and any such information in the custody of the Committee shall not be discoverable to the same extent as when in the custody of the parent agency; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all members shall serve without compensation and the Office of Administration shall provide funding, administrative support, and staff for the effective operation of the Committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Committee shall continue to study problems and solutions, collect information and provide recommendations in a report to the General Assembly before December 31, 2007; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Poultry Industry Committee shall terminate December 31, 2007; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be sent to the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCR 28.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

Relating to the naming of the George Washington Carver State Office Building.

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver was born into slavery near Diamond Grove, Missouri, sometime between July 1861 and January 1864. He was a sickly baby, soon orphaned when his mother was abducted by slave traders, and whose very survival beyond infancy defied the understanding and capabilities of the medical community at that time; and

WHEREAS, even absent a formal education, George Washington Carver's intellect and affinity for agriculture manifested themselves at an early age; and

WHEREAS, at the age of 11, George Washington Carver informed his caretakers that he was going to move to Neosho so he could attend the school for African-American children and that he would find a place where he could work in exchange for his board. He soon traveled to Neosho, alone, with nothing but the best of his rock collection, a clean shirt in a bundle slung over his shoulder, and a package of food under his arm; and

WHEREAS, by the end of 1876, George Washington Carver had learned everything the teacher at the school knew and everything in the books available to the school, and the teacher gave him a certificate of merit attesting to such fact; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver continued his education at various institutions in Kansas and Iowa, all the while taking whatever jobs allowed him to earn the money needed to continue his education, inspiring one professor to proclaim, "George Carver has come to us with a satchel full of poverty and a burning zeal to know everything"; and

WHEREAS, in 1896 Booker T. Washington pleaded with George Washington Carver to bring his intellect to Tuskegee Institute, which was founded by Washington to provide a college education for African-Americans. Booker T. Washington had come to realize that, since 85 percent of southern African-Americans were farmers, Tuskegee's greatest need was an agriculture department. George accepted, knowing that the work would be hard and the financial reward minimal; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver stressed to Tuskegee's students and the region's farmers that soil conservation through diversification of crops and crop rotation was the key to reviving soil that had become unproductive due to the long-term cultivation of cotton; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver advocated the use of legumes to replace minerals depleted from the soil by cotton crops. He advised, "Plant peanuts. That'll keep the soil productive. And the boll weevils don't attack peanuts"; and

WHEREAS, solving the problem with unproductive soil resulted in an abundant peanut crop, which could not be marketed profitably and for which there was very little use or demand. George Washington Carver soon set about discovering nearly 300 valuable uses to which the peanut could be put. During his lifetime, peanut crops developed an annual value of $200 million; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver went on to develop various paint, dyes, and medicinal treatments from peanuts, sweet potatoes, and soybeans. He even developed a synthetic rubber for Henry Ford derived from goldenrod; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver steadfastly refused to accept an increase in his $125 a month salary at Tuskegee or offers of more lucrative positions, including one from Thomas Edison that reportedly paid $100,000 a year. He also declined to patent most of his discoveries, believing that his intellect and industry were gifts from God that should be shared freely; and

WHEREAS, on July 14, 1943, a mere six months after his death, George Washington Carver's birthplace near Diamond Grove was designated as a national monument; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver popularized agricultural extension programs at American universities; can be acknowledged as the father of modern plant science; and is recognized as one of the greatest scientific minds in American history; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver overcame enormous prejudice and poverty in his struggle from being identified merely as "Carver's George" to becoming the world renowned George Washington Carver, B.S., M.S., D.Sc., Ph.D., Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, London, and Director of Research and Experiment at Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver accomplished all of his many great deeds without a trace of bitterness, with total indifference to personal fortune, and thought only to make the world, America in particular, a better place for all mankind; and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver, in his modesty, once stated, "I am no great person. I am no great scientist. I have only been able to point the way in a few things. After me will come those who read and interpret the signs, the great of the world. I am only the trailblazer.";

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby designate that the state office building located at 1616 Missouri Boulevard, Jefferson City, Missouri, shall hereinafter be known as the "George Washington Carver State Office Building"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution, and if approved, notify the Director of the Missouri Department of Agriculture.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 29.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 29

WHEREAS, the National Forest Service is a federal agency within the United States Department of Agriculture that manages public lands in national forests and grasslands, engages in important research as the world's largest forestry research organization, and provides assistance to state and private forestry entities; and

WHEREAS, the origination of the Forest Service can be traced back to the passage of the Forest Reserve Act of 1891, which allowed presidents to establish forest reserves from timber-covered land in the public domain; and

WHEREAS, a progressive United States Congress and President Theodore Roosevelt, the most notable conservationist among all U.S. presidents deceased and living, established the Forest Service in 1905; and

WHEREAS, a primary objective of the Forest Service is to enable citizens to enjoy its 155 national forest and 20 grasslands, which collectively comprise about 8.5 percent of the total land area of the United States; and

WHEREAS, another chief goal of the Forest Service is to protect the environment for generations yet to come and manage the National Forest System for the overall benefit of the American people; and

WHEREAS, Gifford Pinchot, the first Chief of the Forest Service, summed up the mission of the Forest Service by stating that it should "provide the greatest amount of good for the greatest amount of people in the long run"; and

WHEREAS, Pinchot's vision of the Forest Service has recently been called into question by a Bush Administration proposal to possibly sell more than 300,000 acres of national forest to private owners and developers; and

WHEREAS, 21,566 acres of the Mark Twain National Forest in Missouri is under consideration for sale, which ranks Missouri fourth in the nation in most potential lost forest, behind only California, Idaho and Colorado; and

WHEREAS, Forest Service stewards have in the past participated in limited land-exchange programs but have never engaged in the outright sale of our national forests, which is undoubtedly one of our country's most precious assets; and

WHEREAS, the money raised from the sale of our national forests would be used to fund a program created by the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self Determination Act of 2000 – a program that is of little benefit to the citizens of the state of Missouri:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Senate of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby express their opposition to the Bush Administration's unprecedented proposed sale of national forest land; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge Missouri citizens to contact the Forest Service during its allotted time of public comment to speak out against this plan; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we ask Missouri's nine Congressmen in the U.S. House of Representatives and its two U.S. senators to use their influence to oppose the proposed sale of public lands; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copies of this resolution for U.S. Agriculture Secretary Mike Johanns, Chief of the National Forest Service Dale Bosworth, and each of Missouri's federal representatives and senators.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 32.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32

WHEREAS, the current Federal Defense Budget does not include an allocation for the United States Air Force C-17 Globemaster III military transport plane program at Boeing St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, in 2002, Boeing dedicated a new St. Louis C-17 manufacturing facility that allowed Boeing to consolidate its major St. Louis C-17 assembly work into one facility; and

WHEREAS, today, 20 percent of all C-17 planes are manufactured at Boeing St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, the Boeing St. Louis team, the largest supplier for the C-17, produces the airlifter's cargo ramp and door, cockpit, including the flight deck, main landing gear pods, and pylons. In addition, 10,000 detail parts for the C-17 are fabricated at Boeing's strategic partner, GKN Aerospace Services - St. Louis, to deliver to Long Beach, California, and Macon, Georgia; and

WHEREAS, the new facility at Boeing St. Louis was part of a $140 million multistage plan designed to transform the Boeing St. Louis site into one of the most competitive operations in the aerospace industry; and

WHEREAS, if federal funding for this program is not included in the Federal Defense Budget, 950 jobs at Boeing St. Louis and 565 jobs at GKN Aerospace Services - St. Louis would be lost; and

WHEREAS, Boeing St. Louis is second only to Long Beach, California, in the manufacture of the C-17 Globemaster III military transport plane and has 57 suppliers across the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the loss of nearly 1,500 skilled aerospace jobs, occurring at the same time that the Hazelwood Ford Plant is scheduled for closure, would have a significant negative impact on the economy of St. Louis and the state of Missouri, as well as the employment and financial stability of nearly 1,500 employees in this state:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Congress to include in the Federal Defense Budget an allocation for the United States Air Force C-17 Globemaster III military transport plane program at Boeing St. Louis; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray!

Almighty God, we thank You for the extra day to celebrate life this past weekend of the Christian Easter. We thank You for our own life, for the lives of our children and grandchildren, for the life of every member of our family. Be with them while we are away.

Lord God, be with us here as we begin the remaining four weeks of this General Assembly of the Missouri House of Representatives. Guide those who plan and lead this assembly that they bring before us the issues that are most in need of our attention and those that most deserve it.

As we celebrated life this weekend, so may our work this week protect, sustain and improve the lives of our people and all the people.

The Easter celebrations of all Christians speak of life beyond our life on Earth. Almighty God, help us to conduct our work of serving the people of our State in such a way that we grow toward the eternal life in which we believe.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Aaron John Davis.

The Journal of the fifty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS

HCS HB 1767, relating to protections for the elderly, was taken up by Representative Bruns.

Representative Bruns offered House Amendment No. 1.

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1767, Section 192.2150, Page 25, Line 151, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“16. Any potential patient or new referral of the department shall be screened to ascertain if they are included on the Missouri sexual offender registry maintained by Missouri state highway patrol. If any potential patient or potential resident is included on the Missouri sexual offender registry, the department shall notify the provider of such at the time the referral is made.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Bruns, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (158) offered House Amendment No. 2.

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1767, Section 192.2000, Page 2, Line 1, by inserting immediately before said line the following:

“192.925. 1. To increase public awareness of the problem of elder abuse and neglect and financial exploitation of the elderly, the department of health and senior services shall implement an education and awareness program. Such program shall have the goal of reducing the incidences of elder abuse and neglect and financial exploitation of the elderly, and may focus on:

- (1) The education and awareness of mandatory reporters on their responsibility to report elder abuse and neglect and financial exploitation of the elderly;
 - (2) Targeted education and awareness for the public on the problem, identification and reporting of elder abuse and neglect and financial exploitation of the elderly;
 - (3) Publicizing the elder abuse and neglect hot line telephone number;
 - (4) Education and awareness for law enforcement agencies and prosecutors on the problem and identification of elder abuse and neglect and financial exploitation of the elderly, and the importance of prosecuting cases pursuant to chapter 565, RSMo; and
 - (5) Publicizing the availability of background checks prior to hiring an individual for caregiving purposes.
- 2. The department of social services and facilities licensed pursuant to chapters 197 and 198, RSMo, shall cooperate fully with the department of health and senior services in the distribution of information pursuant to this program.”; and

Further amend said substitute, Section 210.906, Page 51, Line 34, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“407.991. As used in sections 407.991 to 407.996 the following terms shall mean:

- (1) "Claimant", a person who has or purports to have a claim for money or an interest in property in connection with a transaction procured through identity theft;
- (2) "Identity theft", the unauthorized use of another person's personal identifying information to obtain credit, goods, services, money, or property;

(3) "Personal identifying information", a person's name, address, telephone number, driver's license number, Social Security number, place of employment, employee identification number, mother's maiden name, demand deposit account identification number, savings account number, or credit card number;

(4) "Victim of identity theft", a person who had his or her personal identifying information used without authorization by another to obtain credit, goods, services, money, or property obtained by the identity theft, and filed a police report in this regard under section 570.223, RSMo.

407.992. 1. A person may bring an action against a claimant to establish that the person is a victim of identity theft in connection with the claimant's claim against that person. If the claimant has brought an action to recover on its claim against the person, the person may file a cross-complaint to establish that the person is a victim of identity theft in connection with the claimant's claim.

2. A person shall establish that he or she is a victim of identity theft by a preponderance of the evidence.

3. A person who proves that he or she is a victim of identity theft, as defined in section 570.223, RSMo, as to a particular claim, shall be entitled to a judgment providing all of the following, as appropriate:

(1) A declaration that he or she is not obligated to the claimant on that claim;

(2) A declaration that any security interest or other interest the claimant had purportedly obtained in the victim's property in connection with that claim is void;

(3) An injunction restraining the claimant from collecting or attempting to collect from the victim on that claim, from enforcing or attempting to enforce any security interest or other interest in the victim's property in connection with that claim, or from enforcing or executing on any judgment against the victim on that claim;

(4) If the victim has filed a cross-complaint against the claimant, the dismissal of any cause of action in the complaint filed by the claimant based on a claim which arose as a result of the identity theft;

(5) Actual damages, attorney's fees, and costs, and any equitable relief that the court deems appropriate. In order to recover actual damages or attorney's fees in an action or cross-complaint filed by a person alleging that he or she is a victim of identity theft, the person shall show that he or she provided written notice to the claimant that a situation of identity theft might exist, including, upon written request of the claimant, a valid copy of the police report at least thirty days prior to his or her filing of the action, or within his or her cross-complaint under this section;

(6) A civil penalty, in addition to any other damages, of up to thirty thousand dollars if the victim establishes by clear and convincing evidence all of the following:

(a) That at least thirty days prior to filing an action or within the cross-complaint under this section, he or she provided written notice to the claimant at the address designated by the claimant for complaints related to credit reporting issues that a situation of identity theft might exist and explaining the basis for that belief;

(b) That the claimant failed to diligently investigate the victim's notification of a possible identity theft; and

(c) That the claimant continued to pursue its claim against the victim after the claimant was presented with facts that were later held to entitle the victim to a judgment under this section.

407.993. An action or cross-complaint brought under sections 407.991 to 407.996 that joins other claimants as defendants in the same action or cross-complaint shall be deemed to comply with the provisions of chapter 507, RSMo, regarding joinder of parties.

407.995. Any action brought under sections 407.991 to 407.996 may be brought within four years of the date the person who alleges that he or she is a victim of identity theft knew or, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have known of the existence of facts which would give rise to the bringing of the action or joinder of the defendant.

407.996. 1. Nothing in sections 407.991 to 407.996 shall be construed to affect a claimant's rights and remedies against a person who perpetrates identity theft or against any person who used or possessed the credit, goods, services, or property obtained by identity theft.

2. Sections 407.991 to 407.996 are cumulative to the rights and remedies provided under other laws.

442.700. As used in sections 442.700 to 442.712, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Dependent", with respect to an elderly or disabled person, wholly or partially dependent upon one or more persons for care or support, either emotional or physical, because the elderly person or disabled person:

- (a) Suffers from a significant limitation in mobility, vision, hearing, emotional or mental functioning, or the ability to read or write; or
- (b) Is suffering or recovering from a major illness or is facing or recovering from major surgery;
- (2) "Disabled person", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 570.145, RSMo;
- (3) "Elderly person", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 570.145, RSMo;
- (4) "Independent counsel", an attorney retained by the elderly or disabled person to represent only such person's interests in the transfer;
- (5) "Less than full consideration", with respect to a transfer of property, the transferee pays less than fair market value for the property or the transfer is supported by past consideration;
- (6) "Major transfer of personal property or money", a transfer of money or items of personal property which represent ten percent or more of the elderly or disabled person's estate;
- (7) "Transfer", does not include testamentary transfers which are outside the scope of sections 442.700 to 442.712.

442.703. 1. In any transfer of real property or major transfer of personal property or money for less than full consideration or execution of a guaranty by an elderly or disabled person who is dependent on others to another person with whom the elderly or disabled person has a confidential or fiduciary relationship, it is presumed that the transfer or execution was the result of undue influence, unless the elderly or disabled person was represented in the transfer or execution by independent counsel. When the elderly or disabled person successfully raises the presumption of undue influence by a preponderance of the evidence and when the transferee or person who benefits from the execution of a guaranty fails to rebut the presumption, the elderly or disabled person is entitled to avoid the transfer or execution and entitled to the relief set forth in section 442.709.

2. For purposes of this section, the transfer of property or execution of a guaranty is deemed to have been made in the context of a confidential or fiduciary relationship if the transferee or person who benefits from the execution of a guaranty had a close relationship with the elderly or disabled person prior to the transfer or execution. Confidential or fiduciary relationships include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) A family relationship between the elderly or disabled person and the transferee or person who benefits from the execution of a guaranty, including relationships by marriage and adoption;
- (2) A fiduciary relationship between the elderly or disabled person and the transferee or person who benefits from the execution of a guaranty, such as with a guardian, conservator, trustee, accountant, broker, or financial advisor;
- (3) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and a physician, nurse, or other medical or health care provider;
- (4) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and a psychologist, psychiatrist, social worker, or counselor;
- (5) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and an attorney;
- (6) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and a priest, minister, rabbi, or spiritual advisor;
- (7) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and an individual who provides care or services to such person whether or not care or services are paid for the elderly or disabled person;
- (8) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and a friend or neighbor; or
- (9) A relationship between the elderly or disabled person and an individual sharing the same living quarters.

When any such relationships exist and when a transfer or execution is made to a corporation or organization primarily on account of the membership, ownership, or employment interest or for the benefit of the fiduciary or confidante, a fiduciary or confidential relationship with the corporation or organization is deemed to exist.

442.706. 1. A civil action may be brought to obtain relief under sections 442.700 to 442.712 by an elderly or disabled person, such person's legal representative, or the personal representative of the estate of an elderly or disabled person.

2. When a court finds that a transfer of property or execution of a guaranty was the result of undue influence, the court shall grant appropriate relief enabling the elderly or disabled person to avoid the transfer or execution, including the rescission or reformation of a deed or other instrument, the imposition of a constructive trust on property, or an order enjoining use of or entry on property, or commanding the return of property. When the court finds that undue influence is a good and valid defense to a transferee's suit on a contract to transfer the property or a suit of a person who benefits from the execution of a guaranty on such guaranty, the court shall refuse to enforce the transfer or guaranty.

3. No relief obtained or granted under this section may in any way affect or limit the right, title, and interest of good faith purchasers, mortgages, holders of security interests, or other third parties who obtain an interest in the transferred property for value after its transfer from the elderly or disabled person. No relief obtained or granted under this section shall affect any mortgage deed to the extent of value given by the mortgagee.

442.709. Nothing in sections 442.700 to 442.712 shall be construed to abrogate any other causes of action or relief at law or equity to which elderly or disabled persons are entitled under laws or at common law.

442.712. Sections 442.700 to 442.712 shall not require that language showing compliance with sections 442.700 to 442.712 be included in a deed and shall not require that evidence of compliance with sections 442.700 to 442.712 be recorded in the registry of deeds. Any attempt to record such evidence is void and has no effect on title.

559.100. 1. The circuit courts of this state shall have power, herein provided, to place on probation or to parole persons convicted of any offense over which they have jurisdiction, except as otherwise provided in sections 195.275 to 195.296, [RSMo, section] 558.018, [RSMo, section] 559.115, 565.020, [RSMo, section] 565.180, 565.182, 565.200, 570.145, and 571.015, [RSMo, and section 559.115] RSMo.

2. The circuit court shall have the power to revoke the probation or parole previously granted and commit the person to the department of corrections. The circuit court shall determine any conditions of probation or parole for the defendant that it deems necessary to ensure the successful completion of the probation or parole term, including the extension of any term of supervision for any person while on probation or parole. The circuit court may require that the defendant pay restitution for his crime. The probation or parole may be revoked for failure to pay restitution or for failure to conform his behavior to the conditions imposed by the circuit court. The circuit court may, in its discretion, credit any period of probation or parole as time served on a sentence.

565.180. 1. A person commits the crime of elder abuse in the first degree if he attempts to kill, knowingly causes or attempts to cause serious physical injury, as defined in section 565.002, to any person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult as defined in section 660.250, RSMo.

2. Elder abuse in the first degree is a class A felony.

3. No court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence or impose a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment when a person pleads guilty to or is found guilty of elder abuse in the first degree.

565.182. 1. A person commits the crime of elder abuse in the second degree if he:

(1) Knowingly causes, attempts to cause physical injury to any person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo, by means of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument; or

(2) Recklessly [and purposely] causes serious physical injury, as defined in section 565.002, to a person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult as defined in section 660.250, RSMo.

2. Elder abuse in the second degree is a class B felony.

3. No court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence or impose a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment when a person pleads guilty to or is found guilty pursuant to subdivision 1 of subsection 1.

565.184. 1. A person commits the crime of elder abuse in the third degree if he:

(1) Knowingly causes or attempts to cause physical contact with any person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult as defined in section 660.250, RSMo, knowing the other person will regard the contact as harmful or provocative; or

(2) Purposely engages in conduct involving more than one incident that causes grave emotional distress to a person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo. The course of conduct shall be such as would cause a reasonable person age sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo, to suffer substantial emotional distress; or

(3) Purposely or knowingly places a person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo, in apprehension of immediate physical injury; or

(4) Intentionally fails to provide care, goods or services to a person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo. The cause of the conduct shall be such as would cause a reasonable person age sixty or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo, to suffer physical or emotional distress; or

(5) Knowingly acts or knowingly fails to act in a manner which results in a grave risk to the life, body or health of a person sixty years of age or older or an eligible adult, as defined in section 660.250, RSMo.

2. Elder abuse in the third degree is a class [A misdemeanor] D felony.

565.188. 1. When any adult day care worker; chiropractor; Christian Science practitioner; coroner; dentist; embalmer; employee of the departments of social services, mental health, or health and senior services; employee of a local area agency on aging or an organized area agency on aging program; funeral director; home health agency or home health agency employee; hospital and clinic personnel engaged in examination, care, or treatment of persons; in-home services owner, provider, operator, or employee; law enforcement officer; long-term care facility administrator or employee; medical examiner; medical resident or intern; mental health professional; minister; nurse; nurse practitioner; optometrist; other health practitioner; peace officer; pharmacist; physical therapist; physician; physician's assistant; podiatrist; probation or parole officer; psychologist; social worker; or other person with responsibility for the care of a person sixty years of age or older has reasonable cause to suspect that such a person has been subjected to abuse or neglect, or financial exploitation, or observes such a person being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect, or financial exploitation, he or she shall immediately report or cause a report to be made to the department in accordance with the provisions of sections 660.250 to 660.295, RSMo. Any other person who becomes aware of circumstances which may reasonably be expected to be the result of or result in abuse or neglect, or financial exploitation may report to the department.

2. Any person who knowingly fails to make a report as required in subsection 1 of this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

3. Any person who purposely files a false report of elder abuse or neglect or financial exploitation of the elderly is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

4. Every person who has been previously convicted of or pled guilty to making a false report to the department and who is subsequently convicted of making a false report under subsection 3 of this section is guilty of a class D felony.

5. Evidence of prior convictions of false reporting shall be heard by the court, out of the hearing of the jury, prior to the submission of the case to the jury, and the court shall determine the existence of the prior convictions.

565.200. 1. Any owner or employee of a skilled nursing facility, as defined in section 198.006, RSMo, or an Alzheimer's special unit or program, as defined in section 198.505, RSMo, who:

(1) Has sexual contact, as defined in section 566.010, RSMo, with a resident is guilty of a class [B] A misdemeanor. Any person who commits a second or subsequent violation of this subdivision is guilty of a class [A misdemeanor] D felony; or

(2) Has sexual intercourse or deviate sexual intercourse, as defined in section 566.010, RSMo, with a resident is guilty of a class [A misdemeanor] C felony. Any person who commits a second or subsequent violation of this subdivision is guilty of a class [D] B felony. No court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence or impose a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment when a person pleads guilty to or is found guilty of committing a second or subsequent violation of this subdivision.

2. The provisions of this section shall not apply to an owner or employee of a skilled nursing facility or Alzheimer's special unit or program who engages in sexual conduct, as defined in section 566.010, RSMo, with a resident to whom the owner or employee is married.

3. Consent of the victim is not a defense to a prosecution pursuant to this section.

565.320. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Crime of violence", any crime which involved the threat or use of physical force against an elderly person;

(2) "Elderly", a person sixty-five years of age or older.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law no court shall sentence a person who has pled guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a crime of violence against the elderly to a term of imprisonment of less than thirty consecutive days or to pay a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment, nor shall such person be eligible for parole or probation until he or she has served a minimum of thirty consecutive days of imprisonment.

570.145. 1. A person commits the crime of financial exploitation of an elderly or disabled person if such person knowingly and by deception, intimidation, or force obtains control over the elderly or disabled person's property with the intent to permanently deprive the elderly or disabled person of the use, benefit or possession of his or her property thereby benefiting such person or detrimentally affecting the elderly or disabled person. Financial exploitation of an elderly or disabled person is a class A misdemeanor if the value of the property is less than fifty dollars[,] ; a class D felony if the value of the property is fifty dollars but less than five hundred dollars[,] ; a class C felony if the value of the property is five hundred dollars but less than one thousand dollars[,] ; a class B felony if the value of the property is one thousand dollars [but less than fifty thousand dollars, and a class A felony if the value of the property is fifty thousand dollars] or more. No court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence or impose a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment when a person pleads guilty to or is found guilty of a violation of this section when punishable as a class B felony.

2. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Deception", a misrepresentation or concealment of material fact relating to the terms of a contract or agreement entered into with the elderly or disabled person or to the existing or preexisting condition of any of the property involved in such contract or agreement, or the use or employment of any misrepresentation, false pretense or false promise in order to induce, encourage or solicit the elderly or disabled person to enter into a contract or agreement. Deception includes:

(a) Creating or confirming another person's impression which is false and which the offender does not believe to be true; or

(b) Failure to correct a false impression which the offender previously has created or confirmed; or

(c) Preventing another person from acquiring information pertinent to the disposition of the property involved; or

(d) Selling or otherwise transferring or encumbering property, failing to disclose a lien, adverse claim or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, whether such impediment is or is not valid, or is or is not a matter of official record; or

(e) Promising performance which the offender does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed. Failure to perform standing alone is not sufficient evidence to prove that the offender did not intend to perform;

(2) "Disabled person", a person with a mental, physical, or developmental disability that substantially impairs the person's ability to provide adequately for the person's care or protection;

(3) "Elderly person", a person sixty years of age or older;

(4) "Intimidation", a threat of physical or emotional harm to an elderly or disabled person, or the communication to an elderly or disabled person that he or she will be deprived of food and nutrition, shelter, prescribed medication, or medical care and treatment.

3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the remedies available to the victim pursuant to any state law relating to domestic violence.

4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose criminal liability on a person who has made a good faith effort to assist the elderly or disabled person in the management of his or her property, but through no fault of his or her own has been unable to provide such assistance.

5. Nothing in this section shall limit the ability to engage in bona fide estate planning, to transfer property and to otherwise seek to reduce estate and inheritance taxes; provided that such actions do not adversely impact the standard of living to which the elderly or disabled person has become accustomed at the time of such actions.

6. It shall not be a defense to financial exploitation of an elderly or disabled person that the accused reasonably believed that the victim was not an elderly or disabled person.”; and

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 33

WHEREAS, Missouri's long-standing agriculture tradition continues to thrive and contribute to our economy and to our families; and

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri has maintained a robust and profitable agriculture economy, frequently ranking in the top ten among states with regard to the number of operating farms, hay, cotton, and corn production, and cattle, hog, and turkey production, and more; and

WHEREAS, the economic benefits from these agricultural operations are profoundly important to our communities, to our state, and to our nation; and

WHEREAS, with the introduction of the Missouri Animal Identification Program, a coordinated effort between the Missouri Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture, the issues of food security and personal freedom became a reality for Missouri agriculture producers; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Agriculture National Animal Identification System (NAIS) is currently and should remain a voluntary program with regard to animal identification programs and marketing practices; and

WHEREAS, we, the members of the Missouri General Assembly, strongly oppose any mandatory animal identification program:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Department of Agriculture to continue the National Animal Identification System program as a voluntary program to allow agriculture families to direct their own future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri General Assembly, hereby swear as a legislative body to uphold and promote our farming community and protect the freedoms we share; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mike Johanns, the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Agriculture Policy, to which was referred SCS SB 1008, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Agriculture Policy, to which was referred SB 1017, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Rules, Chairman Cooper (120) reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HCS SB 629, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HCS SB 837, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent.

SENATE CONSENT BILL

Pursuant to Rule 44(c), the following bill, has remained on the Senate Bill for Third Reading Consent Calendar for five legislative days without any objection, all committee substitutes and committee amendments thereto adopted by consent: SB 561.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 31.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 31

WHEREAS, Missouri's long-standing agriculture tradition continues to thrive and contribute to our economy and to our families; and

WHEREAS, the state of Missouri has maintained a robust and lucrative agriculture culture, frequently ranking in the top ten among states with regard to the number of operating farms, hay, cotton, and corn production, cattle, hog and turkey production, and more; and

WHEREAS, the economic benefits from these agricultural operations are profoundly important to our communities, to our state, and to our nation; and

WHEREAS the farm family is the backbone of our state, as we, a legislative body, do swear to uphold and promote our farming community and protect the freedoms we share; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O Lord, listen to our prayer; give us the discerning mind we desperately need. Listen to our prayer; rescue us from weary minds and bodies. May our lips speak words of wisdom beyond our years.

May we who have received wisdom, listen and become even wiser. And may we with understanding receive guidance.

May kindness and truth be our constant companion that we may find favor with both You and the people of this state and maintain a good reputation.

With Your help we won't lose sight of priorities and purpose. We hang on to them for they fill us with life and bring us honor and respect.

Now may the Lord of Peace Himself give us peace always in every way. The Lord be with us all.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Macie Roorda, Lydia Roorda, Sophie Roorda, Ethan Colbert and Richard K. Johnson, Jr.

The Journal of the fifty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

AMEND House Bill No. 1910, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"34.078. 1. Every employer doing business with the state under this chapter shall require each newly hired or rehired independent contractor to fill out a federal W-9 form. The forms shall be compiled, distributed, and entered into the state directory of new hires in the same fashion as set forth in subsection 1 of section 285.300, RSMo.

2. An employer shall not, in an attempt to avoid tax liability or reporting requirements for any employee, denote or treat such employee as an independent contractor, contract labor, or any other term or category implying the absence of an employment relationship.

3. Any employer who misclassifies an employee as an independent contractor or otherwise misclassifies the employee's employment status shall be fined an amount equal to the tax due on the employee's taxable wages or an amount equal to three times the tax due on the employee's taxable wages if it is shown that the employer's failure to report wages is due to bad faith.

4. An employer shall not terminate or in any manner discriminate against an employee because the employee has communicated to the employer the intent to seek reclassification as an employee instead of an independent contractor or has communicated the intent to file an action alleging a violation of this section."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Johnson (47), House Amendment No. 1 was adopted by the following vote:

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS

HCS HB 1322, relating to DNA profiling analysis, was taken up by Representative Lipke.

Representative Lipke offered House Amendment No. 1.

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1322, Section 650.055, Page 5, Line 91, by inserting immediately before the number “9.” an open bracket “[”;

Further amend said line, by deleting the open bracket “[” immediately after the number “9.”; and

Further amend said section, Page 6, Line 131, by deleting “An individual who”; and

Further amend said page, Lines 132-143, by deleting all of said lines; and

Further amend said substitute, Section 650.058, Page 8, Line 50, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“4. An individual who is determined to be “actually innocent” of a crime under this chapter shall automatically be granted an order of expungement from the court in which he or she pled guilty or was sentenced to expunge from all official records all recordings of his or her arrest, plea, trial or conviction. Upon granting of the order of expungement, the records and files maintained in any administrative or court proceeding in an associate or circuit division of the court shall be confidential and only available to the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person to the status he or she occupied prior to such arrest, plea or conviction and as if such event had never taken place. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose whatsoever and no such inquiry shall be made for information relating to an expungement under this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lipke, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Lipke, HCS HB 1322, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Representative Lipke, HCS HB 1322, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed.

HB 1728, relating to utility payments to public counsel, was taken up by Representative Rector.

Representative Pratt assumed the Chair.

Representative Burnett offered House Amendment No. 1.

AMEND House Bill No. 1728, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after said line the following:

"386.700. The [director of the department of economic development] attorney general shall appoint a public counsel to serve at the pleasure of the [director of the department] attorney general. The public counsel shall be an attorney at law licensed to practice law in this state and whose salary shall be fixed by the [department director] attorney general within the appropriation made therefor.

386.710. 1. The public counsel shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) He shall employ a staff or hire on a contract basis such employees and experts as are necessary to carry out the purposes and responsibilities of his office, and shall set their compensation within the appropriation made for that purpose;

(2) He may represent and protect the interests of the public in any proceeding before or appeal from the public service commission. The public counsel may determine that any rate increase for which an appeal is pending shall not take effect until the appeal is resolved;

(3) He shall have discretion to represent or refrain from representing the public in any proceeding. He shall consider in exercising his discretion the importance and the extent of the public interest involved and whether that interest would be adequately represented without the action of his office. If the public counsel determines that there are conflicting public interests involved in a particular matter, he may choose to represent one such interest based upon the considerations of this section, to represent no interest in that matter, or to represent one interest and certify to the [director of the department of economic development] attorney general that there is a significant public interest which he cannot represent without creating a conflict of interest and which will not be protected by any party to the proceeding. The [director of the department] attorney general shall select an attorney, to be paid from funds appropriated for this purpose, to represent that segment of the public certified to him by the public counsel as unrepresented. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right of any person, firm or corporation specified in subsection 1 of section 386.390 to petition or make complaint to the commission or otherwise intervene in proceedings or other matters before the commission.

2. The public counsel shall be served with all proposed tariffs, initial pleadings, and applications, in all proceedings before the public service commission, and shall be served with a copy of all orders of the commission.

3. Nothing in sections 386.071, 386.150, [386.155,] 386.170, 386.200, 386.330, 386.360, 386.390, 386.400, 386.410, 386.420, 386.440, 386.450, 386.480, 386.500, 386.530, 386.540, 386.600, 386.700 and 386.710, shall be construed or interpreted to mean that the public counsel shall not have the right to appeal any and all orders of the public service commission to the courts which right of appeal exists and has existed since the time of transfer as provided in section 386.500.

4. He shall have all powers necessary or proper to carry out the duties specified in this section."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Burnett moved that House Amendment No. 1 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 1499, relating to ethics, was taken up by Representative May.

Representative Dempsey offered House Amendment No. 1.

AMEND House Bill No. 1499, Page 2, Section 105.466, Line 12, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"105.470. As used in section 105.473, unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and terms mean:

(1) "Elected local government official lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any action by a local government official elected in a county, city, town, or village with an annual operating budget of over two million dollars and, in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

(a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer;

(b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity;

(c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association, or other entity; or

(d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more elected local government officials in connection with such activity;

(2) "Executive lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any action by the executive branch of government or by any elected or appointed official, employee, department, division, agency or board or commission thereof and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

(a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer; or

(b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or

(c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association or other entity; or

(d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the executive branch of state government in connection with such activity.

An "executive lobbyist" shall not include a member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

- a. Appearing or inquiring in regard to a complaint, citation, summons, adversary proceeding, or contested case before a state board, commission, department, division or agency of the executive branch of government or any elected or appointed officer or employee thereof;
- b. Preparing, filing or inquiring, or responding to any audit, regarding any tax return, any public document, permit or contract, any application for any permit or license or certificate, or any document required or requested to be filed with the state or a political subdivision;
- c. Selling of goods or services to be paid for by public funds, provided that such person is attempting to influence only the person authorized to authorize or enter into a contract to purchase the goods or services being offered for sale;
- d. Participating in public hearings or public proceedings on rules, grants, or other matters;
- e. Responding to any request for information made by any public official or employee of the executive branch of government;
- f. Preparing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic;
- g. Acting within the scope of employment by the general assembly, or acting within the scope of employment by the executive branch of government when acting with respect to the department, division, board, commission, agency or elected state officer by which such person is employed, or with respect to any duty or authority imposed by law to perform any action in conjunction with any other public official or state employee; or
- h. Testifying as a witness before a state board, commission or agency of the executive branch;

[(2)] (3) "Expenditure", any payment made or charge, expense, cost, debt or bill incurred; any gift, honorarium or item of value bestowed including any food or beverage; any price, charge or fee which is waived, forgiven, reduced or indefinitely delayed; any loan or debt which is canceled, reduced or otherwise forgiven; the transfer of any item with a reasonably discernible cost or fair market value from one person to another or provision of any service or granting of any opportunity for which a charge is customarily made, without charge or for a reduced charge; except that the term "expenditure" shall not include the following:

- (a) Any item, service or thing of value transferred to any person within the third degree of consanguinity of the transferor which is unrelated to any activity of the transferor as a lobbyist;
- (b) Informational material such as books, reports, pamphlets, calendars or periodicals informing a public official regarding such person's official duties, or souvenirs or mementos valued at less than ten dollars;
- (c) Contributions to the public official's campaign committee or candidate committee which are reported pursuant to the provisions of chapter 130, RSMo;
- (d) Any loan made or other credit accommodations granted or other payments made by any person or entity which extends credit or makes loan accommodations or such payments in the regular ordinary scope and course of business, provided that such are extended, made or granted in the ordinary course of such person's or entity's business to persons who are not public officials;
- (e) Any item, service or thing of de minimis value offered to the general public, whether or not the recipient is a public official or a staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official, and only if the grant of the item, service or thing of de minimis value is not motivated in any way by the recipient's status as a public official or staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official;
- (f) The transfer of any item, provision of any service or granting of any opportunity with a reasonably discernible cost or fair market value when such item, service or opportunity is necessary for a public official or employee to perform his or her duty in his or her official capacity, including but not limited to entrance fees to any sporting event, museum, or other venue when the official or employee is participating in a ceremony, public presentation or official meeting therein;
- (g) Any payment, gift, compensation, fee, expenditure or anything of value which is bestowed upon or given to any public official or a staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official when it is compensation for employment or given as an employment benefit and when such employment is in addition to their employment as a public official;

[(3)] (4) "Judicial lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any purchasing decision by the judicial branch of government or by any elected or appointed official or any employee thereof and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

- (a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment which primary purpose is to influence the judiciary in its purchasing decisions on a regular basis on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer, except that this shall not apply to any person who engages in lobbying on an occasional basis only and not as a regular pattern of conduct; or

- (b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or
- (c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation or association; or
- (d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty- first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the judicial branch of state government in connection with attempting to influence such purchasing decisions by the judiciary.

A "judicial lobbyist" shall not include a member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

- a. Appearing or inquiring in regard to a complaint, citation, summons, adversary proceeding, or contested case before a state court;
- b. Participating in public hearings or public proceedings on rules, grants, or other matters;
- c. Responding to any request for information made by any judge or employee of the judicial branch of government;
- d. Preparing, distributing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic; or
- e. Acting within the scope of employment by the general assembly, or acting within the scope of employment by the executive branch of government when acting with respect to the department, division, board, commission, agency or elected state officer by which such person is employed, or with respect to any duty or authority imposed by law to perform any action in conjunction with any other public official or state employee;

[(4)] (5) "Legislative lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence the taking, passage, amendment, delay or defeat of any official action on any bill, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, report or any other action or any other matter pending or proposed in a legislative committee in either house of the general assembly, or in any matter which may be the subject of action by the general assembly and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

- (a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment, which primary purpose is to influence legislation on a regular basis, on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer, except that this shall not apply to any person who engages in lobbying on an occasional basis only and not as a regular pattern of conduct; or
- (b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or
- (c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association or other entity; or
- (d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty- first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the legislative branch of state government in connection with such activity.

A "legislative lobbyist" shall include an attorney at law engaged in activities on behalf of any person unless excluded by any of the following exceptions. A "legislative lobbyist" shall not include any member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

- a. Responding to any request for information made by any public official or employee of the legislative branch of government;
- b. Preparing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic;
- c. Acting within the scope of employment of the legislative branch of government when acting with respect to the general assembly or any member thereof;
- d. Testifying as a witness before the general assembly or any committee thereof;

[(5)] (6) "Lobbyist", any natural person defined as an executive lobbyist, judicial lobbyist or a legislative lobbyist;

[(6)] (7) "Lobbyist principal", any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation or association who employs, contracts for pay or otherwise compensates a lobbyist;

[(7)] (8) "Public official", any member or member-elect of the general assembly, judge or judicial officer, or any other person holding an elective office of state government or any agency head, department director or division director of state government or any member of any state board or commission and any designated decision-making public servant designated by persons described in this subdivision."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 105.473, Line 21, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"lobbyist, judicial lobbyist [or a] , legislative lobbyist, or elected local government official lobbyist, the lobbyist shall file with the commission on"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 105.473, Line 32, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(b) The total of all expenditures by the lobbyist or his or her lobbyist principals made on behalf of all elected local government officials, their staffs and employees, and their spouses and children. Such expenditures shall be separated into at least the following categories:

- a. Printing and publication expenses;
- b. Media and other advertising expenses;
- c. Travel;
- d. Entertainment;
- e. Honoraria;
- f. Meals, food, and beverages;
- g. Gifts;

(c) An itemized listing of the name of the recipient and the nature and amount of each"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 105.473, Line 35, by inserting immediately after the word "official" the following:

"or elected local government official"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 105.473, Line 36, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"[(c)] (d) The total of all expenditures made by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal for occasions"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 105.473, Lines 46 to 48, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"[(d)] (e) Any expenditure made on behalf of a public official, an elected local government official, or [the public] such official's staff, employees, spouse or dependent children, if such expenditure is solicited by such [public] official, the [public] official's staff, employees, or spouse or dependent children, from the lobbyist or his"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 105.473, Lines 52 and 53, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"[(e)] (f) A statement detailing any direct business relationship or association or partnership the lobbyist has with any public official or elected local government official."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 105.473, Line 90, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"officer, or any other person holding an elective office of state government, or any elected local government official, on or before the"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 105.473, Line 102, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"13. The provisions of this section shall supersede any contradicting ordinances or charter provisions."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Dempsey, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Threlkeld offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 1499, Page 30, Section 130.021, Line 129, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"130.032. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed pursuant to section 130.031, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any person other than the candidate in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, one thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five hundred dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two hundred fifty dollars;

(4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is under one hundred thousand, two hundred fifty dollars;

(5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least one hundred thousand but less than two hundred fifty thousand, five hundred dollars; and

(6) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least two hundred fifty thousand, one thousand dollars.

2. For purposes of this subsection "base year amount" shall be the contribution limits prescribed in this section on January 1, 1995. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of January in each even-numbered year beginning before January 1, 2007, and on the first day of January in each odd-numbered year beginning on or after January 1, 2007, by multiplying the base year amount by the cumulative consumer price index, as defined in section 104.010, RSMo, and rounded to the nearest twenty-five-dollar amount, for all years since January 1, 1995.

3. Candidate committees, exploratory committees, campaign committees and continuing committees, other than those continuing committees which are political party committees, shall be subject to the limits prescribed in subsection 1 of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not limit the amount of contributions which may be accumulated by a candidate committee and used for expenditures to further the nomination or election of the candidate who controls such candidate committee[, except as provided in section 130.052].

4. Except as limited by this subsection, the amount of cash contributions, and a separate amount for the amount of in-kind contributions, made by or accepted from a political party committee in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, ten thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five thousand dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two thousand five hundred dollars; and

(4) To elect an individual to any other office of an electoral district, ward or unit, ten times the allowable contribution limit for the office sought.

The amount of contributions which may be made by or accepted from a political party committee in the primary election to elect any candidate who is unopposed in such primary shall be fifty percent of the amount of the allowable contributions as determined in this subsection.

5. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age shall be considered made by the parents or guardians of such person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits prescribed in this chapter. Where the contributor under fourteen years of age has two custodial parents or guardians, fifty percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or guardian, and where such contributor has one custodial parent or guardian, all such contributions shall be attributed to the custodial parent or guardian.

6. Contributions received and expenditures made prior to January 1, 1995, shall be reported as a separate account and pursuant to the laws in effect at the time such contributions are received or expenditures made. Contributions received and expenditures made after January 1, 1995, shall be reported as a separate account from the aforementioned account and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The account reported pursuant to the prior law shall be retained as a separate account and any remaining funds in such account may be used pursuant to this chapter and section 130.034.

7. Any committee which accepts or gives contributions other than those allowed shall be subject to a surcharge of one thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission and which shall be transferred to the director of revenue, upon notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethics commission, and after the candidate has had ten business days after receipt of notice to return the contribution to the contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer or deputy treasurer owing a surcharge shall be personally liable for the payment of the surcharge or may pay such surcharge only from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of notice. Such surcharge shall constitute a debt to the state enforceable under, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Harris (23) offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 1
to
House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Amendment No. 2 to House Bill No. 1499, Page 5, Line 10, by inserting after said line:

"8. No candidate for the house of representatives, senate, or a statewide elected office shall accept any contributions from the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January through the thirtieth day of May of each year. Candidates for special election to the house of representatives, senate, or statewide elected office may accept contributions from the date of the candidate's nomination by his or her respective political party until thirty days after the date of the election."

On motion of Representative Threlkeld, House Amendment No. 2, as amended, was adopted.

Representative Pratt offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Bill No. 1499, Section 130.021, Page 30, Line 129, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“130.026. 1. For the purpose of this section, the term "election authority" or "local election authority" means the county clerk, except that in a city or county having a board of election commissioners the board of election commissioners shall be the election authority. For any political subdivision or other district which is situated within the jurisdiction of more than one election authority, as defined herein, the election authority is the one in whose jurisdiction the candidate resides or, in the case of ballot measures, the one in whose jurisdiction the most populous portion of the political subdivision or district for which an election is held is situated, except that a county clerk or a county board of election commissioners shall be the election authority for all candidates for elective county offices other than county clerk and for any countywide ballot measures.

2. The appropriate officer or officers for candidates and ballot measures shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of candidates for the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, judges of the supreme court, [and] appellate court judges, state senator and state representative, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, in the case of candidates for the offices of [state senator, state representative,] county clerk, and associate circuit court judges and circuit court judges, the appropriate officers shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for the place of residence of the candidate;

(3) In the case of candidates for elective municipal offices in municipalities of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants and elective county offices in counties of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, the appropriate officers shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority of the municipality or county in which the candidate seeks office;

(4) In the case of all other offices, the appropriate officer shall be the election authority of the district or political subdivision for which the candidate seeks office;

(5) In the case of ballot measures, the appropriate officer or officers shall be:

(a) The Missouri ethics commission for a statewide measure;

(b) The local election authority for any political subdivision or district as determined by the provisions of subsection 1 of this section for any measure, other than a statewide measure, to be voted on in that political subdivision or district.

3. The appropriate officer or officers for candidate committees and campaign committees shall be the same as designated in subsection 2 of this section for the candidates or ballot measures supported or opposed as indicated in the statement of organization required to be filed by any such committee.

4. The appropriate officer for political party committees shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of state party committees, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission;

(2) In the case of any district, county or city political party committee, the appropriate officer shall be the Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for that district, county or city.

5. The appropriate officers for a continuing committee and for any other committee not named in subsections 3, 4 and 5 of this section shall be as follows:

(1) The Missouri ethics commission and the election authority for the county in which the committee is domiciled; and

(2) If the committee makes or anticipates making expenditures other than direct contributions which aggregate more than five hundred dollars to support or oppose one or more candidates or ballot measures in the same political subdivision or district for which the appropriate officer is an election authority other than the one for the county in which the committee is domiciled, the appropriate officers for that committee shall include such other election authority or authorities, except that committees covered by this subsection need not file statements required by section 130.021 and reports required by subsections 6, 7 and 8 of section 130.046 with any appropriate officer other than those set forth in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

6. The term "domicile" or "domiciled" means the address of the committee listed on the statement of organization required to be filed by that committee in accordance with the provisions of section 130.021."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pratt, House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

HB 1499, as amended, was laid over.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 26

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations are currently providing quality social services and making a positive difference in the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations are serving their communities in areas such as the prevention and treatment of juvenile delinquency, child care services, support services for the elderly, the prevention of crime, the intervention in and prevention of domestic violence, and a number of other social service areas; and

WHEREAS, some of these faith-based and community organizations are currently receiving moneys from the federal government, or through the state, a city, or local government that itself receives federal moneys, to carry out their missions; and

WHEREAS, because of the quality of services provided by these organizations, it is important for the state and local governments to utilize their services by working in partnership with faith-based and community organizations; and

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations that currently work in partnership with local governments or judicial circuits are doing so within the framework of the Constitutional church-state guidelines:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby express our gratitude to faith-based and community organizations working in their communities to improve the lives of the citizens of this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the General Assembly support the mission of faith-based and community organizations to provide social services to improve the lives of our citizens; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the General Assembly support and encourage the state and all local governments to work in partnership with faith-based and community organizations to provide quality social services that improve the lives of so many of our citizens in particular and better our society in general; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Governor Matt Blunt, the presiding judge of each judicial circuit in this state, and to the director of each state department.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Children and Families, to which was referred HCR 45, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 45

WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution 1 has been introduced in the United States Congress to amend the United States Constitution as follows:

"Section 1. This article may be cited as the "Marriage Protection Amendment".

Section 2. Marriage in the United States shall consist only of the union of a man and a woman. Neither this Constitution, nor the constitution of any State, shall be construed to require that marriage or the legal incidents thereof be conferred upon any union other than the union of a man and a woman."; and

WHEREAS, civil marriage, as a legal union, has generally been defined by state law in accord with the principles of federalism. Although the states have the primary regulatory power with regard to marriage, the federal government has been involved in regulating marriage since the mid-nineteenth century; and

WHEREAS, the 1862 Morrill Act, which made bigamy a punishable federal offense, was followed by a series of laws designed to end the practice of polygamy; and

WHEREAS, in 1996, President Clinton signed the Defense of Marriage Act into law which prevents federal recognition of same-sex marriage, and allows state to refuse to recognize same-sex licenses obtained outside their borders; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of 19 States, including Missouri, to protect traditional marriage by way of a constitutional amendment as the union between one man and one woman is a clear indication to the rest of the country and the United States Congress that the citizens of each state are in strong support of the most sacred institution of marriage; and

WHEREAS, despite progress to protect marriage in the states, the courts pose a direct threat to the will of the people who have spoken through the democratic process; and

WHEREAS, on July 14, 2004, by a vote of 50-48, a similarly-worded federal marriage amendment was defeated in the United States Senate. Despite the amendment's failure in the United States Senate, the United States House of Representatives took up the amendment on September 30, 2004. With a vote of 227-186, the amendment fell well short of the votes needed for adoption; and

WHEREAS, a vote on the marriage protection amendment in the United States Senate is scheduled for June 5, 2006; and

WHEREAS, to become part of the United States Constitution, the Marriage Protection Amendment would need to be approved by a two-thirds majority in the United States House of Representatives and the Senate, and then ratified by 38 of the state legislatures. Three-fourths of the states have already enacted laws in accord with the 1996 Defense of Marriage Act, but these laws do not constitute ratification of the Marriage Protection Amendment:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Congress to approve the Marriage Protection Amendment which would define marriage in the United States as a union of one man and one woman; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Behnen in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray.

Which of you desires life,
And takes delight in prosperous days?
Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking guile.
Turn from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and follow after it.
The Lord has eyes for the just,
And ears for their cry.
(Psalm 34:13-16)

Lord God, thank You for the promise to look upon us with favor when we consistently turn from evil and toward the good. When values compete and when truth is hard to discern, grant us the gift of wisdom and right judgment. Today, may we remain steadfast in holding the positions that allow what is good and just to prevail. We pray to You our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kimmy Schlafly, Joe Caro, Kristen Buehne, Adrian Scott, Lauren Timper, Grant Lubsch, Lindsey Graham, Alex Kohlberg, Peter Kohlberg, Lina Price, Jarett Kille, Brigid Freese and Michael Wedekind.

The Journal of the fifty-eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL - APPROPRIATIONS

HCS HB 1021, relating to appropriations, was taken up by Representative Icet.

Representative Lager offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1021, Page 3, Section 21.026, Line 5, by deleting "$5,000,000" and inserting "3,750,000"; and Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 21.008, Line 7, by inserting immediately thereafter the following:

"For vocational education facilities in Maryville 250,000
For vocational education facilities in St. Joseph 250,000
For vocational education facilities in Cape Girardeau 750,000"; and Adjust title, section and bill totals accordingly.

Representative Swinger offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

Representative Lager raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order well taken.

On motion of Representative Lager, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Storch offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1021, Page 3, Section 21.026, Line 10, by inserting immediately after said line the following new lines:

"For the purchase of a building located at 3101 Chouteau, St. Louis MO From General Revenue Fund $1E"; and Amending section and bill totals accordingly.

Representative Storch moved that House Amendment No. 2 be adopted.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL

HCS HB 1080, relating to ambulatory surgical centers, was taken up by Representative Schaaf.

Representative Schaaf offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1080, Section 197.715, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting immediately before said line the following:

“197.200. As used in sections 197.200 to 197.240, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms mean:

(1) "Ambulatory surgical center", any public or private establishment operated primarily for the purpose of performing surgical procedures or primarily for the purpose of performing childbirths, and which does not provide services or other accommodations for patients to stay more than twenty-three hours within the establishment, provided, however, that nothing in this definition shall be construed to include the offices of dentists currently licensed pursuant to chapter 332, RSMo;

(2) "Dentist", any person currently licensed to practice dentistry pursuant to chapter 332, RSMo;

(3) "Department", the department of health and senior services;

(4) "Governmental unit", any city, county or other political subdivision of this state, or any department, division, board or other agency of any political subdivision of this state;

(5) "Hospital in the community in which the ambulatory surgical center is located", a licensed hospital located in the same community as defined under subdivision 4 of subsection 1 of section 197.715;

[(5)] (6) "Person", any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, or association and the legal successors thereof;

[(6)] (7) "Physician", any person currently licensed to practice medicine pursuant to chapter 334, RSMo;

[(7)] (8) "Podiatrist", any person currently licensed to practice podiatry pursuant to chapter 330, RSMo.""; and

Further amend said section, Pages 1-2, Lines 12-24, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(4) "Same Community", in determining whether a given hospital is in the same community as the ambulatory surgical center, consideration shall be given to the following factors: the distance from the ambulatory surgical center to the hospital; the services offered at the hospital; whether the hospital has declined to extend privileges or a working agreement to the physicians or the ambulatory surgical center on the same terms made available to other physicians or ambulatory surgical centers and whether the physicians or ambulatory surgical center has declined to accept privileges or a working agreement on the same terms accepted by other physicians or ambulatory surgical centers; any other information showing that the hospital and the ambulatory surgical center are in the community such as the residence of patients seen at the hospital. No one factor shall be determinative of whether a hospital is in the community of the ambulatory surgical center, and each situation shall be evaluated to determine that continuity of care and transfer and admittance of patients are ensured. In all cases, the ambulatory surgical center shall demonstrate that there is a specific plan for access to hospital services for those patients that require a higher level of care than provided by the ambulatory surgical center; that the emergency department of the hospital will have access to patient records and physician instructions and orders from the ambulatory surgical center; and that there are protocols for the transportation of patients from the ambulatory surgical center to the hospital when a higher level of care is required.""; and

Further amend said section, Page 2, Lines 41-46, by deleting all of said lines; and Further amend said page, Line 49, by inserting immediately after the word "procedures" the following:

"; however, should such credentialing and privileging criteria and procedures result in denial of hospital staff privileges to a physician, dentist, or podiatrist who performs procedures in an ambulatory surgical center that competes with the hospital, the requirement under Section 197.215 that such physician, dentist or podiatrist be privileged to perform surgical procedures in at least one hospital in the community in which the ambulatory surgical center is located will be waived"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Speaker Jetton assumed the Chair.

HCS HB 1080, with House Amendment No. 1, pending, was placed on the Informal Calendar.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 27

Relating to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer 3-Day Walk.

WHEREAS, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer 3-Day Walk in Kansas City is part of a nationwide series of sixty-mile walks that raise millions of dollars for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and National Philanthropic Trust Breast Cancer Fund; and

WHEREAS, these foundations support cutting edge breast cancer research, prevention, and treatment programs; and

WHEREAS, one of the keys to the success of the 3-Day Walk is the 100 person all volunteer medical team to provide medical services for the participants; and

WHEREAS, the volunteer medical team includes physicians, nurses, physical therapists, chiropractors, and certified athletic trainers who treat a variety of medical conditions, such as blisters, musculoskeletal injuries, environmental stress, and medical illness throughout the event; and

WHEREAS, part of the challenge each year is recruiting medical volunteers for the event. Currently, medical volunteers must be licensed in the State of Missouri to participate; and

WHEREAS, other states have enacted legislation allowing medical professionals licensed and in good standing in other states to participate in the 3-Day Walk event; and

WHEREAS, granting a temporary waiver of the Missouri licensure requirements for an event such as the 3-Day Walk in Kansas City will allow event organizers to utilize medical professionals from both Missouri and Kansas to staff their 100 person volunteer medical team:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby permit any person appointed by the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer 3-Day Walk in Kansas City to provide professional medical services to provide such services during the period of September 14, 2006, to September 17, 2006, if such person is licensed to practice and is in good standing in another state or territory; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTIETH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we are thankful that You listen as we pray! You are faithful and honest and will answer our prayer.

Lord, we are not proud and haughty. We don't think ourselves better than others. We don't pretend to "know it all". We do, instead, humble ourselves before You, gaining insight and wisdom that only You can reveal. Our hope is in You.

We are grateful for the unique opportunities You present to us each day: Opportunities to serve, opportunities to be a voice for our districts, opportunities to help direct the future of our state.

As we arrive here safely each week, we are mindful that You are God, and we look to You for safe travel. You keep us from harm.

Now may You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Michaela Smith, Matthew Godsy, Lauren Godsy, Grace Betz, Zane Betz, Justin Warren, Courtney Swift, Logan Smith, Ashlyn Black, Joakima Day and Ashley Dawson.

The Journal of the fifty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Committee on Conservation and Natural Resources, Chairman Hobbs reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Conservation and Natural Resources, to which was referred HCR 31, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 31

WHEREAS, two of this country's greatest waterways, the Mississippi River on Missouri's eastern border and the Missouri River which winds across the state, helped Missouri become a supply center for many of the westward-bound settlers of the nation's early years; and

WHEREAS, from the muddy Missouri to the swift and clear Jacks Fork, the hundreds of rivers and streams in Missouri snake across more than 50,000 miles of the state - more than twice the distance around the earth - providing endless recreational opportunities for Missourians, including boating, fishing, swimming, and bird watching along the bluffs bordering our many rivers and streams; and

WHEREAS, shipping along the navigable rivers boosted Missouri's status as an agriculture supplier, barges and steamboats used the waterways to move goods, river towns boomed, and railroads continued to fuel the growth of Missouri as a large transportation center; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Territory, and later the State of Missouri, took the name of the Missouri River which was named for the Missouri Indians who lived along the banks. The name "Missouri" means "canoe haver"; and

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri has many nicknames, with the most widely recognized being "The Show-Me State". Missouri is also called the "The Cave State", "The Lead State", "The Bullion State", "The Ozark State", "The Iron Mountain State", and the "Pennsylvania of the West"; and

WHEREAS, roads along or near both banks of the Mississippi River along its entire length have been designated as "The Great River Road" and are marked with a special road sign which depicts a ship's wheel; and

WHEREAS, the Great Rivers Greenway District was established in November 2000 in St. Louis City, St. Louis County, and St. Charles County to eventually develop "The River Ring" as an interconnected system of greenways, parks, and trails in the St. Louis area which will enhance the quality of life for residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, from confluence of the Big Muddy and the Mighty Mississippi at the eastern portion of the state and looking north, south, or west, the State of Missouri includes the land that Meriwether Lewis and William Clark scanned as they began their journey up the Missouri River on their Voyage of Discovery in 1804, the land that is habitat for deer, turkey, bald eagles, and other wildlife, the land that is farmland abundant with agricultural crops, and the same land that held 260 billion gallons of water during the Great Flood of 1993; and

WHEREAS, with much of Missouri's history tied to the mighty rivers that flow through it, Missouri should also be known as the "The Great Rivers State":

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby encourage the use of the slogan "The Great Rivers State" as a slogan for the State of Missouri and urge the Division of Tourism within the Department of Economic Development to recognize and incorporate the slogan in promoting Missouri tourism; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for John Robinson, the Director of the Division of Tourism.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Conservation and Natural Resources, to which was referred HB 1600, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Conservation and Natural Resources, to which was referred HB 1730, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substiute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Conservation and Natural Resources, to which was referred SCR 27, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Professional Registration and Licensing, Chairman Behnen reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Professional Registration and Licensing, to which was referred SB 1124, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father James M. Smith.

Almighty God,

You have shown us that You are Love itself in the very act of creating us; You did not have to create anything.

You have shown us that You are Love itself in the gifts You have given us and by which You have sustained us.

You have made us to be like You, to be people of love.

Make us people of true love, love that is chosen and committed. In love, help us to choose kindness, when we want to be unkind. In love, help us to choose patience, when we feel impatient. Help us to be humble, when we want to be pompous and inflated. Help us to be generous, when we want to seek only our own interests. Help us to be gentle, when we want to be quick-tempered. Help us to be forgiving, when we want to brood over injury. Help us to find joy in truth rather than pleasure in wrong-doing.

Lord, give us strength to bear our burdens when we want to lay them down and quit. Give us belief and knowledge in the truth when others attempt to misguide us by deceit. And Lord, give us hope for a brighter future when all around us seems dark.

Lord, help us to endure the sufferings of this present life so that we may finally attain eternal life with You, who is God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elizabeth Chau, Molly Garrison, Alex Hebert, Teresa Martino, Amelia Belle Bird, Adam Michael Dempsher, Sophie Louise Broz, Philip Benoist Chrisler, Douglas David Austin, Samantha Jean Brown, Matt Coatney, Nancy Bowers, Madeline Cook, Ashton Abbadessa, Lauren Mullikin, Mart Stepanovich, Nick Westphil, Macie Rae Roorda, Shania Francka, Olivia McGhee and Gracyn Walter.

The Journal of the sixtieth day was approved as corrected.

Representative Cooper (120) offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1075, Page 3, Section 170.015, Line 75, by inserting at the end of said line the following:

“The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to an entity licensed under chapter 197, RSMo, when such entity is asked to provide educational services by a school district or charter school.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Stevenson offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 5.

for
House Amendment No. 5*

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1075, Section 170.015, Page 2, Lines 38 and 39, by deleting on each line the first instance of the word “fertilization” and replacing it with the word “conception”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 170.015, Page 3, Lines 72-75, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“7. No school district or charter school, or its personnel or agents, shall provide abortion services, or permit a person or entity to offer, sponsor, or furnish in any manner any course materials or instruction to its students if such person or entity is a provider of abortion services, provided that a licensed hospital, as defined by subsection 2 of section 197.020, RSMo, may be permitted to provide course materials and instruction, including but not limited to, human sexuality and sexually transmitted diseases but not relating to abortion services.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Low (39) raised a point of order that House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 5 is not a true substitute amendment.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order not well taken.

On motion of Representative Stevenson, House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Silvey offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1075, Section 170.015, Page 2, Line 13, by deleting the open bracket “[“ immediately before the word “Present”; and

Further amend said line, by deleting the closed bracket “]” immediately after the word “Present”; and

Further amend said line, by deleting the words “and personally”; and

Further amend said page, Line 14, by deleting the word “relevant”; and

Further amend said line, by deleting the open bracket “[“ immediately before the word “both”; and

Further amend said section, Line 16, by deleting the closed bracket “]” immediately after the word “diseases”; and

Further amend said line, by deleting the words “contraception, abortion, and pregnancy” and insert in lieu thereof the following:

“and further information”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Corcoran offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 6.

Representative Flook raised a point of order that House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 6 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order not well taken because House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 6 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair then clarified that the point of order was well taken.

Representative Low (39) raised a point of order that the Chair had already ruled on the point of order.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order not well taken.

On motion of Representative Silvey, House Amendment No. 6 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Davis, HCS HB 1075, as amended, was adopted by the following vote:

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILL

HCS SCS SBs 1001, 896 & 761, relating to drivers' licenses, was taken up by Representative St. Onge.

Representative St. Onge offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1001, 896 & 761, Page 12, Section 302.178, Line 101, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"302.720. 1. Except when operating under an instruction permit as described in this section, no person may drive a commercial motor vehicle unless the person has been issued a commercial driver's license with applicable endorsements valid for the type of vehicle being operated as specified in sections 302.700 to 302.780. A commercial driver's instruction permit shall allow the holder of a valid license to operate a commercial motor vehicle when accompanied by the holder of a commercial driver's license valid for the vehicle being operated and who occupies a seat beside the individual, or reasonably near the individual in the case of buses, for the purpose of giving instruction in driving the commercial motor vehicle. A commercial driver's instruction permit shall be valid for the vehicle being operated for a period of not more than six months, and shall not be issued until the permit holder has met all other requirements of sections 302.700 to 302.780, except for the driving test. A permit holder, unless otherwise disqualified, may be granted one six-month renewal within a one-year period. The fee for such permit or renewal shall be five dollars. In the alternative, a commercial driver's instruction permit shall be issued for a thirty-day period to allow the holder of a valid driver's license to operate a commercial motor vehicle if the applicant has completed all other requirements except the driving test. The permit may be renewed for one additional thirty-day period and the fee for the permit and for renewal shall be five dollars.

2. No person may be issued a commercial driver's license until he has passed written and driving tests for the operation of a commercial motor vehicle which complies with the minimum federal standards established by the Secretary and has satisfied all other requirements of the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 (Title XII of Pub. Law 99-570), as well as any other requirements imposed by state law. Applicants for a hazardous materials endorsement must also meet the requirements of the U.S. Patriot Act of 2001 (Title X of Public Law 107-56) as specified and required by regulations promulgated by the Secretary. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting the director from establishing alternate testing formats for those who are functionally illiterate; provided, however, that any such alternate test must comply with the minimum requirements of the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 (Title XII of Pub. Law 99-570) as established by the Secretary.

(1) The written and driving tests shall be held at such times and in such places as the superintendent may designate. A twenty-five dollar examination fee shall be paid by the applicant upon completion of any written or driving test. The director shall delegate the power to conduct the examinations required under sections 302.700 to 302.780 to any member of the highway patrol or any person employed by the highway patrol qualified to give driving examinations.

(2) The director shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations governing the certification of third-party testers by the department of revenue. Such rules and regulations shall substantially comply with the requirements of 49

CFR Part 383, Section 383.75. A certification to conduct third-party testing shall be valid for one year, and the department shall charge a fee of one hundred dollars to issue or renew the certification of any third-party tester.

(3) Beginning August 28, 2006, the director shall only issue third-party tester certification to private companies who operate on the campus of a junior college or community college established under chapter 178, RSMo, or to private companies who own and maintain their own fleet and administer in-house testing to employees. Except as specified in this subsection, no third-party tester certification shall be issued to any private company predominately operated for commercial driver's license testing purposes and no third-party tester certification shall be renewed for such company. Any third-party tester who violates any of the rules and regulations adopted and promulgated pursuant to this section shall be subject to having his certification revoked by the department. The department shall provide written notice and an opportunity for the third-party tester to be heard in substantially the same manner as provided in chapter 536, RSMo. If any applicant submits evidence that he has successfully completed a test administered by a third-party tester, the actual driving test for a commercial driver's license may then be waived.

[(3)] (4) Every applicant for renewal of a commercial driver's license shall provide such certifications and information as required by the secretary and if such person transports a hazardous material must also meet the requirements of the U.S. Patriot Act of 2001 (Title X of Public Law 107-56) as specified and required by regulations promulgated by the secretary[.]. Such person shall be required to take the written test for such endorsement. A twenty-five dollar examination fee shall be paid upon completion of such tests.

3. A commercial driver's license may not be issued to a person while the person is disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle, when a disqualification is pending in any state or while the person's driver's license is suspended, revoked, or canceled in any state; nor may a commercial driver's license be issued unless the person first surrenders in a manner prescribed by the director any commercial driver's license issued by another state, which license shall be returned to the issuing state for cancellation.

4. Beginning July 1, 2005, the director shall not issue an instruction permit under this section unless the director verifies that the applicant is lawfully present in the United States before accepting the application. The director may, by rule or regulation, establish procedures to verify the lawful presence of the applicant under this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative St. Onge, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative St. Onge offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1001, 896 & 761, Pages 4 through 5, Section 226.009.4(6), Lines 86 through 87, by removing the words "parties making or defending claims against such carriers." and inserting in lieu thereof the words "a person identified in this subsection; except that the commission may disclose to such attorneys only data relating to their client, their client's employer or employee, or their client's lessor or lessee with reference to a motor vehicle."

On motion of Representative St. Onge, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Daus offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1001, 896 & 761, Pages 9 and 10, Section 302.171, Lines 80 to 85, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter that requires an applicant to provide proof of lawful presence for renewal of a noncommercial driver's license, noncommercial instruction permit, or nondriver's license, an applicant who has previously held for a period of fifteen years or more a noncommercial driver's license, noncommercial instruction permit, or nondriver's license is exempt from showing proof of lawful presence."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Skaggs offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 3.

Representative St. Onge raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 3 goes beyond the scope of the underlying amendment.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order well taken.

Representative Cooper (120) assumed the Chair.

On motion of Representative Daus, House Amendment No. 3 was adopted by the following vote:

WHEREAS, Amendment I of the United States Constitution, which provides in part that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion...", is a specific and unequivocal instruction to only the United States Congress; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution makes no restriction on the ability of states to acknowledge God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; and

WHEREAS, Amendment X of the United States Constitution, which provides that "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people", reserved the right of the acknowledgment of God to the states and the people; and

WHEREAS, the Preamble to the Missouri Constitution, which provides that "We the people of Missouri, with profound reverence for the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and grateful for His goodness, do establish this constitution for the better government of the state", is within the boundaries of rights reserved to the states by the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the federal judiciary has overstepped its constitutional boundaries and ruled against the acknowledgment of God as the sovereign source of law, liberty, and government by local and state officers and other state institutions, including state schools; and

WHEREAS, the federal judiciary has created confusion between Amendment I and Amendment X of the United States Constitution, and has consistently misapplied Amendment XIV, usurping the rights of the states and the people; and

WHEREAS, Article VI of the United States Constitution requires that each member of the United States Congress and each member of the several state legislatures be bound by oath or affirmation to "support this constitution"; and

WHEREAS, among the seminal principles of our constitutional republic is the premise that each branch of government will be a "check" upon the others; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress is charged with the solemn responsibility to cause the federal judiciary to refrain from interfering with the acknowledgment of God by any local, state, or federal official by any constitutional means at its' disposal, including limiting the jurisdiction of the federal courts in such matters; and

WHEREAS, Article III, Section 2 of the United States Constitution provides in part that "the...court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make"; and

WHEREAS, there is pending before the 109th Congress the Constitution Restoration Act of 2005, H.R. 1070 and S. 520, which will limit the jurisdiction of the federal courts and preserve the right to acknowledge God, exercised by the State of Missouri in its Preamble to the Missouri Constitution, to the states and to the people and resolve the issue of improper judicial intervention in matters relating to the acknowledgment of God:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, the Ninety-third General Assembly, hereby urge the United States Congress to adopt forthwith the Constitution Restoration Act of 2005, H. R. 1070 and S. 520; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, the Chairs of the Judiciary Committees of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Pursuant to Rule 44(c), the following bills have remained on the Senate Bills for Third Reading Consent Calendar for five legislative days without any objection, and all committee substitutes and committee amendments thereto adopted by consent: SB 558, HCS SB 725, SCS SB 749, HCS SB 819, SB 828, SB 871, HCS SB 893, SCS SB 934, SB 1016, SB 1020, SB 1056, SB 1094, SB 1155, SB 1177, SB 1207, SCS SB 580, SB 612, SB 618, SCS SB 650, SCS SBs 667, 704, 941, 956 & 987, HCS SB 712, SCS SB 747, HCS SCS SB 756, HCS SCS SB 769, SB 785, SCS SB 830, HCS SB 834, SB 845, SCS SB 870, SB 881, SB 919, SB 931, SB 964, SB 990, HCA 1, SCS#2 SB 1003, HCS SB 1045, SB 1057, SCS SB 1059, SCS SB 1060, SB 1085, HCS SCS SB 1086, HCS SCS SB 1122, SB 1139, SB 1146, HCS SB 1165, SB 1189, SB 1197, SB 1208 and SB 1216.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS HCS HBs 1270 & 1027, entitled:

An act to amend chapter 414, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to ethanol blend fuel.

With Senate Amendment No. 2, Senate Amendment No. 5 and Senate Amendment No. 6.

Senate Amendment No. 2

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1270 & 1027, Page 1, Section Title, Lines 1-2, by striking the words “ethanol blend” and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“renewable”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“142.031. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall mean:

(1) “Biodiesel”, fuel as defined in ASTM Standard D-6751 or its subsequent standard specifications for biodiesel fuel (B100) blend stock for distillate fuels;

(2) “Missouri qualified biodiesel producer”, a facility that produces biodiesel, is registered with the United States Environmental Protection Agency according to the requirements of 40 CFR 79, and is:

(a) At least fifty-one percent is owned by agricultural producers who are residents of this state and who are actively engaged in agricultural production for commercial purposes; or

(b) At least eighty percent of the feedstock used by the facility originates in the state of Missouri. For purposes of this section, the term “feedstock” shall mean a Missouri agriculture product as defined in section 348.400, RSMo.

2. The “Missouri Qualified Biodiesel Producer Incentive Fund” is hereby created and subject to appropriations shall be used to provide economic subsidies to Missouri qualified biodiesel producers pursuant to this section. The director of the department of agriculture shall administer the fund pursuant to this section.

3. A Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall be eligible for a monthly grant from the fund provided that fifty-one percent of the feedstock originates in the state of Missouri and that] one hundred percent of the feedstock originates in the United States. However, the director may waive the feedstock requirements on a month-to-month basis if the facility provides verification that adequate feedstock is not available. A Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall only be eligible for the grant for a total of sixty months unless such producers during the sixty months fail, due to a lack of appropriations, to receive the full amount from the fund for which the producers were eligible, in which case such producers shall continue to be eligible for up to twenty-four additional months or until they have received the maximum amount of funding for which such producers were eligible during the original sixty-month time period. The amount of the grant is determined by calculating the estimated gallons of qualified biodiesel produced during the preceding month from Missouri agricultural products, as certified by the department of agriculture, and applying such figure to the per-gallon incentive credit established in this subsection. Each Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall be eligible for a total grant in any fiscal year equal to thirty cents per gallon for the first fifteen million gallons of qualified biodiesel produced from Missouri agricultural products in the fiscal year plus ten cents per gallon for the next fifteen million gallons of qualified biodiesel produced from Missouri agricultural products in the fiscal year. All such qualified biodiesel produced by a Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in excess of thirty million gallons shall not be applied to the computation of a grant pursuant to this subsection. The department of agriculture shall pay all grants for a particular month by the fifteenth day after receipt and approval of the application described in subsection 4 of this section.

4. In order for a Missouri qualified biodiesel producer to obtain a grant from the fund, an application for such funds shall be received no later than fifteen days following the last day of the month for which the grant is sought. The application shall include:

- (1) The location of the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer;
- (2) The average number of citizens of Missouri employed by the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in the preceding month, if applicable;
- (3) The number of bushel equivalents of Missouri agricultural commodities used by the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in the production of biodiesel in the preceding month;
- (4) The number of gallons of qualified biodiesel the producer manufactures during the month for which the grant is applied;
- (5) A copy of the qualified biodiesel producer license required pursuant to subsection 5 of this section, name and address of surety company, and amount of bond to be posted pursuant to subsection 5 of this section; and
- (6) Any other information deemed necessary by the department of agriculture to adequately ensure that such grants shall be made only to Missouri qualified biodiesel producers.

5. The director of the department of agriculture, in consultation with the department of revenue, shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the administration of the provisions of this section.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2002, shall be invalid and void.

7. The provisions of this section shall expire on December 31, 2009. However, Missouri qualified biodiesel producers receiving any grants awarded prior to the expiration date of this section shall continue to be eligible for the remainder of the original sixty-month time period under the same terms and conditions of this section unless such producer during those sixty months failed, due to a lack of appropriations, to receive the full amount from the fund for which he or she was eligible. In that case, such producers shall continue to be eligible for up to twenty-four additional months or until they have received the maximum amount of funding for which they were eligible during the original sixty-month time period.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 5

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1270 & 1027, Page 4, Section 414.255, Line 119, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"Section 1. No Missouri qualified fuel ethanol producer, as defined in section 142.028, RSMo, eligible for a grant under section 142.208, RSMo, shall employ an undocumented worker, as defined by the federal Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. In the event that any such producer employs an undocumented worker, all grant monies received under section 142.028, RSMo, shall terminate and the producer in question shall not be eligible for future grants for a period of three years from the state under section 142.028, RSMo."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 6

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1270 & 1027, Page 4, Section 414.255, Line 119, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"Section 1. The provisions of chapter 290, RSMo, shall apply to any Missouri qualified fuel ethanol producer, as defined in section 142.028, RSMo, who receives a grant from the state under section 142.028, RSMo."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cooper (120) in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Blessed be the Lord, who is our rock. You give us strength and skill for each day's encounter.

O Lord, who are we that You even notice us? For we are but a breath; our days are like a passing shadow. Yet You continue to shower us with Your goodness and mercy. You are our fortress, our tower of strength and safety.

When we feel overwhelmed, frustrated and anxious, You alone know which way we ought to turn for relief.

We are very much aware that our words and actions are far reaching: touching every man, woman, and child in our state. So we choose our words and actions wisely. We do not proceed as the naive or the brash, but with wisdom: listening attentively to You.

Now may the Lord of Peace Himself give us peace always in every way. The Lord be with us all.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jake Burt, Abby Clutter, Chandra Eppenauer, Melissa Fletcher, Madeleine Marie Biggs, Brody David Smith, Emma Faith Lingle, Erik Michael Stryshak, Juliana Lynn Kehoe, Austin Dunn Lamkin, Anzori Misabishvili, Seitek Kulmamatov, Iryna Brunova and Jasmin Klepper.

The Journal of the sixty-first day was approved as printed.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 666, Section A, Page 1, Line 3, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

“135.610. 1. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, any taxpayer who is a volunteer firefighter in this state shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, RSMo, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo.

2. The credit authorized in this section shall be claimed as follows:

(1) The taxpayer may claim a credit in the amount of one hundred eighty dollars in the first tax year the taxpayer claims the credit if the taxpayer has completed at least twelve hours of any firefighter training program approved by the office of the state fire marshal before or in the tax year for which the credit is claimed. The taxpayer may claim the credit authorized in this subdivision in each subsequent tax year if the taxpayer completes at least twelve hours of any firefighter training program approved by the office of the state fire marshal in such subsequent tax year;

(2) After the initial tax credit is claimed under subdivision (1) of this subsection and the taxpayer has completed at least thirty hours of any firefighter training program approved by the office of the state fire marshal, the taxpayer may claim a credit in the amount of three hundred sixty dollars in each tax year if the taxpayer has completed at least twelve hours of firefighter training program approved by the office of the state fire marshal in the tax year the taxpayer claims the credit under this subdivision and has within the previous five years received at least twelve hours of training, to include but not limited to the following areas:

- (a) Hazardous materials;
- (b) Incident management systems; and
- (c) Weapons of mass destruction.

3. The state fire marshal may develop or approve existing training programs for volunteer firefighters, may establish procedures for providing documentation that the taxpayer is a volunteer firefighter in good standing with a registered fire department, as required in chapter 320, RSMo, and has completed the training requirements in this section, and may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

4. The tax credit allowed by this section shall be claimed by the qualified taxpayer at the time such taxpayer files a return and shall be applied against the income tax liability imposed by chapter 143, RSMo, after all other credits provided by law have been applied. If the amount of the tax credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability, the difference shall not be refundable but may be carried forward to any of the taxpayer's four subsequent taxable years.

5. The director of revenue shall establish the procedure by which the tax credit in this section may be claimed, and shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void.

7. Pursuant to section 23.253, RSMo, of the Missouri Sunset Act:

(1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly; and

(2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Skaggs raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 4 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Richard requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order not well taken.

On motion of Representative Ruestman, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Parson offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 666, Page 4, Section 320.339, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any firefighter employed by a municipal fire department or a fire protection district shall be prohibited from campaigning for any issue or candidate while he or she is in official department uniform."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

HCS SCS SB 666, as amended, with House Amendment No. 5, pending, was laid over.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

HJR 55, relating to compensation of public officials, was taken up by Representative Lipke.

Representative Lipke offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Joint Resolution No. 55, Section 3, Page 4, Line 94, by inserting immediately after the number “12.” the following:

“Beginning January 1, 2007,”; and

Further amend said page, Lines 98-99, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof:

“13. No compensation schedule filed by the commission after the effective date of this subsection shall take effect for members of the general assembly until January 1, 2009.”; and

Further amend Section B, Page 4, Line 8, by deleting the word “solely”; and

Further amend said line, by inserting immediately after the word “commission” the following:

“subject to voter referendum”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lipke, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

HJR 55, as amended, was laid over.

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 31

WHEREAS, Missouri's long-standing agriculture tradition continues to thrive and contribute to our economy and to our families; and

WHEREAS, the state of Missouri has maintained a robust and lucrative agriculture culture, frequently ranking in the top ten among states with regard to the number of operating farms, hay, cotton, and corn production, cattle, hog and turkey production, and more; and

WHEREAS, the economic benefits from these agricultural operations are profoundly important to our communities, to our state, and to our nation; and

WHEREAS the farm family is the backbone of our state, as we, a legislative body, do swear to uphold and promote our farming community and protect the freedoms we share; and

WHEREAS, with the introduction of the Missouri Animal ID Program, a coordinated effort between the Missouri Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), the issues of food security and personal freedom became a reality for Missouri agriculture producers; and

WHEREAS, the USDA National Animal Identification System (NAIS) is currently and should remain a voluntary program with regard to animal identification programs and marketing practices; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri General Assembly oppose such animal identification programs being mandatory:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Department of Agriculture to continue the National Animal Identification System program as a voluntary program to allow agricultural families to direct their own future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the United States Department of Agriculture and the Missouri Department of Agriculture.

Committee on Children and Families, Chairman Phillips reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Children and Families, to which was referred SS SCS SB 1229, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Behnen in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Today is Take Your Daughters and Sons to Work Day

Let us pray.

Almighty God, You are our Father and Father of all people. We thank You for being the Heavenly Father of our children. Thank You for giving them to us. Help us to be good parents. In Your mercy, please make up for what is lacking in our parenting.

As representatives of all the people in our districts, we are painfully aware of the children who are poor. Some lack material needs, some lack love and stable family life, some lack both. In many ways they depend on us. Lord God, give us the wisdom to know how to help them, so that their poverty is overcome, their entire life is enhanced and their dignity is protected. We pray that all children can be filled with laughter and joy.

We pray to You, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Blake Koetting, Drake Thaller Taylor, Joshua Davis, Caleb Davis, Bill David Reynolds, JaWon Johnson, Tamera Luster, Ashlea Whittenburg, Jenny Aubuchon, Sara Nelson, Lexi Warner, Elizabeth DiMaggio, Amelia Chiles, Cynthia Claire Youmans, Courtney Cox, David Baker, John Loehner, Brandon Gleason, Valerie Wilson, Landon Franz, Lauren Franz, Lucy Dowing, Liam Johnston, Emma Bryant, David Peck, Rachel Booth, Eric Grumke, Ben Clewell, Rachel Mehringer, Hannah Denkler, Melanie Rowden, Meghan LeVota, Madeline LeVota, Eric Edsen, Haylen Mead, Khalisha Scott, Kadin Avery Storm, Gavin Guier, Jaisen Guier, Damon A. Jones, II, Cade Bradford Crowell, Audrey Kathryn Felker and Devin Rose.

The Journal of the sixty-second day was approved as printed.

Representative Sutherland offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 614, Section 135.1142, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting before said line the following:

"135.550. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Contribution", a donation of cash, stock, bonds or other marketable securities, or real property;
(2) "Shelter for victims of domestic violence", a facility located in this state which meets the definition of a shelter for victims of domestic violence pursuant to section 455.200, RSMo, and which meets the requirements of section 455.220, RSMo;

(3) "State tax liability", in the case of a business taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, chapter 147, RSMo, chapter 148, RSMo, and chapter 153, RSMo, exclusive of the provisions relating to the withholding of tax as provided for in sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, and related provisions, and in the case of an individual taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo;

(4) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, a partner in a firm, corporation or a shareholder in an S corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, or a corporation subject to the annual corporation franchise tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 147, RSMo, or an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium receipts in this state, or other financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state pursuant to the provisions of chapter 148, RSMo, or an express company which pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state pursuant to chapter 153, RSMo, or an individual subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo.

2. A taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability, in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a shelter for victims of domestic violence.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the taxable year that the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per taxable year. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the taxable year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding taxable years until the full credit has been claimed.

4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's contribution or contributions to a shelter or shelters for victims of domestic violence in such taxpayer's taxable year has a value of at least one hundred dollars.

5. The director of [public safety] the department of social services shall determine, at least annually, which facilities in this state may be classified as shelters for victims of domestic violence. The director of [public safety] the department of social services may require of a facility seeking to be classified as a shelter for victims of domestic violence whatever information is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The director of [public safety] the department of social services shall classify a facility as a shelter for victims of domestic violence if such facility meets the definition set forth in subsection 1 of this section.

6. The director of [public safety] the department of social services shall establish a procedure by which a taxpayer can determine if a facility has been classified as a shelter for victims of domestic violence, and by which such taxpayer can then contribute to such shelter for victims of domestic violence and claim a tax credit. Shelters for victims of domestic violence shall be permitted to decline a contribution from a taxpayer. The cumulative amount of tax credits which may be claimed by all the taxpayers contributing to shelters for victims of domestic violence in any one fiscal year shall not exceed two million dollars.

7. The director of [public safety] the department of social services shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director of [public safety] the department of social services, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as shelters for victims of domestic violence. If a shelter for victims of domestic violence fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of [public safety] the department of social services, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of [public safety] the department of social services may reapportion these unused tax credits to those shelters for victims of domestic violence that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of [public safety] the department of social services, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of [public safety] the department of social services may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of [public safety] the department of social services shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

8. This section shall become effective January 1, 2000, and shall apply to all tax years after December 31, 1999."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Sutherland, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Sutherland, HCS SCS SB 614, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Representative Sutherland, HCS SCS SB 614, as amended, was read the third time and passed by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate refuses to recede from its position on SCS HCS HBs 1270 & 1027, as amended, and grants the House a conference thereon.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on SCS HCS HBs 1270 & 1027, as amended: Senators Cauthorn, Klindt, Shields, Green and Barnitz.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS HB 1865, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 173.215, 173.220, and 173.820, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof four new sections relating to higher education.

With Senate Amendment No. 1 and Senate Amendment No. 2

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1865, Page 1, In the Title, Line 3, by inserting immediately after the word “education” the following:

“, with an effective date and with a termination date for a certain section”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section 173.195, Line 1, by striking the words “Beginning on July 1, 2007,”; and

Further amend said section, Page 3, Line 63, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“7. The joint committee on education, as established in section 160.254, RSMo, shall study options for making the state-need-based scholarship programs more efficient and effective by combining such programs. 8. The provisions of this section shall terminate on June 30, 2009.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 173.820, Line 78, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section B. The provisions of section A of this act shall become effective July 1, 2007.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 2

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1865, Page 6, Section 173.220, Line 78, by inserting after all of said line, the following:

“Section 1. The joint committee on education, as established in section 160.254, RSMo, shall study the feasibility of including students enrolled in proprietary schools, as that term is defined in section 173.600, RSMo, in all state-based financial aid programs.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCS SCS SB 795 and has taken up and passed HCS SCS SB 795.

Emergency clause adopted.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCS SB 809 and has taken up and passed HCS SB 809.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCS SB 837 and has taken up and passed HCS SB 837.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SCS SB 932: Senators Scott, Griesheimer, Purgason, Callahan and Days.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCS SB 981 and has taken up and passed HCS SB 981.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SCS SBs 1001, 896 & 761, as amended: Senators Griesheimer, Stouffer, Alter, Days and Callahan.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS SBs 1031 & 846, entitled:

An act to amend chapter 386, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to natural gas safety penalties, with penalty provisions.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 46

WHEREAS, in a recent study, the United States Public Interest Research Group (USPIRG) found that one in four credit reports contain serious errors; and

WHEREAS, the United States Fair Credit Reporting Act of 1971 governs credit reporting agencies, including Experian, Equifax, and Trans Union which are the three largest credit reporting agencies in the United States with national databases; and

WHEREAS, the Fair Credit Reporting Act was amended in 2003 by the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA) to address the ever-increasing problem of identify theft. FACTA included stronger protections for consumers by increasing the responsibility of the credit reporting agencies to investigate consumer disputes; and

WHEREAS, under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, both the credit reporting agencies and the credit information providers, such as banks, finance companies, department stores, taxing authorities, landlords, and other credit grantors, are responsible for correcting inaccurate or incomplete information in credit reports; and

WHEREAS, under the FACTA provisions, a consumer may dispute erroneous or inaccurate information directly with the credit information provider or with the credit reporting agency. Upon notice of disputed information, the credit information provider or credit reporting agency must investigate the items in question and cannot report negative information while the investigation is pending; and

WHEREAS, upon completion of an investigation, the consumer is provided with written results of the investigation and a free copy of the consumer's credit report if the investigation results in a change in the consumer's credit report; and

WHEREAS, since December 2004, financial institutions that extend credit must send consumers a notice before and no later than 30 days after negative information is furnished to a credit reporting agency, such as late payments, missed payments, partial payments, or any other form of default; and

WHEREAS, while these changes are an important step in protecting consumers against errors and inaccuracies in their credit reports, the federal act does not go far enough to ensure a timely correction of any errors in a credit report by the credit reporting agencies and credit information providers; and

WHEREAS, without provisions requiring the timely correction of errors and inaccuracies by credit reporting agencies and credit information providers, consumers could still face months or even years of red tape in correcting errors and inaccuracies, resulting in denials of extension of consumer credit based on errors and inaccuracies in credit reports; and

WHEREAS, to fully protect consumers from an unfair loss of credit worthiness based on erroneous and inaccurate credit reports, credit reporting agencies and credit information providers must be subject to strict time limitations for the posting of information and correcting erroneous and inaccurate information contained in consumer credit reports:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urges the United States Congress to further amend the Fair Credit Reporting Act to impose strict time limits on credit reporting agencies and credit information providers regarding the posting of information and the correction of erroneous and inaccurate information contained in consumer credit reports; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Financial Institutions, to which was referred SS SCS SB 718, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Health Care Policy, Chairman Cooper (155) reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Health Care Policy, to which was referred SCS SBs 567 & 792, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Health Care Policy, to which was referred SCS SBs 1239 & 1091, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Local Government, Chairman Johnson (47) reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Local Government, to which was referred SCS SB 646, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Local Government, to which was referred SCS SB 746, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Local Government, to which was referred SB 874, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Local Government, to which was referred SB 1102, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Special Committee on Energy and Environment, Chairman Bivins reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Energy and Environment, to which was referred SCS SB 1081, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Energy and Environment, to which was referred SS SCS SB 1236, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Utilities, Chairman Rector reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Utilities, to which was referred HR 1930, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1930

WHEREAS, Hurricane Katrina exposed the weakness of concentrated petroleum refining capacity in common risk-prone areas, such as the Gulf Coast, and the value of locating refineries in more inland areas; and

WHEREAS, in an industry which operates in global markets, United States refiners are unable to meet the growth in demand for refined petroleum products in the United States and gaps in supply are filled by imports; and

WHEREAS, as global economies expand, there will be increased competition for imports. Based on publicly available data, nearly 1.5 million barrels per day of additional refining capacity projects are planned or under consideration for the 2005-2011 time period; and

WHEREAS, while domestic expansion of our petroleum refining capacity is vital, existing infrastructure for both crude oil and refined product distribution imposes economic limitations on where new refineries could be located; and

WHEREAS, policies are needed to create a climate conducive to investments to expand domestic refining capacity, such as reform of the New Source Review (NSR) permitting program to streamline the permit process and alignment of National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) ozone deadlines; and

WHEREAS, due to the location of both four domestic and one Canadian crude oil pipelines, as well as three pipelines that traverse the State of Missouri, Missouri has many advantages for the placement of petroleum refining facilities; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's close proximity to mature oil industry states such as Oklahoma and Kansas provide optimum access to suppliers and services; and

WHEREAS, with ample rural and low population areas, Missouri provides geographic buffering while still being located closely to population centers that allow for a sufficient workforce as well as cultural options:

NOW, THEREFORE, RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, stand ready to work with the petroleum industry associations and petroleum refiners for the purpose of generating jobs, strengthening the economy, increasing the capacity for domestic refining, and reducing America's dependence on refined petroleum products; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly encourages all local, state, and federal regulatory bodies to streamline all permitting and other administrative processes applicable to the placement and operation of petroleum refining capacity, aligned infrastructures, and businesses; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly is ready to facilitate all reasonable approaches to addressing any concerns regarding logistics, demographics, transportation, and infrastructure; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Stephen L. Johnson, Administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency, Samuel W. Bodman, the Secretary of the United States Department of Energy, Doyle Childers, Director of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources, Fred Ferrell, the Director of the Missouri Department of Agriculture, the American Petroleum Institute, and the Missouri Petroleum Marketers and Convenience Store Association.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Utilities, to which was referred HCR 49, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 49

WHEREAS, Hurricane Katrina exposed the weakness of concentrated petroleum refining capacity in common risk-prone areas, such as the Gulf Coast, and the value of locating refineries in more inland areas; and

WHEREAS, in an industry which operates in global markets, United States refiners are unable to meet the growth in demand for refined petroleum products in the United States and gaps in supply are filled by imports; and

WHEREAS, as global economies expand, there will be increased competition for imports. Based on publicly available data, nearly 1.5 million barrels per day of additional refining capacity projects are planned or under consideration for the 2005-2011 time period; and

WHEREAS, while domestic expansion of our petroleum refining capacity is vital, existing infrastructure for both crude oil and refined product distribution imposes economic limitations on where new refineries could be located; and

WHEREAS, policies are needed to create a climate conducive to investments to expand domestic refining capacity, such as reform of the New Source Review (NSR) permitting program to streamline the permit process and alignment of National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) ozone deadlines; and

WHEREAS, due to the location of both four domestic and one Canadian crude oil pipelines, as well as three pipelines that traverse the State of Missouri, Missouri has many advantages for the placement of petroleum refining facilities; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's close proximity to mature oil industry states such as Oklahoma and Kansas provide optimum access to suppliers and services; and

WHEREAS, with ample rural and low population areas, Missouri provides geographic buffering while still being located closely to population centers that allow for a sufficient workforce as well as cultural options:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, stand ready to work with the petroleum industry associations and petroleum refiners for the purpose of generating jobs, strengthening the economy, increasing the capacity for domestic refining, and reducing America's dependence on refined petroleum products; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly encourages all local, state, and federal regulatory bodies to streamline all permitting and other administrative processes applicable to the placement and operation of petroleum refining capacity, aligned infrastructures, and businesses; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly is ready to facilitate all reasonable approaches to addressing any concerns regarding logistics, demographics, transportation, and infrastructure; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Stephen L. Johnson, Administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency, Samuel W. Bodman, the Secretary of the United States Department of Energy, Doyle Childers, Director of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources, Fred Ferrell, the Director of the Missouri Department of Agriculture, the American Petroleum Institute, and the Missouri Petroleum Marketers and Convenience Store Association.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Utilities, to which was referred SB 780, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Ways and Means, Chairman Sutherland reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Ways and Means, to which was referred SB 805, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Rules, Chairman Cooper (120) reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HR 558, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 558

WHEREAS, conclusive evidence shows that tobacco smoke causes cancer, respiratory disease, various cardiac and vascular diseases, adverse birth outcomes, allergies and irritations to the eyes, nose, and throat for both the smoker and nonsmoker exposed to environmental tobacco smoke; and

WHEREAS, according to the federal government, 83% of worker health complaints related to indoor air quality are linked to smoking. Elimination of environmental tobacco smoke would substantially reduce adverse health complications, including but not limited to severe headaches, upper respiratory ailments, cancer, and heart disease; and

WHEREAS, increasing awareness of the dangers of passive smoking over the past few years has led to many companies, schools, and public buildings to implement a no-smoking policy; and

WHEREAS, according to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services:

(1) Smoking is Missouri's leading cause of premature death;

(2) 10,000 Missourians die from tobacco-related diseases every year. That's 28 Missouri deaths per day and one Missourian every hour dying from tobacco use;

(3) Each year the death toll from tobacco use in Missouri is higher than automobile accidents, AIDS, illegal drugs, suicides, fires, and homicides combined;

(4) Secondhand smoke causes about 1,200 Missouri deaths annually; and

WHEREAS, the resulting health care, disability, lost productivity, and revenue costs for Missouri are enormous - $206 million in Medicaid costs and $1.5 billion in total medical costs; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's high smoking rates (27.2%) contribute to the state's ranking well above the United States average (23.2%), and contribute to the four leading causes of death in Missouri to be heart disease, cancer, stroke, and chronic respiratory diseases; and

WHEREAS, elimination of the exposure of nonsmokers to environmental or secondhand smoke is one of the keys to improving the overall health of Missourians; and

WHEREAS, to ensure an indoor clean air environment for everyone who works at or visits the Missouri State Capitol Building, the Capitol should be declared a smoke-free building:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, urge the Governor as the chair of the Board of Public Buildings to declare the Missouri State Capitol Building to be a smoke-free building; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Governor Matt Blunt.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HR 2439, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2439

WHEREAS, in order to help fund the reauthorization of the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self Determination Act of 2000 proposed in the FY 2007 federal budget, the United States Forest Service has proposed to sell more than 300,000 acres of national forest lands nationwide; and

WHEREAS, of the more than 300,000 acres of national forest lands proposed for sale nationwide, 21,566 acres of the 1.5 million-acre Mark Twain National Forest are included in the sale proposal, which is the fourth highest total acreage proposed for sale among the 34 states impacted; and

WHEREAS, only California (79,362 acres), Idaho (25,464 acres), and Colorado (21,572 acres) have more national forest acreage proposed for sale. However, Missouri tops the list of the 34 states impacted in the percentage of total national forest acres in a state proposed for sale at 1.45%, compared to California at 0.38%, Colorado at 0.16%, and Idaho at 0.12%; and

WHEREAS, payments under the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self Determination Act of 2000 are intended to make up for property tax revenue that counties lose because they host public lands. Last year, the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self Determination Act of 2000 brought Missouri $2.7 million that was divided among 29 Missouri counties with national forest land, according to the Office of Administration; and

WHEREAS, currently, counties with national forest lands receive payment-in-lieu-of-taxes (PILT) funds and a considerable percentage of funds collected by the Forest Service for timber sales and mining royalties from public lands located in the counties; and

WHEREAS, under the current Forest Service sale proposal, the distribution of proceeds from the sale of public lands is not proportionately tied to the counties in which the lands are located. Rather, the proceeds of the sales would go into the United States Treasury for distribution to rural school districts that are in dire financial straits; and

WHEREAS, under the Forest Service plan, Missouri would rank near the top of acres to be sold in comparison to other states and would rank near the bottom of moneys received from the sale of national forest acreage; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the economic disparity, the sale of a portion of the Mark Twain National Forest represents a loss of valuable wildlife resources in Missouri. With the timber, rolling hills, scattered grasslands, streams, and wildflowers and a haven for deer, turkeys, bobcats, and other deep-woods denizens, the Mark Twain National Forest is one of Missouri's most important environmental treasures; and

WHEREAS, the Mark Twain National Forest acreage proposed for sale in Missouri is part of a once-depleted forest that public financing and decades of management have nurtured back to health. In the 1930s, the federal government bought parcels of generally unwanted land that was officially established as the Mark Twain National Forest on September 11, 1939, with most of its 1.5 million acres in located in eight districts in southern Missouri; and

WHEREAS, currently, less than 5% of Missouri's total acreage is in public ownership, which includes state lands, Missouri Department of Conservation land, state parks, University of Missouri land, and all federal lands such as national forests, wildlife refuges, and national monuments; and

WHEREAS, with more than 95% of the land in Missouri in private ownership, most lands in Missouri are not open to public access by hikers, mushroom gatherers, hunters, anglers, and nature enthusiasts. The sale of a portion of the Mark Twain National Forest in Missouri would further reduce an already limited access to public lands for the recreational use and enjoyment of Missourians, visitors, and tourists; and

WHEREAS, on March 17, 2006, Missouri Governor Matt Blunt sent a letter to Mark Rey, undersecretary for Natural Resources and Environment at the United States Department of Agriculture stating his opposition to the sale of national forest lands in Missouri and several members of the Missouri Congressional Delegation have denounced the plan:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, declare our opposition to the proposed sale of 21,566 acres of national forest lands in the State of Missouri under the United States Forest Service plan to sell more than 300,000 acres of national forest lands nationwide to fund the reauthorization of the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self Determination Act of 2000 proposed in the FY 2007 federal budget; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Dale Bosworth, Chief of the United States Forest Service.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 1, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O LORD our God, in You we take refuge and put our trust; our hearts rest with You and we are helped.

Lord God, we pay attention to Your counsel and by Wisdom You make Your Words known to us. You have said in Your Word, "whoever listens to Me will have security. He will be safe, with no reason to be afraid."

We refuse to worry about tomorrow's schedule or fret over last week's deliberations; for tomorrow will care for itself and each day has enough trouble of its own. With Your help, we focus on today's schedule while holding fast to good judgment, excellence, and integrity.

We are thankful, as always, for family, friends and safe passage to and from home.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with us all.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixty-third day was approved as corrected.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 773, Page 25, Section 620.1500, Line 15, by deleting the word “and”; and

Further amend said bill, section, and page, Line 17, by deleting said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“biotechnology industry; and
(5) Apprising the governor of new developments in forestry technologies.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Myers, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Lager offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 773, Page 1, In the Title, Line 2, by inserting after the section number "30.850," the section number "144.031,"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, In the Title, Line 4, by deleting the words "twenty-three" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty-four"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 1, by inserting after the section number "30.850," the section number "144.031,"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by deleting the words "twenty-three" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty-four"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 4, by inserting after the section number "30.850," the section number "144.031,"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 30.850, Line 4, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"142.031. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Biodiesel", fuel as defined in ASTM Standard D-6751 or its subsequent standard specifications for biodiesel fuel (B100) blend stock for distillate fuels;

(2) "Missouri qualified biodiesel producer", a facility that produces biodiesel, is registered with the United States Environmental Protection Agency according to the requirements of 40 CFR 79, and :

(a) At least fifty-one percent is owned by agricultural producers who are residents of this state and who are actively engaged in agricultural production for commercial purposes; or

(b) At least eighty percent of the feedstock used by the facility originates in the state of Missouri. For purposes of this section, "feedstock" means a Missouri agriculture product as defined in section 348.400, RSMo.

2. The "Missouri Qualified Biodiesel Producer Incentive Fund" is hereby created and subject to appropriations shall be used to provide economic subsidies to Missouri qualified biodiesel producers pursuant to this section. The director of the department of agriculture shall administer the fund pursuant to this section.

3. A Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall be eligible for a monthly grant from the fund provided that [fifty-one percent of the feedstock originates in the state of Missouri and that] one hundred percent of the feedstock originates in the United States. However, the director may waive the feedstock requirements on a month-to-month basis if the facility provides verification that adequate feedstock is not available. A Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall only be eligible for the grant for a total of sixty months unless such producers during the sixty months fail, due to a lack of appropriations, to receive the full amount from the fund for which the producers were eligible, in which case such producers shall continue to be eligible for up to twenty-four additional months or until they have received the maximum amount of funding for which such producers were eligible during the original sixty-month time period. The amount of the grant is determined by calculating the estimated gallons of qualified biodiesel produced during the preceding month from Missouri agricultural products, as certified by the department of agriculture, and applying such figure to the per-gallon incentive credit established in this subsection. Each Missouri qualified biodiesel producer shall be eligible for a total grant in any fiscal year equal to thirty cents per gallon for the first fifteen million gallons of qualified biodiesel produced from Missouri agricultural products in the fiscal year plus ten cents per gallon for the next fifteen million gallons of qualified biodiesel produced from Missouri agricultural products in the fiscal year. All such qualified biodiesel produced by a Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in excess of thirty million gallons shall not be applied to the computation of a grant pursuant to this subsection. The department of agriculture shall pay all grants for a particular month by the fifteenth day after receipt and approval of the application described in subsection 4 of this section.

4. In order for a Missouri qualified biodiesel producer to obtain a grant from the fund, an application for such funds shall be received no later than fifteen days following the last day of the month for which the grant is sought. The application shall include:

(1) The location of the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer;

(2) The average number of citizens of Missouri employed by the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in the preceding month, if applicable;

(3) The number of bushel equivalents of Missouri agricultural commodities used by the Missouri qualified biodiesel producer in the production of biodiesel in the preceding month;

(4) The number of gallons of qualified biodiesel the producer manufactures during the month for which the grant is applied;

(5) A copy of the qualified biodiesel producer license required pursuant to subsection 5 of this section, name and address of surety company, and amount of bond to be posted pursuant to subsection 5 of this section; and

(6) Any other information deemed necessary by the department of agriculture to adequately ensure that such grants shall be made only to Missouri qualified biodiesel producers.

5. The director of the department of agriculture, in consultation with the department of revenue, shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the administration of the provisions of this section.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2002, shall be invalid and void.

7. The provisions of this section shall expire on December 31, 2009. However, Missouri qualified biodiesel producers receiving any grants awarded prior to the expiration date of this section shall continue to be eligible for the remainder of the original sixty-month time period under the same terms and conditions of this section unless such producer during those sixty months failed, due to a lack of appropriations, to receive the full amount from the fund for which he or she was eligible. In that case, such producers shall continue to be eligible for up to twenty-four additional months or until they have received the maximum amount of funding for which they were eligible during the original sixty-month time period."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lager, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Schlottach offered House Amendment No. 3.

Representative Flook raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 3 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order well taken.

Representative Cooper (120) offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 773, Section 144.054, Page 10, Line 14, by deleting the word "meat" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "animal slaughtering"; and Further amend said page, Line 16, by inserting after the number "322121" the following:

"and 311611"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (120), House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Dethrow offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 773, Section 144.030, Page 10, Line 279, by inserting an open "[" bracket before the period and a closing bracket and semi-colon "]" ;" after said period on said line; and

Further amend said line, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"(40) All sales of fencing materials used for agricultural purposes."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Dethrow, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Dake offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 773, Page 25, Section 570.030, Line 61, by inserting after all of said line the following:

- "578.409. 1. Any person who violates section 578.407:
- (1) Shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for each such violation unless the loss, theft, or damage to the animal facility exceeds [three] two hundred dollars in value;
 - (2) Shall be guilty of a class D felony if the loss, theft, or damage to the animal facility property exceeds [three] two hundred dollars in value but does not exceed [ten] five thousand dollars in value;
 - (3) Shall be guilty of a class C felony if the loss, theft, or damage to the animal facility property exceeds [ten] five thousand dollars in value but does not exceed [one hundred] seventy-five thousand dollars in value;
 - (4) Shall be guilty of a class B felony if the loss, theft, or damage to the animal facility exceeds [one hundred] seventy-five thousand dollars in value.
2. Any person who intentionally agrees with another person to violate section 578.407 and commits an act in furtherance of such violation shall be guilty of the same class of violation as provided in subsection 1 of this section.
3. In the determination of the value of the loss, theft, or damage to an animal facility, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine the reasonable cost of replacement of materials, data, equipment, animals, and records that were damaged, destroyed, lost, or cannot be returned, as well as the reasonable cost of lost production funds and repeating experimentation that may have been disrupted or invalidated as a result of the violation of section 578.407.
4. Any persons found guilty of a violation of section 578.407 shall be ordered by the court to make restitution, jointly and severally, to the owner, operator, or both, of the animal facility, in the full amount of the reasonable cost as determined under subsection 3 of this section.
5. Any person who has been damaged by a violation of section 578.407 may recover all actual and consequential damages, punitive damages, and court costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, from the person causing such damage.
6. Nothing in sections 578.405 to 578.412 shall preclude any animal facility injured in its business or property by a violation of section 578.407 from seeking appropriate relief under any other provision of law or remedy including the issuance of an injunction against any person who violates section 578.407. The owner or operator of the animal facility may petition the court to permanently enjoin such persons from violating sections 578.405 to 578.412 and the court shall provide such relief."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Dake moved that House Amendment No. 6 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

Representative Dake appealed the ruling of the Chair.

The ruling of the Chair was sustained by the following vote:

HCS SB 1017, relating to agricultural programs, was taken up by Representative Loehner.

Representative Loehner offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1017, Page 5, Section 348.505, Line 13, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“The amount of the tax credits that may be issued to all eligible lenders claiming tax credits authorized in this section in a fiscal year shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Loehner, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Loehner offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1017, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“30.750. As used in sections 30.750 to 30.767, the following terms mean:

(1) "Eligible agribusiness", a person engaged in the processing or adding of value to agricultural products produced in Missouri;

(2) "Eligible beginning farmer",

(a) For any beginning farmer who seeks to participate in the linked deposit program alone, a farmer who:

a. Is a Missouri resident;

b. Wishes to borrow for a farm operation located in Missouri;

c. Is at least eighteen years old; and

d. In the preceding five years has not owned, either directly or indirectly, farm land greater than fifty percent of the average size farm in the county where the proposed farm operation is located or farm land with an appraised value greater than four hundred fifty thousand dollars.

A farmer who qualifies as an eligible farmer under this provision may utilize the proceeds of a linked deposit loan to purchase agricultural land, farm buildings, new and used farm equipment, livestock and working capital;

(b) For any beginning farmer who is participating in both the linked deposit program and the beginning farmer loan program administered by the Missouri agriculture and small business development authority, a farmer who:

a. Qualifies under the definition of a beginning farmer utilized for eligibility for federal tax-exempt financing, including the limitations on the use of loan proceeds; and

b. Meets all other requirements established by the Missouri agriculture and small business development authority;

(3) "Eligible facility borrower", a borrower qualified under section 30.860 to apply for a reduced-rate loan under sections 30.750 to 30.767;(4) "Eligible farming operation", any person engaged in farming in an authorized farm corporation, family farm, or family farm corporation as defined in section 350.010, RSMo, that has all of the following characteristics:

(a) Is headquartered in this state;

(b) Maintains offices, operating facilities, or farming operations and transacts business in this state;

(c) Employs less than ten employees;

(d) Is organized for profit;

(e) Possesses not more than sixty percent equity, where "percent equity" is defined as total assets minus total liabilities divided by total assets, except that an otherwise eligible farming operation applying for a loan for the purpose of installing or improving a waste management practice in order to comply with environmental protection regulations shall be exempt from this eligibility requirement;

(4) "Eligible farming operation", any person engaged in farming in an authorized farm corporation, family farm, or family farm corporation as defined in section 350.010, RSMo, that has all of the following characteristics:

(a) Is headquartered in this state;

(b) Maintains offices, operating facilities, or farming operations and transacts business in this state;

(c) Employs less than ten employees;

(d) Is organized for profit;

(e) Possesses not more than sixty percent equity, where "percent equity" is defined as total assets minus total liabilities divided by total assets, except that an otherwise eligible farming operation applying for a loan for the purpose of installing or improving a waste management practice in order to comply with environmental protection regulations shall be exempt from this eligibility requirement;

(5) "Eligible higher education institution", any approved public or private institution as defined in section 173.205, RSMo;

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HCS HR 1131, (4-13-06, Pages 1074-1075) - Hughes

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

(The great gift of rainfall suggests several lines from the Hebrew scripture.)

Let us pray.

Thus says the Lord:

“I will give the seasonal rain to your land, the early rain and the late rain, that you may have your grain, wine and oil to gather in; and I will bring forth grass in your fields for your animals. Thus you may eat your fill.” (Deuteronomy 11:14-15)

Again, thus says the Lord:

“Let justice descend, O heavens, like dew from above, like gentle rain let the skies drop it down. Let the Earth open and salvation bud forth; let justice also spring up! I, the Lord, have created this.” (Isaiah 45:8)

Lord God, we, who have been elected to public office, have accepted the task of cultivating and distributing the justice You have rained down. May justice, alive with equity and crowned with mercy, guide our work and our decisions today and throughout the remainder of this Session.

We pray to You, who are our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Savannah Frame, John Paul Myers, Helen Myers, Mary Beth Myers, Hannah Broyles, Jacquelyn Gunther, Shawnisha Ware and Nathan Lowrey.

The Journal of the sixty-fourth day was approved as printed.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS HCS HB 1022, entitled:

An act to appropriate money for the expenses, grants, and distributions for several departments and offices of state government, and to transfer money among certain funds, from the funds designated for the fiscal period beginning July 1, 2006 and ending June 30, 2007.

With Senate Amendment No. 1 and Senate Amendment No. 6.

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1022, Page 8, Section 22.210, Lines 2 and 3, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“For maintenance and repair at community colleges, local matching funds must be provided on a 50/50 state/local match rate in order to be eligible for state funds $6,000,000
For community colleges, to be divided equally among the twelve institutions $12,000,000”.

Senate Amendment No. 6

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1022, Page 6, Section 22.150, Lines 2-5, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“For renovations of buildings and construction of an addition at the River Campus”.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate refuses to recede from its position on SCS HB 1865, as amended, and grants the House a conference thereon.

The President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House: Senators Shields, Nodler, Gibbons, Graham and Coleman.

HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2295

WHEREAS, according to a January 2004 report by the Urban Institute Immigration Studies Program:

- (1) There are 9.3 million undocumented immigrants in the United States;
- (2) Approximately 1.6 million children under 18 are undocumented immigrants in the United States and another 3 million children with undocumented parents are U.S. citizens because they were born in the United States; and
- (3) Based on Census 2000 figures, Missouri is estimated to have an undocumented immigrant population of 25,000 to 50,000, which comprises 20-29% share of Missouri's total foreign-born population; and

WHEREAS, approximately 6 million of the 9.3 million undocumented immigrants are working and represent approximately 5% of all United States workers; and

WHEREAS, the federal Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 established a Basic Pilot Program as an electronic verification of work authorization program operated by the United States Department of Homeland Security to ensure that undocumented immigrants are not employed by employers in the United States; and

WHEREAS, to date, Missouri's state agencies and all counties, municipalities, school districts, and public institutions of higher education are not required to enroll and participate in the Basic Pilot Program; and

WHEREAS, illegal immigration has resulted in a human cost to the immigrants themselves in that their lack of official status leaves them likely to be victims of crime, hazardous working conditions, abusive employment practices and other mistreatment; and

WHEREAS, the Basic Pilot Program was initially implemented in the five States with the largest estimated population of undocumented immigrants - California, Florida, Illinois, New York and Texas; and

WHEREAS, as of December 1, 2004, the Basic Pilot Program was expanded to allow employers in all 50 States to access the system; and

WHEREAS, under the federal Basic Pilot Program, an employer is notified when the name and Social Security Number of an employee do not match. The employee is then referred to the Social Security Administration to remedy the problem and the employer is notified within 10 days that either work authorization is confirmed or not confirmed. If not confirmed, the employer must terminate the employee; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of all citizens of the State of Missouri to ensure that all employees of the state and political subdivisions of the state are legally authorized to work in the United States:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, strongly urge all state agencies and all counties, municipalities, school districts, and public institutions of higher education in this state to participate in the federal Basic Pilot Program by September 1, 2006, to ensure that only legal residents are employed by state agencies and political subdivisions of this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Governor Matt Blunt, each state agency, and each county, municipality, school district, and public institution of higher education in this state.

Committee on Transportation, Chairman St. Onge reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Transportation, to which was referred SCS SB 961, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(26)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

By wisdom, You Lord founded the Earth; by understanding You established the Heavens. By Your knowledge the deep fountains of the Earth burst forth, and the clouds poured down rain.

Because we have this knowledge of You, we don't lose sight of good planning and insight. We hang on to them, they keep us safe on our way and keep our feet from stumbling. We can lie down without fear and enjoy pleasant dreams.

We are thankful that Your hand is not shortened, that it cannot deliver; nor Your ear heavy, that it cannot hear.

As the days grow short on this year's Session, with Your help, we continue to make well thought out and prudent decisions. Pressure is our enemy, wisdom is our ally.

Now may You, the God of patience and comfort, grant us to be like-minded towards one another. May we abound in hope by Your grace.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Allyson Kate Seaton, Makayla McGruder, Ellie McGruder, Heather Allphin, Tabitha Brown, Dylan Cluver, Christopher Jones, Will Haer, Scoot Anderson, Lauren Geiger, Cassey Carlson, Amanda Yocum, Miles Freborg, Kevin Lang, Ashley Millican, Kirsten Miller, Robert Buckley, Brad Ditty, Bryanne Mae Cornine, Jacklyn Murry, Travis Weigand, Kailyn Marie Stewart, Trevor Lair, Drew Frizzell, JP Rowland, Gavon Howell, Ines Subashka, Daniela Arbex and Megan Carson.

The Journal of the sixty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL

HB 1930, relating to delinquent property taxes, was taken up by Representative Hubbard.

Representative El-Amin offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1930, Section 92.715, Page 1, Line 9, by inserting after the word, “costs”, the following:

“Notwithstanding the foregoing, any individual taxpayer whose income is at or below one hundred eighty-five percent of the Federal poverty guidelines shall only be assessed interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of one percent per month, with a maximum rate of ten percent per annum. The collector of revenue shall have the authority to request any necessary documentation. The collector of revenue shall separately account for any amounts of interest and penalties collected where such amounts are in excess of one percent per month and ten percent per annum with respect to a particular property and shall deposit such excess amounts with the city treasurer, to be held in a separate account. Funds in such account shall be used solely for purposes of lead hazard remediation, abatement and/or removal in buildings and structures owned and operated by the board of education of a metropolitan district where educational activities involving children are conducted, and in any buildings and structures in which recreational activities for children are conducted, until all such lead hazard abatement, remediated, or removed. Thereafter, funds in such account shall be used solely for purposes of lead hazard abatement, remediation, and/or removal in other buildings and structures located in any city not within a county. Upon appropriation, the building commissioner of the any city not within a county shall be authorized to draw funds from such account for such purposes and shall cooperate with the board of education of a metropolitan district to use such funds effectively and efficiently for the purposes set forth herein.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Storch offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1930, Page 1, Line 5, by inserting after the words, “poverty guidelines”, the words, “or sixty years of age or older”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Storch, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative El-Amin, House Amendment No. 1, as amended, was adopted.

Representative El-Amin assumed the Chair.

Representative Fares offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 1930, Page 2, Section 92.715, Line 26, by inserting after said line the following:

"135.097. 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Disabled", the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months;

(2) "Eligible taxpayer", a Missouri resident claiming a credit under this section. If the persons are eligible to file a joint federal income tax return and reside at the same address at any time during the taxable year, then the credit may only be allowed if claimed on a combined Missouri income tax return reporting their combined incomes and property taxes. A taxpayer shall not be allowed a tax credit unless the taxpayer or spouse has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the last day of the calendar year or the taxpayer or spouse is a veteran of any branch of the armed forces of the United States or this state who became one hundred percent disabled as a result of such service, or the taxpayer or spouse is disabled as defined in subdivision (1) of this subsection, and such taxpayer or spouse provides proof of such disability in such form and manner, and at such times, as the director of revenue may require, has been a resident of Missouri for twenty years, and has lived in their homestead for at least twenty years. The residency requirement shall be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a taxpayer or spouse who would have otherwise met the requirements for a tax credit but who dies before the last day of the calendar year;

(3) "Homestead", the dwelling in Missouri owned for twenty or more years by the eligible taxpayer and not to exceed five acres of land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home. It may consist of part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and part of the land upon which it is built. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, or tenants in common and includes an eligible taxpayer actually in possession if he was the immediate former owner of record, if a lineal descendant is presently the owner of record, and if the eligible taxpayer actually pays all taxes upon the property. It may include a mobile home;

(4) "Income", Missouri adjusted gross income as defined in section 143.121, RSMo, and increased, where necessary, to reflect the following:

(a) Social Security, railroad retirement, and veterans payments and benefits;
(b) The total amount of all other public and private pensions and annuities;
(c) Public relief, public assistance, and unemployment benefits received in cash, other than benefits received under this chapter;
(d) No deduction being allowed for losses not incurred in a trade or business;
(e) Interest on the obligations of the United States, any state, or any of their subdivisions and instrumentalities;

(5) "Property taxes accrued", property taxes paid, exclusive of special assessments, penalties, interest, and charges for service levied on an eligible taxpayer's homestead in any calendar year. Property taxes shall qualify for the credit only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue shall require a tax receipt or other proof of property tax payment. If a homestead is owned only partially by an eligible taxpayer, then "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead which was actually paid by the eligible taxpayer. For purposes of this subdivision, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the director of revenue for collection. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a farm, or multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For purposes of this subdivision "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

2. For all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, an eligible taxpayer who is sixty-five years of age or older, or who is disabled, and who has lived in their homestead for at least twenty years, and has paid more than ten percent of his or her total household income in real property tax on his or her homestead, shall receive a credit in an amount equal to fifty percent of his or her property taxes paid for such homestead. An eligible taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim the tax credit for the year that the homestead is sold.

3. The tax credit allowed by this section shall be claimed by such individual at the time such individual files a return and shall be applied against the income tax liability imposed by chapter 143, RSMo, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, after all other credits provided by law have been applied. If the amount of the tax credit exceeds the tax liability, the difference shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

4. An eligible taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim such credit if the taxpayer filed a valid claim under sections 135.010 to 135.030, RSMo, or section 137.106, RSMo, for the same tax year.

5. The director of the department of revenue shall promulgate rules and regulations to administer the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void.

6. Pursuant to section 23.253, RSMo, of the Missouri Sunset Act:

(1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly; and

(2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Fares, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Hubbard, HB 1930, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed by the following vote:

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILL

HCS SB 1084, relating to health care for uninsured children, was taken up by Representative Scharnhorst.

Representative Portwood offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1 was withdrawn.

Representative Cooper (120) assumed the Chair.

Representative Skaggs offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1084, Page 1, Section 208.631, Line 4, by deleting the number "2008" and replacing in lieu thereof the number "2010".

Representative Skaggs moved that House Amendment No. 2 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

Representative Storch offered House Amendment No. 3.

Representative Stevenson raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 3 is not germane and goes beyond the scope of the underlying bill.

Representative Cooper (120) requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order well taken.

Representative Dempsey moved the previous question.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

HCS SS#2 SCS SBs 1014 & 730, relating to election administration, was taken up by Representative Stevenson.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden resumed the Chair.

Representative Harris (23) raised a point of order that the fiscal note on HCS SS#2 SCS SBs 1014 & 730 was appealed to revision to the Joint Committee on Legislative Research, Oversight Division pursuant to Section 23.140.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Stevenson offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1014 & 730, Section 115.002, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting after “115.002,” on said line the following:

“115.024,”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.024, Page 3, Line 44, by inserting after said section the following:

"115.124. 1. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, in a nonpartisan election in any political subdivision or special district except for municipal [and board of trustees of community college districts] elections, if the notice provided for in subsection 5 of section 115.127 has been published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the district, and if the number of candidates who have filed for a particular office is equal to the number of positions in that office to be filled by the election, no election shall be held for such office, and the candidates shall assume the responsibilities of their offices at the same time and in the same manner as if they had been elected. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if at any election the number of candidates filing for a particular office exceeds the number of positions to be filled at such election, the election authority shall hold the election as scheduled, even if a sufficient number of candidates withdraw from such contest for that office so that the number of candidates remaining after the filing deadline is equal to the number of positions to be filled.

2. The election authority or political subdivision responsible for the oversight of the filing of candidates in any nonpartisan election in any political subdivision or special district shall clearly designate where candidates shall form a line to effectuate such filings and determine the order of such filings; except that, in the case of candidates who file a declaration of candidacy with the election authority or political subdivision prior to 5:00 p.m. on the first day for filing, the election authority or political subdivision may determine by random drawing the order in which such candidates' names shall appear on the ballot. If a drawing is conducted pursuant to this subsection, it shall be conducted so that each candidate may draw a number at random at the time of filing. If such drawing is conducted, the election authority or political subdivision shall record the number drawn with the candidate's declaration of candidacy. If such drawing is conducted, the names of candidates filing on the first day of filing for each office on each ballot shall be listed in ascending order of the numbers so drawn.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.427, Page 15, Lines 32 to 34, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(4) Any identification containing a photographic or digital image of the individual which is issued by the Missouri National Guard, the United States armed forces, or the United States Department of Veteran Affairs to a member or former member of the Missouri National Guard or the United States armed forces and that does not have an expiration date.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.445, Page 27, Line 17, by deleting from said line the word “Children” and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase “A child”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.456, Page 30, Line 5, by deleting from said line the word “chad” and inserting in lieu thereof the word “chads”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.631, Page 35, Line 82, by deleting from said line the word “threatened” and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase:

“threatening an”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 115.631, Page 35, Line 84, by deleting the word “provide” and inserting in lieu thereof the word “providing”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Yates offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

*House Amendment No. 1
to
House Amendment No. 1*

AMEND House Amendment No. 1 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1014 & 730, Page 2, Line 29, by inserting after said line the following:

"Further amend Section 115.456, Page 31, Line 43, by inserting after word “oval” on said line the following:

“or divided arrow”; and".

Representative Harris (23) raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 is not a true amendment to the amendment.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Donnelly offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

Representative Yates raised a point of order that House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 is out of order and is in the third degree.

Representative Pratt raised an additional point of order that House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 is in violation of Rule 45(b).

The Chair ruled the first point of order not well taken and the second point of order well taken.

On motion of Representative Yates, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (120) resumed the Chair.

Representative Donnelly offered House Amendment No. 2 to House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 2
to
House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Amendment No. 1 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1014 & 730, Page 2, Line 17, by inserting after said line:

"Further amend Section 115.427, Page 17, Line 104, by inserting after the word "identification":

"Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including but not limited to section 302.171, RSMo, and any administrative regulations interpreting said section, the department of revenue shall issue a nondriver's license to any individual who can show proof of a request to the department of health for a birth certificate, but who has not been issued a birth certificate by the department of health within forty five days from the date that such request for the birth certificate was made, and who meets other requirements for receipt of a nondriver's license."; and".

Representative Behnen assumed the Chair.

Representative Cooper (120) resumed the Chair.

Representative Donnelly moved that House Amendment No. 2 to House Amendment No. 1 be adopted.

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1014 & 730, Section 115.024, Page 3, Line 44, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“115.105. 1. The chair of the county committee of each political party named on the ballot shall have the right to designate a challenger for each polling place, who may be present during the hours of voting, and a challenger for each location at which absentee ballots are counted, who may be present while the ballots are being prepared for counting and counted. No later than four business days before the election, the chair of each county committee of each political party named on the ballot shall provide signed official designation forms with the names of the designated challengers and substitutes to the local election authority for confirmation of eligibility to serve as a challenger. The local election authority, after verifying the eligibility of each designated and substitute challenger, shall sign off on the official designation forms, unless the challenger is found not to have the qualifications established by subsection 5 of this section. If the election authority determines that a challenger does not meet the qualifications of subsection 5 of this section, the designating party chair may designate a replacement challenger and provide the local election authority with the name of the replacement challenger before 5:00 p.m. of the Monday preceding the election. The designating chair may substitute challengers at his or her discretion during such hours.

2. Challenges may only be made when the challenger believes the election laws of this state have been or will be violated, and each challenger shall report any such belief to the election judges, or to the election authority if not satisfied with the decision of the election judges.

3. Prior to the close of the polls, challengers may list and give out the names of those who have voted. The listing and giving out of names of those who have voted by a challenger shall not be considered giving information tending to show the state of the count.

4. In a presidential primary election, challengers may collect information about the party ballot selected by the voter and may disclose party affiliation information after the polls close.

5. All persons selected as challengers shall have the same qualifications required by section 115.085 for election judges, except that such challenger shall be a registered voter in the jurisdiction of the election authority for which the challenger is designated as a challenger.

6. Challengers shall not have the authority to review a voters' photographic identification for validity, but may make a challenge or report with the election judge regarding the validity of such identification. If the poll challenger is not satisfied with the decision of the election judge, then he or she may report their belief that the election laws of this state have been or will be violated to the election authority as allowed under section 115.105, RSMo.”; and

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1306, Page 127, Section 105.684, Line 5 of said page, by striking all of said line; and Further amend Line 16 of said page, by striking "seventy-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"one hundred".

Senate Amendment No. 2

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1306, Page 8, Section 70.615, Line 20, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"70.655. 1. Upon a member's retirement he or she shall receive an allowance for life in accordance with the applicable benefit program elected by the member's employer, as follows:

(1) Benefit program L-1. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-1 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(2) Benefit program L-3. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-3 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-quarter percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(3) Benefit program LT-4. A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-4 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-two, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-two;

(4) Benefit program LT-5. A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-5 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-quarter percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-two, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to three-quarters of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-two;

(5) Benefit program L-6. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-6 shall receive an allowance for life equal to two percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(6) Benefit program L-7. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-7 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-half percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(7) Benefit program LT-8. A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-8 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-half percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-two, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to one-half of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-two;

(8) Benefit program LT-4(65). A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-4(65) shall receive an allowance for life equal to one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-five, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-five;

(9) Benefit program LT-5(65). A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-5(65) shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-quarter percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-five, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to three-quarters of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-five;

(10) Benefit program LT-8(65). A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-8(65) shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and one-half percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-five, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to one-half of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-five;

(11) Benefit program L-9. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-9 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and six-tenths percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(12) Benefit program LT-10(65). A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-10(65) shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and six-tenths percent of the members' final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645 or section 70.650 or section 70.670, and if such member's age at retirement is younger than age sixty-five, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to four-tenths of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death; or the member's attainment of age sixty-five;

(13) Benefit program L-11. Benefit program L-11 may cover employment in a position only if such position is not concurrently covered by federal Social Security; in addition, if such position was previously covered by federal Social Security, benefit program L-11 may cover only employment rendered after cessation of federal Social Security coverage. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-11 shall receive an allowance for life equal to two and one-half percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(14) Benefit program L-12. A member with credited service covered by benefit program L-12 shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and three-quarter percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service;

(15) Benefit program LT-14(65). A member with credited service covered by benefit program LT-14(65) shall receive an allowance for life equal to one and three-quarter percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. In addition, if such member is retiring as provided in section 70.645, 70.650, or 70.670, then such member shall receive a temporary allowance equal to one-quarter of one percent of the member's final average salary multiplied by the number of years of such credited service. Such temporary allowance shall terminate at the end of the calendar month in which the earlier of the following events occurs: such member's death or the member's attainment of age sixty-five.

2. If each portion of a member's credited service is not covered by the same benefit program, then the member's total allowance for life shall be the total of the allowance for life determined under each applicable benefit program.

3. Each employer shall have the credited service of each of its members covered by benefit program L-1 provided for in this section unless such employer shall have elected another benefit program provided for in this section.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, each political subdivision, by majority vote of its governing body, may elect from time to time to cover its members, whose political subdivision employment is concurrently covered by federal Social Security, under one of the benefit programs provided for in this section. Each political subdivision, by majority vote of its governing body, may elect from time to time to cover its members, whose political subdivision employment is not concurrently covered by federal Social Security, under one of the benefit programs provided for in this section. The clerk or secretary of the political subdivision shall certify the election of the benefit program to the board within ten days after such vote. The effective date of the political subdivision's benefit program is the first day of the calendar month specified by such governing body, or the first day of the calendar month next following receipt by the board of the certification of election of benefit program, or the effective date of the political subdivision becoming an employer, whichever is the latest. Such election of benefit program may be changed from time to time by such vote, but not more often than biennially. If such changed benefit program provides larger allowances than the benefit program previously in effect, then such larger benefit program [shall] may, if the political subdivision elects as such at the time of its majority vote electing to cover its members under one of the benefit programs provided for in this section, be applicable to the past and future employment with the employer by present and future employees, but otherwise shall be applicable only to credited service for employment rendered on or after the effective date of such change. If such changed benefit program provides smaller allowances than the benefit program previously in effect, then such changed benefit program shall be applicable only to credited service for employment rendered from and after the effective date of such change. After August 28, 1994, political subdivisions shall not elect coverage under benefit program LT-4, benefit program LT-5, or benefit program LT-8. After August 28, 2005, political subdivisions shall not elect coverage under benefit program L-9 or benefit program LT-10(65).

5. Should an employer change its election of benefit program as provided in this section, the employer contributions shall be correspondingly changed effective the same date as the benefit program change.

6. The limitation on increases in an employer's contribution provided by subsection 6 of section 70.730 shall not apply to any contribution increase resulting from an employer electing a benefit program which provides larger allowances.

7. Subject to the provisions of subsections 9 and 10 of this section, for an allowance becoming effective on September 28, 1975, or later, and beginning with the October first which is at least twelve full months after the effective date of the allowance, the amount of the allowance shall be redetermined effective each October first and such redetermined amount shall be payable for the ensuing year. Subject to the limitations stated in the next sentence, such redetermined amount shall be the amount of the allowance otherwise payable multiplied by the following percent: one hundred percent, plus two percent for each full year (excluding any fraction of a year) in the period from the effective date of the allowance to the current October first. In no event shall such redetermined amount (1) be less than the amount of the allowance otherwise payable nor (2) be more than the amount of the allowance otherwise payable multiplied by the following fraction: the numerator shall be the Consumer Price Index for the month of June immediately preceding such October first (but in no event an amount less than the denominator below) and the denominator shall be the Consumer Price Index for the month of June immediately preceding the effective date of the allowance. As used herein, "Consumer Price Index" means the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, as determined by the United States Department of Labor and in effect January 1, 1975; provided, should such Consumer Price Index be restructured subsequent to 1974 in a manner materially changing its character, the board shall change the application of the Consumer Price Index so that as far as is practicable the 1975 intent of the use of the Consumer Price Index shall be continued. As used herein "the amount of the allowance otherwise payable" means the amount of the allowance which would be payable without regard to these provisions redetermining allowance amounts after retirement.

8. Subject to the provisions of subsections 9 and 10 of this section, for an allowance becoming effective on September 28, 1975, or later, the maximum allowance payable under the provisions of section 70.685 shall be redetermined each October first in the same manner as an allowance is redetermined under the provisions of subsection 7 of this section.

9. (1) The system establishes reserves for the payment of future allowances to retirants and beneficiaries. Should the board determine, after consulting with the actuary, that the established reserves are more than sufficient to provide such allowances, the board may increase the annual increase rate provided for in subsections 7 and 8 of this section, as it applies to any allowance payable, but in no event shall the total of all redetermined amounts as of October first of any year be greater than one hundred four percent of the allowances which would have been payable that October first without such redeterminations; provided, as of any redetermination date the same annual increase rate shall be applied to all allowances with effective dates in the range of November first to October first of the following year. The board may extend the provisions of subsections 7 and 8 of this section to allowances which became effective before September 28, 1975; provided such an action by the board shall not increase an employer contribution rate then in effect;

(2) After August 28, 1993, the annual increase rate established by this subsection shall be a compound rate, compounded annually, and the four percent annual maximum rate shall also be a compound rate, compounded annually; provided, the use of such compounding shall not begin until October 1, 1993, and shall not affect redeterminations made prior to that date.

10. Should the board determine that the provisions of subsections 7, 8 and 9 of this section are jeopardizing the financial solvency of the system, the board shall suspend these provisions redetermining allowance amounts after retirement for such periods of time as the board deems appropriate."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 3

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1306, Page 118, Section 104.1095(2), Line 15, by deleting the word "fifteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty".

Senate Amendment No. 4

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1306, Pages 73-76, Section 104.603, by striking all of said section from the bill; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 6

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1306, Page 80, Section 104.620, Line 9 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"104.800. 1. [Except as otherwise provided by law] Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, on or after August 28, 2006, any person having earned creditable or credited service pursuant to the provisions of section 104.010 or section 104.1003 of the state employees' retirement system or pursuant to the provisions of the state transportation department employees' and highway patrol retirement system or having service as a statewide state elective officer or having service as a member of the general assembly or having service pursuant to the provisions of sections 287.812 to 287.855, RSMo, or having service as a judge, as defined in section 476.515, RSMo, may elect prior to retirement and not after retirement, to make a one-time transfer of credit for such service or such creditable service to or from any other retirement system or type of service specified in this section or sections 56.800 to 56.840, RSMo, for which the person has accumulated service or creditable service. The amount of transferred credit shall be accumulated with the amount of such creditable service or such service earned by the person in the retirement system or type of service to which the service is transferred for purposes of determining the benefits to which the person is entitled under the retirement system or type of service to which the service is transferred. The transfer of such creditable service or service shall become effective on the first day of the second month following the month in which the person files written notification of the person's election with the retirement boards affected by such service transfer. When the election to transfer creditable service or service becomes effective, the person shall thereby forfeit any claim to any benefit under the provisions of the retirement system or type of service, as the case may be, from which the service or creditable service was transferred regardless of the amount of service or creditable service previously earned in such retirement system or type of service. Any person who has transferred service pursuant to this subsection prior to August 28, 2002, and who is an employee covered by a retirement plan described in this subsection after that date, may elect to make an additional transfer of service prior to retirement if additional service would otherwise be available to be transferred except for the forfeiture of that service after the previous transfer. In no event shall the amount of service that a person shall be entitled to transfer pursuant to the provisions of this section exceed eight years.

2. In the event of the death of a member before retirement and prior to exercising transfer rights pursuant to the provisions of this section, survivorship benefits shall be computed as if such person had in fact exercised or not exercised the person's transfer rights to produce the most advantageous benefit possible.

3. Any person that has earned creditable service pursuant to the provisions governing the Missouri state employees' retirement system or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 287, RSMo, or chapter 476, RSMo, who terminated employment prior to August 13, 1986, shall, upon application to the board of trustees of the Missouri state employees' retirement system, be made, constituted and appointed and employed by the board as a special consultant on the problems of retirement, aging and other state matters for the remainder of the person's life. Upon request of the board or the court from which the person retired, the consultant shall give opinions or be available to give opinions in writing or orally in response to such request. As compensation for such services, the consultant shall be eligible, prior to retirement, to make a one-time transfer of creditable service as provided in this section."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 4, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Each year, the first Thursday of May is the National Day of Prayer.

Let us pray.

“From Heaven the Lord looks down;
He sees all mankind.
From His fixed throne He beholds
All who dwell on the Earth,
He who fashioned the heart of each,
He who knows all their works.”
Psalm 33:13-15

Holy Lord, Almighty God, thank You for Your knowledge of and care for us. Today, in the midst of our work, we come together in mind and heart with millions of Americans. We come together simply to pray.

Please guide the leaders of our nation and all the nations involved that they may bring an end to terrorism and to all that leads to terrorism. Protect our armed forces and all who provide security for our land and our lives.

Guide us, that we may do our part, in finding a just solution to the problems of energy, its cost and supply. Help us fulfill our responsibilities to the poor, the disabled and the elderly. Show us how to do our part in respecting all human life.

Hold us together through our common faith that we are Your sons and daughters, that we may promote true justice, and protect the rights and freedom of all.

We pray to You our God, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Nathaniel Golden, Amanda Jackson, Natalia Johnson, Evan Kolze, Ricky Lucious, Sarah Shaw, Daniel Graham, Drew Dielmann, Sam Picus, Michael Figenshau, Churie Michalski, Jeff Spreng, Marlo Hix, William Maxwell, Kimberly Maxwell, Dustin Jones, Kaylee Kirleis, Courtney Maddock, Matthew Moore, Brittney Rea and Ray Reeves.

The Journal of the sixty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

“565.024. 1. A person commits the crime of involuntary manslaughter in the first degree if he or she:

(1) Recklessly causes the death of another person; or

(2) While in an intoxicated condition operates a motor vehicle in this state and, when so operating, acts with criminal negligence to cause the death of any person; or

(3) While in an intoxicated condition operates a motor vehicle in this state, and, when so operating, acts with criminal negligence to:

(a) Cause the death of any person not a passenger in the vehicle operated by the defendant, including the death of an individual that results from the defendant's vehicle leaving a highway, as defined by section 301.010, RSMo, or the highway's right-of-way; or

(b) Cause the death of two or more persons; or

(c) Cause the death of any person while he or she has a blood alcohol content of at least eighteen-hundredths of one percent by weight of alcohol in such person's blood; or

(4) Operates a motor vehicle in violation of subsection 2 of section 304.022, RSMo, and when so operating, acts with criminal negligence to cause the death of any person authorized to operate an emergency vehicle, as defined in section 304.022, RSMo, while such person is in the performance of official duties.

2. Involuntary manslaughter in the first degree under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 1 of this section is a class C felony. Involuntary manslaughter in the first degree under subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section is a class B felony. A second or subsequent violation of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section is a class A felony. For any violation of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, the minimum prison term which the defendant must serve shall be eighty-five percent of his or her sentence. Any violation of subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of this section is a class B felony.

3. A person commits the crime of involuntary manslaughter in the second degree if he acts with criminal negligence to cause the death of any person.

4. Involuntary manslaughter in the second degree is a class D felony.

565.060. 1. A person commits the crime of assault in the second degree if he:

(1) Attempts to kill or knowingly causes or attempts to cause serious physical injury to another person under the influence of sudden passion arising out of adequate cause; or

(2) Attempts to cause or knowingly causes physical injury to another person by means of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument; or

(3) Recklessly causes serious physical injury to another person; or

(4) While in an intoxicated condition or under the influence of controlled substances or drugs, operates a motor vehicle in this state and, when so operating, acts with criminal negligence to cause physical injury to any other person than himself; or

(5) Recklessly causes physical injury to another person by means of discharge of a firearm; or

(6) Operates a motor vehicle in violation of subsection 2 of section 304.022, RSMo, and when so operating, acts with criminal negligence to cause physical injury to any person authorized to operate an emergency vehicle, as defined in section 304.022, RSMo, while such person is in the performance of official duties.

2. The defendant shall have the burden of injecting the issue of influence of sudden passion arising from adequate cause under subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of this section.

3. Assault in the second degree is a class C felony.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lipke, House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

Representative Johnson (90) offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 872, 754 & 669, Page 15, Section 307.182, Line 43, by inserting after said line the following:

“577.020. 1. Sections 577.020 and 577.021 shall be known as the Alan Woods Law.

2. Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state shall be deemed to have given consent to, subject to the provisions of sections 577.020 to 577.041, a chemical test or tests of the person's breath, blood, saliva or urine for the purpose of determining the alcohol or drug content of the person's blood pursuant to the following circumstances:

(1) If the person is arrested for any offense arising out of acts which the arresting officer had reasonable grounds to believe were committed while the person was driving a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated or drugged condition; or

(2) If the person is under the age of twenty-one, has been stopped by a law enforcement officer, and the law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person was driving a motor vehicle with a blood alcohol content of two-hundredths of one percent or more by weight; or

(3) If the person is under the age of twenty-one, has been stopped by a law enforcement officer, and the law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person has committed a violation of the traffic laws of the state, or any political subdivision of the state, and such officer has reasonable grounds to believe, after making such stop, that such person has a blood alcohol content of two-hundredths of one percent or greater;

(4) If the person is under the age of twenty-one, has been stopped at a sobriety checkpoint or roadblock and the law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person has a blood alcohol content of two-hundredths of one percent or greater;

(5) If the person, while operating a motor vehicle, has been involved in a motor vehicle collision which resulted in a fatality or a readily apparent serious physical injury as defined in section 565.002, RSMo, [and] or has been arrested as evidenced by the issuance of a uniform traffic ticket for the violation of any state law or county or municipal ordinance with the exception of equipment violations contained in chapter 306, RSMo, or similar provisions contained in county or municipal ordinances; or

(6) If the person, while operating a motor vehicle, has been involved in a motor vehicle collision which resulted in a fatality or serious physical injury as defined in section 565.002, RSMo.

The test shall be administered at the direction of the law enforcement officer whenever the person has been arrested or stopped for any reason.

[2.] 3. The implied consent to submit to the chemical tests listed in subsection [1] 2 of this section shall be limited to not more than two such tests arising from the same arrest, incident or charge.

[3.] 4. Chemical analysis of the person's breath, blood, saliva, or urine to be considered valid pursuant to the provisions of sections 577.020 to 577.041 shall be performed according to methods approved by the state department of health and senior services by licensed medical personnel or by a person possessing a valid permit issued by the state department of health and senior services for this purpose.

[4.] 5. The state department of health and senior services shall approve satisfactory techniques, devices, equipment, or methods to be considered valid pursuant to the provisions of sections 577.020 to 577.041 and shall establish standards to ascertain the qualifications and competence of individuals to conduct analyses and to issue permits which shall be subject to termination or revocation by the state department of health and senior services.

[5.] 6. The person tested may have a physician, or a qualified technician, chemist, registered nurse, or other qualified person at the choosing and expense of the person to be tested, administer a test in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

[6.] 7. Upon the request of the person who is tested, full information concerning the test shall be made available to such person.

[7.] 8. Any person given a chemical test of the person's breath pursuant to subsection [1] 2 of this section or a field sobriety test may be videotaped during any such test at the direction of the law enforcement officer. Any such video recording made during the chemical test pursuant to this subsection or a field sobriety test shall be admissible as evidence at either any trial of such person for either a violation of any state law or county or municipal ordinance, or any license revocation or suspension proceeding pursuant to the provisions of chapter 302, RSMo.

577.021. 1. Any state, county or municipal law enforcement officer who has the power of arrest for violations of section 577.010 or 577.012 and who is certified pursuant to chapter 590, RSMo, may, prior to arrest, administer a chemical test to any person suspected of operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 577.010 or 577.012.

2. Any state, county, or municipal law enforcement officer who has the power of arrest for violations of section 577.010 or 577.012 and who is certified under chapter 590, RSMo, shall make all reasonable efforts to administer a chemical test to any person suspected of driving a motor vehicle involved in a collision which resulted in a fatality or serious physical injury as defined in section 565.002, RSMo.

3. A test administered pursuant to this section shall be admissible as evidence of probable cause to arrest and as exculpatory evidence, but shall not be admissible as evidence of blood alcohol content. The provisions of section 577.020 shall not apply to a test administered prior to arrest pursuant to this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Bringer offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 4.

*House Amendment No. 1
to
House Amendment No. 4*

AMEND House Amendment No. 4 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 872, 754 & 669, Page 3, Line 9, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Full information is limited to the following:

- (1) The type of test administered and the procedures followed;
- (2) The time of the collection of the blood or breath sample analyzed or urine analyzed;
- (3) The numerical results of the test indicating the alcohol content of the blood and breath and urine;
- (4) The type and status of any permit which was held by the person who performed the test;

(5) If the test was administered by means of a breath testing instrument, the date of performance of the most recent required maintenance of such instrument.

Full information does not include manuals, schematics, or software of the instrument used to test the person or any other material that is not in the actual possession of the state. Additionally, full information does not include information in the possession of the manufacturer of the test instrument”; and

Further amend Page 4, Line 3, by inserting after said line the following:

“The provisions changing chapter 577 are severable from this legislation. The general assembly would have enacted the remainder of this legislation without the changes made to chapter 577, and the remainder of the legislation is not essentially and inseparably connected with or dependent upon the changes to chapter 577.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Richard offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 144.054, Page 106, Line 23, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“144.062. 1. With respect to exempt sales at retail of tangible personal property and materials for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for: (1) a county, other political subdivision or instrumentality thereof exempt from taxation under subdivision (10) of section 39 of article III of the Constitution of Missouri; or (2) an organization sales to which are exempt from taxation under the provisions of subdivision (19) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or (3) any institution of higher education supported by public funds or any private not-for-profit institution of higher education, exempt from taxation under subdivision (20) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or (4) any private not-for-profit elementary or secondary school exempt from taxation under subdivision (22) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or (5) after June 30, 2007: (a) the department of transportation; or (b) the state highways and transportation commission, hereinafter collectively referred to as exempt entities, such exemptions shall be allowed for such purchases if the purchases are related to the entities' exempt functions and activities. In addition, the sales shall not be rendered nonexempt nor shall any material supplier or contractor be obligated to pay, collect or remit sales tax with respect to such purchases made by or on behalf of an exempt entity due to such purchases being billed to or paid for by a contractor or the exempt entity contracting with any entity to render any services in relation to such purchases, including but not limited to selection of materials, ordering, pickup, delivery, approval on delivery, taking of delivery, transportation, storage, assumption of risk of loss to materials or providing warranties on materials as specified by contract, use of materials or other purchases for construction of the building or other facility, providing labor, management services, administrative services, design or technical services or advice to the exempt entity, whether or not the contractor or other entity exercises dominion or control in any other manner over the materials in conjunction with services or labor provided to the exempt entity.

2. When any exempt entity contracts for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities, and purchases of tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project are to be made on a tax-exempt basis, such entity shall furnish to the contractor an exemption certificate authorizing such purchases for the construction, repair or remodeling project. The form and content of such project exemption certificate shall be approved by the director of revenue. The project exemption certificate shall include but not be limited to:

- (1) The exempt entity's name, address, Missouri tax identification number and signature of authorized representative;
- (2) The project location, description, and unique identification number;
- (3) The date the contract is entered into, which is the earliest date materials may be purchased for the project on a tax-exempt basis;
- (4) The estimated project completion date; and
- (5) The certificate expiration date.

Such certificate is renewable for a given project at the option of the exempt entity, only for the purpose of revising the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete the project.

3. The contractor shall furnish the certificate prescribed in subsection 2 of this section to all subcontractors, and any contractor purchasing materials shall present such certificate to all material suppliers as authorization to purchase, on behalf of the exempt entity, all tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of that project and no other on a tax-exempt basis. Such suppliers shall execute to the purchasing contractor invoices bearing the name of the exempt entity and the project identification number. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt the purchase of any construction machinery, equipment or tools used in constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for the exempt entity. All invoices for all personal property and materials purchased under a project exemption certificate shall be retained by the purchasing contractor for a period of five years and shall be subject to audit by the director of revenue.

4. Any excess resalable tangible personal property or materials which were purchased for the project by a contractor under a project exemption certificate but which were not incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project shall either be returned to the supplier for credit or the appropriate sales or use tax on such excess property or materials shall be reported on a return and paid by such contractor not later than the due date of the contractor's Missouri sales or use tax return following the month in which it was determined that the materials were not to be used in the project.

5. No contractor or material supplier shall, upon audit, be required to pay tax on tangible personal property and materials incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project, due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete any work required by the contract. If it is determined that tax is owed on such property and materials due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise such certificate expiration date, the exempt entity shall be liable for the tax owed.

6. If an entity issues exemption certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of its project and such entity is found not to have had the authority granted by this section to issue such exemption certificates, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials. In addition, if an entity which does have the authority granted by this section to issue exemption certificates issues such certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of a project, or part of a project, which is found not to be related to such entity's exempt functions and activities, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Richard, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Pearce offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 7

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Page 16, Section 42.007, Line 59, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"67.2500. 1. A theater, cultural arts, and entertainment district may be established in the manner provided in section 67.2505 by the governing body of any county described in this subsection or any city, town, or village that is within [a first class county with a charter form of government with a population over two hundred fifty thousand that adjoins a first class county with a charter form of government with a population over nine hundred thousand, or that is within] such counties:

(1) Any county with a charter form of government and with more than two hundred fifty thousand but less than three hundred fifty thousand inhabitants[, may establish a theater, cultural arts, and entertainment district in the manner provided in section 67.2505] ;

(2) Any county of the first classification with more than ninety-three thousand eight hundred but fewer than ninety-three thousand nine hundred inhabitants;

(3) Any county of the first classification with more than one hundred eighty-four thousand but fewer than one hundred eighty-eight thousand inhabitants.

2. Sections 67.2500 to 67.2530 shall be known as the "Theater, Cultural Arts, and Entertainment District Act".

3. As used in sections 67.2500 to 67.2530, the following terms mean:

(1) "District", a theater, cultural arts, and entertainment district organized under this section;

(2) "Qualified electors", "qualified voters", or "voters", registered voters residing within the district or subdistrict, or proposed district or subdistrict, who have registered to vote pursuant to chapter 115, RSMo, or, if there are no persons eligible to be registered voters residing in the district or subdistrict, proposed district or subdistrict, property owners, including corporations and other entities, that are owners of real property;

(3) "Registered voters", persons qualified and registered to vote pursuant to chapter 115, RSMo; and

(4) "Subdistrict", a subdivision of a district, but not a separate political subdivision, created for the purposes specified in subsection 5 of section 67.2505.

67.2510. As a complete alternative to the procedure establishing a district set forth in section 67.2505, a theater, cultural arts, and entertainment district may be established in the manner provided in section 67.2515 by a circuit court with jurisdiction over any county described in this section or any city, town, or village that is within [a first class county with a charter form of government with a population over two hundred fifty thousand that adjoins a first class county with a charter form of government with a population over nine hundred thousand, or that is within] such counties:

(3) Any county of the first classification with more than one hundred eighty-four thousand but fewer than one hundred eighty-eight thousand inhabitants."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Flook, House Amendment No. 7 was adopted.

Representative Ervin offered House Amendment No. 8.

House Amendment No. 8

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 348.271, Page 121, Line 43, by inserting after the period "." on said line the following:

"Once the funding deadline established by this subsection has been reached, a not-for-profit corporation that has operated an innovation center under this section may re-apply to the department of economic development to operate an innovation center under this section and receive funding through the Missouri discovery fund, as established in section 348.264, for an additional three-year period. Innovation centers may only reapply if they prove that previous state funding has resulted in a positive return on investment and that future innovation center operations will not continue to achieve the same positive return on investment unless the funding continues. If approved, re-application to continue to operate an innovation center under this section may be made at the close of the three-year funding period. If disapproved, re-application to operate an innovation center under this section may be made annually."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Ervin, House Amendment No. 8 was adopted.

Representative Schneider offered House Amendment No. 9.

House Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 160.053, Page 107, Line 20, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"160.545. 1. There is hereby established within the department of elementary and secondary education the "A+ Schools Program" to be administered by the commissioner of education. The program shall consist of grant awards made to public secondary schools that demonstrate a commitment to ensure that:

(1) All students be graduated from school;

(2) All students complete a selection of high school studies that is challenging and for which there are identified learning expectations; and

(3) All students proceed from high school graduation to a college or postsecondary vocational or technical school or high-wage job with work place skill development opportunities.

2. The state board of education shall promulgate rules and regulations for the approval of grants made under the program to schools that:

(1) Establish measurable districtwide performance standards for the goals of the program outlined in subsection 1 of this section; and

(2) Specify the knowledge, skills and competencies, in measurable terms, that students must demonstrate to successfully complete any individual course offered by the school, and any course of studies which will qualify a student for graduation from the school; and

(3) Do not offer a general track of courses that, upon completion, can lead to a high school diploma; and

(4) Require rigorous coursework with standards of competency in basic academic subjects for students pursuing vocational and technical education as prescribed by rule and regulation of the state board of education; and

(5) Have a partnership plan developed in cooperation and with the advice of local business persons, labor leaders, parents, and representatives of college and postsecondary vocational and technical school representatives, with the plan then approved by the local board of education. The plan shall specify a mechanism to receive information on an annual basis from those who developed the plan in addition to senior citizens, community leaders, and teachers to update the plan in order to best meet the goals of the program as provided in subsection 1 of this section. Further, the plan shall detail the procedures used in the school to identify students that may drop out of school and the intervention services to be used to meet the needs of such students. The plan shall outline counseling and mentoring services provided to students who will enter the work force upon graduation from high school, address apprenticeship and intern programs, and shall contain procedures for the recruitment of volunteers from the community of the school to serve in schools receiving program grants.

3. By rule and regulation, the state board of education may determine a local school district variable fund match requirement in order for a school or schools in the district to receive a grant under the program. However, no school in any district shall receive a grant under the program unless the district designates a salaried employee to serve as the program coordinator, with the district assuming a minimum of one-half the cost of the salary and other benefits provided to the coordinator. Further, no school in any district shall receive a grant under the program unless the district makes available facilities and services for adult literacy training as specified by rule of the state board of education.

4. For any school that meets the requirements for the approval of the grants authorized by this section and specified in subsection 2 of this section for three successive school years, by August first following the third such school year, the commissioner of education shall present a plan to the superintendent of the school district in which such school is located for the waiver of rules and regulations to promote flexibility in the operations of the school and to enhance and encourage efficiency in the delivery of instructional services in the school. The provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan presented to the superintendent shall provide a summary waiver, with no conditions, for the pupil testing requirements pursuant to section 160.257 in the school. Further, the provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan shall detail a means for the waiver of requirements otherwise imposed on the school related to the authority of the state board of education to classify school districts pursuant to subdivision (9) of section 161.092, RSMo, and such other rules and regulations as determined by the commissioner of education, except such waivers shall be confined to the school and not other schools in the school district unless such other schools meet the requirements of this subsection. However, any waiver provided to any school as outlined in this subsection shall be void on June thirtieth of any school year in which the school fails to meet the requirements for the approval of the grants authorized by this section as specified in subsection 2 of this section.

5. For any school year, grants authorized by subsections 1 to 3 of this section shall be funded with the amount appropriated for this program, less those funds necessary to reimburse eligible students pursuant to subsection 6 of this section.

6. Within the limits established in subsection 8 of this section, the commissioner of education shall, by rule and regulation of the state board of education and with the advice of the coordinating board for higher education, establish a procedure for the reimbursement of the cost of tuition, books and fees to any public community college or any public or private vocational or technical school for any student:

(1) Who has attended a public high school in the state for at least three years immediately prior to graduation that meets the requirements of subsection 2 of this section, except that students who are active duty military dependents who, in the school year immediately preceding graduation, meet all other requirements of this subsection and are attending a school that meets the requirements of subsection 2 of this section shall be exempt from the three-year attendance requirement of this subdivision; and

(2) Who has made a good faith effort to first secure all available federal sources of funding that could be applied to the reimbursement described in this subsection; and

(3) Who has earned a minimal grade average while in high school as determined by rule of the state board of education, and other requirements for the reimbursement authorized by this subsection as determined by rule and regulation of said board.

7. The commissioner of education shall develop a procedure for evaluating the effectiveness of the program described in this section. Such evaluation shall be conducted annually with the results of the evaluation provided to the governor, speaker of the house, and president pro tempore of the senate.

8. For private vocational or technical schools to obtain reimbursements under subsection 6 of this section the following requirements must be satisfied:

(1) Such institutions shall both be members of the north central association and be accredited by the higher learning commission as of July 1, 2006, and maintain such accreditation;

(2) Such institutions shall be designated as 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(3) No private vocational or technical school shall receive tuition reimbursements in excess of the tuition rate charged by a public community college for course work offered by the private vocational or technical school within the service area of such community college; and

(4) The reimbursements provided to private vocational or technical schools shall not violate the provisions of article IX, section 8, or article I, section 7, of the Missouri Constitution or the first amendment of the United States Constitution."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Schneider, House Amendment No. 9 was adopted.

Representative Wagner offered House Amendment No. 10.

House Amendment No. 10

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Page 105, Section 135.1170, Line 68, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"137.100. The following subjects are exempt from taxation for state, county or local purposes:

(1) Lands and other property belonging to this state;

(2) Lands and other property belonging to any city, county or other political subdivision in this state, including market houses, town halls and other public structures, with their furniture and equipments, and on public squares and lots kept open for health, use or ornament. For purposes of this subdivision, "belonging" shall mean in cases where lands are utilized so as to facilitate air transportation at nonprimary commercial service airports and reliever airports, as defined by the Federal Aviation Administration, holding a fee interest in real property without regard to the presence of any inferior possessory interest;

(3) Nonprofit cemeteries;

(4) The real estate and tangible personal property which is used exclusively for agricultural or horticultural societies organized in this state, including not-for-profit agribusiness associations;

(5) All property, real and personal, actually and regularly used exclusively for religious worship, for schools and colleges, or for purposes purely charitable and not held for private or corporate profit, except that the exemption herein granted does not include real property not actually used or occupied for the purpose of the organization but held or used as investment even though the income or rentals received therefrom is used wholly for religious, educational or charitable purposes;

(6) Household goods, furniture, wearing apparel and articles of personal use and adornment, as defined by the state tax commission, owned and used by a person in his home or dwelling place;

(7) Motor vehicles leased for a period of at least one year to this state or to any city, county, or political subdivision or to any religious, educational, or charitable organization which has obtained an exemption from the payment of federal income taxes, provided the motor vehicles are used exclusively for religious, educational, or charitable purposes; and

(8) Real or personal property leased or otherwise transferred by an interstate compact agency created pursuant to sections 70.370 to 70.430, RSMo, or sections 238.010 to 238.100, RSMo, to another for which or whom such property is not exempt when immediately after the lease or transfer, the interstate compact agency enters into a leaseback or other agreement that directly or indirectly gives such interstate compact agency a right to use, control, and possess the property; provided, however, that in the event of a conveyance of such property, the interstate compact agency must retain an option to purchase the property at a future date or, within the limitations period for reverts, the property must revert back to the interstate compact agency. Property will no longer be exempt under this subdivision in the event of a conveyance as of the date, if any, when:

(a) The right of the interstate compact agency to use, control, and possess the property is terminated;

- (b) The interstate compact agency no longer has an option to purchase or otherwise acquire the property; and
- (c) There are no provisions for reverter of the property within the limitation period for revertsers."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Wagner, House Amendment No. 10 was adopted.

Representative Wasson offered House Amendment No. 11.

House Amendment No. 11

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Page 16, Section 42.007, Line 59, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"67.1580. 1. As used in this section, "community improvement" means any program, project, or activity that the governing body of the city determines improves a community.

2. Any city with two hundred thousand or fewer inhabitants may create a community improvement fund. The fund shall consist of all moneys which may be appropriated to it by the governing body of the city, gifts, contributions, grants, or bequests received from any source. Moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the programs, projects, and activities implemented by the governing body of the city to improve communities."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Wasson, House Amendment No. 11 was adopted.

Representative Parson offered House Amendment No. 12.

House Amendment No. 12

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 313.820, Page 114, Line 102, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"323.020. 1. The director of the department of agriculture shall make, promulgate and enforce regulations setting forth general standards covering the design, construction, location, installation and operation of equipment for storing, handling, transporting by tank truck, tank trailer, and utilizing liquefied petroleum gases and specifying the odorization of such gases and the degree thereof. The regulations shall be such as are reasonably necessary for the protection of the health, welfare and safety of the public and persons using such materials, and shall be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety concerning the same subject matter. Such regulations shall be adopted by the director of the department of agriculture pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is promulgated under the authority of this chapter, shall become effective only if the agency has fully complied with all of the requirements of chapter 536, RSMo, including but not limited to section 536.028, RSMo, if applicable, after January 1, 1999. All rulemaking authority delegated prior to January 1, 1999, is of no force and effect and repealed as of January 1, 1999, however nothing in this act shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the validity of any rule adopted and promulgated prior to January 1, 1999. If the provisions of section 536.028, RSMo, apply, the provisions of this section are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to section 536.028, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule or portion of a rule are held unconstitutional or invalid, the purported grant of rulemaking authority and any rule so proposed and contained in the order of rulemaking shall be invalid and void, except that nothing in this act shall affect the validity of any rule adopted and promulgated prior to January 1, 1999.

2. Except as specifically provided in subsection 1 of section 323.060, regulations in substantial conformity with the published standards of the National [Board of Fire Underwriters] Fire Protection Association for the design, installation and construction of containers and pertinent equipment for the storage and handling of liquefied petroleum gases as recommended by the National Fire Protection Association shall be deemed to be in substantial conformity with the generally accepted standards of safety concerning the same subject matter.

3. The director shall establish an advisory committee which shall consist of seven members as follows:

- (1) One member representing the department of agriculture;
- (2) One member representing the state fire marshals office;
- (3) One member representing the Missouri Propane Gas Association;
- (4) One member actively conducting business as a retailer of propane gas;
- (5) One member representing wholesalers or resellers of propane gas;
- (6) One member representing the transportation of propane gas or affiliated industries;
- (7) One member representing companies that service, repair and install liquefied petroleum gas appliances, tanks, and equipment.

With the exception of the members representing the department of agriculture and the state fire marshal, the remaining members appointed by the director shall serve three-year terms except that the director shall designate one of the original appointees to be appointed for one year, two members to be appointed for two years, and two members to be appointed for three years.

4. The advisory committee established under this section shall report to the director of agriculture. The committee shall monitor the activity of the inspection program and recommend to the director any statutory or administrative changes as may be necessary to assure the efficient and effective operation of the inspection program. The committee shall meet as determined or deemed necessary by the director. Actual expenses incurred by committee members in association with said committee activity shall be reimbursable from the fee fund created in section 323.100. Expense reimbursement requests shall be documented and submitted to the department of agriculture fiscal office on an approved expense account form provided by the director at the end of the month in which the expense was incurred.

323.100. 1. The director of the department of agriculture shall annually inspect and test all liquid meters used for the measurement and retail sale of liquefied petroleum gas and shall condemn all meters which are found to be inaccurate. All meters shall meet the tolerances and specifications of the National Institute of Standards and Technology Handbook 44, 1994 edition and supplements thereto. It is unlawful to use a meter for retail measurement and sale which has been condemned. All condemned meters shall be conspicuously marked "inaccurate", and the mark shall not be removed or defaced except upon authorization of the director of the department of agriculture or his authorized representative. It is the duty of each person owning or in possession of a meter to pay to the director of the department of agriculture at the time of each test a testing fee of ten dollars, except that the testing fee herein provided for shall not be applied more than once in a calendar year to each meter tested.

2. The fee for the inspection of retail liquid propane meters and the safety inspection in the storage, handling, transportation, and utilization of liquefied petroleum gas shall be fixed by the director of the department of agriculture at a minimum rate of one-tenth of one cent per gallon of odorized propane which shall approximately yield revenue equal to the expenses of administering the provisions of this chapter, except that until December 31, 2006, the rate shall be two-tenths of one cent per gallon and beginning January 1, 2007, the fee shall not be less than one-tenth per gallon nor exceed three-tenths cent per gallon of odorized propane.

3. The owner of propane immediately prior to odorization in this state or the owner at the time of import into this state of odorized propane shall be responsible for the payment of fees on the volume at the time of import or odorization. Fees shall be remitted to the director of revenue, on forms prescribed by the director, on a monthly basis by the twenty-fifth of the month following the month of collection. Non odorized propane shall not be subject to fees until odorized. Fees on liquefied petroleum gas shall be paid on gallons received, less any exports out of state. When the inspection fee has been paid on liquefied petroleum gas which is then shipped out of this state for use, sale or distribution, credit or refund shall be allowed for the amount so paid.

4. Annually the director of agriculture shall ascertain the total expenses for administering sections 323.010 to 323.110 during the preceding year, and shall forward a copy of such expenses to the director of revenue. Based on the recommendations from the department of agriculture, the director of revenue shall fix the inspection fee for the ensuing calendar year at such a rate per gallon, within the limits established by subsection 2 of this section, as will approximately yield revenues equal to the expenses of administering sections 323.010 to 323.110 during the preceding calendar year and shall collect the fees and deposit them in the state treasury to the credit of the "Liquefied Petroleum Gas Inspection Fund" which is hereby created. After August 28, 2006, all expenses of administering sections 323.010 to 323.110 shall be paid from appropriations made out of the liquefied petroleum gas inspection fund.

5. The unexpended balance in the fund at the end of each fiscal year shall not be transferred to the general revenue fund of the state, and the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, relating to the transfer of funds to the general revenue fund of the state by the state treasurer shall not apply to this fund.

6. The state treasurer shall invest all sums in the liquefied petroleum gas fee fund not needed for current operating expenses in interest-bearing banking accounts or United States obligations in the manner provided by law. All yield, increment, gain, interest, or income derived from the investment of these sums shall accrue to the benefit of, and be deposited within the state treasury to the credit of the liquefied petroleum gas inspection fee fund.

7. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the provisions of section 23.253, RSMo.”; and Representative St. Onge offered House Amendment No. 16.

House Amendment No. 16

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Page 16, Section 42.007, Line 59, by inserting after said line the following:

"67.1451. 1. If a district is a political subdivision, the election and qualifications of members to the district's board of directors shall be in accordance with this section. If a district is a not-for-profit corporation, the election and qualification of members to its board of directors shall be in accordance with chapter 355, RSMo.

2. The district shall be governed by a board consisting of at least five but not more than thirty directors. Each director shall, during his or her entire term, be:

(1) At least eighteen years of age; and

(2) Be either:

(a) An owner, as defined in section 67.1401, of real property or of a business operating within the district; or

(b) [If in a home rule city with more than one hundred fifty-one thousand five hundred but fewer than one hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred inhabitants, a legally authorized representative of an owner of real property located within the district.] If there are less than five owners of real property located within a district, the board may be comprised of up to five legally authorized representatives of any of the owners of real property located within the district; or

(c) A registered voter residing within the district; and

(3) Any other qualifications set forth in the petition establishing the district.

3. If the district is a political subdivision, the board shall be elected or appointed, as provided in the petition.

4. If the board is to be elected, the procedure for election shall be as follows:

(1) The municipal clerk shall specify a date on which the election shall occur which date shall be a Tuesday and shall not be earlier than the tenth Tuesday, and shall not be later than the fifteenth Tuesday, after the effective date of the ordinance adopted to establish the district;

(2) The election shall be conducted in the same manner as provided for in section 67.1551, provided that the published notice of the election shall contain the information required by section 67.1551 for published notices, except that it shall state that the purpose of the election is for the election of directors, in lieu of the information related to taxes;

(3) Candidates shall pay the sum of five dollars as a filing fee and shall file not later than the second Tuesday after the effective date of the ordinance establishing the district with the municipal clerk a statement under oath that he or she possesses all of the qualifications set out in this section for a director. Thereafter, such candidate shall have his or her name placed on the ballot as a candidate for director;

(4) The director or directors to be elected shall be elected at large. The person receiving the most votes shall be elected to the position having the longest term; the person receiving the second highest votes shall be elected to the position having the next longest term and so forth. For any district formed prior to August 28, 2003, of the initial directors, one-half shall serve for a two-year term, one-half shall serve for a four-year term and if an odd number of directors are elected, the director receiving the least number of votes shall serve for a two-year term, until such director's successor is elected. For any district formed on or after August 28, 2003, for the initial directors, one-half shall serve for a two-year term, and one-half shall serve for the term specified by the district pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection, and if an odd number of directors are elected, the director receiving the least number of votes shall serve for a two-year term, until such director's successor is elected;

(5) Successor directors shall be elected in the same manner as the initial directors. The date of the election of successor directors shall be specified by the municipal clerk which date shall be a Tuesday and shall not be later than the date of the expiration of the stated term of the expiring director. Each successor director shall serve a term for the length specified prior to the election by the district, which term shall be at least three years and not more than four years, and shall continue until such director's successor is elected. In the event of a vacancy on the board of directors, the remaining directors shall elect an interim director to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

5. If the petition provides that the board is to be appointed by the municipality, such appointments shall be made by the chief elected officer of the municipality with the consent of the governing body of the municipality. For any district formed prior to August 28, 2003, of the initial appointed directors, one-half of the directors shall be appointed to serve for a two-year term and the remaining one-half shall be appointed to serve for a four-year term until such director's successor is appointed; provided that, if there is an odd number of directors, the last person appointed shall serve a two-year term. For any district formed on or after August 28, 2003, of the initial appointed directors, one-half shall be appointed to serve for a two-year term, and one-half shall be appointed to serve for the term specified by the district for successor directors pursuant to this subsection, and if an odd number of directors are appointed, the last person appointed shall serve for a two-year term; provided that each director shall serve until such director's successor is appointed. Successor directors shall be appointed in the same manner as the initial directors and shall serve for a term of years specified by the district prior to the appointment, which term shall be at least three years and not more than four years.

6. If the petition states the names of the initial directors, those directors shall serve for the terms specified in the petition and successor directors shall be determined either by the above-listed election process or appointment process as provided in the petition.

7. Any director may be removed for cause by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the directors of the board. Written notice of the proposed removal shall be given to all directors prior to action thereon.

8. The board is authorized to act on behalf of the district, subject to approval of qualified voters as required in this section; except that, all official acts of the board shall be by written resolution approved by the board.

67.1545. 1. Any district formed as a political subdivision may impose by resolution a district sales and use tax on all retail sales made in such district which are subject to taxation pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, except sales of motor vehicles, trailers, boats or outboard motors and sales to public utilities. Any sales and use tax imposed pursuant to this section may be imposed [at a rate of one-eighth of one percent, one-fourth of one percent, three-eighths of one percent, one-half of one percent or one percent] in increments of one-eighth of one percent, up to a maximum of one percent. Such district sales and use tax may be imposed for any district purpose designated by the district in its ballot of submission to its qualified voters; except that, no resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall become effective unless the board of directors of the district submits to the qualified voters of the district, by mail-in ballot, a proposal to authorize a sales and use tax pursuant to this section. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters on the proposed sales tax are in favor of the sales tax, then the resolution is adopted. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters are opposed to the sales tax, then the resolution is void.

2. The ballot shall be substantially in the following form:

Shall the (insert name of district) Community Improvement District impose a community improvement districtwide sales and use tax at the maximum rate of (insert amount) for a period of (insert number) years from the date on which such tax is first imposed for the purpose of providing revenue for (insert general description of the purpose)?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "Yes". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "No".

3. Within ten days after the qualified voters have approved the imposition of the sales and use tax, the district shall, in accordance with section 32.097, RSMo, notify the director of the department of revenue. The sales and use tax authorized by this section shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter after the director of the department of revenue receives notice of the adoption of such tax.

4. The director of the department of revenue shall collect any tax adopted pursuant to this section pursuant to section 32.087, RSMo.

5. In each district in which a sales and use tax is imposed pursuant to this section, every retailer shall add such additional tax imposed by the district to such retailer's sale price, and when so added such tax shall constitute a part of the purchase price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price.

6. In order to allow retailers to collect and report the sales and use tax authorized by this section as well as all other sales and use taxes required by law in the simplest and most efficient manner possible, a district may establish appropriate brackets to be used in the district imposing a tax pursuant to this section in lieu of the brackets provided in section 144.285, RSMo.

7. The penalties provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, shall apply to violations of this section.

8. All revenue received by the district from a sales and use tax imposed pursuant to this section which is designated for a specific purpose shall be deposited into a special trust fund and expended solely for such purpose. Upon the expiration of any sales and use tax adopted pursuant to this section, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the specific purpose designated in the resolution adopted by the qualified voters. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the board of directors pursuant to applicable laws relating to the investment of other district funds.

9. A district may repeal by resolution any sales and use tax imposed pursuant to this section before the expiration date of such sales and use tax unless the repeal of such sales and use tax will impair the district's ability to repay any liabilities the district has incurred, moneys the district has borrowed or obligation the district has issued to finance any improvements or services rendered for the district."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative St. Onge, House Amendment No. 16 was adopted.

Representative Hobbs offered House Amendment No. 17.

House Amendment No. 17

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 144.054, Page 106, Line 23, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"144.080. 1. Every person receiving any payment or consideration upon the sale of property or rendering of service, subject to the tax imposed by the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, is exercising the taxable privilege of selling the property or rendering the service at retail and is subject to the tax levied in section 144.020. The person shall be responsible not only for the collection of the amount of the tax imposed on the sale or service to the extent possible under the provisions of section 144.285, but shall, on or before the last day of the month following each calendar quarterly period of three months, file a return with the director of revenue showing the person's gross receipts and the amount of tax levied in section 144.020 for the preceding quarter, and shall remit to the director of revenue, with the return, the taxes levied in section 144.020, except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section. The director of revenue may promulgate rules or regulations changing the filing and payment requirements of sellers, but shall not require any seller to file and pay more frequently than required in this section.

2. Where the aggregate amount levied and imposed upon a seller by section 144.020 is in excess of two hundred and fifty dollars for either the first or second month of a calendar quarter, the seller shall file a return and pay such aggregate amount for such months to the director of revenue by the twentieth day of the succeeding month.

3. Where the aggregate amount levied and imposed upon a seller by section 144.020 is less than forty-five dollars in a calendar quarter, the director of revenue shall by regulation permit the seller to file a return for a calendar year. The return shall be filed and the taxes paid on or before January thirty-first of the succeeding year.

4. The seller of any property or person rendering any service, subject to the tax imposed by sections 144.010 to 144.525, shall collect the tax from the purchaser of such property or the recipient of the service to the extent possible under the provisions of section 144.285, but the seller's inability to collect any part or all of the tax does not relieve the seller of the obligation to pay to the state the tax imposed by section 144.020; except that the collection of the tax imposed by sections 144.010 to 144.525 on motor vehicles and trailers shall be made as provided in sections 144.070 and 144.440.

5. [It shall be unlawful for any person to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer directly or indirectly that the tax or any part thereof imposed by sections 144.010 to 144.525, and required to be collected by the person, will be assumed or absorbed by the person, or that it will not be separately stated and added to the selling price of the property sold or service rendered, or if added, that it or any part thereof will be refunded.] Any person [violating any of the provisions of this section] may advertise, hold out, or state directly to the public or any customer that the tax of any part thereof imposed by sections 144.010 to 144.525 and required to be collected by the person will be assumed or absorbed by the person, provided that the amount of assumed or absorbed tax shall be stated on any invoice or receipt for the item sold. Failure to state separately such assumed or absorbed tax on the invoice or receipt for the item sold shall be unlawful, and any person failing to do so shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.”;

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Hobbs, House Amendment No. 17 was adopted.

Representative Bowman offered House Amendment No. 18.

House Amendment No. 18

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 26.700, Page 3, Line 27, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“26.800. 1. There is hereby created within the office of the governor a "Revitalization and Reconstruction Commission". The governor may, by executive order, assign this commission to the office of any executive department or statewide elected official.

2. The commission is established to promote the restoration, redevelopment, and revitalization of the urban resources of the state. The commission shall devise a comprehensive plan for alleviation of problems associated with distressed urban areas in this state. The plan shall cover a period of at least ten years after the publication of the plan, and shall address the needs as listed in subsection 2 of section 26.804. The commission shall have authority over state programs, as provided by law, which are designed to remedy blight and deterioration of urban areas, and to facilitate the revitalization of, and to reverse, declining property values in distressed urban areas.

26.802. The commission shall consist of nine members, seven of whom shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, not more than four of whom shall be of the same political party. At least two appointed members of the commission shall be residents of the largest municipality in the state, at least two appointed members shall be residents of the second largest municipality in the state, and at least one member shall be a resident of the third largest municipality in the state. All appointed members shall have knowledge of and interest in the restoration, redevelopment, and revitalization of urban areas. The appointed members shall hold office for terms of six years beginning on the first day of July of consecutive odd years; provided, that for the original seven appointed members, the governor shall designate three members for terms expiring June 30, 2014, two members for terms expiring June 30, 2016, and two members for terms expiring June 30, 2018. If the governor fails to fill a vacancy caused by the death, resignation, or removal from office of any appointed member of the commission, or to replace an appointed member whose term has expired within thirty days of the occurrence of the vacancy or term expiration, the remaining members of the commission shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term or replace the member whose term has expired for a six-year term. In addition to the members of the commission appointed by the governor, the state treasurer and state auditor shall serve as members of the commission. The members shall receive no salary or other compensation for their services as members, but shall receive reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The members of the commission shall elect one of their members to serve as chair of the commission, and may elect other officers as deemed necessary.

26.804. 1. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To accept, from any source, moneys and property paid, offered, or granted to the commission to be expended and used by the commission for the purposes specified in sections 26.800 to 26.806;

(2) To designate specific distressed urban areas in the state in which the commission shall direct a program of concentrated revitalization based on an assessment of extraordinary need;

(3) To develop a plan to effectuate such targeted concentrated revitalization in cooperation with federal, state, and local governments and agencies. Such plan may include the formation of nonprofit public development corporations or the activities of existing nonprofit corporations and entities, the redirection of existing programs and resources for the benefit of such areas, and proposals for the creation of new or expanded programs in such areas;

(4) To acquire, through purchase, donation, gift, or eminent domain, land in distressed urban areas, to remove obsolete, inefficient, dilapidated, or outdated structures and assemble suitable sites for building and development of industrial, business, and residential facilities to attract and house new industries and business and allow expansion and improvement of existing industrial, business, and residential operations. The commission shall exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by law for the highways and transportation commission, and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer or convey, on terms it deems appropriate, any interest it has in lands owned by the commission;

(5) To appoint an advisory commission from a distressed urban area, whose members shall include residents of the distressed urban area and representatives of business and industry in the distressed urban area. The advisory commission shall advise the commission regarding the creation of a program of concentrated revitalization for the distressed urban area based upon the commission's assessment of extraordinary need. The advisory commission may advise the commission concerning how the revitalization plan will be integrated with available community and governmental resources. The members of the advisory commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members of the advisory commission, but shall receive their necessary traveling and other expenses incurred while actually engaged in the discharge of their official duties;

(6) To apply for and receive grants, gifts, donations, and financial assistance from federal agencies or private individuals or entities to complete its duties;

(7) To provide relocation assistance, under sections 523.200 to 523.215, RSMo, to displaced persons who relocate permanently and voluntarily from real property as a direct result of the acquisition, rehabilitation, or demolition of, or the written notice of intent to acquire such real property, in whole or in part, by the commission;

(8) To provide assistance to municipalities and community organizations engaging in the improvement of economic opportunities, housing, and industrial and commercial revitalization of urban areas;

(9) To provide comprehensive information on existing federal, state, and local urban development and revitalization programs upon request to municipalities and community organizations;

(10) To coordinate the programs of state agencies and public benefit nonprofit corporations to remedy problems in distressed urban areas;

(11) To provide information and assistance to the governor and general assembly in the coordination, consolidation, and improvement of state policy regarding urban areas; and

(12) To represent the governor before federal agencies on matters of importance to coordinate policy for the revitalization of urban areas.

2. The plan adopted by the commission shall address the following needs in distressed urban areas of the state:

(1) Promoting a vigorous and growing economy;

(2) Preventing economic stagnation and encouraging of the creation of new job opportunities to ameliorate the hazards of unemployment and underemployment;

(3) Reducing the level of public assistance;

(4) Reducing the rate of crime and delinquency;

(5) Increasing the level of education;

- (6) Reversing declining property values in urban areas;
- (7) Increasing revenues to the state and municipalities; and
- (8) Achieving a diversified economy.

3. The comprehensive plan shall contain initial proposals for addressing revitalization of each identified distressed urban area and state a proposed time line for revitalization of each such area. The commission shall not be required to allocate resources in a particular geographic pattern or to all distressed urban areas simultaneously, and may concentrate all of its efforts in a particular distressed urban area or several distressed urban areas to the exclusion of other distressed urban areas until revitalization of such area is complete. The comprehensive plan shall be periodically updated by the commission, but the commission shall publish and operate under a current comprehensive plan prior to February 28, 2008.

4. For purposes of this section, "distressed urban area" means that portion of a municipality or municipalities which, by reason of structural age, obsolescence, inadequate or outmoded design, or physical deterioration, has become an economic or social liability; that such conditions are conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, crime, or the inability to pay reasonable taxes; and that conservation, restoration, redevelopment, and revitalization are necessary to correct such conditions.

5. The commission shall compile a full report of its findings for submission to the general assembly. The report shall be submitted not later than the fifteenth of January of each year in which the general assembly convenes in regular session. The commission shall also submit a report to the general assembly before undertaking any project, in which it identifies the nature and plan of the proposed project.

26.806. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Revitalization and Reconstruction Fund", which shall consist of money collected under sections 26.800 to 26.806. Upon appropriation, money in the fund shall be used solely for the administration of sections 26.800 to 26.806. The state treasurer shall deposit to the credit of the fund all moneys which may be appropriated to it by the general assembly and also any gifts, contributions, grants, bequests, or other aid received from federal, private, or other sources.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund.

3. The state auditor shall periodically cause an audit to be made of the books, accounts, and records of the commission with respect to its receipts, disbursements, contracts, mortgages, leases, assignments, loans, and all other matters relating to its financial operations. Copies of the audit shall be furnished to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president pro tem of the senate."; and

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Page 146, Section 620.1900, Line 29, by inserting after said line the following:

"701.450. 1. For any facility for which construction commences after August 28, 1995, which is constructed as a place of assembly for public amusement including, but not limited to, sports stadiums and arenas, auditoriums and assembly halls, there shall be provided an equal number of water closets for women as there are the number of water closets and urinals provided for men, and there shall be provided an equal number of diaper changing stations for men as there are the number provided for women.

2. Each facility described in subsection 1 of this section constructed or under construction prior to August 28, 1995, shall provide water closets in the same ratio as required in subsection 1 of this section whenever such facility undergoes major structural renovation.

3. As used in subsection 2 of this section, the term "major structural renovation" means any reconstruction, rehabilitation, addition or other improvement which requires more than fifty percent of the gross floor area of the existing facility to be rebuilt. The provisions of this act shall only apply to such portions of the building being renovated and not to the entire building.

4. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, if any facility described in subsection 1 of this section located in a city not within a county is constructed in compliance with the requirements of the applicable building and plumbing codes of such city related to the minimum number of water closets that are designated for women, such facility shall not be required to comply with the requirements of subsection 1 of this section until one year following the date of its substantial completion."; and Representative Meiners offered House Amendment No. 20.

House Amendment No. 20

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 290.152, Page 111, Line 32, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“311.489. 1. A permit for the sale of intoxicating liquor as defined in section 311.020, and nonintoxicating beer as defined in section 312.010, RSMo, for consumption on premises where sold may be issued to any festival district that includes three or more businesses that are licensed bars, nightclubs, restaurants, or other entertainment venues and a common area that is closed to vehicle traffic, provided that the permit is held by a promotional association. A "promotional association" is defined as an entity formed by property owners who own or operate fifty percent or more of the square feet of bars, nightclubs, restaurants, and other entertainment venues located within the proposed district.

2. The promotional association may obtain a permit if the promotional association submits a plan to the governing municipality containing basic information, which includes the legal description of the district, the name and address of each business participating in the promotional association, the intended calendar of events for the district, a description of the proposed festival activities, proof of adequate insurance, and a description of security for any proposed festivals. Such permit shall cost three hundred dollars per year. Such plan may be amended during the year subject to governing municipality approval.

3. If the plan is approved, the promotional association may sell liquor for consumption within the district common areas between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 a.m. on Monday through Saturday and between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 a.m. on Sunday. However, if a promotional association is issued a license to sell intoxicating liquor under section 311.096, a festival district permit may allow for the conducting of sales within the hours of operation designated by such license. Such promotional association may permit customers to leave an establishment within the district after purchasing an alcoholic beverage and consume the beverage in the district common areas or another licensed establishment within the district. No person shall be allowed to take any alcoholic beverage outside the boundaries of the festival district.

4. If participating in a promotional association event, every bar, nightclub, restaurant, promotional association, or other entertainment venue that serves alcoholic beverages within the festival district shall use disposable paper, plastic, or foam cups or other light-weight containers for all alcoholic beverages that the bar, nightclub, restaurant, promotional association, or other entertainment venue sells within the festival district boundaries for consumption in the district common area.

5. If minors are allowed to enter the festival district, the applicant shall ensure that such minors are easily distinguished from persons of legal age.

6. The holder of the permit is solely responsible for any alcohol violations occurring within the common areas. For any violation of this chapter or of any rule or regulation of the supervisor of alcohol and tobacco control, the promotional association may be assessed a civil fine of not more than five thousand dollars. If a promotional association is found to be responsible for such violations at three separate events, then such promotional association shall not seek approval for subsequent plans without the prior written consent of the supervisor of alcohol and tobacco control. The promotional association's then current plan shall be deemed terminated, and the businesses participating in the promotional association's events shall not participate in activities permitted by subsection 3 of this section without prior written consent from the supervisor of alcohol and tobacco control.

7. The provisions of this section shall only apply to any county with a charter form of government and with more than six hundred thousand but fewer than seven hundred thousand inhabitants.”; and

House Amendment No. 24

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 696, Section 135.1170, Page 105, Line 68, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"144.030. 1. There is hereby specifically exempted from the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525 and from the computation of the tax levied, assessed or payable pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525 such retail sales as may be made in commerce between this state and any other state of the United States, or between this state and any foreign country, and any retail sale which the state of Missouri is prohibited from taxing pursuant to the Constitution or laws of the United States of America, and such retail sales of tangible personal property which the general assembly of the state of Missouri is prohibited from taxing or further taxing by the constitution of this state.

2. There are also specifically exempted from the provisions of the local sales tax law as defined in section 32.085, RSMo, section 238.235, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525 and 144.600 to 144.761 and from the computation of the tax levied, assessed or payable pursuant to the local sales tax law as defined in section 32.085, RSMo, section 238.235, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525 and 144.600 to 144.745:

(1) Motor fuel or special fuel subject to an excise tax of this state, unless all or part of such excise tax is refunded pursuant to section 142.824, RSMo; or upon the sale at retail of fuel to be consumed in manufacturing or creating gas, power, steam, electrical current or in furnishing water to be sold ultimately at retail; or feed for livestock or poultry; or grain to be converted into foodstuffs which are to be sold ultimately in processed form at retail; or seed, limestone or fertilizer which is to be used for seeding, liming or fertilizing crops which when harvested will be sold at retail or will be fed to livestock or poultry to be sold ultimately in processed form at retail; economic poisons registered pursuant to the provisions of the Missouri pesticide registration law (sections 281.220 to 281.310, RSMo) which are to be used in connection with the growth or production of crops, fruit trees or orchards applied before, during, or after planting, the crop of which when harvested will be sold at retail or will be converted into foodstuffs which are to be sold ultimately in processed form at retail;

(2) Materials, manufactured goods, machinery and parts which when used in manufacturing, processing, compounding, mining, producing or fabricating become a component part or ingredient of the new personal property resulting from such manufacturing, processing, compounding, mining, producing or fabricating and which new personal property is intended to be sold ultimately for final use or consumption; and materials, including without limitation, gases and manufactured goods, including without limitation, slagging materials and firebrick, which are ultimately consumed in the manufacturing process by blending, reacting or interacting with or by becoming, in whole or in part, component parts or ingredients of steel products intended to be sold ultimately for final use or consumption;

(3) Materials, replacement parts and equipment purchased for use directly upon, and for the repair and maintenance or manufacture of, motor vehicles, watercraft, railroad rolling stock or aircraft engaged as common carriers of persons or property;

(4) Replacement machinery, equipment, and parts and the materials and supplies solely required for the installation or construction of such replacement machinery, equipment, and parts, used directly in manufacturing, mining, fabricating or producing a product which is intended to be sold ultimately for final use or consumption; and machinery and equipment, and the materials and supplies required solely for the operation, installation or construction of such machinery and equipment, purchased and used to establish new, or to replace or expand existing, material recovery processing plants in this state. For the purposes of this subdivision, a "material recovery processing plant" means a facility that has as its primary purpose the recovery of materials into a useable product or a different form which is used in producing a new product and shall include a facility or equipment which are used exclusively for the collection of recovered materials for delivery to a material recovery processing plant but shall not include motor vehicles used on highways. For purposes of this section, the terms "motor vehicle" and "highway" shall have the same meaning pursuant to section 301.010, RSMo. Material recovery is not the reuse of materials within a manufacturing process or the use of a product previously recovered. The material recovery processing plant shall qualify under the provisions of this section regardless of ownership of the material being recovered;

(5) Machinery and equipment, and parts and the materials and supplies solely required for the installation or construction of such machinery and equipment, purchased and used to establish new or to expand existing manufacturing, mining or fabricating plants in the state if such machinery and equipment is used directly in manufacturing, mining or fabricating a product which is intended to be sold ultimately for final use or consumption;

(6) Tangible personal property which is used exclusively in the manufacturing, processing, modification or assembling of products sold to the United States government or to any agency of the United States government;

(7) Animals or poultry used for breeding or feeding purposes;

(8) Newsprint, ink, computers, photosensitive paper and film, toner, printing plates and other machinery, equipment, replacement parts and supplies used in producing newspapers published for dissemination of news to the general public;

(9) The rentals of films, records or any type of sound or picture transcriptions for public commercial display;

(10) Pumping machinery and equipment used to propel products delivered by pipelines engaged as common carriers;

(11) Railroad rolling stock for use in transporting persons or property in interstate commerce and motor vehicles licensed for a gross weight of twenty-four thousand pounds or more or trailers used by common carriers, as defined in section 390.020, RSMo, solely in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce;

(12) Electrical energy used in the actual primary manufacture, processing, compounding, mining or producing of a product, or electrical energy used in the actual secondary processing or fabricating of the product, or a material recovery processing plant as defined in subdivision (4) of this subsection, in facilities owned or leased by the taxpayer, if the total cost of electrical energy so used exceeds ten percent of the total cost of production, either primary or secondary, exclusive of the cost of electrical energy so used or if the raw materials used in such processing contain at least twenty-five percent recovered materials as defined in section 260.200, RSMo. For purposes of this subdivision, "processing" means any mode of treatment, act or series of acts performed upon materials to transform and reduce them to a different state or thing, including treatment necessary to maintain or preserve such processing by the producer at the production facility;

(13) Anodes which are used or consumed in manufacturing, processing, compounding, mining, producing or fabricating and which have a useful life of less than one year;

(14) Machinery, equipment, appliances and devices purchased or leased and used solely for the purpose of preventing, abating or monitoring air pollution, and materials and supplies solely required for the installation, construction or reconstruction of such machinery, equipment, appliances and devices, and so certified as such by the director of the department of natural resources, except that any action by the director pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed to the air conservation commission which may uphold or reverse such action;

(15) Machinery, equipment, appliances and devices purchased or leased and used solely for the purpose of preventing, abating or monitoring water pollution, and materials and supplies solely required for the installation, construction or reconstruction of such machinery, equipment, appliances and devices, and so certified as such by the director of the department of natural resources, except that any action by the director pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed to the Missouri clean water commission which may uphold or reverse such action;

(16) Tangible personal property purchased by a rural water district;

(17) All amounts paid or charged for admission or participation or other fees paid by or other charges to individuals in or for any place of amusement, entertainment or recreation, games or athletic events, including museums, fairs, zoos and planetariums, owned or operated by a municipality or other political subdivision where all the proceeds derived therefrom benefit the municipality or other political subdivision and do not inure to any private person, firm, or corporation;

(18) All sales of insulin and prosthetic or orthopedic devices as defined on January 1, 1980, by the federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act of 1965, including the items specified in Section 1862(a)(12) of that act, and also specifically including hearing aids and hearing aid supplies and all sales of drugs which may be legally dispensed by a licensed pharmacist only upon a lawful prescription of a practitioner licensed to administer those items, including samples and materials used to manufacture samples which may be dispensed by a practitioner authorized to dispense such samples and all sales of medical oxygen, home respiratory equipment and accessories, hospital beds and accessories and ambulatory aids, all sales of manual and powered wheelchairs, stairway lifts, Braille writers, electronic Braille equipment and, if purchased by or on behalf of a person with one or more physical or mental disabilities to enable them to function more independently, all sales of scooters, reading machines, electronic print enlargers and magnifiers, electronic alternative and augmentative communication devices, and items used solely to modify motor vehicles to permit the use of such motor vehicles by individuals with disabilities or sales of over-the-counter or nonprescription drugs to individuals with disabilities;

(20) All sales of aircraft to common carriers for storage or for use in interstate commerce and all sales made by or to not-for-profit civic, social, service or fraternal organizations, including fraternal organizations which have been declared tax-exempt organizations pursuant to Section 501(c)(8) or (10) of the 1986 Internal Revenue Code, as amended, in their civic or charitable functions and activities and all sales made to eleemosynary and penal institutions and industries of the state, and all sales made to any private not-for-profit institution of higher education not otherwise excluded pursuant to subdivision (19) of this subsection or any institution of higher education supported by public funds, and all sales made to a state relief agency in the exercise of relief functions and activities;

(21) All ticket sales made by benevolent, scientific and educational associations which are formed to foster, encourage, and promote progress and improvement in the science of agriculture and in the raising and breeding of animals, and by nonprofit summer theater organizations if such organizations are exempt from federal tax pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and all admission charges and entry fees to the Missouri state fair or any fair conducted by a county agricultural and mechanical society organized and operated pursuant to sections 262.290 to 262.530, RSMo;

(22) All sales made to any private not-for-profit elementary or secondary school, all sales of feed additives, medications or vaccines administered to livestock or poultry in the production of food or fiber, all sales of pesticides used in the production of crops, livestock or poultry for food or fiber, all sales of bedding used in the production of livestock or poultry for food or fiber, all sales of propane or natural gas, electricity or diesel fuel used exclusively for drying agricultural crops, natural gas used in the primary manufacture or processing of fuel ethanol as defined in section 142.028, RSMo, natural gas, propane, and electricity used by an eligible new generation cooperative or an eligible new generation processing entity as defined in section 348.432, RSMo, and all sales of farm machinery and equipment, other than airplanes, motor vehicles and trailers. As used in this subdivision, the term "feed additives" means tangible personal property which, when mixed with feed for livestock or poultry, is to be used in the feeding of livestock or poultry. As used in this subdivision, the term "pesticides" includes adjuvants such as crop oils, surfactants, wetting agents and other assorted pesticide carriers used to improve or enhance the effect of a pesticide and the foam used to mark the application of pesticides and herbicides for the production of crops, livestock or poultry. As used in this subdivision, the term "farm machinery and equipment" means new or used farm tractors and such other new or used farm machinery and equipment and repair or replacement parts thereon, and supplies and lubricants used exclusively, solely, and directly for producing crops, raising and feeding livestock, fish, poultry, pheasants, chukar, quail, or for producing milk for ultimate sale at retail, including field drain tile, and one-half of each purchaser's purchase of diesel fuel therefor which is:

- (a) Used exclusively for agricultural purposes;
- (b) Used on land owned or leased for the purpose of producing farm products; and
- (c) Used directly in producing farm products to be sold ultimately in processed form or otherwise at retail or in producing farm products to be fed to livestock or poultry to be sold ultimately in processed form at retail;

(23) Except as otherwise provided in section 144.032, all sales of metered water service, electricity, electrical current, natural, artificial or propane gas, wood, coal or home heating oil for domestic use and in any city not within a county, all sales of metered or unmetered water service for domestic use;

(a) "Domestic use" means that portion of metered water service, electricity, electrical current, natural, artificial or propane gas, wood, coal or home heating oil, and in any city not within a county, metered or unmetered water service, which an individual occupant of a residential premises uses for nonbusiness, noncommercial or nonindustrial purposes. Utility service through a single or master meter for residential apartments or condominiums, including service for common areas and facilities and vacant units, shall be deemed to be for domestic use. Each seller shall establish and maintain a system whereby individual purchases are determined as exempt or nonexempt;

(b) Regulated utility sellers shall determine whether individual purchases are exempt or nonexempt based upon the seller's utility service rate classifications as contained in tariffs on file with and approved by the Missouri public service commission. Sales and purchases made pursuant to the rate classification "residential" and sales to and purchases made by or on behalf of the occupants of residential apartments or condominiums through a single or master meter, including service for common areas and facilities and vacant units, shall be considered as sales made for domestic use and such sales shall be exempt from sales tax. Sellers shall charge sales tax upon the entire amount of purchases classified as nondomestic use. The seller's utility service rate classification and the provision of service thereunder shall be conclusive as to whether or not the utility must charge sales tax;

(c) Each person making domestic use purchases of services or property and who uses any portion of the services or property so purchased for a nondomestic use shall, by the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the year of purchase, and without assessment, notice or demand, file a return and pay sales tax on that portion of nondomestic purchases. Each person making nondomestic purchases of services or property and who uses any portion of the services or property so purchased for domestic use, and each person making domestic purchases on behalf of occupants of residential apartments or condominiums through a single or master meter, including service for common areas and facilities and vacant units, under a nonresidential utility service rate classification may, between the first day of the first month and the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the year of purchase, apply for credit or refund to the director of revenue and the director shall give credit or make refund for taxes paid on the domestic use portion of the purchase. The person making such purchases on behalf of occupants of residential apartments or condominiums shall have standing to apply to the director of revenue for such credit or refund;

(24) All sales of handicraft items made by the seller or the seller's spouse if the seller or the seller's spouse is at least sixty-five years of age, and if the total gross proceeds from such sales do not constitute a majority of the annual gross income of the seller;

(25) Excise taxes, collected on sales at retail, imposed by Sections 4041, 4061, 4071, 4081, 4091, 4161, 4181, 4251, 4261 and 4271 of Title 26, United States Code. The director of revenue shall promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to eliminate all state and local sales taxes on such excise taxes;

(26) Sales of fuel consumed or used in the operation of ships, barges, or waterborne vessels which are used primarily in or for the transportation of property or cargo, or the conveyance of persons for hire, on navigable rivers bordering on or located in part in this state, if such fuel is delivered by the seller to the purchaser's barge, ship, or waterborne vessel while it is afloat upon such river;

(27) All sales made to an interstate compact agency created pursuant to sections 70.370 to 70.441, RSMo, or sections 238.010 to 238.100, RSMo, in the exercise of the functions and activities of such agency as provided pursuant to the compact;

(28) Computers, computer software and computer security systems purchased for use by architectural or engineering firms headquartered in this state. For the purposes of this subdivision, "headquartered in this state" means the office for the administrative management of at least four integrated facilities operated by the taxpayer is located in the state of Missouri;

(29) All livestock sales when either the seller is engaged in the growing, producing or feeding of such livestock, or the seller is engaged in the business of buying and selling, bartering or leasing of such livestock;

(30) All sales of barges which are to be used primarily in the transportation of property or cargo on interstate waterways;

(31) Electrical energy or gas, whether natural, artificial or propane, water, or other utilities which are ultimately consumed in connection with the manufacturing of cellular glass products or in any material recovery processing plant as defined in subdivision (4) of subsection 2 of this section;

(32) Notwithstanding other provisions of law to the contrary, all sales of pesticides or herbicides used in the production of crops, aquaculture, livestock or poultry;

(33) Tangible personal property purchased for use or consumption directly or exclusively in the research and development of prescription pharmaceuticals consumed by humans or animals;

(34) All sales of grain bins for storage of grain for resale;

(35) All sales of feed which are developed for and used in the feeding of pets owned by a commercial breeder when such sales are made to a commercial breeder, as defined in section 273.325, RSMo, and licensed pursuant to sections 273.325 to 273.357, RSMo;

(36) All purchases by a contractor on behalf of an entity located in another state, provided that the entity is authorized to issue a certificate of exemption for purchases to a contractor under the provisions of that state's laws. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "certificate of exemption" shall mean any document evidencing that the entity is exempt from sales and use taxes on purchases pursuant to the laws of the state in which the entity is located. Any contractor making purchases on behalf of such entity shall maintain a copy of the entity's exemption certificate as evidence of the exemption. If the exemption certificate issued by the exempt entity to the contractor is later determined by the director of revenue to be invalid for any reason and the contractor has accepted the certificate in good faith, neither the contractor or the exempt entity shall be liable for the payment of any taxes, interest and penalty due as the result of use of the invalid exemption certificate. Materials shall be exempt from all state and local sales and use taxes when purchased by a contractor for the purpose of fabricating tangible personal property which is used in fulfilling a contract for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for the following:

(a) An exempt entity located in this state, if the entity is one of those entities able to issue project exemption certificates in accordance with the provisions of section 144.062; or

(b) An exempt entity located outside the state if the exempt entity is authorized to issue an exemption certificate to contractors in accordance with the provisions of that state's law and the applicable provisions of this section;

(37) Tangible personal property purchased for use or consumption directly or exclusively in research or experimentation activities performed by life science companies and so certified as such by the director of the department of economic development or the director's designees; except that, the total amount of exemptions certified pursuant to this section shall not exceed one million three hundred thousand dollars in state and local taxes per fiscal year. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "life science companies" means companies whose primary research activities are in agriculture, pharmaceuticals, biomedical or food ingredients, and whose North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Codes fall under industry 541710 (biotech research or development laboratories), 621511 (medical laboratories) or 541940 (veterinary services). The exemption provided by this subdivision shall expire on June 30, 2003;

(38) All sales or other transfers of tangible personal property to a lessor who leases the property under a lease of one year or longer executed or in effect at the time of the sale or other transfer to an interstate compact agency created pursuant to sections 70.370 to 70.441, RSMo, or sections 238.010 to 238.100, RSMo; [and]

(39) Sales of tickets to any collegiate athletic championship event that is held in a facility owned or operated by a governmental authority or commission, a quasi-governmental agency, a state university or college or by the state or any political subdivision thereof, including a municipality, and that is played on a neutral site and may reasonably be played at a site located outside the state of Missouri. For purposes of this subdivision, "neutral site" means any site that is not located on the campus of a conference member institution participating in the event; and

(40) All sales of fencing materials used for agricultural purposes.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

"573.010. As used in this chapter the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Child", any person under the age of fourteen;

(2) "Child pornography"[,] :

(a) Any obscene material or performance depicting sexual conduct, sexual contact, or a sexual performance, as these terms are defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and which has as one of its participants or portrays as an observer of such conduct, contact, or performance a [child] minor under the age of eighteen; or

(b) Any visual depiction, including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of sexually explicit conduct where:

a. The production of such visual depiction involves the use of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct;

b. Such visual depiction is a digital image, computer image, or computer-generated image that is, or is indistinguishable from, that of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct; or

c. Such visual depiction has been created, adapted, or modified to appear that an identifiable minor is engaging in sexually explicit conduct;

(3) "Displays publicly", exposing, placing, posting, exhibiting, or in any fashion displaying in any location, whether public or private, an item in such a manner that it may be readily seen and its content or character distinguished by normal unaided vision viewing it from a street, highway or public sidewalk, or from the property of others or from any portion of the person's store, or the exhibitor's store or property when items and material other than this material are offered for sale or rent to the public;

(4) "Explicit sexual material", any pictorial or three dimensional material depicting human masturbation, deviate sexual intercourse, sexual intercourse, direct physical stimulation or unclothed genitals, sadomasochistic abuse, or emphasizing the depiction of postpubertal human genitals; provided, however, that works of art or of anthropological significance shall not be deemed to be within the foregoing definition;

(5) "Furnish", to issue, sell, give, provide, lend, mail, deliver, transfer, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit or otherwise provide;

(6) "Graphic", when used with respect to a depiction of sexually explicit conduct, that a viewer can observe any part of the genitals or pubic area of any depicted person or animal during any part of the time that the sexually explicit conduct is being depicted;

(7) "Identifiable minor":

(a) A person:

a. (i) Who was a minor at the time the visual depiction was created, adapted, or modified; or

(ii) Whose image as a minor was used in creating, adapting, or modifying the visual depiction; and

b. Who is recognizable as an actual person by the person's face, likeness, or other distinguishing characteristic, such as a unique birthmark or other recognizable feature; and

(b) The term shall not be construed to require proof of the actual identity of the identifiable minor;

(8) "Indistinguishable", when used with respect to a depiction, virtually indistinguishable, in that the depiction is such that an ordinary person viewing the depiction would conclude that the depiction is of an actual minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct. Indistinguishable does not apply to depictions that are drawings, cartoons, sculptures, or paintings depicting minors or adults;

(9) "Material", anything printed or written, or any picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, videotape or videotape production, or pictorial representation, or any recording or transcription, or any mechanical, chemical, or electrical reproduction, or stored computer data, or anything which is or may be used as a means of communication. "Material" includes undeveloped photographs, molds, printing plates, stored computer data and other latent representational objects;

[(7)] (10) "Minor", any person under the age of eighteen;

[(8)] (11) "Nudity", the showing of postpubertal human genitals or pubic area, with less than a fully opaque covering;

[(9)] (12) "Obscene", any material or performance is obscene if, taken as a whole:

(a) Applying contemporary community standards, its predominant appeal is to prurient interest in sex; and

(b) The average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find the material depicts or describes sexual conduct in a patently offensive way; and

(c) A reasonable person would find the material lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value;

[(10)] (13) "Performance", any play, motion picture film, videotape, dance or exhibition performed before an audience of one or more;

[(11)] (14) "Pornographic for minors", any material or performance is pornographic for minors if the following apply:

(a) The average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find that the material or performance, taken as a whole, has a tendency to cater or appeal to a prurient interest of minors; and

(b) The material or performance depicts or describes nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse in a way which is patently offensive to the average person applying contemporary adult community standards with respect to what is suitable for minors; and

(c) The material or performance, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors;

[(12)] (15) "Promote", to manufacture, issue, sell, provide, mail, deliver, transfer, transmute, publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit, or advertise, or to offer or agree to do the same, by any means including a computer;

"566.020. 1. Whenever in this chapter the criminality of conduct depends upon a victim's being incapacitated, no crime is committed if the actor reasonably believed that the victim was not incapacitated and reasonably believed that the victim consented to the act. The defendant shall have the burden of injecting the issue of belief as to capacity and consent.

2. Whenever in this chapter the criminality of conduct depends upon a child being thirteen years of age or younger, it is no defense that the defendant believed the child to be older.

3. Whenever in this chapter the criminality of conduct depends upon a child being under seventeen years of age, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant reasonably believed that the child was seventeen years of age or older.

4. Consent is not an affirmative defense to any offense under Chapter 566 if the alleged victim is less than twelve years of age."; and

Further amend said bill, said page, Section 566.030, Lines 27-28, by striking all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 23, Line 14, by striking the words "twenty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "thirty"; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 8, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O Lord, Almighty, You are enthroned between the mighty cherubim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the Earth. You alone created the Heavens and the Earth.

As we begin our final week of this session, we recognize that the decisions made and laws enacted, affect all of us, including our families. We are those who have remained honest and fair, who rejected making a profit by fraud, who stayed far away from inducements, who refused to listen to those who plot evil, who shut our eyes to all enticement to do wrong.

Long after the last gavel, we will not turn our backs on wisdom, for wisdom protects us. We embrace wisdom, and it guards us.

In our going out and coming in, throughout this week, Your wisdom is our constant companion. By You, our steps will not be impeded nor will we stumble.

We honor You, Lord God! You have made our state and our nation great; You have extended Your grace and mercy to us.

And it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Zoe Anastosopolos.

The Journal of the sixty-eighth day was approved as corrected.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Committee on Fiscal Review, Chairman Guest reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Fiscal Review, to which was referred HB 1930 (Fiscal Note), begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

SB 766, relating to income tax offsets, was taken up by Representative Bruns.

Representative Ervin offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Bill No. 766, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"143.121. 1. The Missouri adjusted gross income of a resident individual shall be the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income subject to the modifications in this section.

2. There shall be added to the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income:

(a) The amount of any federal income tax refund received for a prior year which resulted in a Missouri income tax benefit;

(b) Interest on certain governmental obligations excluded from federal gross income by Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code. The previous sentence shall not apply to interest on obligations of the state of Missouri or any of its political subdivisions or authorities and shall not apply to the interest described in subdivision (a) of subsection 3 of this section. The amount added pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by the amounts applicable to such interest that would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the taxpayer except only for the application of Section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code. The reduction shall only be made if it is at least five hundred dollars;

(c) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 to the extent the amount deducted relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent the amount deducted exceeds the amount that would have been deductible pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as in effect on January 1, 2002; and

(d) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, other than the deduction allowed by Section 172(b)(1)(G) and Section 172(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for a net operating loss the taxpayer claims in the tax year in which the net operating loss occurred or carries forward for a period of more than twenty years and carries backward for more than two years. Any amount of net operating loss taken against federal income taxes but disallowed against Missouri income taxes pursuant to this paragraph since July 1, 2002, may be carried forward and taken against any loss on the Missouri income tax return for a period of not more than twenty years from the year of the initial loss.

3. There shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the following amounts to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income:

(a) Interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from Missouri income taxes pursuant to the laws of the United States. The amount subtracted pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the described obligations or securities and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this paragraph. The reduction in the previous sentence shall only apply to the extent that such expenses including amortizable bond premiums are deducted in determining the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income or included in the taxpayer's Missouri itemized deduction. The reduction shall only be made if the expenses total at least five hundred dollars;

(b) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis to the taxpayer for Missouri income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes on December 31, 1972, that does not exceed such difference in basis. If a gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to one-half of such portion of the gain;

(c) The amount necessary to prevent the taxation pursuant to this chapter of any annuity or other amount of income or gain which was properly included in income or gain and was taxed pursuant to the laws of Missouri for a taxable year prior to January 1, 1973, to the taxpayer, or to a decedent by reason of whose death the taxpayer acquired the right to receive the income or gain, or to a trust or estate from which the taxpayer received the income or gain;

(d) Accumulation distributions received by a taxpayer as a beneficiary of a trust to the extent that the same are included in federal adjusted gross income;

(e) The amount of any state income tax refund for a prior year which was included in the federal adjusted gross income;

(f) The portion of capital gain specified in section 135.357, RSMo, that would otherwise be included in federal adjusted gross income;

(g) The amount that would have been deducted in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect on January 1, 2002, to the extent that amount relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent that amount exceeds the amount actually deducted pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002; and

(h) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the amount of any income received for military service while the taxpayer serves in a combat zone which is included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise excluded therefrom. As used in this section, "combat zone" means any area which the President of the United States by Executive Order designates as an area in which armed forces of the United States are or have engaged in combat. Service is performed in a combat zone only if performed on or after the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the commencing of combat activities in such zone, and on or before the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the termination of combatant activities in such zone.

4. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the taxpayer's share of the Missouri fiduciary adjustment provided in section 143.351.

5. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the modifications provided in section 143.411.

6. (1) As used in this subsection, "qualified health insurance premium" means the amount paid during the tax year by such taxpayer for any insurance policy primarily providing health care coverage for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's dependants.

(2) In addition to the subtractions in subsection 3 of this section, qualified health insurance premiums shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with proof of the amount of qualified health insurance premiums paid. The amounts to be subtracted shall be as follows:

- (a) For tax year 2006, up to twenty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (b) For tax year 2007, up to forty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (c) For tax year 2008, up to sixty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (d) For tax year 2009, up to eighty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums; and
- (e) For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, up to one hundred percent of such qualified health insurance premiums."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Ervin, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Behnen assumed the Chair.

Representative Ervin offered House Amendment No. 2.

Representative Darrough raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 2 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order well taken.

Representative Robb offered House Amendment No. 3.

Representative Darrough raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 3 is not germane and goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Behnen requested a parliamentary ruling.

The Parliamentary Committee ruled the point of order well taken.

On motion of Representative Bruns, SB 766, as amended, was read the third time and passed by the following vote:

Representative Dempsey offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND Senate Bill No. 818, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"105.470. As used in section 105.473, unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and terms mean:

(1) "Elected local government official lobbyist", any natural person employed specifically for the purpose of attempting to influence any action by a local government official elected in a county, city, town, or village with an annual operating budget of over ten million dollars;

(2) "Executive lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any action by the executive branch of government or by any elected or appointed official, employee, department, division, agency or board or commission thereof and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

(a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer; or

(b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or

(c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association or other entity; or

(d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the executive branch of state government in connection with such activity.

An "executive lobbyist" shall not include a member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

a. Appearing or inquiring in regard to a complaint, citation, summons, adversary proceeding, or contested case before a state board, commission, department, division or agency of the executive branch of government or any elected or appointed officer or employee thereof;

b. Preparing, filing or inquiring, or responding to any audit, regarding any tax return, any public document, permit or contract, any application for any permit or license or certificate, or any document required or requested to be filed with the state or a political subdivision;

c. Selling of goods or services to be paid for by public funds, provided that such person is attempting to influence only the person authorized to authorize or enter into a contract to purchase the goods or services being offered for sale;

d. Participating in public hearings or public proceedings on rules, grants, or other matters;

e. Responding to any request for information made by any public official or employee of the executive branch of government;

f. Preparing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic;

g. Acting within the scope of employment by the general assembly, or acting within the scope of employment by the executive branch of government when acting with respect to the department, division, board, commission, agency or elected state officer by which such person is employed, or with respect to any duty or authority imposed by law to perform any action in conjunction with any other public official or state employee; or

h. Testifying as a witness before a state board, commission or agency of the executive branch;

[(2)] (3) "Expenditure", any payment made or charge, expense, cost, debt or bill incurred; any gift, honorarium or item of value bestowed including any food or beverage; any price, charge or fee which is waived, forgiven, reduced or indefinitely delayed; any loan or debt which is canceled, reduced or otherwise forgiven; the transfer of any item with a reasonably discernible cost or fair market value from one person to another or provision of any service or granting of any opportunity for which a charge is customarily made, without charge or for a reduced charge; except that the term "expenditure" shall not include the following:

(a) Any item, service or thing of value transferred to any person within the third degree of consanguinity of the transferor which is unrelated to any activity of the transferor as a lobbyist;

(b) Informational material such as books, reports, pamphlets, calendars or periodicals informing a public official regarding such person's official duties, or souvenirs or mementos valued at less than ten dollars;

(c) Contributions to the public official's campaign committee or candidate committee which are reported pursuant to the provisions of chapter 130, RSMo;

(d) Any loan made or other credit accommodations granted or other payments made by any person or entity which extends credit or makes loan accommodations or such payments in the regular ordinary scope and course of business, provided that such are extended, made or granted in the ordinary course of such person's or entity's business to persons who are not public officials;

(e) Any item, service or thing of de minimis value offered to the general public, whether or not the recipient is a public official or a staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official, and only if the grant of the item, service or thing of de minimis value is not motivated in any way by the recipient's status as a public official or staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official;

(f) The transfer of any item, provision of any service or granting of any opportunity with a reasonably discernible cost or fair market value when such item, service or opportunity is necessary for a public official or employee to perform his or her duty in his or her official capacity, including but not limited to entrance fees to any sporting event, museum, or other venue when the official or employee is participating in a ceremony, public presentation or official meeting therein;

(g) Any payment, gift, compensation, fee, expenditure or anything of value which is bestowed upon or given to any public official or a staff member, employee, spouse or dependent child of a public official when it is compensation for employment or given as an employment benefit and when such employment is in addition to their employment as a public official;

[(3)] (4) "Judicial lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence any purchasing decision by the judicial branch of government or by any elected or appointed official or any employee thereof and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

(a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment which primary purpose is to influence the judiciary in its purchasing decisions on a regular basis on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer, except that this shall not apply to any person who engages in lobbying on an occasional basis only and not as a regular pattern of conduct; or

(b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or

(c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation or association; or

(d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the judicial branch of state government in connection with attempting to influence such purchasing decisions by the judiciary.

A "judicial lobbyist" shall not include a member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

a. Appearing or inquiring in regard to a complaint, citation, summons, adversary proceeding, or contested case before a state court;

b. Participating in public hearings or public proceedings on rules, grants, or other matters;

c. Responding to any request for information made by any judge or employee of the judicial branch of government;

d. Preparing, distributing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic; or

e. Acting within the scope of employment by the general assembly, or acting within the scope of employment by the executive branch of government when acting with respect to the department, division, board, commission, agency or elected state officer by which such person is employed, or with respect to any duty or authority imposed by law to perform any action in conjunction with any other public official or state employee;

[(4)] (5) "Legislative lobbyist", any natural person who acts for the purpose of attempting to influence the taking, passage, amendment, delay or defeat of any official action on any bill, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, report or any other action or any other matter pending or proposed in a legislative committee in either house of the general assembly, or in any matter which may be the subject of action by the general assembly and in connection with such activity, meets the requirements of any one or more of the following:

(a) Is acting in the ordinary course of employment, which primary purpose is to influence legislation on a regular basis, on behalf of or for the benefit of such person's employer, except that this shall not apply to any person who engages in lobbying on an occasional basis only and not as a regular pattern of conduct; or

(b) Is engaged for pay or for any valuable consideration for the purpose of performing such activity; or

(c) Is designated to act as a lobbyist by any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation, association or other entity; or

(d) Makes total expenditures of fifty dollars or more during the twelve-month period beginning January first and ending December thirty-first for the benefit of one or more public officials or one or more employees of the legislative branch of state government in connection with such activity.

A "legislative lobbyist" shall include an attorney at law engaged in activities on behalf of any person unless excluded by any of the following exceptions. A "legislative lobbyist" shall not include any member of the general assembly, an elected state official, or any other person solely due to such person's participation in any of the following activities:

a. Responding to any request for information made by any public official or employee of the legislative branch of government;

b. Preparing or publication of an editorial, a newsletter, newspaper, magazine, radio or television broadcast, or similar news medium, whether print or electronic;

c. Acting within the scope of employment of the legislative branch of government when acting with respect to the general assembly or any member thereof;

d. Testifying as a witness before the general assembly or any committee thereof;

[(5)] (6) "Lobbyist", any natural person defined as an executive lobbyist, judicial lobbyist or a legislative lobbyist;

[(6)] (7) "Lobbyist principal", any person, business entity, governmental entity, religious organization, nonprofit corporation or association who employs, contracts for pay or otherwise compensates a lobbyist;

[(7)] (8) "Public official", any member or member-elect of the general assembly, judge or judicial officer, or any other person holding an elective office of state government or any agency head, department director or division director of state government or any member of any state board or commission and any designated decision-making public servant designated by persons described in this subdivision.

105.473. 1. Each lobbyist shall, not later than January fifth of each year, or five days after beginning any activities as a lobbyist, file standardized registration forms, verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, along with a filing fee of ten dollars, with the commission. The forms shall include the lobbyist's name and business address, the name and address of all persons such lobbyist employs for lobbying purposes, the name and address of each lobbyist principal by whom such lobbyist is employed or in whose interest such lobbyist appears or works. The commission shall maintain files on all lobbyists' filings, which shall be open to the public. Each lobbyist shall file an updating statement under oath within one week of any addition, deletion, or change in the lobbyist's employment or representation. The filing fee shall be deposited to the general revenue fund of the state. The lobbyist principal or a lobbyist employing another person for lobbying purposes may notify the commission that a judicial, executive or legislative lobbyist is no longer authorized to lobby for the principal or the lobbyist and should be removed from the commission's files.

2. Each person shall, before giving testimony before any committee of the general assembly, give to the secretary of such committee such person's name and address and the identity of any lobbyist or organization, if any, on whose behalf such person appears. A person who is not a lobbyist as defined in section 105.470 shall not be required to give such person's address if the committee determines that the giving of such address would endanger the person's physical health.

3. (1) During any period of time in which a lobbyist continues to act as an executive lobbyist, judicial lobbyist [or a] , legislative lobbyist, or elected local government official lobbyist, the lobbyist shall file with the commission on standardized forms prescribed by the commission monthly reports which shall be due at the close of business on the tenth day of the following month;

(2) Each report filed pursuant to this subsection shall include a statement, verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, setting forth the following:

(a) The total of all expenditures by the lobbyist or his or her lobbyist principals made on behalf of all public officials, their staffs and employees, and their spouses and dependent children, which expenditures shall be separated into at least the following categories by the executive branch, judicial branch and legislative branch of government: printing and publication expenses; media and other advertising expenses; travel; entertainment; honoraria; meals, food and beverages; and gifts;

(b) The total of all expenditures by the lobbyist or his or her lobbyist principals made on behalf of all elected local government officials, their staffs and employees, and their spouses and children. Such expenditures shall be separated into at least the following categories:

- a. Printing and publication expenses;
- b. Media and other advertising expenses;
- c. Travel;
- d. Entertainment;
- e. Honoraria;
- f. Meals, food, and beverages;
- g. Gifts;

(c) An itemized listing of the name of the recipient and the nature and amount of each expenditure by the lobbyist or his or her lobbyist principal, including a service or anything of value, for all expenditures made during any reporting period, paid or provided to or for a public official or elected local government official, such official's staff, employees, spouse or dependent children;

[(c)] (d) The total of all expenditures made by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal for occasions and the identity of the group invited, the date and description of the occasion and the amount of the expenditure for each occasion when any of the following are invited in writing:

- a. All members of the senate;
- b. All members of the house of representatives;
- c. All members of a joint committee of the general assembly or a standing committee of either the house of representatives or senate; or
- d. All members of a caucus of the general assembly if the caucus consists of at least ten members, a list of the members of the caucus has been previously filed with the ethics committee of the house or the senate, and such list has been approved by either of such ethics committees;

[(d)] (e) Any expenditure made on behalf of a public official, an elected local government official, or [the public] such official's staff, employees, spouse or dependent children, if such expenditure is solicited by such [public] official, the [public] official's staff, employees, or spouse or dependent children, from the lobbyist or his or her lobbyist principals and the name of such person or persons, except any expenditures made to any not-for-profit corporation, charitable, fraternal or civic organization or other association formed to provide for good in the order of benevolence;

[(e)] (f) A statement detailing any direct business relationship or association or partnership the lobbyist has with any public official or elected local government official.

The reports required by this subdivision shall cover the time periods since the filing of the last report or since the lobbyist's employment or representation began, whichever is most recent.

4. No expenditure reported pursuant to this section shall include any amount expended by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal on himself or herself. All expenditures disclosed pursuant to this section shall be valued on the report at the actual amount of the payment made, or the charge, expense, cost, or obligation, debt or bill incurred by the lobbyist or the person the lobbyist represents. Whenever a lobbyist principal employs more than one lobbyist, expenditures of the lobbyist principal shall not be reported by each lobbyist, but shall be reported by one of such lobbyists.

5. Any lobbyist principal shall provide in a timely fashion whatever information is reasonably requested by the lobbyist principal's lobbyist for use in filing the reports required by this section.

6. All information required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this section with the commission shall be kept available by the executive director of the commission at all times open to the public for inspection and copying for a reasonable fee for a period of five years from the date when such information was filed.

7. No person shall knowingly employ any person who is required to register as a registered lobbyist but is not registered pursuant to this section. Any person who knowingly violates this subsection shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation. Such civil penalties shall be collected by action filed by the commission.

8. No lobbyist shall knowingly omit, conceal, or falsify in any manner information required pursuant to this section.

9. The prosecuting attorney of Cole County shall be reimbursed only out of funds specifically appropriated by the general assembly for investigations and prosecutions for violations of this section.

10. Any public official or other person whose name appears in any lobbyist report filed pursuant to this section who contests the accuracy of the portion of the report applicable to such person may petition the commission for an audit of such report and shall state in writing in such petition the specific disagreement with the contents of such report. The commission shall investigate such allegations in the manner described in section 105.959. If the commission determines that the contents of such report are incorrect, incomplete or erroneous, it shall enter an order requiring filing of an amended or corrected report.

11. The commission shall provide a report listing the total spent by a lobbyist for the month and year to any member or member-elect of the general assembly, judge or judicial officer, or any other person holding an elective office of state government or any elected local government official on or before the twentieth day of each month. For the purpose of providing accurate information to the public, the commission shall not publish information in either written or electronic form for ten working days after providing the report pursuant to this subsection. The commission shall not release any portion of the lobbyist report if the accuracy of the report has been questioned pursuant to subsection 10 of this section unless it is conspicuously marked "Under Review".

12. Each lobbyist or lobbyist principal by whom the lobbyist was employed, or in whose behalf the lobbyist acted, shall provide a general description of the proposed legislation or action by the executive branch or judicial branch which the lobbyist or lobbyist principal supported or opposed.

This information shall be supplied to the commission on March fifteenth and May thirtieth of each year.

13. The provisions of this section shall supersede any contradicting ordinances or charter provisions."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

HCS SS SCS SB 892, relating to financial institutions, was taken up by Representative Cunningham (145).

Representative Stevenson offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 892, Section 408.555, Page 12, Line 1, by inserting immediately preceding all of said line the following:

“404.051. 1. The custodian shall collect, hold, maintain, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property. The custodian may accept a transfer of additional property for the same minor into the custodianship and may consolidate into a single custodianship custodial property received for the same minor from multiple transfers or transferors.

2. The custodian may deliver, pay over to the minor for expenditure by the minor, or expend for the minor's benefit, so much of the custodial property as the custodian determines advisable for the use and benefit of the minor, without court order and without regard to the duty or ability of the custodian in the custodian's individual capacity or of any other person to support the minor, or any other income or property of the minor.

3. Upon the petition of a parent, guardian or conservator of a minor, an adult member of the minor's family, any person interested in the welfare of the minor, or of the minor if the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, the court may order the custodian to expend or to pay over to the minor or the minor's parent, guardian or conservator so much of the custodial property as the court determines advisable for the use and benefit of the minor.

4. Any delivery, payment or expenditure pursuant to subsections 2 and 3 of this section is in addition to, not in substitution for, and does not affect, the obligation of any person to support the minor.

5. (1) To the extent that the custodial property has not been expended, the custodian shall deliver the custodial property in an appropriate manner, free of the custodianship, as follows:

(a) To the minor on attaining the age of twenty-one years, or on attaining the age of eighteen years for custodial property created by a transfer of property from a person other than a donor and the minor requests the property; or

(b) On the minor's death, to the minor's estate.

(2) If the custodian does not deliver the custodial property to the minor or the minor's estate as prescribed in subdivision (1) of this subsection, the minor or the minor's personal representative may petition the court to declare the custodianship terminated and to order delivery of the custodial property to the minor or to the minor's estate free of the custodianship.

(3) To the extent the custodial property is real property, a conveyance and delivery of the real property by the minor after attaining the age at which the minor is entitled to the property free of the custodianship, or by the minor's heirs, or by the minor's personal representative, shall terminate the custodian's powers, duties and rights with respect to the real property.

(4) If the minor is an incapacitated person at the time the minor would otherwise be entitled to receive the custodial property free of the custodianship, the custodian shall deliver the custodial property to the incapacitated person's conservator. If the incapacitated person has no conservator, the custodian may transfer the custodial property to any adult person or financial institution, including the custodian, as personal custodian for the incapacitated person under any law providing for custodianship of property for incapacitated adult persons.

6. The custodian is under a duty to act in the interest of the minor and to avoid conflicts of interest that impair the custodian's ability to so act. In dealing with the custodial property, the custodian shall observe the degree of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with the property and conducting the affairs of another, except that all investments made on or after August 28, 1998, shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo. The custodian is not limited by any other statute restricting investments or expenditures by fiduciaries. If the custodian has special skills or is named custodian on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise, the custodian is under a duty to use those skills. The custodian, in the custodian's discretion and without liability to the minor or the minor's estate, may retain any custodial property received under sections 404.005 to 404.094, and may hold money or securities in the financial institution or brokerage company to which the property was delivered by the transferor.

7. The custodian may invest in and pay premiums out of custodial property for life or endowment insurance policies on the life of the minor or the life of another person in whom the minor has an insurable interest, provided the insurance proceeds will be distributed on the death of the insured life to the minor, the minor's estate or the custodian in the custodian's representative capacity.

8. Subject to the degree of care prescribed in subsection 6 of this section, the custodian, acting in the capacity of custodian for the benefit of the minor, has all rights, power and authority over the custodial property that unmarried, nonincapacitated adult owners have over their own property, except the power to make a gift of the minor's property unless the gift to be made is approved by a court.

9. The custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from all other property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property of the minor. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest in property is sufficiently separate and distinct if the custodian's interest in the property is held as a tenant in common with the other owners of the property and the minor's proportional interest in the property is fixed. Custodial property is sufficiently so identified if it is held in the name of the custodian in the manner prescribed in section 404.707.

10. The custodian may establish checking, savings or other similar accounts with financial institutions and brokers whereby both the custodian and the minor may withdraw money from the account or draw checks against the account. Money withdrawn from an account or checks written against an account by the minor shall be treated as a delivery of custodial property from the custodian to the minor.

11. Subject to the degree of care prescribed in subsection 6 of this section, the custodian, acting in the capacity of custodian and for the benefit of the minor, may borrow money, lend money, acquire by lease the use of property for the minor, lease custodial property and enter into contracts under which the performance required by such agreements may extend beyond the date the custodianship terminates. The custodian shall hold property that is borrowed or leased for the minor as custodial property in the name of the custodian in the manner prescribed in section 404.047.

12. The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property, including information necessary for preparation of the minor's tax returns, and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent, the minor if the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, an adult member of the minor's family if the minor has no living parent, and a legal representative of the minor.

13. The minor's custodian may comply with an agreement with a transferor of property to the minor, including an agreement respecting investment objectives, expenses, compensation, resignation and naming of successor custodians, to the extent that such agreement does not conflict with the custodian's obligations to the minor under sections 404.005 to 404.094.

404.550. 1. The personal custodian shall collect, hold, maintain, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property. The personal custodian may accept a transfer of additional property for the same beneficiary into the personal custodianship and may consolidate into a single custodianship custodial property received for the same beneficiary from multiple transfers or transferors.

2. The personal custodian shall deliver, pay over to the beneficiary for expenditure by the beneficiary or expend for the beneficiary's benefit, so much of the custodial property as the beneficiary may from time to time direct. If the beneficiary is an incapacitated person, the personal custodian may deliver, pay over to the beneficiary for expenditure by the beneficiary or expend for the beneficiary's benefit, so much of the custodial property as the personal custodian determines advisable for the use and benefit of the beneficiary and those members of the beneficiary's family who are legally entitled to support by the beneficiary or who were supported by the beneficiary at the time the beneficiary became incapacitated, without court order and without regard to the duty or ability of the personal custodian in the personal custodian's individual capacity or of any other person to support the beneficiary, or any other income or property of the beneficiary.

3. (1) Upon the petition of the beneficiary, guardian or conservator of an incapacitated beneficiary, an adult member of a beneficiary's family or any person interested in the welfare of the beneficiary, the court may order the personal custodian to expend or to pay over to the beneficiary or the beneficiary's guardian or conservator so much of the custodial property as the court determines advisable for the use and benefit of the beneficiary.

(2) Upon petition of a personal custodian, the beneficiary, an adult member of the beneficiary's family or any person interested in the welfare of the beneficiary, the probate division of the circuit court shall determine and declare whether the beneficiary is a disabled or incapacitated person.

4. Any delivery, payment or expenditure under subsections 2 and 3 of this section is in addition to, not in substitution for, and does not affect the obligation of any person to support the incapacitated beneficiary or the incapacitated beneficiary's dependents.

5. The personal custodian is under a duty to act in the interest of the beneficiary and to avoid conflicts of interest that impair the personal custodian's ability to so act. In dealing with the custodial property, the personal custodian shall follow the investment and other directions of a beneficiary who is not incapacitated and shall observe the degree of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with the property and conducting the affairs of another, except that all investments made on or after August 28, 1998, shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo. The personal custodian is not limited by any other statute restricting investments or expenditures by fiduciaries. If the personal custodian has special skills or is named personal custodian on the basis of representation of special skills or expertise, the custodian is under a duty to use those skills. The personal custodian, in the custodian's discretion and without liability to the beneficiary or the beneficiary's estate, may retain any custodial property received under sections 404.400 to 404.650, and may hold money or securities in the financial institution or brokerage company to which the property was delivered by the transferor.

6. The personal custodian may invest in and pay premiums out of custodial property for life or endowment insurance policies on the life of the beneficiary or the life of another person in whom the beneficiary has an insurable interest, provided the insurance proceeds will be distributed on the death of the insured life to the beneficiary, the persons designated by an adult nonincapacitated beneficiary, the beneficiary's estate or the personal custodian in the personal custodian's representative capacity.

7. Subject to the degree of care prescribed in subsection 5 of this section, the personal custodian, acting in the capacity of personal custodian for the benefit of the beneficiary, has all rights, power and authority over the custodial property that unmarried, nonincapacitated adult owners have over their own property, except the power to make a gift of the beneficiary's property (i) unless granted such power by a nonincapacitated beneficiary in a writing signed and dated, and acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner provided by law for conveyances of real estate, or (ii) unless the gift to be made is approved by a court under section 475.094, RSMo.

8. The personal custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from all other property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property of the beneficiary. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest in property is sufficiently separate and distinct if the personal custodian's interest in the property is held as a tenant in common with the other owners of the property and the beneficiary's proportional interest in the property is fixed. Custodial property is sufficiently so identified if it is held in the name of the personal custodian in the manner prescribed in section 404.540.

9. The personal custodian may establish checking, savings or other similar accounts with financial institutions and brokers whereby both the personal custodian and the beneficiary may withdraw money from the account or draw or issue checks or drafts against the account. Money withdrawn from an account or checks written against an account by the beneficiary shall be treated as a delivery of custodial property from the personal custodian to the beneficiary.

10. Subject to the degree of care prescribed in subsection 5 of this section, the personal custodian, acting in the capacity of personal custodian and for the benefit of the beneficiary, may borrow money, lend money, acquire by lease the use of property for the beneficiary, lease custodial property and enter into contracts under which the performance required by such agreements may extend beyond the date the personal custodianship terminates. The personal custodian shall hold property that is borrowed or leased for the beneficiary as custodial property in the name of the personal custodian in the manner prescribed in section 404.540.

11. The personal custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property, including information necessary for preparation of the beneficiary's tax returns, and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by the beneficiary, an adult member of the beneficiary's family if the beneficiary is incapacitated, and a legal representative of the beneficiary.

12. The power, authority, duties and responsibilities of a personal custodian, as provided in sections 404.400 to 404.650, may be modified by the provisions of a written agreement between the transferor or beneficiary and personal custodian.

404.714. 1. An attorney in fact who elects to act under a power of attorney is under a duty to act in the interest of the principal and to avoid conflicts of interest that impair the ability of the attorney in fact so to act. A person who is appointed an attorney in fact under a power of attorney, either durable or not durable, who undertakes to exercise the authority conferred in the power of attorney, has a fiduciary obligation to exercise the powers conferred in the best interests of the principal, and to avoid self-dealing and conflicts of interest, as in the case of a trustee with respect to the trustee's beneficiary or beneficiaries; and in the absence of explicit authorization, the attorney in fact shall exercise a high degree of care in maintaining, without modification, any estate plan which the principal may have in place, including, but not limited to, arrangements made by the principal for disposition of assets at death through beneficiary designations, ownership by joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, trust arrangements or by will or codicil. Unless otherwise provided in the power of attorney or in a separate agreement between the principal and attorney in fact, an attorney in fact who elects to act shall exercise the authority granted in a power of attorney with that degree of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with the property and conducting the affairs of another, except that all investments made on or after August 28, 1998, shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo. If the attorney in fact has special skills or was appointed attorney in fact on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise, the attorney in fact has a duty to use those skills in the principal's behalf.

2. On matters undertaken or to be undertaken in the principal's behalf and to the extent reasonably possible under the circumstances, an attorney in fact has a duty to keep in regular contact with the principal, to communicate with the principal and to obtain and follow the instructions of the principal.

3. If the principal is not available to communicate in person with the attorney in fact because:

(1) The principal is missing under such circumstances that it is not known whether the principal is alive or dead; or

(2) The principal is captured, interned, besieged or held hostage or prisoner in a foreign country;

the authority of the attorney in fact under a power of attorney, whether durable or not, shall not terminate and the attorney in fact may continue to exercise the authority conferred, faithfully and in the best interests of the principal, until the principal returns or is publicly declared dead by a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, or is presumed dead because of continuous absence of five years as provided in section 472.290, RSMo 1986, or a similar law of the place of the last known domicile of the person whose absence is in question.

4. If, following execution of a power of attorney, the principal is absent or becomes wholly or partially disabled or incapacitated, or if there is a question with regard to the ability or capacity of the principal to give instructions to and supervise the acts and transactions of the attorney in fact, an attorney in fact exercising authority under a power of attorney, either durable or not durable, may consult with any person or persons previously designated by the principal for such purpose, and may also consult with and obtain information from the principal's spouse, physician, attorney, accountant, any member of the principal's family or other person, corporation or government agency with respect to matters to be undertaken in the principal's behalf and affecting the principal's personal affairs, welfare, family, property and business interests.

5. If, following execution of a durable power of attorney, a court appoints a legal representative for the principal, the attorney in fact shall follow the instructions of the court or of the legal representative, and shall communicate with and be accountable to the principal's guardian on matters affecting the principal's personal welfare and to the principal's conservator on matters affecting the principal's property and business interests, to the extent that the responsibilities of the guardian or conservator and the authority of the attorney in fact involve the same subject matter.

6. The authority of an attorney in fact, under a power of attorney that is not durable, is suspended during any period that the principal is disabled or incapacitated to the extent that the principal is unable to receive or evaluate information or to communicate decisions with respect to the subject of the power of attorney; and an attorney in fact exercising authority under a power of attorney that is not durable shall not act in the principal's behalf during any period that the attorney in fact knows the principal is so disabled or incapacitated.

7. An attorney in fact shall exercise authority granted by the principal in accordance with the instrument setting forth the power of attorney, any modification made therein by the principal or the principal's legal representative or a court, and the oral and written instructions of the principal, or the written instructions of the principal's legal representative or a court.

8. An attorney in fact may be instructed in a power of attorney that the authority granted shall not be exercised until, or shall terminate on, the happening of a future event, condition or contingency, as determined in a manner prescribed in the instrument.

9. On the death of the principal, the attorney in fact shall follow the instructions of the court, if any, having jurisdiction over the estate of the principal, or any part thereof, and shall communicate with and be accountable to the principal's personal representative, or if none, the principal's successors; and the attorney in fact shall promptly deliver to and put in the possession and control of the principal's personal representative or successors, any property of the principal and copies of any records of the attorney in fact relating to transactions undertaken in the principal's behalf that are deemed by the personal representative or the court to be necessary or helpful in the administration of the decedent's estate.

10. If an attorney in fact has a property or contract interest in the subject of the power of attorney or the authority of the attorney in fact is otherwise coupled with an interest in a person other than the principal, this section does not impose any duties on the attorney in fact that would conflict or be inconsistent with that interest.”; and

Further amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 892, Section 700.045, Page 13, Line 1, by inserting immediately preceding all of said line the following:

“456.1-103. In sections 456.1-101 to 456.11-1106:

(1) "Action," with respect to an act of a trustee, includes a failure to act.

(2) "Ascertainable standard" means a standard relating to an individual's health, education, support, or maintenance within the meaning of Section 2041(b)(1)(A) or Section 2541(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "Beneficiary" means a person that:

(a) has a present or future beneficial interest in a trust, vested or contingent; or

(b) in a capacity other than that of trustee, holds a power of appointment over trust property.

[(3)] (4) "Charitable trust" means a trust, or portion of a trust, created for a charitable purpose described in subsection 1 of section 456.4-405.

[(4)] (5) "Conservator" means a person described in subdivision (3) of section 475.010, RSMo. This term does not include a conservator ad litem.

[(5)] (6) "Conservator ad litem" means a person appointed by the court pursuant to the provisions of section 475.097, RSMo.

[(6)] (7) "Environmental law" means a federal, state, or local law, rule, regulation, or ordinance relating to protection of the environment.

[(7)] (8) "Financial institution" means a non-foreign bank, savings and loan or trust company chartered, regulated and supervised by the Missouri division of finance, the office of the comptroller of the currency, the office of thrift supervision, the National Credit Union Administration, or the Missouri division of credit union supervision. The term "non-foreign bank" shall mean a bank that is not a foreign bank within the meaning of subdivision (1) of section 361.005, RSMo.

[(8)] (9) "Guardian" means a person described in subdivision (6) of section 475.010, RSMo. The term does not include a guardian ad litem.

[(9)] (10) "Interested persons" include beneficiaries and any others having a property right in or claim against a trust estate which may be affected by a judicial proceeding. It also includes fiduciaries and other persons representing interested persons. The meaning as it relates to particular persons may vary from time to time and must be determined according to the particular purposes of, and matter involved in, any proceeding.

[(10)] (11) "Interests of the beneficiaries" means the beneficial interests provided in the terms of the trust.

[(11)] (12) "Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect on January 1, 2005, or as later amended.

[(12)] (13) "Jurisdiction," with respect to a geographic area, includes a state or country.

[(13)] (14) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, government; governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity.

[(14)] (15) "Permissible distributee" means a beneficiary who is currently eligible to receive distributions of trust income or principal, whether mandatory or discretionary.

[(15)] (16) "Power of withdrawal" means a presently exercisable [general] power of [appointment other than a power exercisable only upon consent of the trustee or a person holding an adverse interest] a beneficiary to withdraw assets from the trust without the consent of the trustee or any other person.

[(16)] (17) "Principal place of administration" of a trust is the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept, or the trustee's residence if the trustee has no such place of business, unless otherwise designated by the terms of the trust as provided in section 456.1-108. In the case of cotrustees, the principal place of administration is, in the following order of priority:

- (a) The usual place of business of the corporate trustee if there is but one corporate cotrustee;
- (b) The usual place of business or residence of the trustee who is a professional fiduciary if there is but one such trustee and no corporate cotrustee; or
- (c) The usual place of business or residence of any of the cotrustees.

[(17)] (18) "Professional fiduciary" means an individual who represents himself or herself to the public as having specialized training, experience or skills in the administration of trusts.

[(18)] (19) "Property" means anything that may be the subject of ownership, whether real or personal, legal or equitable, or any interest therein.

[(19)] (20) "Qualified beneficiary" means a beneficiary who, on the date the beneficiary's qualification is determined:

- (a) is a permissible distributee;
- (b) would be a permissible distributee if the interests of the permissible distributees described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision terminated on that date; or
- (c) would be a permissible distributee if the trust terminated on that date.

[(20)] (21) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

[(21)] (22) "Revocable," as applied to a trust, means [revocable by the settlor] that the settlor has the legal power to revoke the trust without the consent of the trustee or a person holding an adverse interest, regardless of whether the settlor has the mental capacity to do so in fact.

[(22)] (23) "Settlor" means a person, including a testator, who creates, or contributes property to, a trust. If more than one person creates or contributes property to a trust, each person is a settlor of the portion of the trust property attributable to that person's contribution except to the extent another person has the power to revoke or withdraw that portion pursuant to the terms of the trust.

[(23)] (24) "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

- (a) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or
- (b) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

[(24)] (25) "Spendthrift provision" means a term of a trust which restrains either the voluntary or involuntary transfer or both the voluntary and involuntary transfer of a beneficiary's interest.

[(25)] (26) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term includes an Indian tribe or band recognized by federal law or formally acknowledged by a state.

[(26)] (27) "Terms of a trust" means the manifestation of the settlor's intent regarding a trust's provisions as expressed in the trust instrument or as may be established by other evidence that would be admissible in a judicial proceeding.

[(27)] (28) "Trust instrument" means an instrument executed by the settlor that contains terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto.

[(28)] (29) "Trustee" includes an original, additional, and successor trustee, and a cotrustee.

456.1-105. 1. Except as otherwise provided in the terms of the trust, sections 456.1-101 to 456.11-1106 govern the duties and powers of a trustee, relations among trustees, and the rights and interests of a beneficiary.

2. The terms of a trust prevail over any provision of sections 456.1-101 to 456.11-1106 except:

- (1) the requirements for creating a trust;
- (2) the duty of a trustee to act in good faith and in accordance with the purposes of the trust;
- (3) the requirement that a trust and its terms be for the benefit of its beneficiaries;
- (4) the power of the court to modify or terminate a trust under section 456.4-410, subsection 3 of section 456.4B-411, and sections 456.4-412 to 456.4-416;
- (5) the effect of a spendthrift provision and the rights of certain creditors and assignees to reach a trust as provided in sections 456.5-501 to 456.5-507;
- (6) the power of the court under section 456.7-702 to require, dispense with, or modify or terminate a bond;
- (7) the power of the court under subsection 2 of section 456.7-708 to adjust a trustee's compensation specified in the terms of the trust which is unreasonably low or high;

(8) subject to subsection 3 of this section, the duty of a trustee of an irrevocable trust to notify [the] each permissible [distributees of an irrevocable trust who have] distributee who has attained the age of twenty-one years [of age] of the existence of the trust and of [their] that permissible distributee's rights to request trustee's reports and other information reasonably related to the administration of the trust;

(9) the duty to respond to the request of a qualified beneficiary of an irrevocable trust for trustee's reports and other information reasonably related to the administration of [a] the trust;

(10) the effect of an exculpatory term under section 456.10-1008;

(11) the rights under sections 456.10-1010 to 456.10-1013 of a person other than a trustee or beneficiary;

(12) periods of limitation for commencing a judicial proceeding;

(13) the power of the court to take such action and exercise such jurisdiction as may be necessary in the interests of justice; and

(14) the venue for a judicial proceeding as provided in section 456.2-204.

3. For purposes of subdivision (8) of subsection 2 of this section, the settlor may designate by the terms of the trust one or more permissible distributees to receive notification of the existence of the trust and of the right to request trustee's reports and other information reasonably related to the administration of the trust in lieu of providing the notice, information or reports to any other permissible distributee who is an ancestor of lineal descendant or the designated permissible distributee.

456.1-110. 1. A specified charitable organization or a person appointed to enforce a trust created for the care of an animal or another noncharitable purpose as provided in sections 456.4-408 or 456.4-409 has the rights of a qualified beneficiary under sections 456.1-101 to 456.11-1106.

2. Except with respect to [section 456.4B-411] sections 456.1-108 and 456.4-411B, the attorney general of this state has the rights of a qualified beneficiary with respect to an interest in a charitable trust having its principal place of administration in this state if:

(1) a specified charitable organization is not entitled to a distribution from such interest; and

(2) distributions from the interest are payable in a manner that, if payable to an identifiable charitable entity, would qualify that entity as a specified charitable organization.

3. In this section a "specified charitable organization" means an identifiable charitable entity, the interest of which is not otherwise subject to any power of appointment or other power of termination, that, on the date that entity's qualification is determined:

(a) is a permissible distributee;

(b) would be a permissible distributee if the interests of the permissible distributees terminated on that date;

or

(c) would be a permissible distributee if the trust terminated on that date.

4. No provision of this section shall limit the authority of the attorney general of this state to supervise and control charitable organizations.

456.1-112. 1. If a settlor's marriage is dissolved or annulled, any beneficial terms of a trust in favor of the settlor's former spouse or any fiduciary appointment of the settlor's former spouse is revoked on the date the marriage is dissolved or annulled, whether or not the terms of the trust refer to marital status. The terms of the trust shall be given effect as if the former spouse had died immediately before the date the dissolution or annulment became final. This subsection shall also apply to any beneficial interest or fiduciary appointment in favor of a relative of the settlor's former spouse as if such relative were the former spouse.

2. Subsection 1 of this section does not apply to the terms of a trust that provide any beneficial interest or fiduciary appointment for a former spouse or a relative of a former spouse that was created after the marriage was dissolved or annulled, or that expressly states that marriage dissolution or annulment shall not affect the designation of a former spouse or relative of a former spouse as a beneficiary or a fiduciary of the trust.

3. A court may order or the settlor and the spouse may agree before, during, or after the marriage in a binding contract or settlement agreement that subsection 1 of this section does not apply to a beneficial interest or fiduciary appointment.

4. Any terms of a trust revoked solely by this section are revived by the settlor's remarriage to the former spouse or by a nullification of the marriage dissolution or annulment.

5. In this section, "a relative of the settlor's former spouse" means an individual who is related to the settlor's former spouse by blood, adoption or affinity and who, after the divorce or annulment, is not related to the settlor by blood, adoption or affinity.

6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any trust for which a gift tax marital deduction has been claimed or allowed under Section 2523 of the Internal Revenue Code. The provisions of this section shall not apply in a manner that would result in either:

- (a) a transfer to a trust being treated as an incomplete gift for federal gift tax purposes; or
- (b) inclusion of assets of a trust in the gross estate of a settlor for federal estate tax purposes.

456.2-204. 1. Venue for judicial proceedings involving [the internal affairs of a] trust administration shall be:

(1) For a trust then registered in this state, in the probate division of the circuit court where the trust is registered; or

(2) For a trust not then registered in this state, in the probate division of the circuit court where the trust could properly be registered; or

(3) For a trust not then registered in this state and which cannot properly be registered in this state, in accordance with the rules of civil procedure.

2. Where a judicial proceeding under this chapter could be maintained in more than one place in this state, the court in which the proceeding is first commenced has the exclusive right to proceed.

3. If proceedings concerning the same trust are commenced in more than one court of this state, the court in which the proceeding was first commenced shall continue to hear the matter, and the other courts shall hold the matter in abeyance until the question of venue is decided, and if the court in which the proceeding was first commenced determines that venue is properly in another court, it shall transfer the proceeding to the other court.

4. If a court finds that in the interest of justice a proceeding or a file should be located in another court of this state, the court making the finding may transfer the proceeding or file to the other court.

456.3-301. 1. Notice to a person who may represent and bind another person under sections 456.3-301 to 456.3-305 has the same effect as if notice were given directly to the other person.

2. The consent of a person who may represent and bind another person under sections 456.3-301 to 456.3-305 is binding on the person represented unless the person represented objects to the representation before the consent would otherwise have become effective.

3. Except as otherwise provided in sections 456.4A-411 and 456.6-602, a person who under sections 456.3-301 to 456.3-305 may represent a settlor who lacks capacity may receive notice and give a binding consent on the settlor's behalf.

4. A settlor may not represent and bind a beneficiary under sections 456.3-301 to 456.3-305 with respect to the termination or modification of a trust under section 456.4-411A.

456.3-304. 1. Unless otherwise represented, a minor, incapacitated, or unborn individual, or a person whose identity or location is unknown and not reasonably ascertainable, may be represented by and bound by another having a substantially identical interest with respect to the particular question or dispute, but only to the extent there is no conflict of interest between the representative and the person represented with respect to a particular question or dispute.

2. Unless otherwise represented, a beneficiary who is not a qualified beneficiary may be represented by and bound by a qualified beneficiary having a substantially identical interest with respect to the particular question or dispute, but only to the extent there is no conflict of interest with respect to the particular question or dispute between the representative and the person represented, in any court proceeding under subsection 2 of section 456.4-412, or in a nonjudicial settlement agreement entered into under section 456.1-111 in lieu of such a court proceeding.

456.4-401. A trust may be created by:

(1) transfer of property to another person as trustee during the settlor's lifetime or by will or other disposition taking effect upon the settlor's death;

(2) declaration by the owner of property that the owner holds identifiable property as trustee;

(3) exercise of a power of appointment in favor of a trustee; or

(4) a court under section 475.092, 475.093, or 511.030, RSMo, or 42 U.S.C. Section 1396p(d)(4).

456.4-402. 1. Other than for a trust created by section 475.092, 475.093, or 511.030, RSMo, or 42 U.S.C. Section 1396p(d)(4), a trust is created only if:

(1) the settlor has capacity to create a trust;

- (2) the settlor indicates an intention to create the trust;
- (3) the trust has a definite beneficiary or is:
 - (a) a charitable trust;
 - (b) a trust for the care of an animal, as provided in section 456.4-408; or
 - (c) a trust for a noncharitable purpose, as provided in section 456.4-409;
- (4) the trustee has duties to perform; and
- (5) the same person is not the sole trustee and sole beneficiary.

2. A beneficiary is definite if the beneficiary can be ascertained now or in the future, subject to any applicable rule against perpetuities.

3. A power in a trustee to select a beneficiary from an indefinite class is valid. If the power is not exercised within a reasonable time, the power fails and the property subject to the power passes to the persons who would have taken the property had the power not been conferred.

456.4-411A. 1. Except for a trust established by a court under section 475.092, 475.093, 511.033, RSMo, or 42 U.S.C. Section 1396p(d)(4), a noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified or terminated upon consent of the settlor and all beneficiaries, without court approval, even if the modification or termination is inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust. A settlor's power to consent to a trust's termination or modification may be exercised by an agent under a power of attorney only to the extent expressly authorized by the power of attorney or the terms of the trust; by the settlor's conservator with the approval of the court supervising the conservatorship if an agent is not so authorized; or by the settlor's conservator ad litem with the approval of the court if an agent is not so authorized and a conservator has not been appointed.

2. Upon termination of a trust under subsection 1 of this section, the trustee shall distribute the trust property as agreed by the beneficiaries.

3. If not all of the beneficiaries consent to a proposed modification or termination of the trust under subsection 1 of this section, the modification or termination may be approved by the court if the court is satisfied that:

- (1) if all of the beneficiaries had consented, the trust could have been modified or terminated under subsection 1 of this section; and
- (2) the interests of a beneficiary who does not consent will be adequately protected.

456.4-411B. 1. When all of the adult beneficiaries having the capacity to contract consent, the court may, upon finding that the interest of any nonconsenting beneficiary will be adequately protected, modify the terms of a noncharitable irrevocable trust so as to reduce or eliminate the interests of some beneficiaries and increase those of others, change the times or amounts of payments and distributions to beneficiaries, or provide for termination of the trust at a time earlier or later than that specified by its terms. The court may at any time upon its own motion appoint a representative pursuant to section 456.3-305 to represent a nonconsenting beneficiary. The court shall appoint such a representative upon the motion of any party, unless the court determines such an appointment is not appropriate under the circumstances.

2. Upon termination of a trust under subsection 1 of this section, the trustee shall distribute the trust property as directed by the court.

3. If a trust cannot be terminated or modified under subsection 1 of this section because not all adult beneficiaries having capacity to contract consent or the terms of the trust prevent such modification or termination, the modification or termination may be approved by the court if the court is satisfied that the interests of a beneficiary, other than the settlor, who does not consent will be adequately protected, modification or termination will benefit a living settlor who is also a beneficiary, and:

- (1) in the case of a termination, the party seeking termination establishes that continuance of the trust is not necessary to achieve any material purpose of the trust; or
- (2) in the case of a modification, the party seeking modification establishes that the modification is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust, and the modification is not specifically prohibited by the terms of the trust.

4. This section shall apply to trusts created under trust instruments that become irrevocable on or after January 1, 2005. The provisions of section 456.590 shall apply to all trusts that were created under trust instruments that become irrevocable prior to January 1, 2005.

456.5-501. Except as otherwise provided in sections 456.5-506 to 456.5-507, to the extent a beneficiary's interest is not [protected by] subject to a spendthrift provision, an assignee or a judgment creditor of the beneficiary may, without court order, reach the beneficiary's interest by attachment of present or future distributions to or for the benefit of the beneficiary or other means. The court may limit the award to such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

456.5-504. 1. [Except as otherwise provided in section 456.5-503, whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift provision, a creditor of a beneficiary may not compel a distribution that is subject to the trustee's discretion, even if:

(1) the discretion is expressed in the form of a standard of distribution; or
(2) the trustee has abused the discretion.] A beneficiary's interest in a trust that is subject to the trustee's discretion does not constitute an interest in property or an enforceable right even if the discretion is expressed in the form of a standard of distribution or the beneficiary is then serving as a trustee or co-trustee. A creditor or other claimant may not attach present or future distributions from such an interest or right, obtain an order from a court forcing the judicial sale of the interest or compelling the trustee to make distributions, or reach the interest or right by any other means, even if the trustee has abused the trustee's discretion.

2. This section does not limit the right of a beneficiary to maintain a judicial proceeding against a trustee for an abuse of discretion or failure to comply with a standard for distribution.

3. This section applies whether or not an interest is subject to a spendthrift provision.

4. For purposes of this section, a beneficiary's interest in a trust is subject to the trustee's discretion if that interest does not constitute a mandatory distribution as defined in subsection 1 of section 456.5-506.

456.5-506. 1. As used in this section, "mandatory distribution" means a distribution of income or principal which the trustee is required to make to a beneficiary under the terms of the trust, including a distribution upon termination of the trust. The term does not include a distribution subject to the exercise of the trustee's discretion even if (1) the discretion is expressed in the form of a standard of distribution, or (2) the terms of the trust authorizing a distribution couple language of discretion with language of direction.

2. Whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift provision, a creditor or assignee of a beneficiary may reach a mandatory distribution of income or principal, including a distribution upon termination of the trust, if the trustee has not made the distribution to the beneficiary within a reasonable time after the required distribution date.

456.7-703. 1. Cotrustees shall act by majority decision.

2. If a vacancy occurs in a cotrusteeship, the remaining cotrustees may act for the trust.

3. A cotrustee must participate in the performance of a trustee's function unless the cotrustee is unavailable to perform the function because of absence, illness, disqualification under other law, or other temporary incapacity or the cotrustee has properly delegated the performance of the function to another trustee.

4. If a cotrustee is unavailable to perform duties because of absence, illness, disqualification under other law, or other temporary incapacity, and prompt action is necessary to achieve the purposes of the trust or to avoid injury to the trust property, the remaining cotrustee or a majority of the remaining cotrustees may act for the trust.

5. A trustee may [not] delegate to a cotrustee the performance of a function [the settlor reasonably expected the trustees to perform jointly] in accordance with subsection 1 of section 456.8-807. Unless a delegation was irrevocable, a trustee may revoke a delegation previously made.

6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7 of this section, a trustee who does not join in an action of another trustee is not liable for the action.

7. Each trustee shall exercise reasonable care to:

- (1) prevent a cotrustee from committing a serious breach of trust; and
- (2) compel a cotrustee to redress a serious breach of trust.

8. A dissenting trustee who joins in an action at the direction of the majority of the trustees and who notified any cotrustee of the dissent at or before the time of the action is not liable for the action unless the action is a serious breach of trust.

456.8-813. 1. (1) A trustee shall keep the qualified beneficiaries of the trust reasonably informed about the administration of the trust and of the material facts necessary for them to protect their interests. A trustee shall be presumed to have fulfilled this duty if the trustee complies with the notice and information requirements prescribed in subsections 2 to 7 of this section.

(2) Unless unreasonable under the circumstances, a trustee shall promptly respond to a beneficiary's request for information related to the administration of the trust.

2. A trustee:

- (1) upon request of a beneficiary, shall promptly furnish to the beneficiary a copy of the trust instrument;
- (2) within 60 days after accepting a trusteeship, shall notify the qualified beneficiaries of the acceptance and of the trustee's name, address, and telephone number;

(3) within sixty days after the date the trustee acquires knowledge of the creation of an irrevocable trust, or the date the trustee acquires knowledge that a formerly revocable trust has become irrevocable, whether by the death of the settlor or otherwise, shall notify the qualified beneficiaries of the trust's existence, of the identity of the settlor or settlors, of the right to request a copy of the trust instrument, and of the right to a trustee's report as provided in subsection 3 of this section; and

(4) shall notify the qualified beneficiaries in advance of any change in the method or rate of the trustee's compensation. [Subdivisions (2) and (3) of this subsection do not apply to a trust that became irrevocable before January 1, 2005.]

3. A trustee shall send to the permissible distributees of trust income or principal, and to other beneficiaries who request it, at least annually and at the termination of the trust, a report of the trust property, liabilities, receipts, and disbursements, including the source and amount of the trustee's compensation, a listing of the trust assets and, if feasible, their respective market values. Upon a vacancy in a trusteeship, unless a cotrustee remains in office, a report must be sent to the qualified beneficiaries by the former trustee. A personal representative, conservator, or guardian may send the qualified beneficiaries a report on behalf of a deceased or incapacitated trustee.

4. A beneficiary may waive the right to a trustee's report or other information otherwise required to be furnished under this section. A beneficiary, with respect to future reports and other information, may withdraw a waiver previously given.

5. A trustee may charge a reasonable fee to a beneficiary for providing information under this section.

6. The request of any beneficiary for information under any provision of this section shall be with respect to a single trust that is sufficiently identified to enable the trustee to locate the records of the trust.

7. If the trustee is bound by any confidentiality restrictions with respect to an asset of a trust, any beneficiary who is eligible to receive information pursuant to this section about such asset shall agree to be bound by the confidentiality restrictions that bind the trustee before receiving such information from the trustee.

8. This section does not apply to a trust created under a trust instrument that became irrevocable before January 1, 2005, and the law in effect prior to January 1, 2005, regarding the subject matter of this section shall continue to apply to those trusts.

456.8-814. 1. Notwithstanding the [breadth of discretion granted to a trustee in the terms of the trust, including the] use of such terms as "absolute," "sole," or "uncontrolled," in the exercise of discretion under an ascertainable standard, the trustee shall exercise [a] such discretionary power in good faith and in accordance with the terms and purposes of the trust and the interests of the beneficiaries.

2. Subject to subsection 4 of this section, and unless the terms of the trust expressly indicate that a rule in this subsection does not apply:

(1) a person other than a settlor who is a beneficiary and trustee of a trust that confers on the trustee a power to make discretionary distributions to or for the trustee's personal benefit may exercise the power only in accordance with an ascertainable standard [relating to the trustee's individual health, education, support, or maintenance within the meaning of Section 2041(b)(1)(A) or 2514(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code];

(2) a trustee may not exercise a power to make discretionary distributions to satisfy a legal obligation of support that the trustee personally owes another person; and

(3) for purposes of this subsection 2 of this section, the term "trustee" shall include a person who is deemed to have any power of a trustee, whether because such person has the right to remove or replace any trustee, because a reciprocal trust or power doctrine applies, or for any other reason.

3. A power whose exercise is limited or prohibited by subsection 2 may be exercised by a majority of the remaining trustees whose exercise of the power is not so limited or prohibited. If the power of all trustees is so limited or prohibited, the court may appoint a special fiduciary with authority to exercise the power.

4. Subsection 2 of this section does not apply to:

(1) a power held by the settlor's spouse who is the trustee of a trust for which a marital deduction, as defined in Section 2056(b)(5) or 2523(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code was previously allowed;

(2) any trust during any period that the trust may be revoked or amended by its settlor; or

(3) a trust if contributions to the trust qualify for the annual exclusion under Section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

456.8-816. Without limiting the authority conferred by section 456.8-815, a trustee may:

(1) collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the trust property from a settlor or any other person;

(2) acquire or sell property in divided or undivided interests, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale;

(3) exchange, partition, or otherwise change the character of trust property;

- (4) deposit trust money in an account in a financial institution;
- (5) borrow money, with or without security, and mortgage or pledge trust property for a period within or extending beyond the duration of the trust;
- (6) with respect to an interest in a proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, or other form of business or enterprise, continue the business or other enterprise and take any action that may be taken by shareholders, members, or property owners, including merging, dissolving, or otherwise changing the form of business organization or contributing additional capital;
- (7) with respect to stocks or other securities, exercise the rights of an absolute owner, including the right to:
 - (a) vote, or give proxies to vote, with or without power of substitution, or enter into or continue a voting trust agreement;
 - (b) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the trust so that title may pass by delivery;
 - (c) pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against the securities, and sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; and
 - (d) deposit the securities with a depository or other financial institution;
- (8) with respect to an interest in real property, construct, or make ordinary or extraordinary repairs to, alterations to, or improvements in, buildings or other structures, demolish improvements, raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings, subdivide or develop land, dedicate land to public use or grant public or private easements, and make or vacate plats and adjust boundaries;
- (9) enter into a lease for any purpose as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without the option to purchase or renew, for a period within or extending beyond the duration of the trust;
- (10) grant an option involving a sale, lease, or other disposition of trust property or acquire an option for the acquisition of property, including an option exercisable beyond the duration of the trust, and exercise an option so acquired;
- (11) insure the property of the trust against damage or loss and insure the trustee, the trustee's agents, and beneficiaries against liability arising from the administration of the trust;
- (12) abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration;
- (13) with respect to possible liability for violation of environmental law:
 - (a) inspect or investigate property the trustee holds or has been asked to hold, or property owned or operated by an organization in which the trustee holds or has been asked to hold an interest, for the purpose of determining the application of environmental law with respect to the property;
 - (b) take action to prevent, abate, or otherwise remedy any actual or potential violation of any environmental law affecting property held directly or indirectly by the trustee, whether taken before or after the assertion of a claim or the initiation of governmental enforcement;
 - (c) decline to accept property into trust or disclaim any power with respect to property that is or may be burdened with liability for violation of environmental law;
 - (d) compromise claims against the trust which may be asserted for an alleged violation of environmental law; and
 - (e) pay the expense of any inspection, review, abatement, or remedial action to comply with environmental law;
- (14) pay or contest any claim, settle a claim by or against the trust, and release, in whole or in part, a claim belonging to the trust;
- (15) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the trustee and of employees and agents of the trust, and other expenses incurred in the administration of the trust;
- (16) exercise elections with respect to federal, state, and local taxes;
- (17) select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the trustee, exercise rights thereunder, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds;
- (18) make loans out of trust property, including loans to a beneficiary on terms and conditions the trustee considers to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances, and the trustee has a lien on future distributions for repayment of those loans;
- (19) pledge trust property to guarantee or secure loans made by others to a beneficiary;

(20) appoint a trustee to act in another jurisdiction with respect to trust property located in the other jurisdiction, confer upon the appointed trustee all of the powers and duties of the appointing trustee, require that the appointed trustee furnish security, and remove any trustee so appointed;

(21) pay an amount distributable to a beneficiary who is under a legal disability or who the trustee reasonably believes is incapacitated, by paying it directly to the beneficiary or applying it for the beneficiary's benefit, or by:

(a) paying it to the beneficiary's conservator or, if the beneficiary does not have a conservator, the beneficiary's guardian;

(b) paying it to the beneficiary's custodian under the Missouri transfers to minors law under sections 404.005 to 404.094, RSMo, or a personal custodian under sections 404.400 to 404.650, RSMo, and, for that purpose, creating a custodianship or custodial trust;

(c) if the trustee does not know of a conservator, guardian, custodian, or custodial trustee, paying it to an adult relative or other person having legal or physical care or custody of the beneficiary, to be expended on the beneficiary's behalf; or

(d) managing it as a separate fund on the beneficiary's behalf, subject to the beneficiary's continuing right to withdraw the distribution;

(22) on distribution of trust property or the division or termination of a trust, make distributions in divided or undivided interests, allocate particular assets in proportionate or disproportionate shares, value the trust property for those purposes, and adjust for resulting differences in valuation;

(23) resolve a dispute concerning the interpretation of the trust or its administration by mediation, arbitration, or other procedure for alternative dispute resolution;

(24) prosecute or defend an action, claim, or judicial proceeding in any jurisdiction to protect trust property and the trustee in the performance of the trustee's duties;

(25) to engage and compensate attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, or other agents, and to delegate to them trustee's duties and functions in accordance with the provisions of section 456.8-807;

(26) sign and deliver contracts and other instruments that are useful to achieve or facilitate the exercise of the trustee's powers[.] ;

[(26)] (27) on termination of the trust, exercise the powers appropriate to wind up the administration of the trust and distribute the trust property to the persons entitled to it; and

[(27)] (28) to invest and reinvest trust assets in accordance with sections 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo; including investing and reinvesting in securities or obligations of any state or its political subdivisions, including securities or obligations that are underwritten by the trustee or an affiliate of the trustee or a syndicate in which the trustee or an affiliate of the trustee is a member which meet the standards established by the division of finance pursuant to subsection 5 of section 362.550, RSMo.

469.600. The doctrine of worthier title and the Rule in Bingham's case is abolished as a rule of law and as a rule of construction. Language in a governing instrument describing the beneficiaries of a disposition as the transferor's "heirs", "heirs at law", "next of kin", "distributees", "relatives", or "family", or language of similar import does not create or presumptively create a reversionary interest in the transferor.

473.333. If it appears that there is a surplus of money in the hands of the personal representative that will not shortly be required for the expenses of administration, or payment of claims, taxes or other required disbursements, the personal representative shall make such investment of the money on or after August 28, 1998, in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo. The personal representative may also, without an order of court, invest in (1) direct obligations of, or obligations unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest, by the United States, or (2) accounts of savings and loan associations to the extent the accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, without inquiry as to whether the investment is reasonable and prudent. An order of court authorizing investments pursuant to this section does not relieve a personal representative or his sureties of responsibility and liability if the investment made is not in fact in accordance with the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo.

473.787. 1. While letters testamentary or of administration authorizing independent administration of the estate are in force, the personal representative therein named is an independent personal representative and his administration of the estate is an independent administration, and all actions taken on or after August 28, 1996, shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo.

2. An independent personal representative shall proceed expeditiously with the settlement and distribution of the estate in accordance with the applicable provisions of this chapter and, except as otherwise specified by the provisions of sections 473.780 to 473.843, shall do so without adjudication, order, or direction of the court, but he may invoke the jurisdiction of the court, in proceedings authorized by this code, to resolve questions concerning the estate or its administration or distribution.

3. Unless he is a member in good standing of the Missouri bar, an independent personal representative, because he owes a fiduciary duty to the persons interested in the estate, shall secure the advice and services of an attorney, who is not a salaried employee of the personal representative, on legal questions arising in connection with:

- (1) The application for and issuance of letters testamentary or of administration;
- (2) The collection, investment and preservation of assets;
- (3) The inventory;
- (4) The allowance, disallowance, compromise and payment of claims;
- (5) The making of tax returns;
- (6) The transfer and encumbrance of property of the estate;
- (7) The interpretation of the will and of the intestacy laws;
- (8) The scheme and making of distribution; and
- (9) The closing of the estate.

475.092. 1. If it is established in a proceeding conducted in [the] a manner [prescribed for] similar to a proceeding for the appointment of a conservator of the estate that a person is a minor or disabled, or is blind or has a physical or mental disability as defined under state or federal law, the court, without appointing a conservator, may authorize, direct or ratify any transaction necessary or desirable to achieve any security, service, or care arrangement meeting the foreseeable needs of the [minor or disabled] person.

2. When it has been established in such a proceeding that the person is a minor or disabled, or is blind or has a physical or mental disability as defined under state or federal law, the court, without appointing a conservator, may authorize, direct or ratify any contract or other transaction relating to the [minor or disabled] person's financial affairs or involving such person's estate if the court determines that the transaction is in the best interests of the [minor or disabled] person and if such action would otherwise be within the power of the court [pursuant to this chapter]. A transaction pursuant to this section may include the establishment by the court or other grantor of an inter vivos trust, including a trust that complies with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. Section 1396p(d)(4), on behalf of the [minor or disabled] person provided that upon such person's death, after the payment of trustees' fees, [the state of Missouri shall first receive all amounts remaining in the trust up to an amount equal to the total medical assistance paid on such person's behalf pursuant to a state plan as provided in Title 42 of the United States Code] any payments to the state Medicaid agency that are required by the provisions of 42 U.S.C. Section 1396p(d)(4) are made and, provided further, that any creditor of the [minor or disabled] person other than the state of Missouri shall also be paid all sums due for such person's care, maintenance and support, to the extent trust property is sufficient therefor, and, provided, such trust shall terminate upon such person's death and any amounts remaining in the trust after the foregoing payments shall be distributed to [such decedent's estate] the remainder beneficiaries designated in the trust or as designated pursuant to the exercise of a power of appointment set forth in the trust. This section shall not be interpreted to require all such trusts to be established by a court proceeding.

3. Before approving a protective arrangement or other transaction pursuant to this section, the court shall consider the interests of creditors and dependents of the [minor or disabled] person and, in view of such person's disability, whether such person needs the continuing protection of a conservator. The court may appoint a special conservator to assist in the accomplishment of any protective arrangement or other transaction authorized pursuant to this section who shall have the authority conferred by the order and serve until discharged by order after report to the court of all matters done pursuant to the order of appointment.

4. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the trustee of any trust created or approved by a Missouri court [for a minor or disabled person] prior to August 28, 1999, for the benefit of a person who is a minor or disabled, or is blind or has a physical or mental disability as defined under state or federal law shall not be liable to the state of Missouri or to any creditor of such person if, on August 28, 1999, the trust does not have sufficient assets to reimburse the state of Missouri for medical assistance paid on such person's behalf pursuant to a state plan as provided in Title 42 of the United States Code or to reimburse a creditor for sums due for such person's care, maintenance and support. Any such trust which is in existence as of August 28, 1999, shall be subject to subsection 2 of this section, as amended, notwithstanding any provisions of such trust to the contrary. The trustee shall not be liable for any distributions or payments made prior to August 28, 1999, pursuant to the terms of such trust.

475.130. 1. Conservator of the estate of a minor or disabled person shall, under supervision of the court, protect, preserve and manage the estate, invest it, on or after August 28, 1998, in accordance with the provisions of the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo, apply it as provided in this code, account for it faithfully, perform all other duties required of him by law, and at the termination of the conservatorship deliver the assets of the protectee to the persons entitled thereto. In protecting, preserving and managing the estate, the conservator of the estate is under a duty to use the degree of care, skill and prudence which an ordinarily prudent man uses in managing the property of, and conducting transactions on behalf of, others. If a conservator of the estate has special skills or is appointed on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise, he is under a duty to use those skills in the conduct of the protectee's affairs. A conservator of the estate is under a duty to act in the interest of the protectee and to avoid conflicts of interest which impair his ability so to act.

2. The conservator of the estate shall take possession of all of the protectee's real and personal property, and of rents, income, issue and profits therefrom, whether accruing before or after his appointment, and of the proceeds arising from the sale, mortgage, lease or exchange thereof. Subject to such possession, the title to all such estate, and to the increment and proceeds thereof, is in the protectee and not in the conservator. Upon a showing that funds available or payable for the benefit of the protectee by any federal agency are being applied for the benefit of the protectee, or that such federal agency has refused to recognize the authority of the conservator to administer such funds, the court may waive, by order, the duty of the conservator to account therefor.

3. The court has full authority under the rules of civil procedure to enjoin any person from interfering with the right of the conservator to possession of the assets of the protectee, including benefits payable from any source.

4. The conservator of the estate shall prosecute and defend all actions instituted in behalf of or against the protectee; collect all debts due or becoming due to the protectee, and give acquittances and discharges therefor, and adjust, settle and pay all claims due or becoming due from the protectee so far as his estate and effects will extend, except as provided in sections 507.150 and 507.188, RSMo.

5. A conservator of the estate has power, without authorization or approval of the court, to:

- (1) Settle or compromise a claim against the protectee or the estate agreeing to pay or paying not more than one thousand dollars;
- (2) Settle, abandon or compromise a claim in favor of the estate which does not exceed one thousand dollars;
- (3) Sell, or agree to sell, chattels, choses in action and investment securities reasonably worth not more than one thousand dollars for cash or upon terms involving a reasonable extension of credit;
- (4) Exchange, or agree to exchange, chattels, choses in action and investment securities for other such property of equivalent value, not in excess of one thousand dollars;
- (5) Insure or contract for insurance of property of the estate against fire, theft and other hazards;
- (6) Insure or contract for insurance protecting the protectee against any liability likely to be incurred, including medical and hospital expenses, and protecting the conservator against liability to third parties arising from acts or omissions connected with possession or management of the estate;
- (7) Contract for needed repairs and maintenance of property of the estate;
- (8) Lease land and buildings for terms not exceeding one year, reserving reasonable rent, and renew any such lease for a like term;
- (9) Vote corporate stock in person or by general or limited proxy;
- (10) Contract for the provision of board, lodging, education, medical care, or necessities of the protectee for periods not exceeding one year, and renew any such contract for a like period.

6. If, in exercising any power conferred by subsection 5, of this section, a conservator breaches any of the duties enumerated in subsection 1, he may be surcharged for losses to the estate caused by the breach but persons who dealt with the conservator in good faith, without knowledge of or reason to suspect the breach of duty, may enforce and retain the benefits of any transaction with the conservator which he has power under subsection 5 of this section to conduct.

475.190. 1. The conservator shall invest the money of the protectee, from whatever source derived, unless it is required for other lawful purposes.

2. No investment, other than an investment (a) in the direct obligations of or obligations unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States or (b) in savings accounts and time deposits, including time certificates of deposit, in banking institutions to the extent such accounts or deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or (c) in accounts of savings and loan associations to the extent such accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, shall be made without prior order of the court.

3. The conservator may invest in any other property, real or personal, which the court finds is a reasonable and prudent investment in the circumstances. An order of court authorizing investment under this subsection does not relieve a conservator or his sureties of responsibility and liability if the investment made is not in fact in accordance with the Missouri prudent investor act, sections [456.900 to 456.913] 469.900 to 469.913, RSMo.

4. Every conservator shall make a report at every annual settlement of the disposition made by the conservator of the money belonging to the protectee entrusted to him. If it appears that the money is invested in securities, then the conservator shall report a detailed description of the securities and shall describe any real estate security and state where it is situated, and its value, which report shall be filed in the court. The court shall carefully examine into the report as soon as made, and, if in the opinion of the court the security is insufficient, the court shall make such orders as are necessary to protect the interest of the protectee. The conservator and his sureties are liable on their bond for any omission to comply with the orders of the court. If the money has not been invested as authorized by law the conservator shall state that fact and the reasons, and shall state that the conservator has been unable to make an investment after diligent effort to do so.

5. If any conservator refuses or neglects to make the report at the time aforesaid, or makes a false report thereof, he and his sureties are liable on their bond for all loss or damage to the protectee occasioned by reason of his neglect or refusal so to report, or by making a false report, and the conservator may, on account thereof, be removed from his trust in the discretion of the court.”; and

On motion of Representative Stevenson, House Amendment No. 1, as amended, was adopted.

Representative Pearce offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 892, Pages 13 through 21, by deleting all of sections 700.045, 700.111, 700.115, 700.355, 700.360, 700.385, 700.500 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“700.385. 1. When the holder of any indebtedness secured by a security agreement or other contract for security covering a manufactured home, who has a notice of lien on file with the director of revenue, repossesses the manufactured home either by legal process or in accordance with the terms of a contract authorizing the repossession of the manufactured home without legal process, the holder may obtain a certificate of [title] ownership from the director of revenue upon presentation of:

(1) An application[, which shall be upon a blank] form furnished by the director of revenue [and] which shall contain [the] a full description of the manufactured home and the manufacturer's or other identifying number;

(2) A notice of lien receipt or the original certificate of ownership reflecting the holder's lien; and

(3) An affidavit of the holder, certified under penalties of perjury for making a false statement to a public official, that the debtor defaulted in payment of the debt, and that the holder repossessed the manufactured home either by legal process or in accordance with the terms of the contract, and the specific address where the manufactured home is held[]; and

(3) The original, or a conformed or photostatic copy of the original, of the security agreement or other contract for security and the instrument or instruments evidencing the indebtedness secured by the security agreement or other contract for security.

The director may, by regulation, prescribe for the inclusion in either or both the application or affidavit required by this subsection any other information that he, from time to time, deems necessary or advisable, and may prescribe that the affidavit required by this subsection be part of the application]. Such affidavit shall also state that the lienholder has the written consent from all owners or lienholders of record to repossess the manufactured home or has provided all the owners or lienholders with written notice of the repossession.

2. On a manufactured home, the lienholder shall first give:

(1) Ten days' written notice by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to each of the owners and other lienholders, if any, of the manufactured home at each of their last mailing addresses as shown by the last prior certificate of ownership, if any issued, or the most recent address on the lienholder's records, that an application for a repossessed title will be made; or

(2) The lienholder may, ten days prior to applying for a repossession title, include the information in the above notice in the appropriate uniform commercial code notice under sections 400.9-613 or 400.9-614, RSMo. Such alternative notice to all owners and lienholders shall be valid and enforceable under both the uniform commercial code and this section, provided it otherwise complies with the provisions of the uniform commercial code.

3. Upon the holder's presentation of the papers required by subsection 1 of this section and the payment of a fee of ten dollars, the director of revenue, if he is satisfied with the genuineness of the papers, shall issue and deliver to the holder a certificate of [title] ownership which shall be in its usual form except it shall be clearly captioned "Reposessed Title"[]; except that, unless the application is accompanied by the written consent, acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, of the owners and other lienholders, if any, of the manufactured home as shown by the last prior certificate of title or ownership, if any, issued on the manufactured home for the issuance of a reposessed title to the applicant, no such reposessed title may be issued by the director of revenue unless the director shall first give ten days' written notice by first class United States mail postage prepaid to each of the owners and other lienholders, if any, of the manufactured home at each of their last mailing addresses as shown by the last prior certificate of title or ownership, if any, issued on the manufactured home that an application for a reposessed title has been made and the date the reposessed title will be issued, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy, photostatic or otherwise, of the application and affidavit. The application for reposessed title may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the granting thereof]. Each reposessed title so issued shall, for all purposes, be treated as an original certificate of [title] ownership and shall supersede the outstanding certificate of [title or] ownership, if any, and duplicates thereof, if any, on the manufactured home, all of which shall become null and void.

[3.] 4. In any case where there is no certificate of [title or] ownership, or duplicate thereof, outstanding in the name of the debtor on the reposessed manufactured home, the director of revenue shall issue a reposessed title to the holder [upon the payment of] and shall proceed to collect all unpaid fees, taxes, charges and penalties owed by the debtor, in addition to the fee specified in subsection 2 of this section.

5. The director of revenue may prescribe rules and regulations for the effective administration of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pearce, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Johnson (47) offered House Amendment No. 3.

HCS SS SCS SB 590, relating to higher education, was taken up by Representative Kingery.

Representative Kingery offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 590, Page 19, Section 2, Line 80, by inserting after all of said amendment the following:

“Section 3. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Missouri Legacy Fund", which shall consist of moneys collected under this section. The Missouri higher education savings program board shall administer the fund. The fund may receive moneys from appropriations by the general assembly, transfers from the abandoned fund account established in section 447.543, RSMo, interest receipts, donations, or any other payments made by any public or private entity. Moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the purposes of this section. The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in accordance with rules promulgated under chapter

536, RSMo. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund, and such interest shall be used solely to provide college financial assistance to participants in Missouri's qualified state tuition program under Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and for the administration of this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, beginning August 28, 2006, and each fiscal year thereafter, the first twenty-two million five hundred thousand dollars of net transfers from the abandoned fund account established in section 447.543, RSMo, shall be transferred to the general revenue fund, and any amount in excess of twenty-two million five hundred thousand dollars shall be transferred from the abandoned fund account to the Missouri legacy fund.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 590, Page 13, Section 173.616, Line 49, and inserting after all of said line the following:

"173.858. 1. The governing board of any private not-for-profit college or university authorized to do business in this state and which meets the standards of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools may appoint and employ as many college or university police officers as it may deem necessary to protect persons, property, and to preserve peace and good order in the buildings, properties, grounds, and other facilities and locations over which it has charge or control.

2. The college or university police officers, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath of office before some officer authorized to administer oaths to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties thereof, which oath shall be filed in the office of the governing board of the college or university and the secretary of the board shall give each college police officer so appointed and qualified a certificate of appointment under the seal of the board which certificate shall empower such officer with the same authority to maintain order, preserve peace, and make arrests as is given to peace officers. The college or university police officer may, in addition, expel from the public buildings, campuses, and grounds, persons violating the rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the board or others under the authority of the board. Such officer as may be designated by the board shall have immediate charge, control, and supervision of college police officers appointed by authority of this section. Such college police officers shall, before appointment, or within six months after appointment, be certified peace officers under chapter 590, RSMo. All commissioning of officers shall be under the direction of the director of the Department of Public Safety pursuant to sections 590.010 to 590.050. The reasonable administrative costs of said commissioning shall be borne by the private not-for-profit college or university.

3. Nothing in this section shall be construed as denying the board the right to appoint guards or watchmen who shall not be given the authority and powers authorized in this section."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2446

WHEREAS, on February 1, 2005, the United Nations released the Report of the International Commission of Inquiry on Darfur to the United Nations Secretary-General which found that war crimes and crimes against humanity had been perpetrated in the Darfur region of Sudan; and

WHEREAS, the Report of the International Commission of Inquiry established that Sudanese government forces and the Janjaweed militia are responsible for systemic and widespread killing, torture, rape, pillaging, and forced displacement throughout Darfur and that these acts result in 10,000 deaths every month; and

WHEREAS, President Bush, former Secretary of State Powell, and the United States Congress have declared the attacks to be genocide, a crime against humanity; and

WHEREAS, 136 nations, including the United States, condemn, and seek to prevent and punish the Crime of Genocide as signatories to the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Humanity; and

WHEREAS, the continuing atrocities in Darfur cry out for an aggressive international response to provide protection for 2 million internally-displaced Sudanese, to expand humanitarian relief efforts without delay, and to establish political negotiations to end these atrocities; and

WHEREAS, the mission of the St. Louis Save Darfur Coalition is to mobilize and educate a broad group of religious, human rights, campus, and civic organizations in the St. Louis region on the genocide in the Darfur region of the Sudan and to stimulate advocacy efforts on behalf of the people of Darfur:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, hereby:

- (1) Condemn the ongoing genocide in Darfur, Sudan; and
- (2) Acknowledge the leadership of the President of the United States and the United States Congress in recognizing and taking initial steps to address the ongoing genocide in Darfur, Sudan; and
- (3) Acknowledge the contributions of the African Union, including its critical peacekeeping mission in Darfur, and its role in facilitating the Abuja peace talks; and
- (4) Call upon the President of the United States and the United States Department of State:
 - (a) To work within the United Nations Security Council to expand the mandate of, and increase aid and logistical support to, the African Union Mission in Sudan (AMIS) for the purpose of better protecting civilians in Darfur, and to increase the force size and mobility of AMIS; and
 - (b) To increase their engagement in the ongoing Darfur peace process in order to facilitate the creation of a viable political framework for a lasting peace in Darfur; and
 - (c) To work within the United Nations Security Council and with the African Union to encourage an immediate transfer of primary peacekeeping duties from the current African Union Mission in Sudan to a larger United Nations peacekeeping force with adequate resources and a clear mandate to protect civilians; and
- (5) Call upon the Missouri Congressional Delegation:
 - (a) To support United States funding for peacekeeping and humanitarian aid in Sudan with the emergency FY 2006 supplemental appropriations bill at a minimum of the $564 million figure arrived at through an initial request of $514 million by the President and subsequent $50 million amendments passed by the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate Appropriations Committee; and
 - (b) To support adequate long-term FY 2007 funding for peacekeeping and humanitarian aid in Darfur; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for President George W. Bush, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HCR 23, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HCS SB 689, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 9, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, in this last week of the 2006 Session of this body, sustain us in the zeal with which we began in January. May Your grace help us to give to each topic still on our agenda the attention it deserves. Hold us in the integrity with which we began, so that our judgments and decisions this week emerge from the best of our wisdom and study.

May the work we are accomplishing this session be like the young plants and crops in gardens and fields everywhere, destined to bear fruit aplenty, meeting the needs of all.

We pray to You Almighty God, living and reigning forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Coleman and Tavia Matthews.

The Journal of the sixty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SS#2 SCS HCS HB 1456, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 288.030, 288.032, 288.035, 288.036, 288.038, 288.040, 288.045, 288.050, 288.060, 288.120, 288.121, 288.122, 288.128, 288.175, 288.190, 288.330, 288.380, 288.381, and 288.500, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof twenty-one new sections relating to employment security, with penalty provisions and an effective date.

With Senate Amendment No. 2, Senate Amendment No. 5, Senate Amendment No. 1 to Senate Amendment No. 9, Senate Amendment No. 9, as amended, and Senate Amendment No. 12.

Senate Amendment No. 2

AMEND Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1456, Pages 19-20, Section 288.038, by striking all of said section from the bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"288.038. With respect to initial claims filed during calendar years 2004 and 2005, the "maximum weekly benefit amount" means four percent of the total wages paid to an eligible insured worker during that quarter of the worker's base period in which the worker's wages were the highest, but the maximum weekly benefit amount shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars in the calendar years 2004 and 2005. With respect to initial claims filed during calendar years 2006 and 2007 the "maximum weekly benefit amount" means [three and three-fourths] four percent of the total wages paid to an eligible insured worker during that quarter of the worker's base period in which the worker's wages were the highest, but the maximum weekly benefit amount shall not exceed two hundred seventy dollars in calendar year 2006 and the maximum weekly benefit amount shall not exceed two hundred eighty dollars in calendar year 2007. With respect to initial claims filed during calendar year 2008 and each calendar year thereafter, the "maximum weekly benefit amount" means four percent of the total wages paid to an eligible insured worker during the average of the two highest quarters of the worker's base period, but the maximum weekly benefit amount shall not exceed three hundred [dollars in calendar year 2008, three hundred ten dollars in calendar year 2009, three hundred] twenty dollars [in calendar year 2010, and each calendar year thereafter]. If such benefit amount is not a multiple of one dollar, such amount shall be reduced to the nearest lower full dollar amount."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 5

AMEND Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1456, Page 38, Section 288.050, Line 26, by striking the opening and closing brackets and further amend said line by striking the word "shall".

to

Senate Amendment No. 9

AMEND Senate Amendment No. 9 to Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1456, Page 2, Section 288.042, Lines 12-16, by striking said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"deployed shall be subject to an administrative penalty in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. The director shall take judicial".

Senate Amendment No. 9

AMEND Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1456, Page 29, Section 288.040, Line 20, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“288.042. 1. For purposes of this chapter, a “war on terror veteran” is a person who serves or has served in the military and to whom the following criteria apply:

(1) The person is or was a member of the national guard or a member of a United States armed forces reserves unit;

(2) The person was deployed as part of his or her military unit at any time after September 11, 2001, and such deployment caused the person to be unable to continue working for his or her employer;

(3) The person was employed either part time or full time before deployment; and

(4) The person was unemployed in his or her non-military employment either during or within thirty days after the completion of his or her deployment.

2. Notwithstanding any provisions of sections 288.010 to 288.500, any war on terror veteran shall be entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under this chapter. A war on terror veteran shall be entitled to a maximum weekly benefit of eight percent of the wages paid to the war on terror veteran during that quarter during which the war on terror veteran earned the highest amount within the five quarters during which the war on terror veteran received wages before deployment. The maximum amount of a maximum weekly benefit shall be one thousand one hundred fifty-three dollars and sixty-four cents, annually adjusted by the consumer price index.

3. A war on terror veteran shall be entitled to a maximum weekly benefit for twenty-six weeks.

4. Any employer who is found in any Missouri court or United States district court located in Missouri to have terminated, demoted, or taken an adverse employment action against a war on terror veteran due to his or her absence while deployed shall be subject to an administrative penalty as determined by the director of the Missouri division of employment security in such amount as to provide funding for this section, but in no event shall the administrative penalty exceed one hundred thousand dollars. The director shall take judicial notice of judgments in suits brought under the Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (38 U.S.C. 4301). Such judgments may be considered to have a res judicata effect on the director's determination.

5. A war on terror veteran shall not be considered to have voluntarily quit his or her employment if he or she is not offered the same wages, benefits, and similar work schedule upon his or her return after deployment.

6. There is hereby created in the state treasury the “War on Terror Unemployment Compensation Fund”, which shall consist of money collected under this section. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund and shall approve disbursements from the fund in accordance with section 30.170 and 30.180, RSMo. Upon appropriation, money in the fund shall be used solely for the administration of this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary, any moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund. The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and money earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

7. The division of employment security may promulgate rules to enforce this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

House Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1124, Page 106, Section 338.220, Line 31, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"338.380. 1. As used in this section the term "committee" means the well-being committee established under subsection 3 of this section.

2. The board may refuse to issue any certificate of registration or authority, permit or license, required under this chapter for one or any combination of causes stated in subsection 2 of section 338.055, or the board may, as a condition to issuing or renewing any such certificate of registration or authority, permit or license, require a person to submit himself or herself for identification, intervention, treatment, or rehabilitation by the well-being committee as provided in this section. The board shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal and shall advise the applicant of his or her right to file a complaint with the administrative hearing commission as provided by chapter 621, RSMo.

3. The board may establish an impaired licensee committee, to be designated as the "Well-being Committee", to promote the early identification, intervention, treatment and rehabilitation of licensees identified within this chapter, who may be impaired by reasons of illness, substance abuse, or as a result of any physical or mental condition. The board may enter into a contractual agreement with a nonprofit corporation or an association for the purpose of creating, supporting and maintaining such a committee. The board may promulgate rules subject to the provisions of this section to effectuate and implement any committee formed under this section. The board may expend appropriated funds necessary to provide for operational expenses of the committee formed under this section. Any member of the committee, as well as any administrator, staff member, consultant, agent or employee of the committee, acting within the scope of his or her duties and without actual malice and, all other persons who furnish information to the committee in good faith and without actual malice, shall not be liable for any claim of damages as a result of any statement, decision, opinion, investigation or action taken by the committee or by any individual member of the committee.

4. All information, interviews, reports, statements, memoranda or other documents furnished to or produced by the committee, as well as communications to or from the committee, any findings, conclusions, interventions, treatment, rehabilitation, or other proceedings of the committee which in any way pertain to a licensee who may be, or who actually is, impaired shall be absolutely privileged and confidential.

5. All records and proceedings of the committee which pertain or refer to a licensee who may be, or who actually is, impaired shall be privileged and confidential and shall be used by the committee and its members only in the exercise of the proper function of the committee and shall not be considered public records under chapter 610, RSMo, and shall only be subject to discovery or introduction as evidence in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings except as provided in subsection 6 of this section.

6. The committee may disclose information relative to an impaired licensee only when:

- (1) It is essential to disclose the information to further the intervention, treatment, or rehabilitation needs of the impaired licensee and only to those persons or organization with a need to know;
- (2) Its release is authorized in writing by the impaired licensee;
- (3) The committee is required to make a report to the board;
- (4) The information is subject to a court order.

7. In lieu of the pursuing discipline against a licensee for violating one or more causes stated in subsection 2 of section 338.055, the board may enter into a diversion agreement with a licensee to refer the licensee to the committee under such terms and conditions as are agreed to by the board and licensee. The board shall enter into no more than two diversion agreements with any individual licensee. If the licensee violates a term or condition of a diversion agreement entered into under this section, the board may elect to pursue discipline against the licensee under chapter 621, RSMo, for the original conduct that resulted in the diversion agreement, or for any subsequent violation of subsection 2 of section 338.055. While the licensee participates in the committee, the time limitations of section 620.154, RSMo, shall toll under subsection 7 of section 620.154, RSMo. All records pertaining to diversion agreements are confidential and may only be released under subdivision (7) of subsection 14 of section 620.010, RSMo.

8. The committee shall report to the board the name of any licensee who fails to enter treatment within forty-eight hours following the provider's determination that the pharmacist needs treatment or any failure by a licensee to comply with the terms of a treatment contract during inpatient or outpatient treatment or aftercare or report a licensee who resumes the practice of pharmacy before the treatment provider has made a clear determination that the pharmacist is capable of practicing according to acceptable and prevailing standards.

9. The board may disclose information and records to the committee to assist the committee in the identification, intervention, treatment, and rehabilitation of any licensee who may be impaired by reason of illness, substance abuse, or as the result of any physical or mental condition. The committee shall keep all information and records provided by the board confidential to the extent the board is required to treat the information and records as closed to the public under chapter 620, RSMo.

10. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILL

HCS SB 1103, relating to health insurance coverage, was taken up by Representative Cooper (120).

Representative Cooper (120) offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1103, Section 1, Page 3, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section 2. 1. Effective July 1, 2007, as such terms are defined in section 376.1350, a health carrier providing a group benefit plan or plans to an employer who meets the requirements of subsection 2 of this section shall, upon request by the employer or employer's producer of record, provide a report of the total dollar amount and total number of claims paid under the plan or plans for each of the prior three years or for each year coverage was in place if less than three years at the time of the request. In the case of an employer with multiple plans, the total dollar amounts shall be aggregated into one report. The report shall be provided within thirty days of the request. The information provided to the employer or the employer's producer of record shall be furnished in a manner that does not individually identify any employee or other person covered by the health benefit plan and shall comply with all applicable federal and state privacy laws regarding the disclosure of health records.

2. For purposes of subsection 1 of this section, an employer is one who:

(1) Employs at least fifty-one employees either at the time of the request or at the start of the reporting period; and

(2) Has been insured continuously with the health carrier or a carrier affiliated with the health carrier for at least the preceding twenty-two months."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (120), House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (155) offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1103, Pages 1-2, Section 191.890, by deleting all of said section.

Representative El-Amin offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Page 6, Section 1, Line 16, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

“Section 2. 1. In any city not within a county where a child under the age of seventeen required to attend school under section 167.031 accumulates fifteen or more absences during any one school year, the child's school district shall report such absences to the division of family services, children's division, within ten business days of the fifteenth day of absence. Such notification, which shall be in written form and retained in the student's school records, shall include:

- (1) The student's full name and parents' or guardians' full names;
- (2) The addresses and phone numbers of the student and parents or guardians;
- (3) The student's date of birth and age;
- (4) The student's current school and grade level;
- (5) The student's current grades for all classes in which the student is enrolled; and
- (6) The total number of days missed and specific days missed from school.

2. Upon receipt of a report of the absences of a child under this section, the children's division shall notify the child's parent or guardian that the child has accumulated fifteen or more absences and such report may be subject to the educational neglect provisions under section 210.145, RSMo. The notification required under this section is required regardless of whether a student's parent or guardian contacted the school and approved of the absences.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative El-Amin, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Chinn offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Section 160.775, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting before said section, the following:

"160.745. 1. This act shall be known as "The Founding Documents Protection Act".

2. No teacher, administrator, or school board in any public school district in this state shall be prohibited from reading or posting in a public school building, classroom, or at a school event any excerpts or portions of the following:

- (1) The preamble to the Missouri Constitution;
- (2) The Declaration of Independence;
- (3) The Constitution of the United States of America;
- (4) The Mayflower Compact;

- (5) The national motto;
- (6) The national anthem;
- (7) The Pledge of Allegiance;
- (8) The writings, speeches, documents, and proclamations of the founding fathers and Presidents of the United States of America;
- (9) The writings, speeches, and documents relating to civil rights leaders of the United States of America;
- (10) The writings, speeches, and documents relating to the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America;
- (11) The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States of America; and
- (12) Acts of the Congress of the United States of America, including the published text of the Congressional Record.

3. There shall be no content-based censorship of American history or heritage in the state of Missouri based on religious references in the writings, documents, and records specified in this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Skaggs raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 3 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

House Amendment No. 3 was withdrawn.

Representative Pratt offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Page 6, Section 1, Line 16, by inserting after said line the following:

"Section 2. 1. As used in this section, "automated external defibrillator" means a specialized defibrillator that is approved for use as a medical device by the United States Food and Drug Administration for performing automated external defibrillation.

2. The board of education of each school district shall require the placement of an automated external defibrillator in each high school under the control of the board. Where a school-sponsored competitive athletic event is held at a site other than a public school facility, the public school officials may ensure that such automated external defibrillator is available for use at the site. The board shall require that a sufficient number of the staff persons assigned to each high school under the control of the board successfully complete an appropriate training course in the use of an automated external defibrillator as described in section 190.092, RSMo.

3. In regard to the use of an automated external defibrillator that is placed in a high school as specified in this section, and except in the case of willful or wanton misconduct or when there is no good faith attempt to activate an emergency medical services system in accordance with section 190.092, RSMo, no person shall be held liable in civil damages for injury, death, or loss to person or property, or held criminally liable, for performing automated external defibrillation in good faith, regardless of whether the person has obtained appropriate training on how to perform automated external defibrillation or successfully completed a course in cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The school district or school where the automated external defibrillator is located shall likewise not be held liable for damages resulting from the use of an automated external defibrillator, provided that all other requirements of section 190.092, RSMo, have been met.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pratt, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Wallace offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Page 1, In the Title, Line 2, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"To repeal section 167.231, RSMo, and sections 163.021 and 163.031 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house committee"; and Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 1, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section A. Section 167.231, RSMo, and sections 163.021 and 163.031 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 163.021, Line 71, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"163.031. 1. The department of elementary and secondary education shall calculate and distribute to each school district qualified to receive state aid under section 163.021 an amount determined by multiplying the district's weighted average daily attendance by the state adequacy target, multiplying this product by the dollar value modifier for the district, and subtracting from this product the district's local effort and, in years not governed under subsection 4 of this section, subtracting payments from the classroom trust fund under section 163.043.

2. Other provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding:

(1) For districts with an average daily attendance of more than three hundred fifty in the school year preceding the payment year:

(a) For the 2006-07 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of one-third multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(b) For the 2007-08 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of two-thirds multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(c) For the 2008-09 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the dollar value modifier, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(d) For each year subsequent to the 2008-09 school year, the amount shall be no less than that computed in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, multiplied by the weighted average daily attendance pursuant to section 163.036, less any increase in revenue received from the classroom trust fund under section 163.043;

(2) For districts with an average daily attendance of three hundred fifty or less in the school year preceding the payment year:

(a) For the 2006-07 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of one-third multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one;

(b) For the 2007-08 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of two-thirds multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one;

(c) For the 2008-09 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the dollar value modifier;

(d) For each year subsequent to the 2008-09 school year, the amount shall be no less than that computed in paragraph (c) of this subdivision;

(3) The department of elementary and secondary education shall make an addition in the payment amount specified in subsection 1 of this section to assure compliance with the provisions contained in this subsection.

3. School districts that meet the requirements of section 163.021 shall receive categorical add-on revenue as provided in this subsection. The categorical add-on for the district shall be the sum of: seventy-five percent of the district allowable transportation costs under section 163.161; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo; and the district educational and screening program entitlements as provided for in sections 178.691 to 178.699, RSMo. The categorical add-on revenue amounts may be adjusted to accommodate available appropriations.

4. In the 2006-07 school year and each school year thereafter for five years, those districts entitled to receive state aid under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall receive state aid in an amount as provided in this subsection.

(1) For the 2006-07 school year, the amount shall be fifteen percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2006-07 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, plus eighty-five percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(2) For the 2007-08 school year, the amount shall be thirty percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2007-08 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, plus seventy percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(3) For the 2008-09 school year, the amount of state aid shall be forty-four percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2008-09 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus fifty-six percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(4) For the 2009-10 school year, the amount of state aid shall be fifty-eight percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2009-10 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus forty-two percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(5) For the 2010-11 school year, the amount of state aid shall be seventy-two percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2010-11 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus twenty-eight percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(6) For the 2011-12 school year, the amount of state aid shall be eighty-six percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2011-12 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus fourteen percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(7) (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (18) of section 163.011, the state adequacy target may not be adjusted downward to accommodate available appropriations in any year governed by this subsection.

(b) a. For the 2006-07 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than fifteen percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance [in any year governed by this subsection], an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction [in] that is in excess of fifteen percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's current year payment amount.

b. For the 2007-08 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than thirty percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction that is in excess of thirty percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's payment amount.

c. For the 2008-09 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than forty-four percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction that is in excess of forty-four percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's payment amount.

d. For the 2009-10 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than fifty-eight percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction that is in excess of fifty-eight percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's payment amount.

e. For the 2010-11 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than seventy-two percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction that is in excess of seventy-two percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's payment amount.

f. For the 2011-12 school year, if a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than eighty-six percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction that is in excess of eighty-six percent of the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's payment amount.

g. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, no such reduction shall be made in the case of a district receiving a payment under section 163.044 or any district whose regular school term average daily attendance for the preceding year was three hundred fifty or less.

h. This paragraph shall not be construed to permit any reduction applied under this paragraph to result in any district receiving a current-year payment that is less than the amount calculated for such district under subsection 2 of this section.

(c) If a school district experiences a decrease in its gifted program enrollment of more than twenty percent from its 2005-06 gifted program enrollment in any year governed by this subsection, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction in the district's gifted program enrollment multiplied by the funds generated by the district's gifted program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's current year payment amount.

5. For any school district meeting the eligibility criteria for state aid as established in section 163.021, but which is considered an option district under section 163.042 and therefore receives no state aid, the commissioner of education shall present a plan to the superintendent of the school district for the waiver of rules and the duration of said waivers, in order to promote flexibility in the operations of the district and to enhance and encourage efficiency in the delivery of instructional services as provided in section 163.042.

6. (1) No less than seventy-five percent of the state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section shall be placed in the teachers' fund, and the remaining percent of such moneys shall be placed in the incidental fund. No less than seventy-five percent of one-half of the funds received from the school district trust fund distributed under section 163.087 shall be placed in the teachers' fund. One hundred percent of revenue received under the provisions of section 163.161 shall be placed in the incidental fund. One hundred percent of revenue received under the provisions of sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo, shall be placed in the teachers' fund.

(2) A school district shall spend for certificated compensation and tuition expenditures each year:

(a) An amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of the state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section;

(b) An amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of one-half of the funds received from the school district trust fund distributed under section 163.087 during the preceding school year; and

(c) Beginning in fiscal year 2008, as much as was spent per the second preceding year's weighted average daily attendance for certificated compensation and tuition expenditures the previous year from revenue produced by local and county tax sources in the teachers' fund, plus the amount of the incidental fund to teachers' fund transfer calculated to be local and county tax sources by dividing local and county tax sources in the incidental fund by total revenue in the incidental fund.

In the event a district fails to comply with this provision, the amount by which the district fails to spend funds as provided herein shall be deducted from the district's state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section for the following year, provided that the state board of education may exempt a school district from this provision if the state board of education determines that circumstances warrant such exemption.

7. If a school district's annual audit discloses that students were inappropriately identified as eligible for free and reduced lunch, special education, or limited English proficiency and the district does not resolve the audit finding, the department of elementary and secondary education shall require that the amount of aid paid pursuant to the weighting for free and reduced lunch, special education, or limited English proficiency in the weighted average daily attendance on the inappropriately identified pupils be repaid by the district in the next school year and shall additionally impose a penalty of one hundred percent of such aid paid on such pupils, which penalty shall also be paid within the next school year. Such amounts may be repaid by the district through the withholding of the amount of state aid.

167.231. 1. Within all school districts except metropolitan districts the board of education shall provide transportation to and from school for all pupils living more than three and one-half miles from school and may provide transportation for all pupils. State aid for transportation shall be paid as provided in section 163.161, RSMo, only on the basis of the cost of pupil transportation for those pupils living one mile or more from school, including transportation provided to and from publicly operated university laboratory schools. The board of education may provide transportation for pupils living less than one mile from school at the expense of the district and may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations as to eligibility of pupils for transportation, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, no such district shall be subject to an administrative penalty when the district demonstrates pursuant to rule established by the state board of education that such students are required to cross a state highway or county arterial in the absence of sidewalks, traffic signals, or a crossing guard and that no existing bus stop location has been changed to permit a district to evade such penalty. If no increase in the tax levy of the school district is required to provide transportation for pupils living less than one mile from the school, the board may transport said pupils. If an increase in the tax levy of the school district is required to provide transportation for pupils living less than one mile from school, the board shall submit the question at a public election. If a two-thirds majority of the voters voting on the question at the election are in favor of providing the transportation, the board shall arrange and provide therefor.

2. The proposal and the ballots may be in substantially the following form:

Shall the board of education of the school district provide transportation at the expense of the district for pupils living less than one mile from school and be authorized to levy an additional tax of cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation to provide funds to pay for such transportation service?

☐ YES

☐ NO

(If you are in favor of the proposition (or question), place an X in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the proposition (or question), place an X in the box opposite "NO".)

3. The board of education of any school district may provide transportation to and from school for any public school pupil not otherwise eligible for transportation under the provisions of state law, and may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations as to eligibility for transportation, if the parents or guardian of the pupil agree in writing to pay the actual cost of transporting the pupil. The minimum charge would be the actual cost of transporting the pupil for ninety school days, which actual cost is to be determined by the average per pupil cost of transporting children in the school district during the preceding school year. The full actual cost shall be paid by the parent or guardian of the pupil and shall not be paid out of any state school aid funds or out of any other revenues of the school district. The cost of transportation may be paid in installments, and the board of education shall establish the cost of the transportation and the time or times and method of payment."; and

AMEND House Amendment No. 5 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Page 1, Line 9, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 163.021, Line 1, by inserting immediately preceding all of said line the following:

"163.011. As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Adjusted operating levy", the sum of tax rates for the current year for teachers' and incidental funds for a school district as reported to the proper officer of each county pursuant to section 164.011, RSMo;

(2) "Average daily attendance", the quotient or the sum of the quotients obtained by dividing the total number of hours attended in a term by resident pupils between the ages of five and twenty-one by the actual number of hours school was in session in that term. To the average daily attendance of the following school term shall be added the full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students. "Full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students" shall be computed by dividing the total number of hours attended by [all] only those summer school pupils who are attending summer school classes in the core academic areas of communication arts, mathematics, science, and social studies by the number of hours required in section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. For purposes of determining average daily attendance under this subdivision, the term "resident pupil" shall include all children between the ages of five and twenty-one who are residents of the school district and who are attending kindergarten through grade twelve in such district. If a child is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the child's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the child is attending, then such child shall be considered a resident pupil of the school district which the child is attending for such period of time when the district of residence is not otherwise liable for tuition. Average daily attendance for students below the age of five years for which a school district may receive state aid based on such attendance shall be computed as regular school term attendance unless otherwise provided by law;

(3) "Current operating expenditures":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "current operating expenditures" shall be calculated using data from fiscal year 2004 and shall be calculated as all expenditures for instruction and support services except capital outlay and debt service expenditures minus the revenue from federal categorical sources; food service; student activities; categorical payments for transportation costs pursuant to section 163.161; state reimbursements for early childhood special education; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo; and payments from other districts;

(b) In every fiscal year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, current operating expenditures shall be the amount in paragraph (a) plus any increases in state funding pursuant to sections 163.031 and 163.043 subsequent to fiscal year 2005, not to exceed five percent, per recalculation, of the state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments for any district from the first preceding calculation of the state adequacy target;

(4) "District's tax rate ceiling", the highest tax rate ceiling in effect subsequent to the 1980 tax year or any subsequent year. Such tax rate ceiling shall not contain any tax levy for debt service;

(5) "Dollar value modifier", an index of the relative purchasing power of a dollar, calculated as one plus fifteen percent of the difference of the regional wage ratio minus one, provided that the dollar value modifier shall not be applied at a rate less than 1.0:

(a) "County wage per job", the total county wage and salary disbursements divided by the total county wage and salary employment for each county and the city of St. Louis as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year;

(b) "Regional wage per job":

a. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the metropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri metropolitan wage and salary employment for the metropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number or the city of St. Louis, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of metropolitan areas; or if no such metropolitan area is established, then:

b. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the micropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri micropolitan wage and salary employment for the micropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year, if a micropolitan area for such county has been established and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of micropolitan areas; or

c. If a county is not part of a metropolitan or micropolitan area as established by the Office of Management and Budget, then the county wage per job, as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, shall be used for the school district, as signified by the school district number;

(c) "Regional wage ratio", the ratio of the regional wage per job divided by the state median wage per job;

(d) "State median wage per job", the fifty-eighth highest county wage per job;

(6) "Free and reduced lunch pupil count", the number of pupils eligible for free and reduced lunch on the last Wednesday in January for the preceding school year who were enrolled as students of the district, as approved by the department in accordance with applicable federal regulations;

(7) "Free and reduced lunch threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total free and reduced lunch pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(8) "Limited English proficiency pupil count", the number in the preceding school year of pupils aged three through twenty-one enrolled or preparing to enroll in an elementary school or secondary school who were not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English or are Native American or Alaskan native, or a native resident of the outlying areas, and come from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on such individuals' level of English language proficiency, or are migratory, whose native language is a language other than English, and who come from an environment where a language other than English is dominant; and have difficulties in speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language sufficient to deny such individuals the ability to meet the state's proficient level of achievement on state assessments described in Public Law 107-10, the ability to achieve successfully in classrooms where the language of instruction is English, or the opportunity to participate fully in society;

(9) "Limited English proficiency threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total limited English proficiency pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(10) "Local effort":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "local effort" shall be computed as the equalized assessed valuation of the property of a school district in calendar year 2004 divided by one hundred and multiplied by the performance levy less the percentage retained by the county assessor and collector plus one hundred percent of the amount received in fiscal year 2005 for school purposes from intangible taxes, fines, escheats, payments in lieu of taxes and receipts from state-assessed railroad and utility tax, one hundred percent of the amount received for school purposes pursuant to the merchants' and manufacturers' taxes under sections 150.010 to 150.370, RSMo, one hundred percent of the amounts received for school purposes from federal properties under sections 12.070 and 12.080, RSMo, except when such amounts are used in the calculation of federal impact aid pursuant to P.L. 81-874, fifty percent of Proposition C revenues received for school purposes from the school district trust fund under section 163.087, and one hundred percent of any local earnings or income taxes received by the district for school purposes. Under this paragraph, for a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, a tax levy of zero shall be utilized in lieu of the performance levy for the special school district;

(b) In every year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, "local effort" shall be the amount calculated under paragraph (a) of this subdivision plus any increase in the amount received for school purposes from fines. If a district's assessed valuation has decreased subsequent to the calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the district's local effort shall be calculated using the district's current assessed valuation in lieu of the assessed valuation utilized in calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

(11) "Membership" shall be the average of:

(a) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in September of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days; and

(b) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in January of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days, plus the full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils.

"Full-time equivalent number of part-time students" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all part-time students are enrolled by the number of hours in the school term. "Full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all summer school pupils were enrolled by the number of hours required pursuant to section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. Only students eligible to be counted for average daily attendance shall be counted for membership;

(12) "Operating levy for school purposes", the sum of tax rates levied for teachers' and incidental funds plus the operating levy or sales tax equivalent pursuant to section 162.1100, RSMo, of any transitional school district containing the school district, in the payment year, not including any equalized operating levy for school purposes levied by a special school district in which the district is located;

(13) "Performance district", any district that has met all performance standards and indicators as established by the department of elementary and secondary education for purposes of accreditation under section 161.092, RSMo, and as reported on the final annual performance report for that district each year;

(14) "Performance levy", three dollars and forty-three cents;

(15) "School purposes" pertains to teachers' and incidental funds;

(16) "Special education pupil count", the number of public school students with a current individualized education program and receiving services from the resident district as of December first of the preceding school year, except for special education services provided through a school district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, in which case the sum of the students in each district within the county exceeding the special education threshold of each respective district within the county shall be counted within the special district and not in the district of residence for purposes of distributing the state aid derived from the special education pupil count;

(18) "State adequacy target", the sum of the current operating expenditures of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, divided by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts. The department of elementary and secondary education shall first calculate the state adequacy target for fiscal year 2007 and recalculate the state adequacy target every two years using the most current available data. The recalculation shall never result in a decrease from the previous state adequacy target amount. Should a recalculation result in an increase in the state adequacy target amount, fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the year of recalculation, and fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the subsequent year. The state adequacy target may be adjusted to accommodate available appropriations;

(19) "Teacher", any teacher, teacher-secretary, substitute teacher, supervisor, principal, supervising principal, superintendent or assistant superintendent, school nurse, social worker, counselor or librarian who shall, regularly, teach or be employed for no higher than grade twelve more than one-half time in the public schools and who is certified under the laws governing the certification of teachers in Missouri;

(20) "Weighted average daily attendance", the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the number of special education pupil count that exceeds the special education threshold, and plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the number of limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. For special districts established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, weighted average daily attendance shall be the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the sum of the special education pupil count that exceeds the threshold for each county district, plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. None of the districts comprising a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, shall use any special education pupil count in calculating their weighted average daily attendance.""; and"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Schneider, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

House Amendment No. 5*

AMEND House Amendment No. 5 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 894, Page 1, Line 11, by inserting after said line the following:

"House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1058, Section 105.711, Page 13, Line 217, by inserting after all of said section, the following:

"163.011. As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Adjusted operating levy", the sum of tax rates for the current year for teachers' and incidental funds for a school district as reported to the proper officer of each county pursuant to section 164.011, RSMo;

(2) "Average daily attendance", the quotient or the sum of the quotients obtained by dividing the total number of hours attended in a term by resident pupils between the ages of five and twenty-one by the actual number of hours school was in session in that term. To the average daily attendance of the following school term shall be added the full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students. "Full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students" shall be computed by dividing the total number of hours attended by all summer school pupils by the number of hours required in section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. For purposes of determining average daily attendance under this subdivision, the term "resident pupil" shall include all children between the ages of five and twenty-one who are residents of the school district and who are attending kindergarten through grade twelve in such district. If a child is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the child's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the child is attending, then such child shall be considered a resident pupil of the school district which the child is attending for such period of time when the district of residence is not otherwise liable for tuition. Average daily attendance for students below the age of five years for which a school district may receive state aid based on such attendance shall be computed as regular school term attendance unless otherwise provided by law;

(3) "Current operating expenditures":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "current operating expenditures" shall be calculated using data from fiscal year 2004 and shall be calculated as all expenditures for instruction and support services except capital outlay and debt service expenditures minus the revenue from federal categorical sources; food service; student activities; categorical payments for transportation costs pursuant to section 163.161; state reimbursements for early childhood special education; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo; and payments from other districts;

(b) In every fiscal year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, current operating expenditures shall be the amount in paragraph (a) plus any increases in state funding pursuant to sections 163.031 and 163.043 subsequent to fiscal year 2005, not to exceed five percent, per recalculation, of the state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments for any district from the first preceding calculation of the state adequacy target;

(4) "District's tax rate ceiling", the highest tax rate ceiling in effect subsequent to the 1980 tax year or any subsequent year. Such tax rate ceiling shall not contain any tax levy for debt service;

(5) "Dollar value modifier", an index of the relative purchasing power of a dollar, calculated as one plus fifteen percent of the difference of the regional wage ratio minus one, provided that the dollar value modifier shall not be applied at a rate less than 1.0:

(a) "County wage per job", the total county wage and salary disbursements divided by the total county wage and salary employment for each county and the city of St. Louis as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year;

(b) "Regional wage per job":

a. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the metropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri metropolitan wage and salary employment for the metropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number or the city of St. Louis, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of metropolitan areas; or if no such metropolitan area is established, then:

b. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the micropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri micropolitan wage and salary employment for the micropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year, if a micropolitan area for such county has been established and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of micropolitan areas; or

c. If a county is not part of a metropolitan or micropolitan area as established by the Office of Management and Budget, then the county wage per job, as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, shall be used for the school district, as signified by the school district number;

(c) "Regional wage ratio", the ratio of the regional wage per job divided by the state median wage per job;

(d) "State median wage per job", the fifty-eighth highest county wage per job;

(6) "Free and reduced lunch pupil count", the number of pupils eligible for free and reduced lunch on the last Wednesday in January for the preceding school year who were enrolled as students of the district, as approved by the department in accordance with applicable federal regulations;

(7) "Free and reduced lunch threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total free and reduced lunch pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(8) "Limited English proficiency pupil count", the number in the preceding school year of pupils aged three through twenty-one enrolled or preparing to enroll in an elementary school or secondary school who were not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English or are Native American or Alaskan native, or a native resident of the outlying areas, and come from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on such individuals' level of English language proficiency, or are migratory, whose native language is a language other than English, and who come from an environment where a language other than English is dominant; and have difficulties in speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language sufficient to deny such individuals the ability to meet the state's proficient level of achievement on state assessments described in Public Law 107-10, the ability to achieve successfully in classrooms where the language of instruction is English, or the opportunity to participate fully in society;

(9) "Limited English proficiency threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total limited English proficiency pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(10) "Local effort":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "local effort" shall be computed as the equalized assessed valuation of the property of a school district in calendar year 2004 divided by one hundred and multiplied by the performance levy less the percentage retained by the county assessor and collector plus one hundred percent of the amount received in fiscal year 2005 for school purposes from intangible taxes, fines, escheats, payments in lieu of taxes and receipts from state-assessed railroad and utility tax, one hundred percent of the amount received for school purposes pursuant to the merchants' and manufacturers' taxes under sections 150.010 to 150.370, RSMo, one hundred percent of the amounts received for school purposes from federal properties under sections 12.070 and 12.080, RSMo, except when such amounts are used in the calculation of federal impact aid pursuant to P.L. 81-874, fifty percent of Proposition C revenues received for school purposes from the school district trust fund under section 163.087, and one hundred percent of any local earnings or income taxes received by the district for school purposes. Under this paragraph, for a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, a tax levy of zero shall be utilized in lieu of the performance levy for the special school district;

(b) In every year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, "local effort" shall be the amount calculated under paragraph (a) of this subdivision plus any increase in the amount received for school purposes from fines or less any decrease in the amount received for school purposes from fines in any school district located at least partially in any county, except in any county of the first classification with more than one hundred ninety-eight thousand but fewer than one hundred ninety-nine thousand two hundred inhabitants, that has created or creates a county municipal court after June 30, 2004. If a district's assessed valuation has decreased subsequent to the calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the district's local effort shall be calculated using the district's current assessed valuation in lieu of the assessed valuation utilized in calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

(11) "Membership" shall be the average of:

(a) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in September of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days; and

(b) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in January of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days, plus the full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils.

"Full-time equivalent number of part-time students" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all part-time students are enrolled by the number of hours in the school term. "Full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all summer school pupils were enrolled by the number of hours required pursuant to section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. Only students eligible to be counted for average daily attendance shall be counted for membership;

(12) "Operating levy for school purposes", the sum of tax rates levied for teachers' and incidental funds plus the operating levy or sales tax equivalent pursuant to section 162.1100, RSMo, of any transitional school district containing the school district, in the payment year, not including any equalized operating levy for school purposes levied by a special school district in which the district is located;

(13) "Performance district", any district that has met all performance standards and indicators as established by the department of elementary and secondary education for purposes of accreditation under section 161.092, RSMo, and as reported on the final annual performance report for that district each year;

(14) "Performance levy", three dollars and forty-three cents;

(15) "School purposes" pertains to teachers' and incidental funds;

(16) "Special education pupil count", the number of public school students with a current individualized education program and receiving services from the resident district as of December first of the preceding school year, except for special education services provided through a school district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, in which case the sum of the students in each district within the county exceeding the special education threshold of each respective district within the county shall be counted within the special district and not in the district of residence for purposes of distributing the state aid derived from the special education pupil count;

(17) "Special education threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total special education pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(18) "State adequacy target", the sum of the current operating expenditures of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, divided by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts. The department of elementary and secondary education shall first calculate the state adequacy target for fiscal year 2007 and recalculate the state adequacy target every two years using the most current available data. The recalculation shall never result in a decrease from the previous state adequacy target amount. Should a recalculation result in an increase in the state adequacy target amount, fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the year of recalculation, and fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the subsequent year. The state adequacy target may be adjusted to accommodate available appropriations;

(19) "Teacher", any teacher, teacher-secretary, substitute teacher, supervisor, principal, supervising principal, superintendent or assistant superintendent, school nurse, social worker, counselor or librarian who shall, regularly, teach or be employed for no higher than grade twelve more than one-half time in the public schools and who is certified under the laws governing the certification of teachers in Missouri;

(20) "Weighted average daily attendance", the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the number of special education pupil count that exceeds the special education threshold, and plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the number of limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. For special districts established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, weighted average daily attendance shall be the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the sum of the special education pupil count that exceeds the threshold for each county district, plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. None of the districts comprising a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, shall use any special education pupil count in calculating their weighted average daily attendance."; and

Further amend said amendment, Page10, Section B, Line 29, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section F. Because of the need to provide a quality education for Missouri students, sections 163.011 and 163.031 are deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and sections 163.011 and 163.031 shall be in full force and effect on July 1, 2006, or upon its passage and approval, whichever comes later."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O LORD, You are God; we exalt You, we praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things, even Your purposes planned of old [and fulfilled] in faithfulness and truth.

Lord, You have granted us peace, for all the good we have accomplished is really from You. We trust that the decisions made this year have been more beneficial than regrettable and as we finish the tasks at hand, we continue to look to You for good judgment and understanding.

We are thankful, to have served this year and look to the days ahead with encouragement and expectation. Our appointed seasons are in Your hand and we trust You.

We finish our work this week with dignity, joy, and a sense of satisfaction of a job well done.

Now, may You, who gives us patience and encouragement, help us live in complete harmony with each other – each with the proper attitude toward one another.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Robert Naylor and Taylar Lee.

The Journal of the seventieth day was approved as printed.

Representative Richard declared the bill passed.

HCS SS SCS SB 590, as amended, with House Amendment No. 2, pending, relating to higher education, was taken up by Representative Kingery.

Representative Cooper (158) offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 2.

*House Amendment No. 1
to
House Amendment No. 2*

AMEND House Amendment No. 2 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 590, Page 1, Section 173.858, Line 5 of said amendment, by inserting immediately after the word “state” the following:

“, located in whole or in part in a city not within a county and having an enrollment of at least seven thousand full time equivalent students”; and

Further amend said amendment, Page 2, Section 173.858, Line 10 of said amendment, by inserting after immediately after all of said line the following:

“Amend said bill, Section 174.500, Page 16, Line 11, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

‘174.700. The board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university may appoint and employ as many college or university police officers as it may deem necessary to enforce regulations established under section 174.709 and general motor vehicle laws of this state in accordance with section 174.712, protect persons, property, and to preserve peace and good order only in the public buildings, properties, grounds, and other facilities and locations over which it has charge or control.

174.703. 1. The college or university police officers, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath of office before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties thereof, which oath shall be filed in the office of the board, and the secretary of the board shall give each college police officer so appointed and qualified a certificate of appointment, under the seal of the board, which certificate shall empower him or her with the same authority to maintain order, preserve peace and make arrests as is now held by peace officers.

2. The college or university police officers shall have the authority to enforce the regulations established in section 174.709 and general motor vehicle laws in accordance with section 174.712 on the campus as proscribed in chapter 304, RSMo. The college or university police officer may in addition expel from the public buildings, campuses, and grounds, persons violating the rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the board or others under the authority of the board.

3. Such officer or employee of the state college or university as may be designated by the board shall have immediate charge, control and supervision of police officers appointed by authority of this section. Such college or university police officers shall have satisfactorily completed before appointment a training course for police officers as prescribed by chapter 590, RSMo, for state peace officers or, by virtue of previous experience or training, have met the requirements of chapter 590, RSMo, and have been certified under that chapter.

174.706. Nothing in sections 174.700 to 174.706 shall be construed as denying the board the right to appoint guards or watchmen who shall not be given the authority and powers authorized by sections 174.700 to [174.706] 174.712.

174.709. 1. For the purpose of promoting public safety, health, and general welfare and to protect life and property, the board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university may establish regulations to control vehicular traffic, including speed regulations, on any thoroughfare owned or maintained by the state college or university and located within any of its campuses. Such regulations shall be consistent with the provisions of the general motor vehicle laws of this state. Upon adoption of such regulations, the state college or university shall have the authority to place official traffic control devices, as defined in section 300.010, RSMo, on campus property.

2. The regulations established by the board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university under subsection 1 of this section shall be codified, printed, and distributed for public use. Adequate signs displaying the speed limit shall be posted along such thoroughfares.

3. Violations of any regulation established under this section shall have the same effect as a violation of municipal ordinances adopted under section 304.120, RSMo, with penalty provisions as provided in section 304.570, RSMo. Points assessed against any person under section 302.302, RSMo, for a violation of this section shall be the same as provided for a violation of a county or municipal ordinance.

4. The provisions of this section shall apply only to moving violations.

174.712. All motor vehicles operated upon any thoroughfare owned or maintained by the state college or university and located within any of its campuses shall be subject to the provisions of the general motor vehicle laws of this state, including chapters 301, 302, 303, 304, 307, and 577, RSMo. Violations shall have the same effect as though such had occurred on public roads, streets, or highways of this state.' ”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Johnson (90) raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 2 was not distributed and should be read.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 590, Page 1, Line 4 of the Title, by inserting after the word “provisions” the following:

“; with an emergency clause for a certain section”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 12, Section 173.270, Line 51, by inserting after said line the following:

“173.450. Prior to any sale, transfer or liquidation of any asset, or agreement to sell, transfer, or liquidate any asset pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Missouri Higher Education Loan Authority on January 31, 2006, and readopted by the authority on March 10, 2006, the authority shall hire an independent firm to conduct an analysis of the financial and legal ramifications of the proposed sale. The financial analysis of the proposed sale shall include an actuarial analysis along with individualized findings as to the effect the proposed sale will have on the authority itself and the effect such sale will have on loan interest rates for current and future student borrowers. The legal analysis shall include findings as to the effect of the proposed sale on the status and securitization of taxable and tax-exempt bonds issued by the authority, the impact of the proposed sale on the holders of such taxable and tax-exempt bonds, and the legality of the use of funds generated from the sale of tax-exempt bonds for purposes other than those for which the bonds were issued.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 19, Section 2, Line 80, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section B. Because of the need to provide for timely review, the enactment of section 173.450 is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the enactment of section 173.450 shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

“or any similar resolution adopted by the authority”; and

Further amend said amendment, Page 2, Line 1, by inserting after the word “issued.” on said line the following:

“The analysis required by this section shall be a public record and shall be transmitted to the general assembly upon receipt by the authority.”.

On motion of Representative Storch, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Zweifel, House Amendment No. 3, as amended, was adopted.

Representative Schneider offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 590, Page 1, Section A, Line 4, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"160.545. 1. There is hereby established within the department of elementary and secondary education the "A+ Schools Program" to be administered by the commissioner of education. The program shall consist of grant awards made to public secondary schools that demonstrate a commitment to ensure that:

- (1) All students be graduated from school;
- (2) All students complete a selection of high school studies that is challenging and for which there are identified learning expectations; and
- (3) All students proceed from high school graduation to a college or postsecondary vocational or technical school or high-wage job with work place skill development opportunities.

2. The state board of education shall promulgate rules and regulations for the approval of grants made under the program to schools that:

(1) Establish measurable districtwide performance standards for the goals of the program outlined in subsection 1 of this section; and

(2) Specify the knowledge, skills and competencies, in measurable terms, that students must demonstrate to successfully complete any individual course offered by the school, and any course of studies which will qualify a student for graduation from the school; and

(3) Do not offer a general track of courses that, upon completion, can lead to a high school diploma; and

(4) Require rigorous coursework with standards of competency in basic academic subjects for students pursuing vocational and technical education as prescribed by rule and regulation of the state board of education; and

(5) Have a partnership plan developed in cooperation and with the advice of local business persons, labor leaders, parents, and representatives of college and postsecondary vocational and technical school representatives, with the plan then approved by the local board of education. The plan shall specify a mechanism to receive information on an annual basis from those who developed the plan in addition to senior citizens, community leaders, and teachers to update the plan in order to best meet the goals of the program as provided in subsection 1 of this section. Further, the plan shall detail the procedures used in the school to identify students that may drop out of school and the intervention services to be used to meet the needs of such students. The plan shall outline counseling and mentoring services provided to students who will enter the work force upon graduation from high school, address apprenticeship and intern programs, and shall contain procedures for the recruitment of volunteers from the community of the school to serve in schools receiving program grants.

3. By rule and regulation, the state board of education may determine a local school district variable fund match requirement in order for a school or schools in the district to receive a grant under the program. However, no school in any district shall receive a grant under the program unless the district designates a salaried employee to serve as the program coordinator, with the district assuming a minimum of one-half the cost of the salary and other benefits provided to the coordinator. Further, no school in any district shall receive a grant under the program unless the district makes available facilities and services for adult literacy training as specified by rule of the state board of education.

4. For any school that meets the requirements for the approval of the grants authorized by this section and specified in subsection 2 of this section for three successive school years, by August first following the third such school year, the commissioner of education shall present a plan to the superintendent of the school district in which such school is located for the waiver of rules and regulations to promote flexibility in the operations of the school and to enhance and encourage efficiency in the delivery of instructional services in the school. The provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan presented to the superintendent shall provide a summary waiver, with no conditions, for the pupil testing requirements pursuant to section 160.257 in the school. Further, the provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan shall detail a means for the waiver of requirements otherwise imposed on the school related to the authority of the state board of education to classify school districts pursuant to subdivision (9) of section 161.092, RSMo, and such other rules and regulations as determined by the commissioner of education, except such waivers shall be confined to the school and not other schools in the school district unless such other schools meet the requirements of this subsection. However, any waiver provided to any school as outlined in this subsection shall be void on June thirtieth of any school year in which the school fails to meet the requirements for the approval of the grants authorized by this section as specified in subsection 2 of this section.

5. For any school year, grants authorized by subsections 1 to 3 of this section shall be funded with the amount appropriated for this program, less those funds necessary to reimburse eligible students pursuant to subsection 6 of this section.

6. Within the limits established in subsection 8 of this section, the commissioner of education shall, by rule and regulation of the state board of education and with the advice of the coordinating board for higher education, establish a procedure for the reimbursement of the cost of tuition, books and fees to any public community college or any public or private vocational or technical school for any student:

(1) Who has attended a public high school in the state for at least three years immediately prior to graduation that meets the requirements of subsection 2 of this section, except that students who are active duty military dependents who, in the school year immediately preceding graduation, meet all other requirements of this subsection and are attending a school that meets the requirements of subsection 2 of this section shall be exempt from the three-year attendance requirement of this subdivision; and

(2) Who has made a good faith effort to first secure all available federal sources of funding that could be applied to the reimbursement described in this subsection; and

(3) Who has earned a minimal grade average while in high school as determined by rule of the state board of education, and other requirements for the reimbursement authorized by this subsection as determined by rule and regulation of said board.

7. The commissioner of education shall develop a procedure for evaluating the effectiveness of the program described in this section. Such evaluation shall be conducted annually with the results of the evaluation provided to the governor, speaker of the house, and president pro tempore of the senate.

8. For private vocational or technical schools to obtain reimbursements under subsection 6 of this section the following requirements must be satisfied:

(1) Such institutions shall both be members of the north central association and be accredited by the higher learning commission as of July 1, 2006, and maintain such accreditation;

(2) Such institutions shall be designated as 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(3) No private vocational or technical school shall receive tuition reimbursements in excess of the tuition rate charged by a public community college for course work offered by the private vocational or technical school within the service area of such community college; and

(4) The reimbursements provided to private vocational or technical schools shall not violate the provisions of article IX, section 8, or article I, section 7, of the Missouri Constitution or the first amendment of the United States Constitution."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Darrough raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 4 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

", or the official who accepted such candidate's declaration of candidacy,".

Senate Amendment No. 4

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1900, Pages 31-33, Section 115.342, by striking all of said section from the bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"115.342. 1. Any person who files as a candidate for election to an office shall be disqualified from participation in the election for which the candidate has filed if such person is delinquent in the payment of any local or state taxes, including but not limited to income taxes, personal property taxes, or any business taxes for a business in which the person has a majority interest or is a past or present corporate officer of any fee office that owes any taxes to the state.

2. Each potential candidate for election shall file an affidavit with the department of revenue and include a copy of the affidavit with the declaration of candidacy required under section 115.349, RSMo. Such affidavit shall be in substantially the following form:

"AFFIRMATION OF TAX PAYMENTS:

I hereby declare under penalties of perjury that I am not currently aware of any delinquency in the filing or payment of any local or state taxes, other than those taxes which may be in dispute.

..... Candidate's Signature

..... Printed Name of Candidate."

3. Upon receipt of a complaint alleging a delinquency of the candidate in the filing or payment of any local or state taxes, the department of revenue shall investigate such potential candidate to verify the claim contained in the complaint. If the department of revenue finds a positive affirmation to be false, the department shall contact the secretary of state and the potential candidate. The department shall notify the candidate of the outstanding tax owed and give the candidate thirty days to remit any such outstanding taxes owed which are not the subject of dispute between the department and the candidate. If the candidate fails to remit such amounts in full within thirty days, the candidate shall be disqualified from participating in the current election and barred from refiling for an entire election cycle even if the individual pays all outstanding taxes."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 5

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1900, Page 1, Section A, Line 7 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"105.456. 1. No member of the general assembly or the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state treasurer or state auditor shall:

(1) Perform any service for the state or any political subdivision of the state or any agency of the state or any political subdivision thereof or act in his or her official capacity or perform duties associated with his or her position for any person for any consideration other than the compensation provided for the performance of his or her official duties; or

(2) Sell, rent or lease any property to the state or political subdivision thereof or any agency of the state or any political subdivision thereof for consideration in excess of five hundred dollars per transaction or one thousand five hundred dollars per annum unless the transaction is made pursuant to an award on a contract let or sale made after public notice and in the case of property other than real property, competitive bidding, provided that the bid or offer accepted is the lowest received; or

(3) Attempt, for compensation other than the compensation provided for the performance of his or her official duties, to influence the decision of any agency of the state on any matter, except that this provision shall not be construed to prohibit such person from participating for compensation in any adversary proceeding or in the preparation or filing of any public document or conference thereon. The exception for a conference upon a public document shall not permit any member of the general assembly or the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state treasurer or state auditor to receive any consideration for the purpose of attempting to influence the decision of any agency of the state on behalf of any person with regard to any application, bid or request for a state grant, loan, appropriation, contract, award, permit other than matters involving a driver's license, or job before any state agency, commission, or elected official. Notwithstanding Missouri supreme court rule 1.10 of rule 4 or any other court rule or law to the contrary, other members of a firm, professional corporation or partnership shall not be prohibited pursuant to this subdivision from representing a person or other entity solely because a member of the firm, professional corporation or partnership serves in the general assembly, provided that such official does not share directly in the compensation earned, so far as the same may reasonably be accounted, for such activity by the firm or by any other member of the firm. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit any inquiry for information or the representation of a person without consideration before a state agency or in a matter involving the state if no consideration is given, charged or promised in consequence thereof;

(4) Be under contract to or be an employee of a firm whose primary mission is to influence the decisions of the general assembly, any state agency, or any political subdivision.

2. No sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, or corporation in which a member of the general assembly, governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or spouse of such official, is the sole proprietor, a partner having more than a ten percent partnership interest, or a coparticipant or owner of in excess of ten percent of the outstanding shares of any class of stock, shall:

(1) Perform any service for the state or any political subdivision thereof or any agency of the state or political subdivision for any consideration in excess of five hundred dollars per transaction or one thousand five hundred dollars per annum unless the transaction is made pursuant to an award on a contract let or sale made after public notice and competitive bidding, provided that the bid or offer accepted is the lowest received; or

(2) Sell, rent, or lease any property to the state or any political subdivision thereof or any agency of the state or political subdivision thereof for consideration in excess of five hundred dollars per transaction or one thousand five hundred dollars per annum unless the transaction is made pursuant to an award on a contract let or a sale made after public notice and in the case of property other than real property, competitive bidding, provided that the bid or offer accepted is the lowest and best received."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1900, Page 59, Section 130.046, Line 2, by striking the word "aggregate"; and Further amend said page and line, by striking the following "five hundred" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"two hundred fifty".

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate refuses to concur in HCS SS SCS SB 894, as amended, and requests the House recede from its position and failing to do so grant the Senate a conference thereon.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has re-appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SS#2 SCS SBs 1014 & 730, as amended: Senators Scott, Gibbons, Vogel, Coleman and Callahan.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

The Speaker appointed the following Conference Committees to act with like Committees from the Senate on the following bills:

SS#2 SCS HCS HB 1456: Representatives Roark, Hunter, Day, Burnett and Walsh

HCS SS SB 696: Representatives Flook, Richard, Pearce, Bowman and Kratky

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden resumed the Chair.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

HCS SS SCS SB 904, relating to management of state buildings, was taken up by Representative Lembke.

Representative Lembke offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 904, Page 2, Section 8.010, Line 1, by inserting immediately before all of said section the following:

"8.007. 1. The commission shall:

- (1) Exercise general supervision of the administration of sections 8.001 to 8.007;
- (2) Evaluate and recommend courses of action on the restoration and preservation of the capitol, the preservation of historical significance of the capitol and the history of the capitol;
- (3) Evaluate and recommend courses of action to ensure accessibility to the capitol for physically disabled persons;
- (4) Advise, consult, and cooperate with the office of administration, the archives division of the office of the secretary of state, the historic preservation program within the department of natural resources, the division of tourism within the department of economic development and the historical society of Missouri in furtherance of the purposes of sections 8.001 to 8.007;
- (5) Be authorized to cooperate or collaborate with other state agencies and not-for-profit organizations to publish books and manuals concerning the history of the capitol, its improvement or restoration;
- (6) Before each September first, recommend options to the governor on budget allocation for improvements or restoration of the capitol premises;
- (7) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, investigations, and research and demonstrations relating to improvement and restoration of the state capitol it may deem advisable and necessary for the discharge of its duties pursuant to sections 8.001 to 8.007; [and]
- (8) Hold hearings, issue notices of hearings and take testimony as the commission deems necessary; and
- (9) Assume the responsibilities of the capitol review commission and develop written policy that establishes guidelines for selection and placement of plaques, monuments, statues, pictures, and other articles in or on all buildings and grounds at the seat of government and make a determination after a review of all requests from entreating parties as to the installation of such articles.

2. The "Second Capitol Commission Fund" is hereby created in the state treasury. Any moneys received from sources other than appropriation by the general assembly, including from private sources, gifts, donations and grants, shall be credited to the second capitol commission fund and shall be appropriated by the general assembly.

3. The provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, moneys in the second capitol commission fund shall not be transferred and placed to the credit of the general revenue fund.

4. The commission is authorized to accept all gifts, bequests and donations from any source whatsoever. The commission may also apply for and receive grants consistent with the purposes of sections 8.001 to 8.007. All such gifts, bequests, donations and grants shall be used or expended upon appropriation in accordance with their terms or stipulations, and the gifts, bequests, donations or grants may be used or expended for the preservation, restoration and improved accessibility and for promoting the historical significance of the capitol.

5. The commission may copyright or obtain a trademark for any photograph, written work, art object or any product created of the capital or capital grounds. The commission may grant access, or use, of any such works to other organizations or individuals for a fee, or at its sole discretion, or waive all fees. All funds obtained through licensing fees shall be credited to the capital commission fund, in a manner similar to funds the commission receives as gifts, donations, and grants. The funds shall be used for repairs, refurbishing, or to create art, exhibits, decorations or other beautifications or adornments to the capital or its grounds."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 8.420, Line 1, by inserting immediately before all of said section the following:

"8.250. 1. "Project" for the purposes of this [chapter] section means the labor or material necessary for the construction, renovation, or repair of improvements to real property so that the work, when complete, shall be ready for service for its intended purpose and shall require no other work to be a completed system or component.

2. All contracts for projects[, the cost of which exceeds twenty-five] costing more than one hundred thousand dollars[,] that are entered into by any officer or agency of this state or of any city containing five hundred thousand inhabitants or more shall be let to the lowest, responsive, responsible bidder or bidders after notice and publication of an advertisement for five days in a daily newspaper in the county where the work is located, or at least twice over a period of ten days or more in a newspaper in the county where the work is located, and in [two] one daily [newspapers] newspaper in the state which [do] does not have less than fifty thousand daily circulation, and by such other means as are determined to be most likely to reach potential bidders. For all contracts for projects between ten thousand and one hundred thousand dollars, a minimum of three contractors will be solicited, with award being made to the lowest, responsive, responsible bidder or a previously bid standing contract may be utilized.

3. The number of such public bids shall not be restricted or curtailed, but shall be open to all persons complying with the terms upon which the bids are requested or solicited unless debarred for cause. No contract shall be awarded when the amount appropriated for same is not sufficient to complete the work ready for service.

4. Dividing a project into component labor or material allocations for the purpose of avoiding bidding or advertising provisions required by this section is specifically prohibited."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 8.1000, Line 1, by deleting all of Subsection 1 and renumbering the rest of said section accordingly; and

Further amend said bill, Page 23, Section 701.450, Line 1, by inserting immediately before all of said section the following:

"107.170. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Contractor", a person or business entity who provides construction services under contract to a public entity. Contractor specifically does not include professional engineers, architects or land surveyors licensed pursuant to chapter 327, RSMo, those who provide environmental assessment services or those who design, create or otherwise provide works of art under a city's formally established program for the acquisition and installation of works of art and other aesthetic adornments to public buildings and property;

(2) "Public entity", any official, board, commission or agency of this state or any county, city, town, township, school, road district or other political subdivision of this state;

(3) "Public works", the erection, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of any building, road, street, public utility or other public facility owned by the public entity.

2. (1) It is hereby made the duty of all public entities in this state, in making contracts for public works[, the cost of which is] estimated to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, to be performed for the public entity, to require every contractor for such work to furnish to the public entity, a bond with good and sufficient sureties, in an amount fixed by the public entity, and such bond, among other conditions, shall be conditioned for the payment of any and all materials, incorporated, consumed or used in connection with the construction of such work, and all insurance premiums, both for compensation, and for all other kinds of insurance, said work, and for all labor performed in such work whether by subcontractor or otherwise.

(2) The office of administration of the state of Missouri may waive the requirement for bonding established in subdivision (1) of this subsection for contracts that do not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

3. All bonds executed and furnished under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to contain the requirements and conditions as herein set out, regardless of whether the same be set forth in said bond, or of any terms or provisions of said bond to the contrary notwithstanding.

4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a member of the school board of any public school district of this state to independently confirm the existence or solvency of any bonding company if a contractor represents to the member that the bonding company is solvent and that the representations made in the purported bond are true and correct. This subsection shall not relieve from any liability any school board member who has any actual knowledge of the insolvency of any bonding company, or any school board member who does not act in good faith in complying with the provisions of subsection 2 of this section.

5. A public entity may defend, save harmless and indemnify any of its officers and employees, whether elective or appointive, against any claim or demand, whether groundless or otherwise arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring in the performance of a duty under this section. The provisions of this subsection do not apply in case of malfeasance in office or willful or wanton neglect of duty."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 23, Section 701.450, Line 1, by inserting immediately before all of said section the following:

"610.021. Except to the extent disclosure is otherwise required by law, a public governmental body is authorized to close meetings, records and votes, to the extent they relate to the following:

(1) Legal actions, causes of action or litigation involving a public governmental body and any confidential or privileged communications between a public governmental body or its representatives and its attorneys. However, any minutes, vote or settlement agreement relating to legal actions, causes of action or litigation involving a public governmental body or any agent or entity representing its interests or acting on its behalf or with its authority, including any insurance company acting on behalf of a public government body as its insured, shall be made public upon final disposition of the matter voted upon or upon the signing by the parties of the settlement agreement, unless, prior to final disposition, the settlement agreement is ordered closed by a court after a written finding that the adverse impact to a plaintiff or plaintiffs to the action clearly outweighs the public policy considerations of section 610.011, however, the amount of any moneys paid by, or on behalf of, the public governmental body shall be disclosed; provided, however, in matters involving the exercise of the power of eminent domain, the vote shall be announced or become public immediately following the action on the motion to authorize institution of such a legal action. Legal work product shall be considered a closed record;

(2) Leasing, purchase or sale of real estate by a public governmental body where public knowledge of the transaction might adversely affect the legal consideration therefor. However, any minutes, vote or public record approving a contract relating to the leasing, purchase or sale of real estate by a public governmental body shall be made public upon execution of the lease, purchase or sale of the real estate;

(3) Hiring, firing, disciplining or promoting of particular employees by a public governmental body when personal information about the employee is discussed or recorded. However, any vote on a final decision, when taken by a public governmental body, to hire, fire, promote or discipline an employee of a public governmental body shall be made available with a record of how each member voted to the public within seventy-two hours of the close of the meeting where such action occurs; provided, however, that any employee so affected shall be entitled to prompt notice of such decision during the seventy-two-hour period before such decision is made available to the public. As used in this subdivision, the term "personal information" means information relating to the performance or merit of individual employees;

(4) The state militia or national guard or any part thereof;

(5) Nonjudicial mental or physical health proceedings involving identifiable persons, including medical, psychiatric, psychological, or alcoholism or drug dependency diagnosis or treatment;

(6) Scholastic probation, expulsion, or graduation of identifiable individuals, including records of individual test or examination scores; however, personally identifiable student records maintained by public educational institutions shall be open for inspection by the parents, guardian or other custodian of students under the age of eighteen years and by the parents, guardian or other custodian and the student if the student is over the age of eighteen years;

(7) Testing and examination materials, before the test or examination is given or, if it is to be given again, before so given again;

(8) Welfare cases of identifiable individuals;

(9) Preparation, including any discussions or work product, on behalf of a public governmental body or its representatives for negotiations with employee groups;

(10) Software codes for electronic data processing and documentation thereof;

(11) Specifications for competitive bidding, until either the specifications are officially approved by the public governmental body or the specifications are published for bid;

(12) Sealed bids [and related documents], until the bids are opened; all related documents, until the intent to award notice has been mailed; and sealed proposals and related documents or any documents related to a negotiated contract until a contract is executed, or all proposals are rejected;

(13) Individually identifiable personnel records, performance ratings or records pertaining to employees or applicants for employment, except that this exemption shall not apply to the names, positions, salaries and lengths of service of officers and employees of public agencies once they are employed as such, and the names of private sources donating or contributing money to the salary of a chancellor or president at all public colleges and universities in the state of Missouri and the amount of money contributed by the source;

(14) Records which are protected from disclosure by law;

(15) Meetings and public records relating to scientific and technological innovations in which the owner has a proprietary interest;

(16) Records relating to municipal hotlines established for the reporting of abuse and wrongdoing;

(17) Confidential or privileged communications between a public governmental body and its auditor, including all auditor work product; however, all final audit reports issued by the auditor are to be considered open records pursuant to this chapter;

(18) Operational guidelines and policies developed, adopted, or maintained by any public agency responsible for law enforcement, public safety, first response, or public health for use in responding to or preventing any critical incident which is or appears to be terrorist in nature and which has the potential to endanger individual or public safety or health. Nothing in this exception shall be deemed to close information regarding expenditures, purchases, or contracts made by an agency in implementing these guidelines or policies. When seeking to close information pursuant to this exception, the agency shall affirmatively state in writing that disclosure would impair its ability to protect the safety or health of persons, and shall in the same writing state that the public interest in nondisclosure outweighs the public interest in disclosure of the records. This exception shall sunset on December 31, 2008;

(19) Existing or proposed security systems and structural plans of real property owned or leased by a public governmental body, and information that is voluntarily submitted by a nonpublic entity owning or operating an infrastructure to any public governmental body for use by that body to devise plans for protection of that infrastructure, the public disclosure of which would threaten public safety:

(a) Records related to the procurement of or expenditures relating to security systems purchased with public funds shall be open;

(b) When seeking to close information pursuant to this exception, the public governmental body shall affirmatively state in writing that disclosure would impair the public governmental body's ability to protect the security or safety of persons or real property, and shall in the same writing state that the public interest in nondisclosure outweighs the public interest in disclosure of the records;

(c) Records that are voluntarily submitted by a nonpublic entity shall be reviewed by the receiving agency within ninety days of submission to determine if retention of the document is necessary in furtherance of a state security interest. If retention is not necessary, the documents shall be returned to the nonpublic governmental body or destroyed;

(d) This exception shall sunset on December 31, 2008;

(20) Records that identify the configuration of components or the operation of a computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network, and would allow unauthorized access to or unlawful disruption of a computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network of a public governmental body. This exception shall not be used to limit or deny access to otherwise public records in a file, document, data file or database containing public records. Records related to the procurement of or expenditures relating to such computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network, including the amount of moneys paid by, or on behalf of, a public governmental body for such computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network shall be open; and

(21) Credit card numbers, personal identification numbers, digital certificates, physical and virtual keys, access codes or authorization codes that are used to protect the security of electronic transactions between a public governmental body and a person or entity doing business with a public governmental body. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to close the record of a person or entity using a credit card held in the name of a public governmental body or any record of a transaction made by a person using a credit card or other method of payment for which reimbursement is made by a public governmental body."; and

Representative Harris (110) offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

to

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Amendment No. 1 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 904, Page 8, Section 107.170, Line 6, by inserting:

"6. Any assets or funds from the proceeds, fees or revenues, however such assets or funds were acquired, of the higher education loan authority established pursuant to section 173.360, RSMo, that are transferred to or used by the state or any department, division, agency or board of the state, shall not be used in connection with any activity prohibited by section 196.1127, RSMo."; and

Further amend the title, enacting clause and intersection references of said bill accordingly.

Representative Zweifel offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 904, Page 1, Line 3 of the Title, by inserting after the word “provisions” the following:

“and an emergency clause for a certain section”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 14, Section 1, Line 6, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section 2. Prior to any sale, transfer or liquidation of any asset, or agreement to sell, transfer, or liquidate any asset pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Missouri Higher Education Loan Authority on January 31, 2006, and readopted by the authority on March 10, 2006, the authority shall hire an independent firm to conduct an analysis of the financial and legal ramifications of the proposed sale. The financial analysis of the proposed sale shall include an actuarial analysis along with individualized findings as to the effect the proposed sale will have on the authority itself and the effect such sale will have on loan interest rates for current and future student borrowers. The legal analysis shall include findings as to the effect of the proposed sale on the status and securitization of taxable and tax-exempt bonds issued by the authority, the impact of the proposed sale on the holders of such taxable and tax-exempt bonds, and the legality of the use of funds generated from the sale of tax-exempt bonds for purposes other than those for which the bonds were issued.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 14, Section 2, by inserting after all of said section the following:

“Section B. Because of the need to provide for timely review, the enactment of section 2 is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the enactment of section 2 shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 4 was withdrawn.

On motion of Representative Yates, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Walsh offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 904, Page 14, Section 1, Line 6, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section 1. 1. Every contractor or other employer working on a public works project in this state shall require each newly hired independent contractor to fill out a federal W-9 form. Copies of the forms shall be forwarded to the department of revenue within thirty days from the hiring of each independent contractor.

2. Any contractor or other employer working on a public works project in this state shall not, in an attempt to avoid tax liability or reporting requirements for any employee, avoid payments to the unemployment compensation fund under chapter 288, RSMo, or avoid payments to the second injury fund under chapter 287, RSMo, denote or treat such employee as an independent contractor, contract labor, or any other term or category implying the absence of an employment relationship.

3. Any interested party, including a bidder, contractor, subcontractor or any person employed on a public works project, or the department of revenue may, upon reasonable suspicion that any contractor or subcontractor is currently or has misclassified employees as independent contractors, file a complaint with the labor and industrial relations commission alleging a violation of this section.

4. Upon receiving such a complaint, the labor and industrial relations commission shall investigate each claim for a determination of a violation of this section. In determining whether there was a violation of this section, the commission shall compel each contractor or subcontractor to provide records documenting each independent contractor's job title, a description of the work performed on the project and the number of hours the individual in question has worked on the project. Within sixty days of receiving a complaint under this section, the commission shall conduct a hearing to determine a violation of this section. At the hearing, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that any independent contractor who has logged two thousand eighty hours on the project has been misclassified as an independent contractor. This presumption may be rebutted if the employer establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the independent contractor in question was properly classified. The commission shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the commission. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the commission, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the commission is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt.

5. Either party may appeal the commission's finding to the circuit court of Cole County.

6. Any such contractor or other employer who misclassifies an employee as an independent contractor or otherwise misclassifies the employee's employment status shall be fined an amount equal to twice the amount of tax otherwise due on the employee's taxable wages, payments otherwise due to the unemployment compensation fund under chapter 288, RSMo, and payments otherwise due to the second injury fund under chapter 287, RSMo, to be paid to the department of labor.

7. No such contractor or other employer shall terminate or in any manner discriminate against an employee because the employee has communicated to the employer the intent to seek reclassification as an employee instead of an independent contractor or has communicated the intent to file an action alleging a violation of this section.

8. The director of revenue is authorized to take all necessary action to enforce the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, taking all actions necessary to collect the fines and taxes due under this section. The director of revenue shall direct to the unemployment compensation fund and to the second injury fund amounts that are collected for payments due to those funds."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Walsh, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Bringer offered House Amendment No. 6.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden resumed the Chair.

Representative Flook raised a point of order that House Amendment No. 6 is not germane and goes beyond the scope of the bill.

Representative Smith (14) offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 67.1545, Page 5, Line 25, by inserting an open bracket "[" before "32.097"; and

Further amend said line, by inserting a closed bracket "]" immediately after "32.097"; and

Further amend said line, by inserting immediately after the word "section", the following "32.087"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Smith (14), House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Sutherland offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 67.1451, Page 4, Line 74, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“67.1461. 1. Each district shall have all the powers, except to the extent any such power has been limited by the petition approved by the governing body of the municipality to establish the district, necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571 including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) To adopt, amend, and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with sections 67.1401 to 67.1571, necessary or convenient to carry out the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(2) To sue and be sued;

(3) To make and enter into contracts and other instruments, with public and private entities, necessary or convenient to exercise its powers and carry out its duties pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(4) To accept grants, guarantees and donations of property, labor, services, or other things of value from any public or private source;

(5) To employ or contract for such managerial, engineering, legal, technical, clerical, accounting, or other assistance as it deems advisable;

(6) To acquire by purchase, lease, gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise, any real property within its boundaries, personal property, or any interest in such property;

(7) To sell, lease, exchange, transfer, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber or dispose of any real or personal property or any interest in such property;

(8) To levy and collect special assessments and taxes as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571. However, no such assessments or taxes shall be levied on any property exempt from taxation pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo. Those exempt pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo, may voluntarily participate in the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(9) If the district is a political subdivision, to levy real property taxes and business license taxes in the county seat of a county of the first classification containing a population of at least two hundred thousand, as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571. However, no such assessments or taxes shall be levied on any property exempt from taxation pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo. Those exempt pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo, may voluntarily participate in the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(10) If the district is a political subdivision, to levy sales taxes pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(11) To fix, charge, and collect fees, rents, and other charges for use of any of the following:

(a) The district's real property, except for public rights-of-way for utilities;

(b) The district's personal property, except in a city not within a county; or

(c) Any of the district's interests in such real or personal property, except for public rights-of-way for utilities;

(12) To borrow money from any public or private source and issue obligations and provide security for the repayment of the same as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(13) To loan money as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(14) To make expenditures, create reserve funds, and use its revenues as necessary to carry out its powers or duties and the provisions and purposes of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(15) To enter into one or more agreements with the municipality for the purpose of abating any public nuisance within the boundaries of the district including, but not limited to, the stabilization, repair or maintenance or demolition and removal of buildings or structures, provided that the municipality has declared the existence of a public nuisance;

(16) Within its boundaries, to provide assistance to or to construct, reconstruct, install, repair, maintain, and equip any of the following public improvements:

(a) Pedestrian or shopping malls and plazas;

(b) Parks, lawns, trees, and any other landscape;

(c) Convention centers, arenas, aquariums, aviaries, and meeting facilities;

(d) Sidewalks, streets, alleys, bridges, ramps, tunnels, overpasses and underpasses, traffic signs and signals, utilities, drainage, water, storm and sewer systems, and other site improvements;

(e) Parking lots, garages, or other facilities;

(f) Lakes, dams, and waterways;

(g) Streetscape, lighting, benches or other seating furniture, trash receptacles, marquees, awnings, canopies, walls, and barriers;

(h) Telephone and information booths, bus stop and other shelters, rest rooms, and kiosks;

(i) Paintings, murals, display cases, sculptures, and fountains;

(j) Music, news, and child-care facilities; and

(k) Any other useful, necessary, or desired improvement;

(17) To dedicate to the municipality, with the municipality's consent, streets, sidewalks, parks, and other real property and improvements located within its boundaries for public use;

(18) Within its boundaries and with the municipality's consent, to prohibit or restrict vehicular and pedestrian traffic and vendors on streets, alleys, malls, bridges, ramps, sidewalks, and tunnels and to provide the means for access by emergency vehicles to or in such areas;

(19) Within its boundaries, to operate or to contract for the provision of music, news, child-care, or parking facilities, and buses, minibuses, or other modes of transportation;

(20) Within its boundaries, to lease space for sidewalk cafe tables and chairs;

(21) Within its boundaries, to provide or contract for the provision of security personnel, equipment, or facilities for the protection of property and persons;

(22) Within its boundaries, to provide or contract for cleaning, maintenance, and other services to public and private property;

(23) To produce and promote any tourism, recreational or cultural activity or special event in the district by, but not limited to, advertising, decoration of any public place in the district, promotion of such activity and special events, and furnishing music in any public place;

(24) To support business activity and economic development in the district including, but not limited to, the promotion of business activity, development and retention, and the recruitment of developers and businesses;

(25) To provide or support training programs for employees of businesses within the district;

(26) To provide refuse collection and disposal services within the district;

(27) To contract for or conduct economic, planning, marketing or other studies;

(28) To repair, restore, or maintain any abandoned cemetery on public or private land within the district; and

(29) To carry out any other powers set forth in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571.

2. Each district which is located in a blighted area or which includes a blighted area shall have the following additional powers:

(1) Within its blighted area, to contract with any private property owner to demolish and remove, renovate, reconstruct, or rehabilitate any building or structure owned by such private property owner; and

(2) To expend its revenues or loan its revenues pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to this subsection, provided that the governing body of the municipality has determined that the action to be taken pursuant to such contract is reasonably anticipated to remediate the blighting conditions and will serve a public purpose.

3. Each district shall annually reimburse the municipality for the reasonable and actual expenses incurred by the municipality to establish such district and review annual budgets and reports of such district required to be submitted to the municipality; provided that, such annual reimbursement shall not exceed one and one-half percent of the revenues collected by the district in such year.

4. Nothing in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571 shall be construed to delegate to any district any sovereign right of municipalities to promote order, safety, health, morals, and general welfare of the public, except those such police powers, if any, expressly delegated pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571.

5. The governing body of the municipality establishing the district shall not decrease the level of publicly funded services in the district existing prior to the creation of the district or transfer the financial burden of providing the services to the district unless the services at the same time are decreased throughout the municipality, nor shall the governing body discriminate in the provision of the publicly funded services between areas included in such district and areas not so included.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Sutherland, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Nolte offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 1, Section A, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"52.230. Each year the collectors of revenue in all counties of the first class not having a charter form of government, and in all second, third and fourth class counties of the state, not under township organization, shall mail to all resident taxpayers, at least [fifteen] thirty days prior to delinquent date, a statement of all real and tangible personal property taxes due and assessed on the current tax books in the name of the taxpayers. Such statement shall also include the amount of real and tangible personal property taxes delinquent at the time of the mailing of the statement, including any interest and penalties associated with the delinquent taxes. Such statement shall declare upon its face, or by an attachment thereto, that they are delinquent at the time such statement is mailed for an amount of real or tangible personal property taxes, or both. Collectors shall also mail tax receipts for all the taxes received by mail."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Nolte, House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

Representative Ruestman offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 67.2510, Page 7, Line 14, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"94.950. 1. As used in this section, "museum" means museums operating or to be built in the city and that are registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) corporation, or an organization that is registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) corporation and that develops, promotes, or operates historical locations or preservation sites.

2. The governing body of any home rule city with more than forty-five thousand five hundred but fewer than forty-five thousand nine hundred inhabitants and partially located in any county of the first classification with more than one hundred four thousand six hundred but fewer than one hundred four thousand seven hundred inhabitants may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made within the city which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not exceed one-half of one percent, and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of funding the operation, construction, or renovation of historical locations and museums to promote tourism. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance shall not become effective unless the governing body of the city submits to the voters residing within the city at a state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the city to impose a tax under this section.

3. The ballot of submission for the tax authorized in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the city) impose a sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent, solely for the purpose of funding the operation, construction, or renovation of historical locations and museums to promote tourism?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter immediately following notification to the department of revenue. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the tax shall not become effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

4. All revenue collected under this section by the director of the department of revenue on behalf of any city, except for one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created and shall be known as the "Local Option Museum Sales Tax Trust Fund", and shall be used solely for the designated purposes. Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the city for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such city. Any funds in the trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the city that levied the sales tax.

5. On or after the effective date of the tax, the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the city may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, RSMo, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the city shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

6. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.524, RSMo, governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, RSMo, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for the tax and penalty under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalties shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

7. The governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters on any date available for elections for the city. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the city) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of funding the operation, construction, or renovation of historical locations and museums to promote tourism?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. Whenever the governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by a number of registered voters of the city equal to at least two percent of the number of registered voters of the city voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the city a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

9. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the city shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least thirty days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such city, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the city and close the account of that city. The director shall notify each city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city."; and

to
House Amendment No. 4*

AMEND House Amendment No. 4 to House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 5, Line 16, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"94.860. 1. The governing body of any municipalities located in whole or in part within any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants is hereby authorized to impose, by ordinance or order, a sales tax in the amount of up to one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such municipality, which are subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the purpose of improving the public safety for such municipality, including but not limited to expenditures on equipment, municipal employee salaries and benefits, contractual payments for public safety services, and facilities for police, fire and emergency medical providers. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any other sales taxes allowed by law. No ordinance or order imposing a sales tax pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be effective unless the governing body of the municipality submits to the voters of the municipality, at a county or state general, primary, or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing body of the municipality to impose a tax.

2. If the proposal submitted involves only authorization to impose the tax authorized by this section, the ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the municipality of (municipality's name) impose a sales tax of (insert amount) for the purpose of improving the public safety of the municipality?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal submitted pursuant to this subsection, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect on the first day of the second quarter immediately following the election approving the proposal. If a proposal receives less than the required majority, then the governing body of the municipality shall have no power to impose the sales tax herein authorized unless and until the governing body of the municipality shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the governing body of the municipality to impose the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

3. Within thirty days of the approval of a public safety sales tax pursuant to this section, the governing body shall choose one of the following options:

(1) OPTION 1. Eighty-five percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 1 of the trust fund created in subsection 4 of this section and shall be returned to that municipality as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 4 of this section. Fifteen percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund created in, and allocated as provided in, subdivision (2) of subsection 4 of this section;

(2) OPTION 2. One hundred percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund created in, and allocated as provided in, subdivision (2) of subsection 4 of this section.

4. The moneys shall be retained in two separate subaccounts in the "Municipal Public Safety Sales Tax Fund" which is hereby created. Moneys in the fund shall be distributed to each municipality as follows:

(1) For municipalities choosing Option 1, eighty-five percent of the taxes collected within each municipality and retained in subaccount 1 of the trust fund shall be returned to each municipality;

(2) For municipalities choosing Option 2, the moneys retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund shall be distributed to each municipality based on the percentage ratio that the population of that municipality bears to the total population of all of the municipalities choosing Option 2.

5. All revenue received by a municipality from the tax authorized under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for improving the public safety for such municipality for so long as the tax shall remain in effect. Once the tax authorized by this section is abolished or is terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall be used solely for improving public safety for the municipality. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other municipal funds.

6. All sales taxes collected by the director of the department of revenue under this section on behalf of any municipality, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, RSMo, shall be deposited in the special trust fund created in subsection 4 of this section. The moneys in the trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director of the department of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust and which was collected in each municipality imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the municipality and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the director of the department of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the municipality which levied the tax, such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of each such municipality, and all expenditures of funds arising from the trust fund shall be by an appropriation act to be enacted by the governing body of each such municipality. Expenditures may be made from the fund for any functions authorized in the ordinance or order adopted by the governing body submitting the tax to the voters.

7. The director of the department of revenue may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any municipality for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such municipalities. If any municipality abolishes the tax, the municipality shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal and the director of the department of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such municipality, the director of the department of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the municipality and close the account of that municipality. The director of the department of revenue shall notify each municipality of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the municipality.

8. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply to the tax imposed under this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 144.030, Page 23, Line 72, by inserting an open bracket "[" before the word, "solely"; and

Further amend said line, by inserting a closed bracket "]" immediately after the word, "solely"; and

Further amend said section, Page 23, Line 73, by inserting an open bracket "[" before the words, "in interstate commerce"; and

Further amend said line, by inserting a closed bracket "]" immediately after the words, "in interstate commerce"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 29, Section 144.054, Line 20, by inserting after said line the following:

“144.062. 1. With respect to exempt sales at retail of tangible personal property and materials for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for:

(1) A county, other political subdivision or instrumentality thereof exempt from taxation under subdivision (10) of section 39 of article III of the Constitution of Missouri; or

(2) An organization sales to which are exempt from taxation under the provisions of subdivision (19) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or

(3) Any institution of higher education supported by public funds or any private not-for-profit institution of higher education, exempt from taxation under subdivision (20) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or

(4) Any private not-for-profit elementary or secondary school exempt from taxation under subdivision (22) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or

(5) After June 30, 2007, the department of transportation or the state highways and transportation commission, hereinafter collectively referred to as exempt entities, such exemptions shall be allowed for such purchases if the purchases are related to the entities' exempt functions and activities. In addition, the sales shall not be rendered nonexempt nor shall any material supplier or contractor be obligated to pay, collect or remit sales tax with respect to such purchases made by or on behalf of an exempt entity due to such purchases being billed to or paid for by a contractor or the exempt entity contracting with any entity to render any services in relation to such purchases, including but not limited to selection of materials, ordering, pickup, delivery, approval on delivery, taking of delivery, transportation, storage, assumption of risk of loss to materials or providing warranties on materials as specified by contract, use of materials or other purchases for construction of the building or other facility, providing labor, management services, administrative services, design or technical services or advice to the exempt entity, whether or not the contractor or other entity exercises dominion or control in any other manner over the materials in conjunction with services or labor provided to the exempt entity. One half of the savings realized, by the department of transportation or the state highways and transportation commission, from being a tax-exempt entity shall be applied to the unfunded liability of the Missouri Department of Transportation and Highway Patrol Employees' Retirement System and can not be used to supplant the actuarially required contribution payment.

2. When any exempt entity contracts for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities, and purchases of tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project are to be made on a tax-exempt basis, such entity shall furnish to the contractor an exemption certificate authorizing such purchases for the construction, repair or remodeling project. The form and content of such project exemption certificate shall be approved by the director of revenue. The project exemption certificate shall include but not be limited to:

(1) The exempt entity's name, address, Missouri tax identification number and signature of authorized representative;

(2) The project location, description, and unique identification number;

(3) The date the contract is entered into, which is the earliest date materials may be purchased for the project on a tax-exempt basis;

(4) The estimated project completion date; and

(5) The certificate expiration date.

Such certificate is renewable for a given project at the option of the exempt entity, only for the purpose of revising the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete the project.

3. The contractor shall furnish the certificate prescribed in subsection 2 of this section to all subcontractors, and any contractor purchasing materials shall present such certificate to all material suppliers as authorization to purchase, on behalf of the exempt entity, all tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of that project and no other on a tax-exempt basis. Such suppliers shall execute to the purchasing contractor invoices bearing the name of the exempt entity and the project identification number. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt the purchase of any construction machinery, equipment or tools used in constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for the exempt entity. All invoices for all personal property and materials purchased under a project exemption certificate shall be retained by the purchasing contractor for a period of five years and shall be subject to audit by the director of revenue.

4. Any excess resalable tangible personal property or materials which were purchased for the project by a contractor under a project exemption certificate but which were not incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project shall either be returned to the supplier for credit or the appropriate sales or use tax on such excess property or materials shall be reported on a return and paid by such contractor not later than the due date of the contractor's

Missouri sales or use tax return following the month in which it was determined that the materials were not to be used in the project.

5. No contractor or material supplier shall, upon audit, be required to pay tax on tangible personal property and materials incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project, due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete any work required by the contract. If it is determined that tax is owed on such property and materials due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise such certificate expiration date, the exempt entity shall be liable for the tax owed.

6. If an entity issues exemption certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of its project and such entity is found not to have had the authority granted by this section to issue such exemption certificates, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials. In addition, if an entity which does have the authority granted by this section to issue exemption certificates issues such certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of a project, or part of a project, which is found not to be related to such entity's exempt functions and activities, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Faith, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Tilley offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 2, Section 55.190, Line 13, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"67.997. 1. The governing body of any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than eighteen thousand one hundred but fewer than eighteen thousand two hundred inhabitants may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made within the county which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not exceed one-fourth of one percent, and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of funding senior services and youth programs provided by the county. One-half of all revenue collected under this section shall be used solely to fund any service or activity deemed necessary by the senior service tax commission established in this section, and one-half of all revenue collected under this section shall be used solely to fund all youth programs administered by an existing county community task force. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance shall not become effective unless the governing body of the county submits to the voters residing within the county at a state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose a tax under this section.

2. The ballot of submission for the tax authorized in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the county) impose a sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent, with half of the revenue from the tax to be used solely to fund senior services provided by the county and half of the revenue from the tax to be used solely to fund youth programs provided by the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter immediately following the approval of the tax or notification to the department of revenue if such tax will be administered by the department of revenue. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the tax shall not become effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

3. On or after the effective date of any tax authorized under this section, the county which imposed the tax may adopt one of the two following provisions for the collection and administration of the tax:

(1) The county may adopt rules for the internal collection of such tax by the county officers usually responsible for collection and administration of county taxes; or

(2) The county may enter into an agreement with the director of the department of revenue for the purpose of collecting the tax authorized in this section. In the event the county enters into an agreement with the director of revenue for the collection of the tax, on or after the effective date of the tax the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply. All revenue collected under this section by the director of the department of revenue on behalf of any county, except for one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created and shall be known as the "Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax Trust Fund", and shall be used solely for the designated purposes. Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such county. Any funds in the special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

4. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the county may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, RSMo, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the county shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

5. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.524, RSMo, governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, RSMo, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for taxes and penalty under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

6. The governing body of any county that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters on any date available for elections for the county. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the county) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of funding senior services and youth programs provided by the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

7. Whenever the governing body of any county that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by ten percent of the registered voters of the county voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the county a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the county shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least thirty days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. The director shall notify each county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county.

9. Each county imposing the tax authorized in this section shall establish a senior services tax commission to administer the portion of the sales tax revenue dedicated to providing senior services. Such commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the county commission. The county commission shall determine the qualifications, terms of office, compensation, powers, duties, restrictions, procedures, and all other necessary functions of the commission."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Tilley, House Amendment No. 6 was adopted.

Representative Villa offered House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 7

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 7, Section 135.010, Line 1, by inserting before said line the following:

“92.500. 1. The governing body of any city not within a county may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made within the city which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not exceed one-half of one percent, and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of providing revenues for the operation of public safety departments, including police and fire departments, and for compensation, pension programs, and health care for employees and pensioners of the public safety departments. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance shall not become effective unless the governing body of the city submits to the voters residing within the city at a state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the city to impose a tax under this section.

Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the city for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such city. Any funds in the special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. The director shall keep accurate records of the amounts in the fund, and such records shall be open to the inspection of the officers of such city and to the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director shall distribute all moneys deposited in the fund during the preceding month to the city. Such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the city, and all expenditures of moneys from the fund shall be by an appropriation ordinance enacted by the governing body of the city.

4. On or after the effective date of the tax, the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the city may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, RSMo, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the city shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

5. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.524, RSMo, governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, RSMo, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for the tax and penalties under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalties shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

6. The governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters on any date available for elections for the city. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the city) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of providing revenues for the operation of public safety departments of the city?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

7. Whenever the governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by a number of registered voters of the city equal to at least two percent of the number of registered voters of the city voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the city a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the city shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least ninety days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such city, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the city and close the account of that city. The director shall notify each city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Villa, House Amendment No. 7 was adopted.

Representative Wallace offered House Amendment No. 8.

House Amendment No. 8

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 1, Section A, Line 8, by inserting at the end of said line the following:

“50.327. [Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary,] 1. The salary schedules contained in section 49.082, RSMo, sections 50.334 and 50.343, 51.281, RSMo 282, RSMo, 52.269, RSMo, 53.082, RSMo, 53.083, RSMo, 54.261, RSMo, 54.320, RSMo, 55.091, RSMo, 56.265, RSMo, 57.317, RSMo, [and] 58.095, RSMo, and 473.742, RSMo, shall be set as a base schedule for those county officials, unless the current salary of such officials, as of August 28, 2005, is higher or lower than the compensation provided under the salary schedules. Beginning August 28, 2005, the salary commission in all counties except charter counties in this state shall be responsible for the computation of salaries of all county officials; provided, however, that any percentage salary adjustments in a county shall be equal for all such officials in that county.

If the salary commission votes to decrease the compensation, a vote of two-thirds or more of all the members of the salary commission shall be required before the salary or other compensation of any county office shall be decreased below the compensation being paid for the particular office on the date the salary commission votes, and all officers and offices shall receive the same percentage decrease.

2. In no event shall the base salary or compensation of a county collector in any county of the first classification with more than thirty-nine thousand seven hundred but fewer than thirty-nine thousand eight hundred inhabitants set on or after August 28, 2005, be reduced below the salary or compensation being paid on August 28, 2005. All actions or votes taken under the authority of section 50.333 between August 28, 2005, and December 31, 2005, shall be subject to this subsection and any such action or vote not in compliance with this subsection shall be void.”; and Further amend said bill by amending the title and enacting clause accordingly.

On motion of Representative Wallace, House Amendment No. 8 was adopted.

Representative Lager offered House Amendment No. 9.

House Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 144.054, Page 29, Line 14, by deleting the word “meat” from said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“animal slaughtering defined under the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code of 311611”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lager, House Amendment No. 9 was adopted.

Representative Icet offered House Amendment No. 10.

House Amendment No. 10

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 9, Section 135.610, Line 54, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"137.055. 1. After the assessor's book of each county, except in the city of St. Louis and any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, shall be corrected and adjusted according to law, but not later than September twentieth, of each year, the county governing body shall ascertain the sum necessary to be raised for county purposes, and fix the rate of taxes on the several subjects of taxation so as to raise the required sum, and the same to be entered in the proper columns in the tax book. In any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, the rate of taxes shall be fixed under this subsection no later than October twentieth of each year.

2. Prior to fixing the rate of taxes, as provided in this section, the county governing body shall hold a public hearing on the proposed rate of taxes. A notice stating the time and place for the hearing shall be published in at least one newspaper qualified under the laws of Missouri of general circulation in the county at least seven days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the aggregate assessed valuation by category of real, total personal and other tangible property in the county as entered in the tax book for the fiscal year for which the tax is to be levied, the aggregate assessed valuation by category of real, total personal and other tangible property in the county for the preceding taxable year, the required sums to be raised from the property tax for each purpose for which the county levies taxes as approved in the budget adopted under chapter 50, RSMo, and the proposed rate of taxes which will produce substantially the same revenues as required by the budget. Failure of any taxpayer to appear at said hearing shall not prevent the taxpayer from pursuit of any other legal remedy otherwise available to the taxpayer. Nothing in this subsection absolves county governing bodies of responsibilities under section 137.073 nor to adjust tax rates in event changes in assessed valuation occur that would alter the tax rate calculations."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 9, Section 135.610, Line 54, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"137.079. 1. Prior to setting its rate or rates as required by section 137.073, each taxing authority shall exclude from its total assessed valuation seventy-two percent of the total amount of assessed value of business personal property that is the subject of an appeal at the state tax commission or in a court of competent jurisdiction in this state. This exclusion shall only apply to the portion of the assessed value of business personal property that is disputed in the appeal, and shall not exclude any portion of the same property that is not disputed. If the taxing authority uses a multirate approach as provided in section 137.073, this exclusion shall be made from the personal property class. The state tax commission shall provide each taxing authority with the total assessed value of business personal property within the jurisdiction of such taxing authority for which an appeal is pending no later than August twentieth of each year, except as provided in subsection 2 of this section. Whenever any appeal is resolved, whether by final adjudication or settlement, and the result of the appeal causes money to be paid to the taxing authority, the taxing authority shall not be required to make an additional adjustment to its rate or rates due to such payment once the deadline for setting its rates, as provided by this chapter, has passed in a taxable year, but shall adjust its rate or rates due to such payment in the next rate setting cycle to offset the payment in the next taxable year. For the purposes of this section, the term "business personal property", means tangible personal property which is used in a trade or business or used for production of income and which has a determinable life of longer than one year except that supplies used by a business shall also be considered business personal property, but shall not include livestock, farm machinery, property subject to the motor vehicle registration provisions of chapter 301, RSMo, property subject to the tables provided in section 137.078, the property of rural electric cooperatives under chapter 394, RSMo, or property assessed by the state tax commission under chapters 151, 153, and 155, RSMo, section 137.022, and sections 137.1000 to 137.1030.

2. In any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, the state tax commission shall provide each taxing authority with the total assessed value of business personal property within the jurisdiction of such taxing authority for which an appeal is pending no later than September first of each year."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 33, Section 144.440, Line 18, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"164.011. 1. The school board of each district annually shall prepare an estimate of the amount of money to be raised by taxation for the ensuing school year, the rate required to produce the amount, and the rate necessary to sustain the school or schools of the district for the ensuing school year, to meet principal and interest payments on the bonded debt of the district and to provide the funds to meet other legitimate district purposes. In preparing the estimate, the board shall have sole authority in determining what part of the total authorized rate shall be used to provide revenue for each of the funds as authorized by section 165.011, RSMo. Prior to setting tax rates for the teachers' and incidental funds, the school board of each school district annually shall set the tax rate for the capital projects fund as necessary to meet the expenditures of the capital projects fund after all transfers allowed pursuant to subsection 4 of section 165.011, RSMo. Furthermore the tax rate set in the capital projects fund shall not require the reduction of the equalized combined tax rates for the teachers' and incidental funds to be less than the greater of the minimum operating levy for the current year for school purposes established under subsection 2 of section 163.021, RSMo.

2. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, the school board of each district shall forward the estimate to the county clerk on or before September first. In school districts divided by county lines, the estimate shall be forwarded to the proper officer of each county in which any part of the district lies.

3. The school board of each district located in any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants shall forward the estimate to the county clerk on or before October first.

164.011. 1. The school board of each district annually shall prepare an estimate of the amount of money to be raised by taxation for the ensuing school year, the rate required to produce the amount, and the rate necessary to sustain the school or schools of the district for the ensuing school year, to meet principal and interest payments on the bonded debt of the district and to provide the funds to meet other legitimate district purposes. In preparing the estimate, the board shall have sole authority in determining what part of the total authorized rate shall be used to provide revenue for each of the funds as authorized by section 165.011, RSMo. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, for the 1996-97 school year and thereafter, prior to setting tax rates for the teachers' and incidental funds, the school board of each school district annually shall set the tax rate for the capital projects fund as necessary to meet the expenditures of the capital projects fund after all transfers allowed pursuant to subsection 7 of section 165.011, RSMo, for expenditures authorized by section 177.088, RSMo, and after the following transfers if needed: in the 1996-97 school year, one-twelfth of the maximum transfer allowed by section 165.011, RSMo; in the 1997-98 school year, one-sixth of the maximum transfer allowed by section 165.011, RSMo; in the 1998-99 school year, one-half of the maximum transfer allowed by section 165.011, RSMo; and in the 1999-2000 school year and thereafter, one hundred percent of the transfers allowed by section 165.011, RSMo. Furthermore, except that the tax rate set in the capital projects fund shall not require the reduction of the equalized combined tax rates for the teachers' and incidental funds to be less than the greater of the minimum operating levy for the current year for school purposes established under subsection 2 of section 163.021, RSMo, or the 1993 tax rate as used for state aid purposes in section 163.031, RSMo, plus that portion of the full amount of any voter-approved increase in the tax rate ceiling as defined in section 137.073, RSMo, approved after the first day of January, 1994, and before the thirtieth day of March, 1994, as levied in the current year, in any school district located in a county of the fourth classification that had an existing lease purchase arrangement for capital project purposes at the time of the election.

2. Except as provided in subsection 4 of this section, the school board of each district shall forward the estimate to the county clerk on or before September first. In school districts divided by county lines, the estimate shall be forwarded to the proper officer of each county in which any part of the district lies.

3. (1) For the 1997-98 school year and thereafter, prior to setting tax rates for the teachers' and incidental funds, the school board of each school district meeting the criteria specified in subdivision (2) of this subsection annually shall set the tax rate for the capital projects fund as necessary to meet the expenditures of the capital projects fund after all transfers allowed pursuant to subsection 7 of section 165.011, RSMo, for expenditures authorized by section 177.088, RSMo, and after one hundred percent of the transfers allowed by section 165.011, RSMo.

(2) Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall apply to each district which satisfies all of the following criteria:

(a) The district has a membership count for school year 1997-98 which is at least sixteen percent greater than the district's membership count for the 1991-92 school year; and

(b) The district passed a full waiver of Proposition C tax rate rollback pursuant to section 164.013, or approved an increase to the district's tax rate ceiling on or after June 1, 1994;

(c) The district is in compliance with or has paid all penalties required pursuant to section 165.016, RSMo, for the 1994-95, 1995-96 and 1996-97 school years without waiver or adjustment of the base school year certificated salary percentage; and

(d) The district approves, prior to July 1, 1998, a proposal to issue general obligation bonds which will cause the district's bonded indebtedness to be no less than eighty-five percent of the maximum bonded indebtedness of the district.

4. The school board of each district located in any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants shall forward the estimate to the county clerk on or before October first."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Icet, House Amendment No. 10 was adopted.

Representative Sutherland offered House Amendment No. 11.

House Amendment No. 11

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 52.361, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting before said section the following:

"21.810. 1. There is established a permanent joint committee of the general assembly to be known as the "Joint Committee on Tax Policy" which shall be composed of five members of the senate, appointed by the president pro tem of the senate, and five members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. A majority of the members of the committee shall constitute a quorum. The members shall annually select one of the members to be the chair and one of the members to be the vice chair. The speaker of the house of representatives and the president pro tem of the senate shall appoint the respective majority members. The minority leader of the house and the minority leader of the senate shall appoint the respective minority members. The members shall receive no additional compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties. No major party shall be represented on the committee by more than three members from the senate nor by more than three members from the house. The committee is authorized to meet and act year round and to employ the necessary personnel within the limits of appropriations. The staff of the committee on legislative research, house research, and senate research shall provide necessary clerical, research, fiscal, and legal services to the committee, as the committee may request.

2. It shall be the duty of the committee:

(1) To make a continuing study and analysis of the current and proposed tax policy of this state as it relates to:

(a) Fairness and equity;

(b) True economic impact;

(c) Burden on individuals and businesses;

(d) Effectiveness of tax expenditures;

- (e) Impact on political subdivisions of this state;
- (f) Agreements and contracts with the federal government, other states and territories, political subdivisions, and private entities relating to the collection and administration of state and local taxes and fees;
- (g) Compliance with the state and United States Constitution and federal and international law; and
- (h) The effects of interstate commerce;
- (2) To make a continuing study and review of the department of revenue, the department of economic development, the state tax commission, and any other state agency, commission, or state executive office responsible for the administration of tax policies;
- (3) To study the effects of the coupling or decoupling with the federal income tax code as it relates to the state income tax;
- (4) To make recommendations, as and when the committee deems fit, to the general assembly for legislative action or to report findings and to the departments, commissions, and offices for administrative or procedural changes;
- (5) To study the effects of a sales tax holiday; [and]
- (6) To examine and assess the public benefit of any tax credit program that is the subject of an audit by the state auditor pursuant to section 620.1300, RSMo, and provide a report to the general assembly and the governor with the committee's findings and recommendations, if any, regarding such tax credit program within six months of receiving the audit report;

(7) To examine ratio studies of assessed valuation performed by the state tax commission under section 138.380, RSMo, and recommend to the general assembly any legislative action the committee deems necessary to achieve accurate assessed values for real property.

3. All state departments, commissions, and offices responsible for the administration of tax policies shall cooperate with and assist the committee in the performance of its duties and shall make available all books, records and information requested, except individually identifiable information regarding a specific taxpayer. The committee may also consult with public and private universities and academies, public and private organizations, and private citizens in the performance of its duties. The committee may contract with public and private entities, within the limits of appropriation, for analysis and study of current or proposed changes to state and local tax policy. The committee shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, take testimony under oath, compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of records.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 55.190, Page 2, Line 13, by inserting after said section the following:

“67.110. 1. Each political subdivision in the state, except counties, shall fix its ad valorem property tax rates as provided in this section not later than September first for entry in the tax books. Before the governing body of each political subdivision of the state, except counties, as defined in section 70.120, RSMo, fixes its rate of taxation, its budget officer shall present to its governing body the following information for each tax rate to be levied: The assessed valuation by category of real, personal and other tangible property in the political subdivision as entered in the tax book for the fiscal year for which the tax is to be levied, as provided by subsection 3 of section 137.245, RSMo, the assessed valuation by category of real, personal and other tangible property in the political subdivisions for the preceding taxable year, the amount of revenue required to be provided from the property tax as set forth in the annual budget adopted as provided by this chapter, and the tax rate proposed to be set. Should any political subdivision whose taxes are collected by the county collector of revenue fail to fix its ad valorem property tax rate by September first, then no tax rate other than the rate, if any, necessary to pay the interest and principal on any outstanding bonds shall be certified for that year.

2. The governing body shall hold at least one public hearing on the proposed rates of taxes at which citizens may be heard prior to their approval. The governing body shall determine the time and place for such hearing. A notice stating the hour, date and place of the hearing shall be published in at least one newspaper qualified under the laws of the state of Missouri of general circulation in the county within which all or the largest portion of the political subdivision is situated, or such notice shall be posted in at least three public places within the political subdivision; except that, in any county of the first class having a charter form of government, such notice may be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the political subdivision even though such newspaper is not qualified under the laws of Missouri for other legal notices. Such notice shall be published or posted at least seven days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the assessed valuation by category of real, personal and other tangible property in the political subdivision for the fiscal year for which the tax is to be levied as provided by subsection 3 of section 137.245, RSMo, the assessed valuation by category of real, personal and other tangible property in the political subdivision for the preceding taxable year, for each rate to be levied the amount of revenue required to be provided from the property tax as set forth in the annual budget adopted as provided by this chapter, and the tax rates proposed to be set for the various purposes of taxation. The tax rates shall be calculated to produce substantially the same revenues as required in the annual budget adopted as provided in this chapter. Following the hearing the governing body of each political subdivision shall fix the rates of taxes, the same to be entered in the tax book. Failure of any taxpayer to appear at such hearing shall not prevent the taxpayer from pursuit of any other legal remedy otherwise available to the taxpayer. Nothing in this section absolves political subdivisions of responsibilities under section 137.073, RSMo, nor to adjust tax rates in event changes in assessed valuation occur that would alter the tax rate calculations.

3. Each political subdivision of the state shall fix its property tax rates in the manner provided in this section for each fiscal year which begins after December 31, 1976. New or increased tax rates for political subdivisions whose taxes are collected by the county collector approved by voters after September first of any year shall not be included in that year's tax levy except for any new tax rate ceiling approved pursuant to section 71.800, RSMo.

4. In addition to the information required under subsections 1 and 2 of this section, each political subdivision shall also include the increase in tax revenue due to an increase in assessed value as a result of new construction and improvement and the increase, both in dollar value and percentage, in tax revenue as a result of reassessment if the proposed tax rate is adopted.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 135.610, Page 9, Line 54, by inserting after said section the following:

“137.055. 1. After the assessor's book of each county, except in the city of St. Louis, shall be corrected and adjusted according to law, but not later than September twentieth, of each year, the county governing body shall ascertain the sum necessary to be raised for county purposes, and fix the rate of taxes on the several subjects of taxation so as to raise the required sum, and the same to be entered in the proper columns in the tax book.

2. Prior to fixing the rate of taxes, as provided in this section, the county governing body shall hold a public hearing on the proposed rate of taxes. A notice stating the time and place for the hearing shall be published in at least one newspaper qualified under the laws of Missouri of general circulation in the county at least seven days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the aggregate assessed valuation by category of real, total personal and other tangible property in the county as entered in the tax book for the fiscal year for which the tax is to be levied, the aggregate assessed valuation by category of real, total personal and other tangible property in the county for the preceding taxable year, the required sums to be raised from the property tax for each purpose for which the county levies taxes as approved in the budget adopted under chapter 50, RSMo, [and] the proposed rate of taxes which will produce substantially the same revenues as required by the budget, and the increase in tax revenue realized due to an increase in assessed value as a result of new construction and improvement, and the increase, both in dollar value and percentage, in tax revenue as a result of reassessment if the proposed tax rate is adopted. Failure of any taxpayer to appear at said hearing shall not prevent the taxpayer from pursuit of any other legal remedy otherwise available to the taxpayer. Nothing in this subsection absolves county governing bodies of responsibilities under section 137.073 nor to adjust tax rates in event changes in assessed valuation occur that would alter the tax rate calculations.

138.380. It shall be the duty of the state tax commission, and the commissioners shall have authority, to perform all duties enumerated in this section and such other duties as may be provided by law:

(1) To raise or lower the assessed valuation of any real or tangible personal property, including the power to raise or lower the assessed valuation of the real or tangible personal property of any individual, copartnership, company, association or corporation; provided, that before any such assessment is so raised, notice of the intention of the commission to raise such assessed valuation and of the time and place at which a hearing thereon will be held, shall be given to such individual, copartnership, company, association or corporation as provided in sections 138.460 and 138.470;

(2) To require from any officer in this state, on forms prescribed by the commission, such annual or other reports as shall enable said commission to ascertain the assessed and equalized value of all real and tangible property listed for taxation, the amount of taxes assessed, collected and returned, and such other matter as the commission may require, to the end that it may have complete information concerning the entire subject of revenue and taxation and all matters and things incidental thereto;

(3) To cause to be placed upon the assessment rolls at any time during the year omitted property which may be discovered to have, for any reason, escaped assessment and taxation, and to correct any errors that may be found on the assessment rolls and to cause the proper entry to be made thereon;

(4) To investigate the tax laws of other states and countries, to formulate and submit to the legislature such recommendations as the commission may deem expedient to prevent evasions of the assessment and taxing laws, whether the tax is specific or general, to secure just, equal and uniform taxes, and improve the system of assessment and taxation in this state;

(5) To prescribe the form of all blanks and books that are used in the assessment and collection of the general property tax, except as otherwise provided by law;

(6) To oversee the education and certification of all assessors and certain assessor staff as the commission deems appropriate;

(7) Conduct periodic ratio studies to determine the quality and level of assessments of real property for each assessment jurisdiction.

[138.395. The state tax commission shall notify each school district of the equivalent sales ratio for the previous year adopted for determining the equalized assessed valuation of the property and the equalized operating levy of the school district for distributions of school foundation formula funds at least thirty days prior to the certification of such ratio to the department of elementary and secondary education, and shall provide the school district an opportunity for a meeting with the commission, or a duly authorized agent thereof, on such ratio prior to such certification. Prior to January 1, 1997, in certifying said ratios to the department of elementary and secondary education, the commission shall certify all ratios at thirty-three and one-third percent. On and after January 1, 1997, in certifying such ratios to the department of elementary and secondary education, the commission shall certify all ratios higher than thirty-one and two-thirds percent at thirty-three and one-third percent. On and after January 1, 1998, if the state tax commission, after performing the computation of equivalent sales ratio for the county and recomputing such computation to ensure accuracy, finds that such equivalent sales ratio for the county is less than or equal to thirty-one and two-thirds percent, the state tax commission shall reduce the county's reimbursement by fifteen percent the following year if it is not corrected by subsequent action of the state tax commission.]"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Sutherland, House Amendment No. 11 was adopted.

Representative Bringer offered House Amendment No. 12.

House Amendment No. 12

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 33, Section 1, Line 4, by inserting after said line the following:

"Section 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 163.011, RSMo, for any school district located in more than one county and whose headquarters are located within a city of the fourth classification with more than two thousand five hundred but fewer than two thousand six hundred inhabitants and located in more than one county, the county signified in the school district shall be the county in the district with the highest dollar modifier.

Section B. Because immediate action is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, and safety, the enactment of Section 2 of Section A of this act shall be in full force and effect on July 1, 2006, or upon its passage and approval, whichever later occurs."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Bringer, House Amendment No. 12 was adopted.

Representative Harris (23) offered House Amendment No. 13.

House Amendment No. 13

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 21, Section 140.730, Line 30, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"142.803. 1. A tax is levied and imposed on all motor fuel used or consumed in this state as follows:

(1) Motor fuel, seventeen cents per gallon;

(2) Alternative fuels, not subject to the decal fees as provided in section 142.869, with a power potential equivalent of motor fuel. In the event alternative fuel, which is not commonly sold or measured by the gallon, is used in motor vehicles on the highways of this state, the director is authorized to assess and collect a tax upon such alternative fuel measured by the nearest power potential equivalent to that of one gallon of regular grade gasoline. The determination by the director of the power potential equivalent of such alternative fuel shall be prima facie correct;

(3) Aviation fuel used in propelling aircraft with reciprocating engines, nine cents per gallon as levied and imposed by section 155.080, RSMo, to be collected as required under this chapter.

2. All taxes, surcharges and fees are imposed upon the ultimate consumer, but are to be precollected as described in this chapter, for the facility and convenience of the consumer. The levy and assessment on other persons as specified in this chapter shall be as agents of this state for the precollection of the tax.

3. Upon a determination that the motor fuel tax levied in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of this section should be suspended in the interest of providing relief to consumers faced with rising motor fuel prices, the governor may suspend the imposition of up to ten cents per gallon of such tax. Such suspension shall be for a period of no longer than fourteen days, and each suspension may be renewed upon expiration. The director of revenue may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this subsection. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 14

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 67.2510, Page 7, Section 14, by inserting after said line the following:

“72.418. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no new city created pursuant to sections 72.400 to 72.423 shall establish a municipal fire department to provide fire protection services, including emergency medical services, if such city formerly consisted of unincorporated areas in the county or municipalities in the county, or both, which are provided fire protection services and emergency medical services by one or more fire protection districts. Such fire protection districts shall continue to provide services to the area comprising the new city and may levy and collect taxes the same as such districts had prior to the creation of such new city. Each fire protection district affected by this section may impose up to one percent sales tax as defined in section 312.552, RSMo.

2. Fire protection districts serving the area included within any annexation by a city having a fire department, including simplified boundary changes, shall continue to provide fire protection services, including emergency medical services to such area. The annexing city shall pay annually to the fire protection district an amount equal to that which the fire protection district would have levied on all taxable property within the annexed area. Such annexed area shall not be subject to taxation for any purpose thereafter by the fire protection district except for bonded indebtedness by the fire protection district which existed prior to the annexation. The amount to be paid annually by the municipality to the fire protection district pursuant hereto shall be a sum equal to the annual assessed value multiplied by the annual tax rate as certified by the fire protection district to the municipality, including any portion of the tax created for emergency medical service provided by the district, per one hundred dollars of assessed value in such area. The tax rate so computed shall include any tax on bonded indebtedness incurred subsequent to such annexation, but shall not include any portion of the tax rate for bonded indebtedness incurred prior to such annexation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the residents of an area annexed on or after May 26, 1994, may vote in all fire protection district elections and may be elected to the fire protection district board of directors.

3. The fire protection district may approve or reject any proposal for the provision of fire protection and emergency medical services by a city.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Portwood, House Amendment No. 14 was adopted.

Representative Guest offered House Amendment No. 15.

House Amendment No. 15

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 1, Page 33, Line 4, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section 2. 1. As used in this section, "wind energy manufacturing facility" means a facility that, through the use of wind energy, produces electricity that is intended to be sold ultimately for final use or consumption, and includes the machinery and equipment used to produce the electricity, any substation or transformers located at the facility, and any access roads required to be built to support the delivery of equipment to the facility.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in addition to all other exemptions granted under chapter 144, RSMo, there is hereby specifically exempted from the provisions of, and from any computation of the taxes levied, assessed, and payable under, sections 144.010 to 144.525 and 144.600 to 144.761, RSMo, tangible personal property purchased and used for the purpose of constructing or repairing a wind energy manufacturing facility located in this state and incorporated into or consumed in the construction or repair of the facility. Nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt the purchase of any construction machinery, equipment, or tools used in constructing or repairing the facility.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Guest, House Amendment No. 15 was adopted.

House Amendment No. 16

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 1, Page 33, Line 4, by inserting after all of said section the following:

“Section 2. In addition to the exemptions granted pursuant to the provisions of section 144.030, there shall also be specifically exempted from all local sales taxes, as defined in section 32.085, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.510 and 144.600 to 144.757, and from the computation of the tax levied, assessed, or payable pursuant to all local sales taxes as defined in section 32.085, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525 and 144.600 to 144.811, all admission fees charged for hunting or taking of domestically raised pheasants, partridges and quail on shooting areas licensed by the Missouri department of conservation.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pollock, House Amendment No. 16 was adopted.

Representative Nance offered House Amendment No. 17.

House Amendment No. 17

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 7, Section 67.2510, Line 14, by inserting after said line the following:

“67.2715. 1. The governing body of any city of the third classification with more than ten thousand eight hundred but less than ten thousand nine hundred inhabitants located at least partly within a county of the first classification with more than one hundred eighty-four thousand but less than one hundred eighty-eight thousand inhabitants is hereby authorized to impose, by ordinance or order, a sales tax in the amount of up to one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such city that are subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the purpose of constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining a community center for such city, which may be funded by issuing bonds that will be retired by the revenues received from the sales tax authorized by this section or the retirement of debt under previously authorized bonded indebtedness. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other sales taxes allowed by law, except that no ordinance or order imposing a sales tax under the provisions of this section shall be effective unless the governing body of the city submits to the voters of the city, at a county or state general, primary, or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing body of the city to impose a tax.

2. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to:

(1) If the proposal submitted involves only authorization to impose the tax authorized by this section, the following language:

"Shall the municipality of (municipality's name) impose a sales tax of (insert amount) for the purpose of constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining a community center, which may include the retirement of debt under previously authorized bonded indebtedness?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "Yes". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "No"; or

(2) If the proposal submitted involves authorization to issue bonds and repay such bonds with revenues from the tax authorized by this section, the following language:

"Shall the municipality of (municipality's name) issue bonds in the amount of (insert amount) to fund the cost of constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining a community center impose a sales tax of (insert amount) to repay bonds?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "Yes". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "No".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, including when the proposal authorizes the reduction of debt under previously authorized bonded indebtedness under subdivision (1) of this subsection, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect, except that any proposal submitted under subdivision (2) of this subsection to issue bonds and impose a sales tax to retire such bonds must be approved by the constitutionally required percentage of the voters voting thereon to become effective. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting are opposed to the proposal, then the governing body of the municipality shall have no power to issue any bonds or impose the sales tax authorized in this section unless and until the governing body of the municipality shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the governing body of the municipality to issue any bonds or impose the sales tax authorized by this section, and such proposal is approved by the requisite majority of the qualified voters voting thereon; however, in no event shall a proposal under this section be submitted to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last proposal pursuant to this section.

3. All revenue received by a city from the tax authorized under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining a community center for such city for so long as the tax shall remain in effect. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to taxes authorized by this section which have not been imposed to retire bonds issued under this section.

4. All revenue received by a municipality that issues bonds under this section and imposes the tax authorized by this section to retire such bonds shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely to retire such bonds, except to the extent that such funds are required for the operation and maintenance of the community center. Once all of such bonds have been retired, all funds remaining in the special trust fund required by this subsection shall be used solely for the operation and maintenance of the capital improvements made with the revenue received as a result of the issuance of such bonds. Any funds in the special trust fund required by this subsection which are not needed to meet current obligations under the bonds issued under this section may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other municipal funds. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to taxes authorized by this section that have been imposed to retire bonds issued under this section.

5. No tax imposed under this section for the purpose of retiring bonds issued under this section may be terminated until all of such bonds have been retired.

6. Once the tax authorized by this section is abolished or is terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall be used solely for operating and maintaining the community center for the city. Any funds in such special trust fund that are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other city funds.

7. All sales taxes collected by the director of the department of revenue under this section on behalf of any city, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, RSMo, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury, to be known as the "City Community Center Tax Trust Fund". The moneys in the trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, money in this fund shall not be transferred and placed to the credit of the general revenue fund. The director of the department of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust and which was collected in each city imposing a sales tax under this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the city and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the director of the department of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the city that levied the tax. Such funds shall be deposited with the city treasurer of each such city, and all expenditures of funds arising from the trust fund shall be by an appropriation act to be enacted by the governing body of each such city. Expenditures may be made from the fund for any functions authorized in the ordinance or order adopted by the governing body submitting the tax to the voters.

8. The director of the department of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any city for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such cities. If any city abolishes the tax, the city shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal, and the director of the department of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such city, the director of the department of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the city and close the account of that city. The director of the department of revenue shall notify each city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city.

9. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply to the tax imposed pursuant to this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Nance, House Amendment No. 17 was adopted.

Representative Ervin offered House Amendment No. 18.

House Amendment No. 18

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 29, Section 142.816, Line 282, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"143.121. 1. The Missouri adjusted gross income of a resident individual shall be the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income subject to the modifications in this section.

2. There shall be added to the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income:

(a) The amount of any federal income tax refund received for a prior year which resulted in a Missouri income tax benefit;

(b) Interest on certain governmental obligations excluded from federal gross income by Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code. The previous sentence shall not apply to interest on obligations of the state of Missouri or any of its political subdivisions or authorities and shall not apply to the interest described in subdivision (a) of subsection 3 of this section. The amount added pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by the amounts applicable to such interest that would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the taxpayer except only for the application of Section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code. The reduction shall only be made if it is at least five hundred dollars;

(c) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 to the extent the amount deducted relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent the amount deducted exceeds the amount that would have been deductible pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as in effect on January 1, 2002; and

(d) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, other than the deduction allowed by Section 172(b)(1)(G) and Section 172(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for a net operating loss the taxpayer claims in the tax year in which the net operating loss occurred or carries forward for a period of more than twenty years and carries backward for more than two years. Any amount of net operating loss taken against federal income taxes but disallowed against Missouri income taxes pursuant to this paragraph since July 1, 2002, may be carried forward and taken against any loss on the Missouri income tax return for a period of not more than twenty years from the year of the initial loss.

3. There shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the following amounts to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income:

(a) Interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from Missouri income taxes pursuant to the laws of the United States. The amount subtracted pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the described obligations or securities and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this paragraph. The reduction in the previous sentence shall only apply to the extent that such expenses including amortizable bond premiums are deducted in determining the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income or included in the taxpayer's Missouri itemized deduction. The reduction shall only be made if the expenses total at least five hundred dollars;

(b) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis to the taxpayer for Missouri income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes on December 31, 1972, that does not exceed such difference in basis. If a gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to one-half of such portion of the gain;

(c) The amount necessary to prevent the taxation pursuant to this chapter of any annuity or other amount of income or gain which was properly included in income or gain and was taxed pursuant to the laws of Missouri for a taxable year prior to January 1, 1973, to the taxpayer, or to a decedent by reason of whose death the taxpayer acquired the right to receive the income or gain, or to a trust or estate from which the taxpayer received the income or gain;

(d) Accumulation distributions received by a taxpayer as a beneficiary of a trust to the extent that the same are included in federal adjusted gross income;

(e) The amount of any state income tax refund for a prior year which was included in the federal adjusted gross income;

(f) The portion of capital gain specified in section 135.357, RSMo, that would otherwise be included in federal adjusted gross income;

(g) The amount that would have been deducted in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect on January 1, 2002, to the extent that amount relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent that amount exceeds the amount actually deducted pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002; and

(h) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the amount of any income received for military service while the taxpayer serves in a combat zone which is included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise excluded therefrom. As used in this section, "combat zone" means any area which the President of the United States by Executive Order designates as an area in which armed forces of the United States are or have engaged in combat. Service is performed in a combat zone only if performed on or after the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the commencing of combat activities in such zone, and on or before the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the termination of combatant activities in such zone.

4. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the taxpayer's share of the Missouri fiduciary adjustment provided in section 143.351.

5. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the modifications provided in section 143.411.

6. (1) As used in this subsection, "qualified health insurance premium" means the amount paid during the tax year by such taxpayer for any insurance policy primarily providing health care coverage for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's dependants.

(2) In addition to the subtractions in subsection 3 of this section, qualified health insurance premiums shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with proof of the amount of qualified health insurance premiums paid. The amounts to be subtracted shall be as follows:

- (a) For tax year 2006, up to twenty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (b) For tax year 2007, up to forty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (c) For tax year 2008, up to sixty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums;
- (d) For tax year 2009, up to eighty percent of such qualified health insurance premiums; and
- (e) For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, up to one hundred percent of such qualified health insurance premiums."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Dixon assumed the Chair.

On motion of Representative Ervin, House Amendment No. 18 was adopted.

Representative Hobbs offered House Amendment No. 19.

House Amendment No. 19

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Section 67.2510, Page 7, Line 14, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"100.050. 1. Any municipality proposing to carry out a project for industrial development shall first, by majority vote of the governing body of the municipality, approve the plan for the project. The plan shall include the following information pertaining to the proposed project:

- (1) A description of the project;
- (2) An estimate of the cost of the project;
- (3) A statement of the source of funds to be expended for the project;
- (4) A statement of the terms upon which the facilities to be provided by the project are to be leased or otherwise disposed of by the municipality; and

- (5) Such other information necessary to meet the requirements of sections 100.010 to 100.200.

2. If the plan for the project is approved after August 28, 2003, and the project plan involves issuance of revenue bonds or involves conveyance of a fee interest in property to a municipality, the project plan shall additionally include the following information:

- (1) A statement identifying each school district, junior college district, county, or city affected by such project except property assessed by the state tax commission pursuant to chapters 151 and 153, RSMo;

- (2) The most recent equalized assessed valuation of the real property and personal property included in the project, and an estimate as to the equalized assessed valuation of real property and personal property included in the project after development;

- (3) An analysis of the costs and benefits of the project on each school district, junior college district, county, or city; and

- (4) Identification of any payments in lieu of taxes expected to be made by any lessee of the project, and the disposition of any such payments by the municipality.

3. If the plan for the project is approved after August 28, 2003, any payments in lieu of taxes expected to be made by any lessee of the project shall be applied in accordance with this section. The lessee may reimburse the municipality for its actual costs of issuing the bonds and administering the plan. All amounts paid in excess of such actual costs shall, immediately upon receipt thereof, be disbursed by the municipality's treasurer or other financial officer to each school district, junior college district, county, or city in proportion to the current ad valorem tax levy of each school district, junior college district, county, or city; however, in any county of the first classification with more than ninety-three thousand eight hundred but fewer than ninety-three thousand nine hundred inhabitants, or any county of the first classification with more than one hundred thirty-five thousand four hundred but fewer than one hundred thirty-five thousand five hundred inhabitants, if the plan for the project is approved after May 15, 2005, such amounts shall be disbursed by the municipality's treasurer or other financial officer to each affected taxing entity in proportion to the current ad valorem tax levy of each affected taxing entity."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Hobbs, House Amendment No. 19 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (120) offered House Amendment No. 20.

House Amendment No. 20

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 21, Section 142.816, Line 12, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"143.431. 1. The Missouri taxable income of a corporation taxable under sections 143.011 to 143.996 shall be so much of its federal taxable income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in subsections 2 to 4 of this section, as is derived from sources within Missouri as provided in section 143.451. The tax of a corporation shall be computed on its Missouri taxable income at the rates provided in section 143.071.

2. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal taxable income the modifications to adjusted gross income provided in section 143.121 and the applicable modifications to itemized deductions provided in section 143.141. There shall be subtracted the federal income tax deduction provided in section 143.171. There shall be subtracted, to the extent included in federal taxable income, corporate dividends from sources within Missouri.

3. (1) If an affiliated group of corporations files a consolidated income tax return for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes [and fifty percent or more of its income is derived from sources within this state as determined in accordance with section 143.451,] then it may elect to file a Missouri consolidated income tax return. The federal consolidated taxable income of the electing affiliated group for the taxable year shall be its federal taxable income.

(2) So long as a federal consolidated income tax return is filed, an election made by an affiliated group of corporations to file a Missouri consolidated income tax return may be withdrawn or revoked only upon substantial change in the law or regulations adversely changing tax liability under this chapter, or with permission of the director of revenue upon the showing of good cause for such action. After such a withdrawal or revocation with respect to an affiliated group, it may not file a Missouri consolidated income tax return for five years thereafter, except with the approval of the director of revenue, and subject to such terms and conditions as he may prescribe.

(3) No corporation which is part of an affiliated group of corporations filing a Missouri consolidated income tax return shall be required to file a separate Missouri corporate income tax return for the taxable year.

(4) For each taxable year an affiliated group of corporations filing a federal consolidated income tax return does not file a Missouri consolidated income tax return, for purposes of computing the Missouri income tax, the federal taxable income of each member of the affiliated group shall be determined as if a separate federal income tax return had been filed by each such member.

(5) The director of revenue may prescribe such regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter as he may deem necessary in order that the tax liability of any affiliated group of corporations making a Missouri consolidated income tax return, and of each corporation in the group, before, during, and after the period of affiliation, may be returned, determined, computed, assessed, collected, and adjusted, in such manner as clearly to reflect the Missouri taxable income derived from sources within this state and in order to prevent avoidance of such tax liability.

4. [If a net operating loss deduction is allowed for the taxable year, there shall be added to federal taxable income the amount of the net operating loss modification for each loss year as to which a portion of the net operating loss deduction is attributable.] (1) It is the intention of the general assembly that no Missouri taxpayer with an available unused federal net operating loss shall be required to pay Missouri income tax based on Missouri additions to federal taxable income to the extent that such available and unused federal net operating losses exceed such Missouri additions. There shall be no tax due under sections 143.011 to 143.996, to the extent that the amount of any available unused federal net operating loss exceeds Missouri additions to federal taxable income in any tax year. In addition, no person shall effectively be denied an otherwise allowable depreciation deduction under the provisions of sections 143.011 to 143.996 over the life of any asset as a result of the addition adjustment to federal taxable income required by section 143.121. For all tax years ending on or after July 1, 2002, federal taxable income may be a positive or negative amount. Federal taxable income shall be adjusted by the amount of any available federal net operating loss carry forward or carry back, as modified by this section, such that any available loss may offset a net addition modifications as set forth herein. As used in this subsection, the following terms mean:

[(1) "Loss year", the taxable year in which there occurs a federal net operating loss that is carried back or carried forward in whole or in part to another taxable year;

(2)] (a) "Net addition modification", for any taxable year, the amount by which the sum of all required additions to federal taxable income provided in this chapter, except for the net operating loss modification, exceeds the combined sum of the amount of all required subtractions from federal taxable income provided in this chapter;

[(3) "Net operating loss deduction", a net operating loss deduction allowed for federal income tax purposes under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or a net operating loss deduction allowed for Missouri income tax purposes under paragraph (d) of subsection 2 of section 143.121, but not including any net operating loss deduction that is allowed for federal income tax purposes but disallowed for Missouri income tax purposes under paragraph (d) of subsection 2 of section 143.121;

(4)] (b) "Net operating loss modification", [an amount equal to the lesser of the amount of the net operating loss deduction attributable to that loss year or the amount by which the total net operating loss in the loss year is less than the sum of:

(a) The net addition modification for that loss year; and

(b) The cumulative net operating loss deductions attributable to that loss year allowed for the taxable year and all prior taxable years.] the amount of net operating loss deduction utilized as an offset against a net addition modification or the amount of any net subtraction modification as limited by subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(c) "Net subtraction modification", for any taxable year, the amount by which the sum of all required subtractions from federal taxable income provided in this chapter, except for the net operating loss modification, exceeds the combined sum of the amount of all required additions to federal taxable income provided by this chapter;

(d) "Available net operating loss", the amount of federal net operating loss that may be carried to the tax year for use as an offset in determining Missouri taxable income, as adjusted by the net operating loss modification.

(2) For property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, sections 143.121(2)(c) and 143.121(3)(g) are specifically intended to allow for the deduction of depreciation expense pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as in effect on January 1, 2002. Where a subtraction modification under 143.121(3)(g) contributes to creation of a net subtraction modification, the amount of the net subtraction modification shall be added to the amount of the available net operating loss. This adjustment shall be limited to the lesser of the amount of the net subtraction modification or the amount of the subtraction modification required by section 143.121(3)(g).

(3) The amount of available net operating loss will be established and maintained for each tax year in which a federal net operating loss occurred. Net operating loss modifications will be made to amounts carried from any individual loss year in the order allowed under section 143.121(2)(d).

5. [For all tax years ending on or after July 1, 2002, federal taxable income may be a positive or negative amount.] Subsection 4 of this section shall be effective for all tax years with a net operating loss deduction attributable to a loss year ending on or after July 1, 2002, and the net operating loss modification shall only apply to loss years ending on or after July 1, 2002."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title and enacting clauses accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (120), House Amendment No. 20 was adopted.

Representative Skaggs offered House Amendment No. 21.

House Amendment No. 21

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 10, Section 139.031, Line 1, by inserting after "taxpayer," the following:

"upon total payment of the current tax bill".

On motion of Representative Skaggs, House Amendment No. 21 was adopted.

Representative Smith (118) offered House Amendment No. 22.

House Amendment No. 22 was withdrawn.

Representative Nolte offered House Amendment No. 23.

House Amendment No. 23

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 805, Page 7, Section 67.2510, Line 14, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"137.115. 1. All other laws to the contrary notwithstanding, the assessor or the assessor's deputies in all counties of this state including the city of St. Louis shall annually make a list of all real and tangible personal property taxable in the assessor's city, county, town or district. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of this section and section 137.078, the assessor shall annually assess all personal property at thirty-three and one-third percent of its true value in money as of January first of each calendar year. The assessor shall annually assess all real property, including any new construction and improvements to real property, and possessory interests in real property at the percent of its true value in money set in subsection 5 of this section. The assessor shall annually assess all real property in the following manner: new assessed values shall be determined as of January first of each odd-numbered year and shall be entered in the assessor's books; those same assessed values shall apply in the following even-numbered year, except for new construction and property improvements which shall be valued as though they had been completed as of January first of the preceding odd-numbered year. The assessor may call at the office, place of doing business, or residence of each person required by this chapter to list property, and require the person to make a correct statement of all taxable tangible personal property owned by the person or under his or her care, charge or management, taxable in the county. On or before January first of each even-numbered year, the assessor shall prepare and submit a two-year assessment maintenance plan to the county governing body and the state tax commission for their respective approval or modification. The county governing body shall approve and forward such plan or its alternative to the plan to the state tax commission by February first. If the county governing body fails to forward the plan or its alternative to the plan to the state tax commission by February first, the assessor's plan shall be considered approved by the county governing body. If the state tax commission fails to approve a plan and if the state tax commission and the assessor and the governing body of the county involved are unable to resolve the differences, in order to receive state cost-share funds outlined in section 137.750, the county or the assessor shall petition the administrative hearing commission, by May first, to decide all matters in dispute regarding the assessment maintenance plan. Upon agreement of the parties, the matter may be stayed while the parties proceed with mediation or arbitration upon terms agreed to by the parties. The final decision of the administrative hearing commission shall be subject to judicial review in the circuit court of the county involved. In the event a valuation of subclass (1) real property within any county with a charter form of government, or within a city not within a county, is made by a computer, computer-assisted method or a computer program, the burden of proof, supported by clear, convincing and cogent evidence to sustain such valuation, shall be on the assessor at any hearing or appeal. In any such county, unless the assessor proves otherwise, there shall be a presumption that the assessment was made by a computer, computer-assisted method or a computer program. Such evidence shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) The findings of the assessor based on an appraisal of the property by generally accepted appraisal techniques; and

(2) The purchase prices from sales of at least three comparable properties and the address or location thereof. As used in this paragraph, the word "comparable" means that:

(a) Such sale was closed at a date relevant to the property valuation; and

(b) Such properties are not more than one mile from the site of the disputed property, except where no similar properties exist within one mile of the disputed property, the nearest comparable property shall be used. Such property shall be within five hundred square feet in size of the disputed property, and resemble the disputed property in age, floor plan, number of rooms, and other relevant characteristics.

2. Assessors in each county of this state and the city of St. Louis may send personal property assessment forms through the mail.

3. The following items of personal property shall each constitute separate subclasses of tangible personal property and shall be assessed and valued for the purposes of taxation at the following [percents] percentages of their true value in money:

- (1) Grain and other agricultural crops in an unmanufactured condition, one-half of one percent;
- (2) Livestock, twelve percent;
- (3) Farm machinery, twelve percent;
- (4) Motor vehicles which are eligible for registration as and are registered as historic motor vehicles pursuant to section 301.131, RSMo, and aircraft which are at least twenty-five years old and which are used solely for noncommercial purposes and are operated less than fifty hours per year or aircraft that are home built from a kit, five percent;
- (5) Poultry, twelve percent; and
- (6) Tools and equipment used for pollution control and tools and equipment used in retooling for the purpose of introducing new product lines or used for making improvements to existing products by any company which is located in a state enterprise zone and which is identified by any standard industrial classification number cited in subdivision (6) of section 135.200, RSMo, twenty-five percent.

4. The person listing the property shall enter a true and correct statement of the property, in a printed blank prepared for that purpose. The statement, after being filled out, shall be signed and either affirmed or sworn to as provided in section 137.155. The list shall then be delivered to the assessor.

5. All subclasses of real property, as such subclasses are established in section 4(b) of article X of the Missouri Constitution and defined in section 137.016, shall be assessed at the following percentages of true value:

- (1) For real property in subclass (1), nineteen percent;
- (2) For real property in subclass (2), twelve percent; and
- (3) For real property in subclass (3), thirty-two percent.

6. Manufactured homes, as defined in section 700.010, RSMo, which are actually used as dwelling units shall be assessed at the same percentage of true value as residential real property for the purpose of taxation. The percentage of assessment of true value for such manufactured homes shall be the same as for residential real property. If the county collector cannot identify or find the manufactured home when attempting to attach the manufactured home for payment of taxes owed by the manufactured home owner, the county collector may request the county commission to have the manufactured home removed from the tax books, and such request shall be granted within thirty days after the request is made; however, the removal from the tax books does not remove the tax lien on the manufactured home if it is later identified or found. A manufactured home located in a manufactured home rental park, rental community or on real estate not owned by the manufactured home owner shall be considered personal property. A manufactured home located on real estate owned by the manufactured home owner may be considered real property.

7. Each manufactured home assessed shall be considered a parcel for the purpose of reimbursement pursuant to section 137.750, unless the manufactured home has been converted to real property in compliance with section 700.111, RSMo, and assessed as a realty improvement to the existing real estate parcel.

8. Any amount of tax due and owing based on the assessment of a manufactured home shall be included on the personal property tax statement of the manufactured home owner unless the manufactured home has been converted to real property in compliance with section 700.111, RSMo, in which case the amount of tax due and owing on the assessment of the manufactured home as a realty improvement to the existing real estate parcel shall be included on the real property tax statement of the real estate owner.

9. The assessor of each county and each city not within a county shall use the trade-in value published in the October issue of the National Automobile Dealers' Association Official Used Car Guide, or its successor publication, as the recommended guide of information for determining the true value of motor vehicles described in such publication. In the absence of a listing for a particular motor vehicle in such publication, the assessor shall use such information or publications which in the assessor's judgment will fairly estimate the true value in money of the motor vehicle.

10. Before the assessor may increase the assessed valuation of any parcel of subclass (1) real property by more than fifteen percent since the last assessment, excluding increases due to new construction or improvements, the assessor shall conduct a physical inspection of such property.

11. If a physical inspection is required, pursuant to subsection 10 of this section, the assessor shall notify the property owner of that fact in writing and shall provide the owner clear written notice of the owner's rights relating to the physical inspection. If a physical inspection is required, the property owner may request that an interior inspection be performed during the physical inspection. The owner shall have no less than thirty days to notify the assessor of a request for an interior physical inspection.

12. A physical inspection, as required by subsection 10 of this section, shall include, but not be limited to, an on-site personal observation and review of all exterior portions of the land and any buildings and improvements to which the inspector has or may reasonably and lawfully gain external access, and shall include an observation and review of the interior of any buildings or improvements on the property upon the timely request of the owner pursuant to subsection

11 of this section. Mere observation of the property via a "drive-by inspection" or the like shall not be considered sufficient to constitute a physical inspection as required by this section.

13. The provisions of subsections 11 and 12 of this section shall only apply in any county with a charter form of government with more than one million inhabitants.

14. A county or city collector may accept credit cards as proper form of payment of outstanding property tax or license due. No county or city collector may charge surcharge for payment by credit card which exceeds the fee or surcharge charged by the credit card bank, processor, or issuer for its service. A county or city collector may accept payment by electronic transfers of funds in payment of any tax or license and charge the person making such payment a fee equal to the fee charged the county by the bank, processor, or issuer of such electronic payment.

15. [The provisions of this section and sections 137.073, 138.060 and 138.100, RSMo, as enacted by house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session, shall become effective January 1, 2003, for any taxing jurisdiction within a county with a charter form of government with greater than one million inhabitants, and the provisions of this section and sections 137.073, 138.060 and 138.100, RSMo, as enacted by house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session, shall become effective October 1, 2004, for all taxing jurisdictions in this state.] Any county or city not within a county in this state may, by an affirmative vote of the governing body of such county, opt out of the provisions of this section and sections 137.073, 138.060, and 138.100, RSMo, as enacted by house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session and section 137.073 as modified by this act, for the next year of the general reassessment, prior to January first of any year. No county or city not within a county shall exercise this opt-out provision after implementing the provisions of this section and sections 137.073, 138.060, and 138.100, RSMo, as enacted by house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session and section 137.073 as modified by this act, in a year of general reassessment. For the purposes of applying the provisions of this subsection, a political subdivision contained within two or more counties where at least one of such counties has opted out and at least one of such counties has not opted out shall calculate a single tax rate as in effect prior to the enactment of house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session. A governing body of a city not within a county or a county that has opted out under the provisions of this subsection may choose to implement the provisions of this section and sections 137.073, 138.060, and 138.100, RSMo, as enacted by house bill no. 1150 of the ninety-first general assembly, second regular session, and section 137.073 as modified by this act, for the next year of general reassessment, by an affirmative vote of the governing body prior to December thirty-first of any year.

16. The governing body of any city of the third classification with more than twenty-six thousand three hundred but fewer than twenty-six thousand seven hundred inhabitants located in any county that has exercised its authority to opt out under subsection 15 of this section may levy separate and differing tax rates for real and personal property only if such city bills and collects its own property taxes or satisfies the entire cost of the billing and collection of such separate and differing tax rates. Such separate and differing rates shall not exceed such city's tax rate ceiling," and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

"Section B. The provisions of sections 28.160 to 650.120 of section A of this act are severable. If any part of sections 28.160 to 650.120 of section A of this act is declared invalid or unconstitutional, it is the intent of the legislature that the remaining portions of sections 28.160 to 650.120 of section A of this act shall remain and be in full force and effect."; and

Further amend said substitute, Section E, Page 200, Lines 1-5, by deleting all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pratt, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Dempsey offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1058, Page 1, In the Title, Line 19, by inserting at the end of said line the following:

"and sections 163.011 and 163.031 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house committee substitute for senate substitute for senate committee substitute for senate bill no. 287, ninety-third general assembly, first regular session,"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section A, Line 17, by inserting after "RSMo," the following:

"and sections 163.011 and 163.031 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house committee substitute for senate substitute for senate committee substitute for senate bill no. 287, ninety-third general assembly, first regular session,"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 13, Section 105.711, Line 217, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"163.011. As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Adjusted operating levy", the sum of tax rates for the current year for teachers' and incidental funds for a school district as reported to the proper officer of each county pursuant to section 164.011, RSMo;

(2) "Average daily attendance", the quotient or the sum of the quotients obtained by dividing the total number of hours attended in a term by resident pupils between the ages of five and twenty-one by the actual number of hours school was in session in that term. To the average daily attendance of the following school term shall be added the full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students. "Full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students" shall be computed by dividing the total number of hours attended by all summer school pupils by the number of hours required in section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. For purposes of determining average daily attendance under this subdivision, the term "resident pupil" shall include all children between the ages of five and twenty-one who are residents of the school district and who are attending kindergarten through grade twelve in such district. If a child is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the child's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the child is attending, then such child shall be considered a resident pupil of the school district which the child is attending for such period of time when the district of residence is not otherwise liable for tuition. Average daily attendance for students below the age of five years for which a school district may receive state aid based on such attendance shall be computed as regular school term attendance unless otherwise provided by law;

(3) "Current operating expenditures":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "current operating expenditures" shall be calculated using data from fiscal year 2004 and shall be calculated as all expenditures for instruction and support services except capital outlay and debt service expenditures minus the revenue from federal categorical sources; food service; student activities; categorical payments for transportation costs pursuant to section 163.161; state reimbursements for early childhood special education; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo; and payments from other districts;

(b) In every fiscal year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, current operating expenditures shall be the amount in paragraph (a) plus any increases in state funding pursuant to sections 163.031 and 163.043 subsequent to fiscal year 2005, not to exceed five percent, per recalculation, of the state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments for any district from the first preceding calculation of the state adequacy target;

(4) "District's tax rate ceiling", the highest tax rate ceiling in effect subsequent to the 1980 tax year or any subsequent year. Such tax rate ceiling shall not contain any tax levy for debt service;

(5) "Dollar value modifier", an index of the relative purchasing power of a dollar, calculated as one plus fifteen percent of the difference of the regional wage ratio minus one, provided that the dollar value modifier shall not be applied at a rate less than 1.0:

(a) "County wage per job", the total county wage and salary disbursements divided by the total county wage and salary employment for each county and the city of St. Louis as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year;

(b) "Regional wage per job":

a. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the metropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri metropolitan wage and salary employment for the metropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number or the city of St. Louis, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of metropolitan areas; or if no such metropolitan area is established, then:

b. The total Missouri wage and salary disbursements of the micropolitan area as defined by the Office of Management and Budget divided by the total Missouri micropolitan wage and salary employment for the micropolitan area for the county signified in the school district number, as reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the fourth year preceding the payment year, if a micropolitan area for such county has been established and recalculated upon every decennial census to incorporate counties that are newly added to the description of micropolitan areas; or

c. If a county is not part of a metropolitan or micropolitan area as established by the Office of Management and Budget, then the county wage per job, as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, shall be used for the school district, as signified by the school district number;

(c) "Regional wage ratio", the ratio of the regional wage per job divided by the state median wage per job;

(d) "State median wage per job", the fifty-eighth highest county wage per job;

(6) "Free and reduced lunch pupil count", the number of pupils eligible for free and reduced lunch on the last Wednesday in January for the preceding school year who were enrolled as students of the district, as approved by the department in accordance with applicable federal regulations;

(7) "Free and reduced lunch threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total free and reduced lunch pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(8) "Limited English proficiency pupil count", the number in the preceding school year of pupils aged three through twenty-one enrolled or preparing to enroll in an elementary school or secondary school who were not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English or are Native American or Alaskan native, or a native resident of the outlying areas, and come from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on such individuals' level of English language proficiency, or are migratory, whose native language is a language other than English, and who come from an environment where a language other than English is dominant; and have difficulties in speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language sufficient to deny such individuals the ability to meet the state's proficient level of achievement on state assessments described in Public Law 107-10, the ability to achieve successfully in classrooms where the language of instruction is English, or the opportunity to participate fully in society;

(9) "Limited English proficiency threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total limited English proficiency pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(10) "Local effort":

(a) For the fiscal year 2007 calculation, "local effort" shall be computed as the equalized assessed valuation of the property of a school district in calendar year 2004 divided by one hundred and multiplied by the performance levy less the percentage retained by the county assessor and collector plus one hundred percent of the amount received in fiscal year 2005 for school purposes from intangible taxes, fines, escheats, payments in lieu of taxes and receipts from state-assessed railroad and utility tax, one hundred percent of the amount received for school purposes pursuant to the merchants' and manufacturers' taxes under sections 150.010 to 150.370, RSMo, one hundred percent of the amounts received for school purposes from federal properties under sections 12.070 and 12.080, RSMo, except when such amounts are used in the calculation of federal impact aid pursuant to P.L. 81-874, fifty percent of Proposition C revenues received for school purposes from the school district trust fund under section 163.087, and one hundred percent of any local earnings or income taxes received by the district for school purposes. Under this paragraph, for a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, a tax levy of zero shall be utilized in lieu of the performance levy for the special school district;

(b) In every year subsequent to fiscal year 2007, "local effort" shall be the amount calculated under paragraph (a) of this subdivision plus any increase in the amount received for school purposes from fines or less any decrease in the amount received for school purposes from fines in any school district located entirely within any county with a charter form of government and with more than two hundred fifty thousand but fewer than three hundred fifty thousand inhabitants that creates a county municipal court after January 1, 2006. If a district's assessed valuation has decreased subsequent to the calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the district's local effort shall be calculated using the district's current assessed valuation in lieu of the assessed valuation utilized in calculation outlined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision;

(11) "Membership" shall be the average of:

(a) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in September of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days; and

(b) The number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in January of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days, plus the full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils.

"Full-time equivalent number of part-time students" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all part-time students are enrolled by the number of hours in the school term. "Full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all summer school pupils were enrolled by the number of hours required pursuant to section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. Only students eligible to be counted for average daily attendance shall be counted for membership;

(12) "Operating levy for school purposes", the sum of tax rates levied for teachers' and incidental funds plus the operating levy or sales tax equivalent pursuant to section 162.1100, RSMo, of any transitional school district containing the school district, in the payment year, not including any equalized operating levy for school purposes levied by a special school district in which the district is located;

(13) "Performance district", any district that has met all performance standards and indicators as established by the department of elementary and secondary education for purposes of accreditation under section 161.092, RSMo, and as reported on the final annual performance report for that district each year;

(14) "Performance levy", three dollars and forty-three cents;

(15) "School purposes" pertains to teachers' and incidental funds;

(16) "Special education pupil count", the number of public school students with a current individualized education program and receiving services from the resident district as of December first of the preceding school year, except for special education services provided through a school district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, in which case the sum of the students in each district within the county exceeding the special education threshold of each respective district within the county shall be counted within the special district and not in the district of residence for purposes of distributing the state aid derived from the special education pupil count;

(17) "Special education threshold" shall be calculated by dividing the total special education pupil count of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts;

(18) "State adequacy target", the sum of the current operating expenditures of every performance district that falls entirely above the bottom five percent and entirely below the top five percent of average daily attendance, when such districts are rank-ordered based on their current operating expenditures per average daily attendance, divided by the total average daily attendance of all included performance districts. The department of elementary and secondary education shall first calculate the state adequacy target for fiscal year 2007 and recalculate the state adequacy target every two years using the most current available data. The recalculation shall never result in a decrease from the previous state adequacy target amount. Should a recalculation result in an increase in the state adequacy target amount, fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the year of recalculation, and fifty percent of that increase shall be included in the state adequacy target amount in the subsequent year. The state adequacy target may be adjusted to accommodate available appropriations;

(19) "Teacher", any teacher, teacher-secretary, substitute teacher, supervisor, principal, supervising principal, superintendent or assistant superintendent, school nurse, social worker, counselor or librarian who shall, regularly, teach or be employed for no higher than grade twelve more than one-half time in the public schools and who is certified under the laws governing the certification of teachers in Missouri;

(20) "Weighted average daily attendance", the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the number of special education pupil count that exceeds the special education threshold, and plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the number of limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. For special districts established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, weighted average daily attendance shall be the average daily attendance plus the product of twenty-five hundredths multiplied by the free and reduced lunch pupil count that exceeds the free and reduced lunch threshold, plus the product of seventy-five hundredths multiplied by the sum of the special education pupil count that exceeds the threshold for each county district, plus the product of six-tenths multiplied by the limited English proficiency pupil count that exceeds the limited English proficiency threshold. None of the districts comprising a special district established under sections 162.815 to 162.940, RSMo, in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, shall use any special education pupil count in calculating their weighted average daily attendance.

163.031. 1. The department of elementary and secondary education shall calculate and distribute to each school district qualified to receive state aid under section 163.021 an amount determined by multiplying the district's weighted average daily attendance by the state adequacy target, multiplying this product by the dollar value modifier for the district, and subtracting from this product the district's local effort and, in years not governed under subsection 4 of this section, subtracting payments from the classroom trust fund under section 163.043.

2. Other provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding:

(1) For districts with an average daily attendance of more than three hundred fifty in the school year preceding the payment year:

(a) For the 2006-07 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of one-third multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(b) For the 2007-08 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of two-thirds multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(c) For the 2008-09 school year, the state revenue per weighted average daily attendance received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the state revenue received by a district in the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the dollar value modifier, and dividing this product by the weighted average daily attendance computed for the 2005-06 school year;

(d) For each year subsequent to the 2008-09 school year, the amount shall be no less than that computed in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, multiplied by the weighted average daily attendance pursuant to section 163.036, less any increase in revenue received from the classroom trust fund under section 163.043;

(e) For districts located entirely within any county with a charter form of government and with more than two hundred fifty thousand but fewer than three hundred fifty thousand inhabitants that creates a county municipal court after January 1, 2006, and meets the criteria of paragraphs (a) through (d) of this subdivision, an additional payment amount equal to the decrease, if any, in the amount of revenue a district receives from fines in the current year from the revenue the district received from fines in fiscal year 2005 shall be paid to any such qualified district.

(2) For districts with an average daily attendance of three hundred fifty or less in the school year preceding the payment year:

(a) For the 2006-07 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of one-third multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one;

(b) For the 2007-08 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the sum of one plus the product of two-thirds multiplied by the remainder of the dollar value modifier minus one;

(c) For the 2008-09 school year, the state revenue received by a district from the state aid calculation under subsections 1 and 4 of this section, as applicable, and the classroom trust fund under section 163.043 shall not be less than the greater of state revenue received by a district in the 2004-05 or 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payment amounts multiplied by the dollar value modifier;

(d) For each year subsequent to the 2008-09 school year, the amount shall be no less than that computed in paragraph (c) of this subdivision;

(e) For districts located entirely within any county with a charter form of government and with more than two hundred fifty thousand but fewer than three hundred fifty thousand inhabitants that creates a county municipal court after January 1, 2006, and meets the criteria of paragraphs (a) through (d) of this subdivision, an additional payment amount equal to the decrease, if any, in the amount of revenue a district receives from fines in the current year from the revenue the district received from fines in fiscal year 2005 shall be paid to any such qualified district.

(3) The department of elementary and secondary education shall make an addition in the payment amount specified in subsection 1 of this section to assure compliance with the provisions contained in this subsection.

3. School districts that meet the requirements of section 163.021 shall receive categorical add-on revenue as provided in this subsection. The categorical add-on for the district shall be the sum of: seventy-five percent of the district allowable transportation costs under section 163.161; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo; and the district educational and screening program entitlements as provided for in sections 178.691 to 178.699, RSMo. The categorical add-on revenue amounts may be adjusted to accommodate available appropriations.

4. In the 2006-07 school year and each school year thereafter for five years, those districts entitled to receive state aid under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall receive state aid in an amount as provided in this subsection.

(1) For the 2006-07 school year, the amount shall be fifteen percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2006-07 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, plus eighty-five percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(2) For the 2007-08 school year, the amount shall be thirty percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2007-08 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, plus seventy percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(3) For the 2008-09 school year, the amount of state aid shall be forty-four percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2008-09 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus fifty-six percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(4) For the 2009-10 school year, the amount of state aid shall be fifty-eight percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2009-10 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus forty-two percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(5) For the 2010-11 school year, the amount of state aid shall be seventy-two percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2010-11 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus twenty-eight percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(6) For the 2011-12 school year, the amount of state aid shall be eighty-six percent of the amount of state aid calculated for the district for the 2011-12 school year under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section plus fourteen percent of the total amount of state revenue received by the district for the 2005-06 school year from the foundation formula, line 14, gifted, remedial reading, exceptional pupil aid, fair share, and free textbook payments less any amounts received under section 163.043.

(7) (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (18) of section 163.011, the state adequacy target may not be adjusted downward to accommodate available appropriations in any year governed by this subsection.

(b) If a school district experiences a decrease in summer school average daily attendance of more than fifteen percent from the district's 2005-06 summer school average daily attendance in any year governed by this subsection, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction in the district's summer school average daily attendance multiplied by the funds generated by the district's summer school program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's current year payment amount.

(c) If a school district experiences a decrease in its gifted program enrollment of more than twenty percent from its 2005-06 gifted program enrollment in any year governed by this subsection, an amount equal to the product of the percent reduction in the district's gifted program enrollment multiplied by the funds generated by the district's gifted program in the 2005-06 school year shall be subtracted from the district's current year payment amount.

5. For any school district meeting the eligibility criteria for state aid as established in section 163.021, but which is considered an option district under section 163.042 and therefore receives no state aid, the commissioner of education shall present a plan to the superintendent of the school district for the waiver of rules and the duration of said waivers, in order to promote flexibility in the operations of the district and to enhance and encourage efficiency in the delivery of instructional services as provided in section 163.042.

6. (1) No less than seventy-five percent of the state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section shall be placed in the teachers' fund, and the remaining percent of such moneys shall be placed in the incidental fund. No less than seventy-five percent of one-half of the funds received from the school district trust fund distributed under section 163.087 shall be placed in the teachers' fund. One hundred percent of revenue received under the provisions of section 163.161 shall be placed in the incidental fund. One hundred percent of revenue received under the provisions of sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo, shall be placed in the teachers' fund.

(2) A school district shall spend for certificated compensation and tuition expenditures each year:

(a) An amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of the state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section;

(b) An amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of one-half of the funds received from the school district trust fund distributed under section 163.087 during the preceding school year; and

(c) Beginning in fiscal year 2008, as much as was spent per the second preceding year's weighted average daily attendance for certificated compensation and tuition expenditures the previous year from revenue produced by local and county tax sources in the teachers' fund, plus the amount of the incidental fund to teachers' fund transfer calculated to be local and county tax sources by dividing local and county tax sources in the incidental fund by total revenue in the incidental fund.

In the event a district fails to comply with this provision, the amount by which the district fails to spend funds as provided herein shall be deducted from the district's state revenue received under the provisions of subsections 1, 2, and 4 of this section for the following year, provided that the state board of education may exempt a school district from this provision if the state board of education determines that circumstances warrant such exemption.

7. If a school district's annual audit discloses that students were inappropriately identified as eligible for free and reduced lunch, special education, or limited English proficiency and the district does not resolve the audit finding, the department of elementary and secondary education shall require that the amount of aid paid pursuant to the weighting for free and reduced lunch, special education, or limited English proficiency in the weighted average daily attendance on the inappropriately identified pupils be repaid by the district in the next school year and shall additionally impose a penalty of one hundred percent of such aid paid on such pupils, which penalty shall also be paid within the next school year. Such amounts may be repaid by the district through the withholding of the amount of state aid."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 200, Section E, Line 5, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section F. Because immediate action is necessary to ensure adequate funding for schools, the repeal and reenactment of sections 163.011 and 163.031 of section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, and safety, and the repeal and reenactment of sections 163.011 and 163.031 is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the repeal and reenactment of sections 163.011 and 163.031 of section A of this act shall be in full force and effect on July 1, 2006, or upon its passage and approval, whichever later occurs."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Dempsey, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Burnett offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1058, Section 260.205, Page 26, Line 297, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“302.546. 1. Any person who would be qualified to receive a driver’s license under the provisions of this chapter but for conduct that occurred in another state may file a petition in circuit court directing that a restricted driver’s license be issued to such person. The petition shall specify the conduct that would otherwise prevent the issuance of the license and request the court to enter judgment directing the license to be issued.

2. The petition shall be served on the director of the department of revenue who may request counsel, including the prosecuting attorney, to enter the case on the department’s behalf.

3. The petitioner shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the terms imposed by the other state are inequitable. If the petitioner meets this burden, the court may enter judgment directing a license be issued, with the license bearing a restriction that it is valid only for purposes of driving in this state. Any such judgment shall include a method for satisfying the restrictions imposed by the other state, but the method may differ from that entered in the other state. No such judgment shall be entered that fails to give full faith and credit to the judicial judgments of the other state or that would violate section 302.600, RSMo.”;

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Chris Dunn, Legislative Information Coordinator, Office of the Speaker.

Heavenly Father,

As the river and farmland surround us to the east; as the bricks and mortar and hustle and bustle of the city surround us on the west; and as the sun and rain have washed over us these past few days; we are reminded that You are the Creator of it all. You are awesome because You have placed us right here, right now, to tend to the affairs of our state.

You tell us to “Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come...” Lord we pause in this moment to remember You. All that You have made, all that You have sacrificed, and all that You have blessed us with, we remember right now. Some may not feel so young today, and some may feel like the days of trouble are already upon us, but we pause in this moment to remember You. (Ecclesiastes 12:1a)

Help us not to seek praise and honor from men, but from You Lord. This requires humility and we earnestly ask You for humility before our business begins.

Some of us surely feel tired today. Strengthen our minds and bodies for the remaining hours of this session. You have given each of us a mission to accomplish and we stand ready to accomplish it with Your help.

We ask for one more thing Lord. Your word says “For he who is least among you all—he is the greatest.” Help us become great by giving us the opportunity to serve. Let us serve one another and serve our constituents well. For Your glory. (Luke 9:48b)

In Your name we pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mary Snapp, Samuel Snapp, Stewart Snapp, Alexandra Yeager, MacKenzie Yeager, Brendan Yeager, Rachel Urban, Jennifer Urban, Victoria Urban, Ben Isaacs, Joe Isaacs, Tom Isaacs, James Schuchard, David Williams, Stephen Williams, Jesse Schnakenberg, Mariah Reynolds, Samatha Walker, Allison Thaller and Sadie Dasovich.

The Journal of the seventy-first day was approved as printed.

“Section 2. The department of social services, division of medical services and the department of health and senior services, division of senior and disability services shall work together to implement a new Medicaid payment system for assisted living facilities defined in 198.006 RSMo. The departments shall look at possible options including but not limited to federal Medicaid waivers, state plan amendments and provisions of the federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 that will allow a tiered rate system via a bundled monthly rate for all services not included in the room and board function of the facility including but not limited to: adult day care/socialization activities, escort services, essential shopping, health maintenance activities, housekeeping activities, meal preparation, laundry services, medication assistance (set-up and administration), personal care services, assistance with activities of daily living and instrumental activities of daily living, transportation services, nursing supervision, health promotion and exercise programming, emergency call systems, incontinence supplies, and companion services. The amount of the personal funds allowance for the Medicaid recipient residing in an assisted living facility shall include enough money for over-the-counter medications and co-payments for Medicaid and Medicare Part D services. The departments shall work with assisted living facility provider groups in developing this new payment system. The department of social services shall submit all necessary applications for implementing this new system singularly or within a multi-service state Medicaid waiver application to the secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services by July 1, 2007.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (120), House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Wright (137) offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 616, Page 12, Line 5, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"198.087. To ensure uniformity of application of regulation standards in long-term care facilities throughout the state, the department of social services shall:

(1) Evaluate the requirements for inspectors or surveyors of facilities, including the eligibility, training, and testing requirements for the position. Based on the evaluation, the department shall develop and implement additional training and knowledge standards for inspectors and surveyors;

(2) Periodically evaluate the performance of the inspectors or surveyors regionally and statewide to identify any deviations or inconsistencies in regulation application. At a minimum, the Missouri on-site surveyor evaluation process and the number and type of actions overturned by the informal dispute resolution process and formal appeal shall be used in the evaluation. Based on such evaluation, the department shall develop standards and a retraining process for the region, state, or individual inspector or surveyor, as needed;

(3) In addition to the provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section, the department shall develop a single uniform comprehensive and mandatory course of instruction for inspectors/surveyors on the practical application of enforcement of statutes, rules, and regulations. Such course shall also be open to attendance by administrators and staff of facilities licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(4) With the full cooperation of and in conjunction with the department of health and senior services, evaluate the implementation and compliance of the provisions of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 198.012 in which rules, requirements, regulations, and standards under section 197.080, RSMo, for residential care facilities II, intermediate care facilities, and skilled nursing facilities attached to an acute care hospital are consistent with the intent of this chapter. A report of the differences found in the evaluation conducted under this subdivision shall be made jointly by the departments of social services and health to the governor and members of the general assembly by January 1, 2008; and

(5) With the full cooperation and in conjunction with the department of health and senior services, develop rules and regulations requiring the exchange of information, including regulatory violations, between the departments to ensure the protection of individuals who are served by health care providers regulated by either the department of health and senior services or the department of social services;

(6) With the full cooperation of and in conjunction with the department of health and senior services, develop a pilot project to be conducted in at least one of the seven regions of the department of health and senior services in the state designed to evaluate the implementation of and compliance with section 198.073 and that the rules, requirements, regulations, and standards developed there under relating to assisted living facilities are consistent with the intent of this chapter;

(a) The pilot project survey team shall, at a minimum, consist of the following:

a. A licensed nursing home administrator who has been licensed by the state of Missouri as a nursing home administrator for at least three years and has served as an administrator of intermediate or skilled care nursing center for at least one year and who has not been terminated from any administrator's position for cause;

b. A registered nurse who has been licensed by the state of Missouri as a registered nurse for at least three years and has served as a director of nursing in an intermediate or skilled care nursing center for at least one year who has not been terminated from any director of nursing position for cause;

c. A certified nurses aide who has been certified by the state of Missouri as a certified nurses aide for at least six years and has worked served as a certified nurses aide in an intermediate or skilled care nursing center for at least three years and who has not been terminated from any certified nurses aide position for cause;

(b) The pilot project survey team shall inspect all assisted living facilities in its region to determine compliance with the stat licensing laws and regulations governing assisted living facilities;

(c) No later than January 1, 2007, the department of health and senior services shall develop a survey tool to enable the pilot project survey team to comprehensively assess during one survey for regulatory and licensing compliance for all services received by the assisted living facility resident in the assisted living facility provided by any health care provider licensed or certified by the department of health and senior services;

(d) No later than January 1, 2007, the department of health and senior services shall develop a tool to measure the impact of the shared responsibility agreement which allows for variations in standards and policies based on the preferences of the resident or the resident's legal representative that has the potential for serious adverse outcomes on the assisted living facility residents' health and safety;

(e) Inspections or surveys under this pilot project shall begin no later than June 1, 2007."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Representative Sutherland offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 5.

- “210.1012. 1. There is hereby created a statewide program called the "Amber Alert System" referred to in this section as the "system" to aid in the identification and location of an abducted [persons] child.
2. For the purposes of this section, "abducted [person] child" means a [person] child whose whereabouts are unknown and who is:
- (1) Less than eighteen years of age and reasonably believed to be the victim of the crime of kidnapping as defined by section 565.110, RSMo, as determined by local law enforcement;
 - (2) Reasonably believed to be the victim of the crime of child kidnapping, as defined by section 565.115, RSMo, as determined by law enforcement; or

(3) Less than eighteen years of age and at least fourteen years of age, and who would otherwise be reasonably believed to be a victim of child kidnapping as defined by section 565.115, RSMo, as determined by law enforcement, if such person was under the age of fourteen.

3. The department of public safety shall develop regions to provide the system. The department of public safety shall coordinate local law enforcement agencies and public commercial television and radio broadcasters to provide an effective system. In the event that a local law enforcement agency opts not to set up a system and an abduction occurs within the jurisdiction, it shall notify the department of public safety who will notify local media in the region.

4. The Amber alert system shall include all state agencies capable of providing urgent and timely information to the public together with broadcasters and other private entities that volunteer to participate in the dissemination of urgent public information. At a minimum, the Amber alert system shall include the department of public safety, highway patrol, department of transportation, department of health and senior services, and Missouri lottery.

5. The department of public safety shall have the authority to notify other regions upon verification that the criteria established by the oversight committee has been met.

6. Participation in an Amber alert system is entirely at the option of local law enforcement agencies and federally licensed radio and television broadcasters.

7. Any person who knowingly makes a false report that triggers an alert pursuant to this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Brunns, House Amendment No. 6 was adopted.

Representative Behnen assumed the Chair.

Representative Brunns offered House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 7

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 3, Page 85, Line 3, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“Section 4. 1. The department of public safety has the authority to promulgate rules establishing recommended procedures for issuing missing endangered person advisories. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2006, shall be invalid and void.

2. For the purposes of this section, "missing endangered person" means a person whose whereabouts are unknown and who is:

(1) Physically or mentally disabled to the degree that the person is dependent upon an agency or another individual;

(2) Missing under circumstances indicating that the missing person's safety may be in danger; or

(3) Missing under involuntary or unknown circumstances.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Brunns, House Amendment No. 7 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (158) offered House Amendment No. 8.

House Amendment No. 8

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 565.182, Page 64, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“565.320. 1. As used in this section the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Crime of violence", any crime which involved the threat or use of physical force against an elderly person;

(2) "Elderly", a person sixty-five years of age or older.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law no court shall sentence a person who has pled guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a crime of violence against the elderly to a term of imprisonment of less than thirty consecutive days or to pay a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment, nor shall such person be eligible for parole or probation until he or she has served a minimum of thirty consecutive days of imprisonment.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (158), House Amendment No. 8 was adopted.

Representative Franz offered House Amendment No. 9.

House Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 578.409, Pages 76-77, Lines 1-32, by deleting all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Franz, House Amendment No. 9 was adopted.

Representative Bringer offered House Amendment No. 10.

House Amendment No. 10

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Page 69, Section 577.020, Line 53, by inserting after said line the following:

“Full information is limited to the following:

(1) The type of test administered and the procedures followed;

(2) The time of the collection of the blood, breath, or urine sample analyzed;

(3) The numerical results of the test indicating the alcohol content of the blood, breath, or urine;

(4) The type and status of any permit which was held by the person who performed the test;

(5) If the test was administered by means of a breath testing instrument, the date of performance of the most required maintenance of such instrument.

Full information does not include schematics, manuals, or software of the instrument used to test the person or any other material that is not in the actual possession of the state.

Additionally, full information does not include information in the possession of the manufacturer of the test instrument.”.

On motion of Representative Bringer, House Amendment No. 10 was adopted.

Representative Jolly offered House Amendment No. 11.

House Amendment No. 11

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Page 64, Section 561.031, Line 28, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"565.063. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Domestic assault offense":

(a) The commission of the crime of domestic assault in the first degree [pursuant to section 565.072] or domestic assault in the second degree [pursuant to section 565.073]; or

(b) The commission of the crime of assault in the first degree [pursuant to the provisions of section 565.050] or assault in the second degree [pursuant to the provisions of section 565.060], if the victim of the assault was a family or household member; or

(c) The commission of a crime in another state, or any federal offense, or any military offense which, if committed in this state, would be a violation of any offense listed in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(2) "Family" or "household member", spouses, former spouses, adults related by blood or marriage, adults who are presently residing together or have resided together in the past and adults who have a child in common regardless of whether they have been married or have resided together at any time;

(3) "Persistent domestic violence offender", a person who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of two or more domestic assault offenses, where such two or more offenses occurred within ten years of the occurrence of the domestic assault offense for which the person is charged; and

(4) "Prior domestic violence offender", a person who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of one domestic assault offense, where such prior offense occurred within five years of the occurrence of the domestic assault offense for which the person is charged.

2. No court shall suspend the imposition of sentence as to a prior or persistent domestic violence offender pursuant to this section nor sentence such person to pay a fine in lieu of a term of imprisonment, section 557.011, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, nor shall such person be eligible for parole or probation until such person has served a minimum of six months' imprisonment.

3. The court shall find the defendant to be a prior domestic violence offender or persistent domestic violence offender, if:

(1) The indictment or information, original or amended, or the information in lieu of an indictment pleads all essential facts warranting a finding that the defendant is a prior domestic violence offender or persistent domestic violence offender; and

(2) Evidence is introduced that establishes sufficient facts pleaded to warrant a finding beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant is a prior domestic violence offender or persistent domestic violence offender; and

(3) The court makes findings of fact that warrant a finding beyond a reasonable doubt by the court that the defendant is a prior domestic violence offender or persistent domestic violence offender.

4. In a jury trial, such facts shall be pleaded, established and found prior to submission to the jury outside of its hearing.

5. In a trial without a jury or upon a plea of guilty, the court may defer the proof in findings of such facts to a later time, but prior to sentencing.

6. The defendant shall be accorded full rights of confrontation and cross-examination, with the opportunity to present evidence, at such hearings.

7. The defendant may waive proof of the facts alleged.

8. Nothing in this section shall prevent the use of presentence investigations or commitments.

9. At the sentencing hearing both the state and the defendant shall be permitted to present additional information bearing on the issue of sentence.

10. The pleas or findings of guilty shall be prior to the date of commission of the present offense.

11. The court shall not instruct the jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury, upon a finding of guilty, to assess and declare the punishment as part of its verdict in cases of prior domestic violence offenders or persistent domestic violence offenders.

12. Evidence of prior convictions shall be heard and determined by the trial court out of the hearing of the jury prior to the submission of the case to the jury, and shall include but not be limited to evidence of convictions received by a search of the records of the Missouri uniform law enforcement system maintained by the Missouri state highway patrol. After hearing the evidence, the court shall enter its findings thereon.

13. Evidence of similar criminal convictions of domestic violence pursuant to this chapter, chapter 566, RSMo, or chapter 568, RSMo, within five years of the offense at issue, shall be admissible for the purposes of showing a past history of domestic violence.

14. Any person who has pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of a violation of section 565.072 shall be sentenced to the authorized term of imprisonment for a class A felony if the court finds the offender is a prior domestic violence offender. The offender shall be sentenced to the authorized term of imprisonment for a class A felony which term shall be served without probation or parole if the court finds the offender is a persistent domestic violence offender or the prior domestic violence offender inflicts serious physical injury on the victim.

15. Any person who has pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of a violation of section 565.073 shall be sentenced:

(a) To the authorized term of imprisonment for a class B felony if the court finds the offender is a prior domestic violence offender; or

(b) To the authorized term of imprisonment for a class A felony if the court finds the offender is a persistent domestic violence offender."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clauses accordingly.

On motion of Representative Jolly, House Amendment No. 11 was adopted.

Representative Harris (23) offered House Amendment No. 12.

House Amendment No. 12

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 568.070, Page 65, Lines 17 and 18, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following words "video game which contains the mutilation of body parts, gore, depictions of human injury"; and

Further amend said section, Page 65, Line 25, by deleting the following words "rated M or AO" and inserting in lieu thereof the following words "as described by this section"; and

Further amend said section, Page 66, Lines 43 and 44, by deleting the words "rated M or AO" and inserting in lieu thereof the following words "as described by this section"; and

Further amend said section, Page 66, Lines 45 and 46, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following words "2. Unlawful transactions with a child is a class B misdemeanor."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Harris (23), House Amendment No. 12 was adopted.

Representative Cooper (120) offered House Amendment No. 13.

House Amendment No. 13

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Page 83, Section 610.105, Line 17, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"650.340. 1. The provisions of this section may be cited and shall be known as the "911 Training and Standards Act".

2. Initial training requirements for telecommunicators who answer 911 calls that come to public safety answering points shall be as follows:

- (1) Police telecommunicator 16 hours;
- (2) Fire telecommunicator 16 hours;
- (3) Emergency medical services telecommunicator 16 hours;

(4) Joint communication center telecommunicator 40 hours.

3. All persons employed as a telecommunicator in this state shall be required to complete ongoing training so long as such person engages in the occupation as a telecommunicator. Such persons shall complete at least [sixteen] twenty-four hours of ongoing training every [two] three years by such persons or organizations as provided in subsection 6 of this section. The reporting period for the ongoing training under this subsection shall run concurrent with the existing continuing education reporting periods for Missouri peace officers pursuant to chapter 590, RSMo.

4. Any person employed as a telecommunicator on August 28, 1999, shall not be required to complete the training requirement as provided in subsection 2 of this section. Any person hired as a telecommunicator after August 28, 1999, shall complete the training requirements as provided in subsection 2 of this section within twelve months of the date such person is employed as a telecommunicator.

5. The training requirements as provided in subsection 2 of this section shall be waived for any person who furnishes proof to the committee that such person has completed training in another state which are at least as stringent as the training requirements of subsection 2 of this section.

6. The department of public safety shall determine by administrative rule the persons or organizations authorized to conduct the training as required by subsection 2 of this section.

7. This section shall not apply to an emergency medical dispatcher or agency as defined in section 190.100, RSMo, or a person trained by an entity accredited or certified under section 190.131, RSMo, or a person who provides prearrival medical instructions who works for an agency which meets the requirements set forth in section 190.134, RSMo.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cooper (120), House Amendment No. 13 was adopted.

Representative Munzlinger offered House Amendment No. 14.

House Amendment No. 14

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Page 29, Section 221.040, Line 7, by inserting after said line the following:

“304.230. 1. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of each county or city to see that the provisions of sections 304.170 to 304.230 are enforced, and any peace officer or police officer of any county or city or any highway patrol officer shall have the power to arrest on sight or upon a warrant any person found violating or having violated the provisions of such sections.

2. The sheriff or any peace officer or any highway patrol officer is hereby given the power to stop any such conveyance or vehicle as above described upon the public highway for the purpose of determining whether such vehicle is loaded in excess of the provisions of sections 304.170 to 304.230, and if he or she finds such vehicle loaded in violation of the provisions thereof he or she shall have a right at that time and place to cause the excess load to be removed from such vehicle; and provided further, that any regularly employed maintenance man of the department of transportation shall have the right and authority in any part of this state to stop any such conveyance or vehicle upon the public highway for the purpose of determining whether such vehicle is loaded in excess of the provisions of sections 304.170 to 304.230, and if he or she finds such vehicle loaded in violation of the provisions thereof, he or she shall have the right at that time and place to cause the excess load to be removed from such vehicle. When only an axle or a tandem axle group of a vehicle is overloaded, the operator shall be permitted to shift the load, if this will not overload some other axle or axles, without being charged with a violation; provided, however, the privilege of shifting the weight without being charged with a violation shall not extend to or include vehicles while traveling on the federal interstate system of highways. When only an axle or tandem axle group of the vehicle traveling on the federal interstate system of highways is overloaded and a court authorized to enforce the provisions of sections 304.170 to 304.230 finds that the overloading was due to the inadvertent shifting of the load changing axle weights in transit through no fault of the operator of the vehicle and that the load thereafter had been shifted so that no axle had been overloaded, then the court may find that no violation has been committed. The operator of any vehicle shall be permitted to back up and reweigh, or to turn around and weigh from the opposite direction. Any operator whose vehicle is weighed and found to be within five percent of any legal limit may request and receive a weight ticket, memorandum or statement showing the weight or weights on each axle or any combinations of axles. Once a vehicle is found to be within the limits of section 304.180 after having been weighed on any state scale and there is no evidence that any cargo or fuel has been added, no violation shall occur, but a presumption shall exist that cargo or fuel has been added if upon reweighing on another state scale the total gross weight exceeds the applicable limits of section 304.180 or 304.190. The highways and transportation commission of this state may deputize and appoint any number of their regularly employed maintenance men to enforce the provisions of such sections, and the maintenance men delegated and appointed in this section shall report to the proper officers any violations of sections 304.170 to 304.230 for prosecution by such proper officers.

3. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol may assign qualified persons who are not highway patrol officers to supervise or operate permanent or portable weigh stations used in the enforcement of commercial vehicle laws. These persons shall be designated as commercial vehicle inspectors and have limited police powers:

(1) To issue uniform traffic tickets at a permanent or portable weigh station for violations of rules and regulations of the division of motor carrier [and railroad safety of the department of economic development] services of the highways and transportation commission and department of public safety, and laws, rules, and regulations pertaining to commercial motor vehicles and trailers and related to size, weight, fuel tax, registration, equipment, driver requirements, transportation of hazardous materials and operators' or chauffeurs' licenses, and the provisions of sections 303.024 and 303.025, RSMo;

(2) To require the operator of any commercial vehicle to stop and submit to a vehicle and driver inspection to determine compliance with commercial vehicle laws, rules, and regulations, the provisions of sections 303.024 and 303.025, RSMo, and to submit to a cargo inspection when reasonable grounds exist to cause belief that a vehicle is transporting hazardous materials as defined by Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations;

(3) To make arrests for violation of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection. Commercial vehicle inspectors shall not have the authority to exercise the powers granted in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection until they have successfully completed training approved by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol; nor shall they have the right as peace officers to bear arms.

4. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol may appoint qualified persons, who are not members of the highway patrol, designated as commercial vehicle enforcement officers, with the powers:

(1) To issue uniform traffic tickets for violations of laws, rules and regulations pertaining to commercial vehicles, trailers, special mobile equipment and drivers of such vehicles, and the provisions of sections 303.024 and 303.025, RSMo;

(2) To require the operator of any commercial vehicle to stop and submit to a vehicle and driver inspection to determine compliance with commercial vehicle laws, rules, and regulations, compliance with the provisions of sections 303.024 and 303.025, RSMo, and to submit to a cargo inspection when reasonable grounds exist to cause belief that a vehicle is transporting hazardous materials as defined by Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations;

(3) To make arrests upon warrants and for violations of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection. Commercial vehicle officers selected and designated as peace officers by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol are hereby declared to be peace officers of the state of Missouri, with full power and authority to make arrests solely for violations under the powers granted in subdivisions (1) to (3) of this subsection. Commercial vehicle enforcement officers shall not have the authority to exercise the powers granted in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection until they have successfully completed training approved by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol and have completed the mandatory standards for the basic training and licensure of peace officers established by the peace officers standards and training commission under subsection 1 of section 590.030, RSMo. Commercial vehicle officers who are employed and performing their duties on August 28, 2006, shall have until July 1, 2010, to comply with the mandatory standards regarding police officer basic training and licensure. Commercial vehicle enforcement officers shall have the right as peace officers to bear arms.

5. Any additional employees needed for the implementation of this section shall be hired in conformity with the provisions of the federal fair employment and antidiscrimination acts.

6. Any part of this section which shall be construed to be in conflict with the axle or tandem axle load limits permitted by the Federal-Aid Highway Act, Section 127 of Title 23 of the United States Code (Public Law 85-767, 85th Congress) shall be null, void and of no effect.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Munzlinger, House Amendment No. 14 was adopted.

Representative Pearce offered House Amendment No. 15.

House Amendment No. 15

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 56.087, Page 3, Line 17, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“174.700. The board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university may appoint and employ as many college or university police officers as it may deem necessary to enforce regulations established under section 174.709 and general motor vehicle laws of this state in accordance with section 174.712, protect persons, property, and to preserve peace and good order only in the public buildings, properties, grounds, and other facilities and locations over which it has charge or control.

174.703. 1. The college or university police officers, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath of office before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties thereof, which oath shall be filed in the office of the board, and the secretary of the board shall give each college police officer so appointed and qualified a certificate of appointment, under the seal of the board, which certificate shall empower him or her with the same authority to maintain order, preserve peace and make arrests as is now held by peace officers.

2. The college or university police officers shall have the authority to enforce the regulations established in section 174.709 and general motor vehicle laws in accordance with section 174.712 on the campus as proscribed in chapter 304, RSMo. The college or university police officer may in addition expel from the public buildings, campuses, and grounds, persons violating the rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the board or others under the authority of the board.

3. Such officer or employee of the state college or university as may be designated by the board shall have immediate charge, control and supervision of police officers appointed by authority of this section. Such college or university police officers shall have satisfactorily completed before appointment a training course for police officers as prescribed by chapter 590, RSMo, for state peace officers or, by virtue of previous experience or training, have met the requirements of chapter 590, RSMo, and have been certified under that chapter.

174.706. Nothing in sections 174.700 to 174.706 shall be construed as denying the board the right to appoint guards or watchmen who shall not be given the authority and powers authorized by sections 174.700 to [174.706] 174.712.

174.709. 1. For the purpose of promoting public safety, health, and general welfare and to protect life and property, the board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university may establish regulations to control vehicular traffic, including speed regulations, on any thoroughfare owned or maintained by the state college or university and located within any of its campuses. Such regulations shall be consistent with the provisions of the general motor vehicle laws of this state. Upon adoption of such regulations, the state college or university shall have the authority to place official traffic control devices, as defined in section 300.010, RSMo, on campus property.

2. The regulations established by the board of regents or board of governors of any state college or university under subsection 1 of this section shall be codified, printed, and distributed for public use. Adequate signs displaying the speed limit shall be posted along such thoroughfares.

3. Violations of any regulation established under this section shall have the same effect as a violation of municipal ordinances adopted under section 304.120, RSMo, with penalty provisions as provided in section 304.570, RSMo. Points assessed against any person under section 302.302, RSMo, for a violation of this section shall be the same as provided for a violation of a county or municipal ordinance.

4. The provisions of this section shall apply only to moving violations.

174.712. All motor vehicles operated upon any thoroughfare owned or maintained by the state college or university and located within any of its campuses shall be subject to the provisions of the general motor vehicle laws of this state, including chapters 301, 302, 303, 304, 307, and 577, RSMo. Violations shall have the same effect as though such had occurred on public roads, streets, or highways of this state.”; and

Further amend said substitute, Section 491.170, Page 62, Line 18, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“544.157. 1. Any law enforcement officer certified pursuant to chapter 590, RSMo, of any political subdivision of this state, any authorized agent of the department of conservation, any commissioned member of the Missouri capitol police, any commissioned member of the Missouri state park rangers, any college or university police officer, and any authorized agent of the Missouri state water patrol in fresh pursuit of a person who is reasonably believed by such officer to have committed a felony in this state or who has committed, or attempted to commit, in the presence of such officer or agent, any criminal offense or violation of a municipal or county ordinance, or for whom such officer holds a warrant of arrest for a criminal offense, shall have the authority to arrest and hold in custody such person anywhere in this state. Fresh pursuit may only be initiated from within the pursuing peace officer's, conservation agent's, capitol police officer's, state park ranger's, college or university police officer's, or water patrol officer's jurisdiction and shall be terminated once the pursuing peace officer is outside of such officer's jurisdiction and has lost contact with the person being pursued. If the offense is a traffic violation, the uniform traffic ticket shall be used as if the violator had been apprehended in the municipality or county in which the offense occurred.

2. If such an arrest is made in obedience to a warrant, the disposition of the prisoner shall be made as in other cases of arrest under a warrant; if the violator is served with a uniform traffic ticket, the violator shall be directed to appear before a court having jurisdiction to try the offense; if the arrest is without a warrant, the prisoner shall be taken forthwith before a judge of a court with original criminal jurisdiction in the county wherein such arrest was made or before a municipal judge thereof having original jurisdiction to try such offense, who may release the person as provided in section 544.455, conditioned upon such person's appearance before the court having jurisdiction to try the offense. The person so arrested need not be taken before a judge as herein set out if given a summons by the arresting officer.

3. The term "fresh pursuit", as used in this section, shall include hot or fresh pursuit as defined by the common law and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony in this state, or who has committed or attempted to commit in this state a criminal offense or violation of municipal or county ordinance in the presence of the arresting officer referred to in subsection 1 of this section or for whom such officer holds a warrant of arrest for a criminal offense. It shall include also the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony in this state, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for so believing. "Fresh pursuit" as used herein shall imply instant pursuit.

4. A public agency electing to institute vehicular pursuits shall adopt a policy for the safe conduct of vehicular pursuits by peace officers. Such policy shall meet the following minimum standards:

- (1) There shall be supervisory control of the pursuit;
- (2) There shall be procedures for designating the primary pursuit vehicle and for determining the total number of vehicles to be permitted to participate at one time in the pursuit;
- (3) There shall be procedures for coordinating operation with other jurisdictions; and
- (4) There shall be guidelines for determining when the interests of public safety and effective law enforcement justify a vehicular pursuit and when a vehicular pursuit should not be initiated or should be terminated.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Pearce, House Amendment No. 15 was adopted.

Representative Fares offered House Amendment No. 16.

House Amendment No. 16

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 92.500, Page 6, Line 115, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“94.860. 1. The governing body of any municipalities located in whole or in part within any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants is hereby authorized to impose, by ordinance or order, a sales tax in the amount of up to one-half of one percent on all retail sales made in such municipality, which are subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the purpose of improving the public safety for such municipality, including but not limited to expenditures on equipment, municipal employee salaries and benefits, contractual payments for public safety services, and facilities for police, fire and emergency medical providers. The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any other sales taxes allowed by law. No ordinance or order imposing a sales tax pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be effective unless the governing body of the municipality submits to the voters of the municipality, at a county or state general, primary, or special election, a proposal to authorize the governing body of the municipality to impose a tax.

2. If the proposal submitted involves only authorization to impose the tax authorized by this section, the ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the municipality of (municipality's name) impose a sales tax of (insert amount) for the purpose of improving the public safety of the municipality?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal submitted pursuant to this subsection, then the ordinance or order and any amendments thereto shall be in effect on the first day of the second quarter immediately following the election approving the proposal. If a proposal receives less than the required majority, then the governing body of the municipality shall have no power to impose the sales tax herein authorized unless and until the governing body of the municipality shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the governing body of the municipality to impose the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

3. Within thirty days of the approval of a public safety sales tax pursuant to this section, the governing body shall choose one of the following options:

(1) OPTION 1. Eighty-five percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 1 of the trust fund created in subsection 4 of this section and shall be returned to that municipality as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 4 of this section. Fifteen percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund created in, and allocated as provided in, subdivision (2) of subsection 4 of this section;

(2) OPTION 2. One hundred percent of the moneys generated within each municipality shall be retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund created in, and allocated as provided in, subdivision (2) of subsection 4 of this section.

4. The moneys shall be retained in two separate subaccounts in the "Municipal Public Safety Sales Tax Fund" which is hereby created. Moneys in the fund shall be distributed to each municipality as follows:

(1) For municipalities choosing Option 1, eighty-five percent of the taxes collected within each municipality and retained in subaccount 1 of the trust fund shall be returned to each municipality;

(2) For municipalities choosing Option 2, the moneys retained in subaccount 2 of the trust fund shall be distributed to each municipality based on the percentage ratio that the population of that municipality bears to the total population of all of the municipalities choosing Option 2.

5. All revenue received by a municipality from the tax authorized under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for improving the public safety for such municipality for so long as the tax shall remain in effect. Once the tax authorized by this section is abolished or is terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall be used solely for improving public safety for the municipality. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the governing body in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other municipal funds.

6. All sales taxes collected by the director of the department of revenue under this section on behalf of any municipality, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, RSMo, shall be deposited in the special trust fund created in subsection 4 of this section. The moneys in the trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director of the department of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust and which was collected in each municipality imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of the municipality and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the director of the department of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the municipality which levied the tax, such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of each such municipality, and all expenditures of funds arising from the trust fund shall be by an appropriation act to be enacted by the governing body of each such municipality. Expenditures may be made from the fund for any functions authorized in the ordinance or order adopted by the governing body submitting the tax to the voters.

7. The director of the department of revenue may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any municipality for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such municipalities. If any municipality abolishes the tax, the municipality shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal and the director of the department of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such municipality, the director of the department of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the municipality and close the account of that municipality. The director of the department of revenue shall notify each municipality of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the municipality.

8. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply to the tax imposed under this section.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Fares moved that House Amendment No. 16 be adopted.

House Amendment No. 17

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 565.182, Page 64, Lines 1-8, by deleting all of said lines from the substitute; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lipke, House Amendment No. 17 was adopted.

Representative George offered House Amendment No. 18.

House Amendment No. 18

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Page 73, Section 577.023, Line 124, by inserting after said line the following:

“577.029. A licensed physician, registered nurse, or trained medical technician at the place of his or her employment, acting at the request and direction of the law enforcement officer, shall withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol content of the blood, unless such medical personnel, in his or her good faith medical judgment, believes such procedure would endanger the life or health of the person in custody. Blood may be withdrawn only by such medical personnel, but such restriction shall not apply to the taking of a breath test, a saliva specimen, or a urine specimen. In withdrawing blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol content thereof, only a previously unused and sterile needle and sterile vessel shall be utilized and the withdrawal shall otherwise be in strict accord with accepted medical practices. [A nonalcoholic antiseptic shall be used for cleansing the skin prior to venapuncture.] Upon the request of the person who is tested, full information concerning the test taken at the direction of the law enforcement officer shall be made available to him or her.”; and

Representative Ruestman offered House Amendment No. 19.

House Amendment No. 19

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 488.5050, Page 60, Line 1, by inserting immediately preceding all of said line the following:

“488.5025. 1. In addition to any other assessment authorized by law, a court may assess a fee of twenty-five dollars on each person who pays a court-ordered judgment, penalty, fine, sanction, or court costs on a time- payment basis, including restitution and juvenile monetary assessments. A time-payment basis shall be any judgment, penalty, fine, sanction, or court cost not paid, in full, within thirty days of the date the court imposed the judgment, penalty fine, sanction, or court cost. Imposition of the time-payment fee shall be in addition to any other enforcement provisions authorized by law.

2. Ten dollars of the time-payment fee collected pursuant to this section shall be payable to the clerk of the court of the county, or clerk of the court of the municipality, from which such fee was collected, or to such person as is designated by local circuit court rule as treasurer of said fund, and said fund shall be applied and expended under the direction and order of the court en banc of any such county to be utilized by the court where such fine is collected to improve, maintain, and enhance the ability to collect and manage moneys assessed or received by the courts, to improve case processing, enhance court security, preservation of the record, or to improve the administration of justice. Eight dollars of the time-payment fee shall be deposited in the statewide court automation fund pursuant to section 476.055, RSMo. Seven dollars of the time-payment fee shall be paid to the director of revenue, to be deposited to the general revenue fund.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Ruestman, House Amendment No. 19 was adopted.

Representative Jones offered House Amendment No. 20.

House Amendment No. 20

AMEND House Committee Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1221, Section 610.105, Page 83, Line 1, by inserting immediately preceding all of said line the following:

“610.021. Except to the extent disclosure is otherwise required by law, a public governmental body is authorized to close meetings, records and votes, to the extent they relate to the following:

(1) Legal actions, causes of action or litigation involving a public governmental body and any confidential or privileged communications between a public governmental body or its representatives and its attorneys. However, any minutes, vote or settlement agreement relating to legal actions, causes of action or litigation involving a public governmental body or any agent or entity representing its interests or acting on its behalf or with its authority, including any insurance company acting on behalf of a public government body as its insured, shall be made public upon final disposition of the matter voted upon or upon the signing by the parties of the settlement agreement, unless, prior to final disposition, the settlement agreement is ordered closed by a court after a written finding that the adverse impact to a plaintiff or plaintiffs to the action clearly outweighs the public policy considerations of section 610.011, however, the amount of any moneys paid by, or on behalf of, the public governmental body shall be disclosed; provided, however, in matters involving the exercise of the power of eminent domain, the vote shall be announced or become public immediately following the action on the motion to authorize institution of such a legal action. Legal work product shall be considered a closed record;

(2) Leasing, purchase or sale of real estate by a public governmental body where public knowledge of the transaction might adversely affect the legal consideration therefor. However, any minutes, vote or public record approving a contract relating to the leasing, purchase or sale of real estate by a public governmental body shall be made public upon execution of the lease, purchase or sale of the real estate;

(3) Hiring, firing, disciplining or promoting of particular employees by a public governmental body when personal information about the employee is discussed or recorded. However, any vote on a final decision, when taken by a public governmental body, to hire, fire, promote or discipline an employee of a public governmental body shall be made available with a record of how each member voted to the public within seventy-two hours of the close of the meeting where such action occurs; provided, however, that any employee so affected shall be entitled to prompt notice of such decision during the seventy-two-hour period before such decision is made available to the public. As used in this subdivision, the term "personal information" means information relating to the performance or merit of individual employees;

(4) The state militia or national guard or any part thereof;

(5) Nonjudicial mental or physical health proceedings involving identifiable persons, including medical, psychiatric, psychological, or alcoholism or drug dependency diagnosis or treatment;

(6) Scholastic probation, expulsion, or graduation of identifiable individuals, including records of individual test or examination scores; however, personally identifiable student records maintained by public educational institutions shall be open for inspection by the parents, guardian or other custodian of students under the age of eighteen years and by the parents, guardian or other custodian and the student if the student is over the age of eighteen years;

(7) Testing and examination materials, before the test or examination is given or, if it is to be given again, before so given again;

(8) Welfare cases of identifiable individuals;

(9) Preparation, including any discussions or work product, on behalf of a public governmental body or its representatives for negotiations with employee groups;

(10) Software codes for electronic data processing and documentation thereof;

(11) Specifications for competitive bidding, until either the specifications are officially approved by the public governmental body or the specifications are published for bid;

(12) Sealed bids and related documents, until the bids are opened; and sealed proposals and related documents or any documents related to a negotiated contract until a contract is executed, or all proposals are rejected;

(13) Individually identifiable personnel records, performance ratings or records pertaining to employees or applicants for employment, except that this exemption shall not apply to the names, positions, salaries and lengths of service of officers and employees of public agencies once they are employed as such, and the names of private sources donating or contributing money to the salary of a chancellor or president at all public colleges and universities in the state of Missouri and the amount of money contributed by the source;

(14) Records which are protected from disclosure by law;

(15) Meetings and public records relating to scientific and technological innovations in which the owner has a proprietary interest;

(16) Records relating to municipal hotlines established for the reporting of abuse and wrongdoing;

(17) Confidential or privileged communications between a public governmental body and its auditor, including all auditor work product; however, all final audit reports issued by the auditor are to be considered open records pursuant to this chapter;

(18) Operational guidelines and policies developed, adopted, or maintained by any public agency responsible for law enforcement, public safety, first response, or public health for use in responding to or preventing any critical incident which is or appears to be terrorist in nature and which has the potential to endanger individual or public safety or health. Nothing in this exception shall be deemed to close information regarding expenditures, purchases, or contracts made by an agency in implementing these guidelines or policies. When seeking to close information pursuant to this exception, the agency shall affirmatively state in writing that disclosure would impair its ability to protect the safety or health of persons, and shall in the same writing state that the public interest in nondisclosure outweighs the public interest in disclosure of the records. This exception shall sunset on December 31, 2008;

(19) Existing or proposed security systems and structural plans of real property owned or leased by a public governmental body, and information that is voluntarily submitted by a nonpublic entity owning or operating an infrastructure to any public governmental body for use by that body to devise plans for protection of that infrastructure, the public disclosure of which would threaten public safety:

(a) Records related to the procurement of or expenditures relating to security systems purchased with public funds shall be open;

(b) When seeking to close information pursuant to this exception, the public governmental body shall affirmatively state in writing that disclosure would impair the public governmental body's ability to protect the security or safety of persons or real property, and shall in the same writing state that the public interest in nondisclosure outweighs the public interest in disclosure of the records;

(c) Records that are voluntarily submitted by a nonpublic entity shall be reviewed by the receiving agency within ninety days of submission to determine if retention of the document is necessary in furtherance of a state security interest. If retention is not necessary, the documents shall be returned to the nonpublic governmental body or destroyed;

(d) This exception shall sunset on December 31, 2008;

(20) Records that identify the configuration of components or the operation of a computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network, and would allow unauthorized access to or unlawful disruption of a computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network of a public governmental body. This exception shall not be used to limit or deny access to otherwise public records in a file, document, data file or database containing public records. Records related to the procurement of or expenditures relating to such computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network, including the amount of moneys paid by, or on behalf of, a public governmental body for such computer, computer system, computer network, or telecommunications network shall be open; and

(21) Credit card numbers, personal identification numbers, digital certificates, physical and virtual keys, access codes or authorization codes that are used to protect the security of electronic transactions between a public governmental body and a person or entity doing business with a public governmental body. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to close the record of a person or entity using a credit card held in the name of a public governmental body or any record of a transaction made by a person using a credit card or other method of payment for which reimbursement is made by a public governmental body.

(22) Records and documents of and pertaining to internal investigations by a law enforcement agency into matters of fitness and conduct of a law enforcement officer employed by such investigating law enforcement agency used solely in connection with matters relating to the employment of such law enforcement officer, and records and documents pertaining to any determinations or actions relating to an officer's employment status taken in connection with or following such investigations. However, if such records and documents are used or shared by an agency in a criminal investigation involving an officer, provisions regarding incident reports, investigative reports or other documents covered under section 610.100 shall apply.

610.100. 1. As used in sections 610.100 to 610.150, the following words and phrases shall mean:

(1) "Arrest", an actual restraint of the person of the defendant, or by his or her submission to the custody of the officer, under authority of a warrant or otherwise for a criminal violation which results in the issuance of a summons or the person being booked;

(2) "Arrest report", a record of a law enforcement agency of an arrest and of any detention or confinement incident thereto together with the charge therefor;

(3) "Inactive", an investigation in which no further action will be taken by a law enforcement agency or officer for any of the following reasons:

(a) A decision by the law enforcement agency not to pursue the case;

(b) Expiration of the time to file criminal charges pursuant to the applicable statute of limitations, or ten years after the commission of the offense; whichever date earliest occurs;

(c) Finality of the convictions of all persons convicted on the basis of the information contained in the investigative report, by exhaustion of or expiration of all rights of appeal of such persons;

(4) "Incident report", a record of a law enforcement agency consisting of the date, time, specific location, name of the victim and immediate facts and circumstances surrounding the initial report of a crime or incident, including any logs of reported crimes, accidents and complaints maintained by that agency;

(5) "Investigative report", a record, other than an arrest or incident report, prepared by personnel of a law enforcement agency, inquiring into a crime or suspected crime, either in response to an incident report or in response to evidence developed by law enforcement officers in the course of their duties.

(6) Investigative reports and incident reports, or other law enforcement records covered under this section, shall not include any records or documents pertaining to internal investigations by law enforcement agencies into matters of fitness and conduct of law enforcement officers employed by such investigating law enforcement agencies and used solely in connection with such officers' employment, as described in subdivision (22) of section 610.021. However, if such records and documents are used or shared by an agency in a criminal investigation involving an officer, provisions regarding incident reports, investigative reports or other documents covered under this section shall apply.

2. Each law enforcement agency of this state, of any county, and of any municipality shall maintain records of all incidents reported to the agency, investigations and arrests made by such law enforcement agency. All incident reports and arrest reports shall be open records. Notwithstanding any other provision of law other than the provisions of subsections 4, 5 and 6 of this section or section 320.083, RSMo, investigative reports of all law enforcement agencies are closed records until the investigation becomes inactive. If any person is arrested and not charged with an offense against the law within thirty days of the person's arrest, the arrest report shall thereafter be a closed record except that the disposition portion of the record may be accessed and except as provided in section 610.120.

3. Except as provided in subsections 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this section, if any portion of a record or document of a law enforcement officer or agency, other than an arrest report, which would otherwise be open, contains information that is reasonably likely to pose a clear and present danger to the safety of any victim, witness, undercover officer, or other person; or jeopardize a criminal investigation, including records which would disclose the identity of a source wishing to remain confidential or a suspect not in custody; or which would disclose techniques, procedures or guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, that portion of the record shall be closed and shall be redacted from any record made available pursuant to this chapter.

4. Any person, including a family member of such person within the first degree of consanguinity if such person is deceased or incompetent, attorney for a person, or insurer of a person involved in any incident or whose property is involved in an incident, may obtain any records closed pursuant to this section or section 610.150 for purposes of investigation of any civil claim or defense, as provided by this subsection. Any individual, his or her family member within the first degree of consanguinity if such individual is deceased or incompetent, his or her attorney or insurer, involved in an incident or whose property is involved in an incident, upon written request, may obtain a complete unaltered and unedited incident report concerning the incident, and may obtain access to other records closed by a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section. Within thirty days of such request, the agency shall provide the requested material or file a motion pursuant to this subsection with the circuit court having jurisdiction over the law enforcement agency stating that the safety of the victim, witness or other individual cannot be reasonably ensured, or that a criminal investigation is likely to be jeopardized. If, based on such motion, the court finds for the law enforcement agency, the court shall either order the record closed or order such portion of the record that should be closed to be redacted from any record made available pursuant to this subsection.

5. Any person may bring an action pursuant to this section in the circuit court having jurisdiction to authorize disclosure of the information contained in an investigative report of any law enforcement agency, which would otherwise be closed pursuant to this section. The court may order that all or part of the information contained in an investigative report be released to the person bringing the action. In making the determination as to whether information contained in an investigative report shall be disclosed, the court shall consider whether the benefit to the person bringing the action or to the public outweighs any harm to the public, to the law enforcement agency or any of its officers, or to any person identified in the investigative report in regard to the need for law enforcement agencies to effectively investigate and prosecute criminal activity. The investigative report in question may be examined by the court in camera. The court may find that the party seeking disclosure of the investigative report shall bear the reasonable and necessary costs and attorneys' fees of both parties, unless the court finds that the decision of the law enforcement agency not to open the investigative report was substantially unjustified under all relevant circumstances, and in that event, the court may assess such reasonable and necessary costs and attorneys' fees to the law enforcement agency.

6. Any person may apply pursuant to this subsection to the circuit court having jurisdiction for an order requiring a law enforcement agency to open incident reports and arrest reports being unlawfully closed pursuant to this section. If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the law enforcement officer or agency has knowingly violated this section, the officer or agency shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount up to one thousand dollars. If the court finds that there is a knowing violation of this section, the court may order payment by such officer or agency of all costs and attorneys' fees, as provided by section 610.027. If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the law enforcement officer or agency has purposely violated this section, the officer or agency shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount up to five thousand dollars and the court shall order payment by such officer or agency of all costs and attorney fees, as provided in section 610.027. The court shall determine the amount of the penalty by taking into account the size of the jurisdiction, the seriousness of the offense, and whether the law enforcement officer or agency has violated this section previously.

7. The victim of an offense as provided in chapter 566, RSMo, may request that his or her identity be kept confidential until a charge relating to such incident is filed.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Jones, House Amendment No. 20 was adopted.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS HCS HB 978, entitled:

An act to amend chapter 42, RSMo, by adding thereto four new sections relating to the Vietnam War medallion program.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS#2 HCS HB 1149, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 640.100, 644.016, 644.036, 644.051, and 644.054, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof eight new sections relating to the regulation of water.

With Senate Amendment No. 1 and Senate Amendment No. 2.

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1149, Page 1, Section A, Line 4 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"67.1848. All public water supply districts, sewer districts, and municipalities, including villages, shall have the right to lay, install, construct, repair, and maintain sewer and water lines in public highways, roads, streets, and alleys, subject to the reasonable rules and regulations of governmental bodies having jurisdiction of such public places. Due regard shall be taken for the rights of the public in its use of thoroughfares and equal rights of other utilities thereto.

227.240. 1. The location and removal of all telephone, cable television, and electric light and power transmission lines, poles, wires, and conduits and all pipelines and tramways, erected or constructed, or hereafter to be erected or constructed by any corporation, municipality, public water supply district, sewer district, association or persons, within the right-of-way of any state highway, insofar as the public travel and traffic is concerned, and insofar as the same may interfere with the construction or maintenance of any such highway, shall be under the control and supervision of the state highways and transportation commission.

2. A cable television corporation or company shall be permitted to place its lines within the right-of-way of any state highway, consistent with the rules and regulations of the state highways and transportation commission. The state highways and transportation commission shall establish a system for receiving and resolving complaints with respect to cable television lines placed in, or removed from, the right-of-way of a state highway.

3. The commission or some officer selected by the commission shall serve a written notice upon the entity, person or corporation owning or maintaining any such lines, poles, wires, conduits, pipelines, or tramways, which notice shall contain a plan or chart indicating the places on the right-of-way at which such lines, poles, wires, conduits, pipelines or tramways may be maintained. The notice shall also state the time when the work of hard surfacing said roads is proposed to commence, and shall further state that a hearing shall be had upon the proposed plan of location and matters incidental thereto, giving the place and date of such hearing. Immediately after such hearing the said owner shall be given a notice of the findings and orders of the commission and shall be given a reasonable time thereafter to comply therewith; provided, however, that the effect of any change ordered by the commission shall not be to remove all or any part of such lines, poles, wires, conduits, pipelines or tramways from the right-of-way of the highway. The removal of the same shall be made at the cost and expense of the owners thereof unless otherwise provided by said commission, and in the event of the failure of such owners to remove the same at the time so determined they may be removed by the state highways and transportation commission, or under its direction, and the cost thereof collected from such owners, and such owners shall not be liable in any way to any person for the placing and maintaining of such lines, poles, wires, conduits, pipelines and tramways at the places prescribed by the commission.

4. The commission is authorized in the name of the state of Missouri to institute and maintain, through the attorney general, such suits and actions as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this section. Any corporation, association or the officers or agents of such corporations or associations, or any other person who shall erect or maintain any such lines, poles, wires, conduits, pipelines or tramways, within the right-of-way of such roads which are hard-surfaced, which are not in accordance with such orders of the commission, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 2

AMEND Senate Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1149, Page 17, Section 644.589, Line 6, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"701.450. 1. For any facility for which construction commences after August 28, 1995, which is constructed as a place of assembly for public amusement including, but not limited to, sports stadiums and arenas, auditoriums and assembly halls, there shall be provided an equal number of water closets for women as there are the number of water closets and urinals provided for men, and there shall be provided an equal number of diaper changing stations for men as there are the number provided for women.

2. Each facility described in subsection 1 of this section constructed or under construction prior to August 28, 1995, shall provide water closets in the same ratio as required in subsection 1 of this section whenever such facility undergoes major structural renovation.

3. As used in subsection 2 of this section, the term "major structural renovation" means any reconstruction, rehabilitation, addition or other improvement which required more than fifty percent of the gross floor area of the existing facility to be rebuilt. The provisions of this act shall only apply to such portions of the building being renovated and not to the entire building.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, if any facility described in subsection 1 of this section located in any city not within a county is constructed in compliance with the requirements of the applicable building and plumbing codes of such city related to the minimum number of water closets that are designated for women, such facility shall not be required to comply with the requirements of subsection 1 of this section until one year following the date of its substantial completion."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SS SCS HCS HB 1837, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 374.046, 383.010, 383.035, and 383.105, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof eighteen new sections relating to malpractice insurance.

With Senate Amendment No. 1.

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1837, Page 20, Section 383.016, Line 3, by inserting at the end of said line the following:

“and”; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 20, Lines 4 to 8 of said page, by striking said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(e) How such assessments apply to members and former members.”.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SCS SB 616, as amended: Senators Stouffer, Alter, Ridgeway, Bray and Green.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the conference on SB 766 with HA 1 has been dissolved and the Senate requests the House recede from its position on HA 1 to SB 766 and take up and pass the bill.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SB 805, as amended: Senators Gross, Crowell, Goodman, Green and Kennedy.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS SS SB 1058, as amended: Senators Loudon, Bartle, Rupp, Wheeler and Dougherty.

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the President Pro Tem has appointed the following Conference Committee to act with a like Committee from the House on HCS#2 SCS SB 1221, as amended: Senators Goodman, Crowell, Bartle, Green and Callahan.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

The Speaker appointed the following Conference Committees to act with like Committees from the Senate on the following bills:

HCS SS SB 1058: Representatives Pratt, Flook, Yates, Johnson (90) and Burnett

HCS#2 SCS SB 1221: Representatives Lipke, Bruns, Jones, Roorda and Wright-Jones

Representative Icet assumed the Chair.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

BILLS IN CONFERENCE

CCR SS HCS HB 1900, as amended, relating to campaign finance, was taken up by Representative Dempsey.

Representative Dempsey moved that CCR SS HCS HB 1900, as amended, be adopted.

Representative Skaggs made a substitute motion that the House refuse to adopt CCR SS HCS HB 1900, as amended, and request the Senate to grant the House a further conference for the purpose of adopting Senate Amendment No. 5 to SS HCS HB 1900, as amended.

Representative Pratt raised a point of order that the substitute motion on CCR SS HCS HB 1900, as amended, is a negative motion and is in violation of the Rules of the House.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Skaggs again moved that the House refuse to adopt CCR SS HCS HB 1900 and request the Senate to grant further conference for the purpose of adopting Senate Amendment No. 5 to SS HCS HB 1900.

Which motion was defeated by the following vote:

CORRECTION TO THE HOUSE JOURNAL

AFFIDAVIT

I, State Representative Therese Sander, District 22, hereby state and affirm that my vote as recorded on the motion to truly agree to and finally pass SB 1197 as recorded in the House Journal for Thursday, May 11, 2006 showing that I voted "absent with leave" was incorrectly recorded. Pursuant to House Rule 88, I ask that the Journal be corrected to show that I voted "aye". I further state and affirm that I was present in the House Chamber at the time this vote was taken, I did in fact vote, and my vote or absence was incorrectly recorded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my hand to this affidavit on this 11th day of May 2006.

/s/ Therese Sander
State Representative

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Kent Parson, Elkton Baptist Church, Flemington, Missouri.

Our Heavenly Father, thank You for the opportunity to live in so great a land and among this wonderful people. Thank You for the blessings You provide each day, which we so often take for granted.

As this body completes their work for another session, may they continue to rely upon You for their leadership. May each be blessed and feel a sense of pride in their accomplishments and a determination to press onward toward future achievements in those areas where they may feel they have fallen short. Help each of these ladies and gentlemen to be humble in their victories and gracious in their defeats.

Continue to bless the men and women of this astute body with Your holy presence and guide them as they make the decisions which are before them today. Grant that each of these leaders of the great State of Missouri may be endowed with the wisdom of a Solomon; the leadership abilities of a Moses; the heart of a David; the strength of a Sampson; the perception of a Daniel; the dedication and commitment of a Paul; and most importantly; may they demonstrate love of their fellow-man as did Jesus Christ.

We ask these blessings in the name of Thy Son, and our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventy-second day was approved as corrected.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden declared the bill passed.

HCS SCS SB 1175, relating to a community center sales tax, was taken up by Representative Nance.

Representative Tilley offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1175, Page 1, In the Title, Lines 2 and 3, by deleting the words "a sales tax for community center development" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"taxation in political subdivisions"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"67.997. 1. The governing body of any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than eighteen thousand one hundred but fewer than eighteen thousand two hundred inhabitants may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made within the county which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not exceed one-fourth of one percent, and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of funding senior services and youth programs provided by the county. One-half of all revenue collected under this section shall be used solely to fund any service or activity deemed necessary by the senior service tax commission established in this section, and one-half of all revenue collected under this section shall be used solely to fund all youth programs administered by an existing county community task force. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance shall not become effective unless the governing body of the county submits to the voters residing within the county at a state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose a tax under this section.

2. The ballot of submission for the tax authorized in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the county) impose a sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent, with half of the revenue from the tax to be used solely to fund senior services provided by the county and half of the revenue from the tax to be used solely to fund youth programs provided by the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter immediately following the approval of the tax or notification to the department of revenue if such tax will be administered by the department of revenue. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the tax shall not become effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

3. On or after the effective date of any tax authorized under this section, the county which imposed the tax may adopt one of the two following provisions for the collection and administration of the tax:

(1) The county may adopt rules for the internal collection of such tax by the county officers usually responsible for collection and administration of county taxes; or

(2) The county may enter into an agreement with the director of the department of revenue for the purpose of collecting the tax authorized in this section. In the event the county enters into an agreement with the director of revenue for the collection of the tax, on or after the effective date of the tax the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply. All revenue collected under this section by the director of the department of revenue on behalf of any county, except for one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created and shall be known as the "Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax Trust Fund", and shall be used solely for the designated purposes. Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such county. Any funds in the special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

4. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the county may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, RSMo, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the county shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

5. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.524, RSMo, governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, RSMo, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for taxes and penalty under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

6. The governing body of any county that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters on any date available for elections for the county. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the county) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of funding senior services and youth programs provided by the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

7. Whenever the governing body of any county that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by ten percent of the registered voters of the county voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the county a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the county shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least thirty days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the county and close the account of that county. The director shall notify each county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county.

9. Each county imposing the tax authorized in this section shall establish a senior services tax commission to administer the portion of the sales tax revenue dedicated to providing senior services. Such commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the county commission. The county commission shall determine the qualifications, terms of office, compensation, powers, duties, restrictions, procedures, and all other necessary functions of the commission."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Tilley, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Sutherland offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1175, Section A, Page 1, Line 2, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"67.1461. 1. Each district shall have all the powers, except to the extent any such power has been limited by the petition approved by the governing body of the municipality to establish the district, necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571 including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) To adopt, amend, and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with sections 67.1401 to 67.1571, necessary or convenient to carry out the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(2) To sue and be sued;

(3) To make and enter into contracts and other instruments, with public and private entities, necessary or convenient to exercise its powers and carry out its duties pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(8) To levy and collect special assessments and taxes as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571. However, no such assessments or taxes shall be levied on any property exempt from taxation pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo. Those exempt pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo, may voluntarily participate in the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(9) If the district is a political subdivision, to levy real property taxes and business license taxes in the county seat of a county of the first classification containing a population of at least two hundred thousand, as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571. However, no such assessments or taxes shall be levied on any property exempt from taxation pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo. Those exempt pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (5) of section 137.100, RSMo, may voluntarily participate in the provisions of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(10) If the district is a political subdivision, to levy sales taxes pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(11) To fix, charge, and collect fees, rents, and other charges for use of any of the following:

(a) The district's real property, except for public rights-of-way for utilities;

(b) The district's personal property, except in a city not within a county; or

(c) Any of the district's interests in such real or personal property, except for public rights-of-way for utilities;

(12) To borrow money from any public or private source and issue obligations and provide security for the repayment of the same as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(13) To loan money as provided in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(14) To make expenditures, create reserve funds, and use its revenues as necessary to carry out its powers or duties and the provisions and purposes of sections 67.1401 to 67.1571;

(15) To enter into one or more agreements with the municipality for the purpose of abating any public nuisance within the boundaries of the district including, but not limited to, the stabilization, repair or maintenance or demolition and removal of buildings or structures, provided that the municipality has declared the existence of a public nuisance;

(16) Within its boundaries, to provide assistance to or to construct, reconstruct, install, repair, maintain, and equip any of the following public improvements:

(a) Pedestrian or shopping malls and plazas;

(b) Parks, lawns, trees, and any other landscape;

(c) Convention centers, arenas, aquariums, aviaries, and meeting facilities;

(d) Sidewalks, streets, alleys, bridges, ramps, tunnels, overpasses and underpasses, traffic signs and signals, utilities, drainage, water, storm and sewer systems, and other site improvements;

(e) Parking lots, garages, or other facilities;

(f) Lakes, dams, and waterways;

(g) Streetscape, lighting, benches or other seating furniture, trash receptacles, marquees, awnings, canopies, walls, and barriers;

(h) Telephone and information booths, bus stop and other shelters, rest rooms, and kiosks;

(i) Paintings, murals, display cases, sculptures, and fountains;

(j) Music, news, and child-care facilities; and

(k) Any other useful, necessary, or desired improvement;

(17) To dedicate to the municipality, with the municipality's consent, streets, sidewalks, parks, and other real property and improvements located within its boundaries for public use;

(18) Within its boundaries and with the municipality's consent, to prohibit or restrict vehicular and pedestrian traffic and vendors on streets, alleys, malls, bridges, ramps, sidewalks, and tunnels and to provide the means for access by emergency vehicles to or in such areas;

(19) Within its boundaries, to operate or to contract for the provision of music, news, child-care, or parking facilities, and buses, minibuses, or other modes of transportation;

(20) Within its boundaries, to lease space for sidewalk cafe tables and chairs;

(21) Within its boundaries, to provide or contract for the provision of security personnel, equipment, or facilities for the protection of property and persons;

(22) Within its boundaries, to provide or contract for cleaning, maintenance, and other services to public and private property;

(23) To produce and promote any tourism, recreational or cultural activity or special event in the district by, but not limited to, advertising, decoration of any public place in the district, promotion of such activity and special events, and furnishing music in any public place;

- (24) To support business activity and economic development in the district including, but not limited to, the promotion of business activity, development and retention, and the recruitment of developers and businesses;
- (25) To provide or support training programs for employees of businesses within the district;
- (26) To provide refuse collection and disposal services within the district;
- (27) To contract for or conduct economic, planning, marketing or other studies;
- (28) To repair, restore, or maintain any abandoned cemetery on public or private land within the district; and
- (29) To carry out any other powers set forth in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571.

2. Each district which is located in a blighted area or which includes a blighted area shall have the following additional powers:

(1) Within its blighted area, to contract with any private property owner to demolish and remove, renovate, reconstruct, or rehabilitate any building or structure owned by such private property owner; and

(2) To expend its revenues or loan its revenues pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to this subsection, provided that the governing body of the municipality has determined that the action to be taken pursuant to such contract is reasonably anticipated to remediate the blighting conditions and will serve a public purpose.

3. Each district shall annually reimburse the municipality for the reasonable and actual expenses incurred by the municipality to establish such district and review annual budgets and reports of such district required to be submitted to the municipality; provided that, such annual reimbursement shall not exceed one and one-half percent of the revenues collected by the district in such year.

4. Nothing in sections 67.1401 to 67.1571 shall be construed to delegate to any district any sovereign right of municipalities to promote order, safety, health, morals, and general welfare of the public, except those such police powers, if any, expressly delegated pursuant to sections 67.1401 to 67.1571.

5. The governing body of the municipality establishing the district shall not decrease the level of publicly funded services in the district existing prior to the creation of the district or transfer the financial burden of providing the services to the district unless the services at the same time are decreased throughout the municipality, nor shall the governing body discriminate in the provision of the publicly funded services between areas included in such district and areas not so included.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 4, Section 67.2715, Line 117, by inserting after said line the following:

"92.500. 1. The governing body of any city not within a county may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made within the city which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not exceed one-half of one percent, and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of providing revenues for the operation of public safety departments, including police and fire departments, and for compensation, pension programs, and health care for employees and pensioners of the public safety departments. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance shall not become effective unless the governing body of the city submits to the voters residing within the city at a state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the city to impose a tax under this section.

2. The ballot of submission for the tax authorized in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the city) impose a sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent, solely for the purpose of providing revenues for the operation of public safety departments of the city?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter immediately following notification to the department of revenue. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the tax shall not become effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

3. All revenue collected under this section by the director of the department of revenue on behalf of any city, except for one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created and shall be known as the "Public Safety Protection Sales Tax Fund", and shall be used solely for the designated purposes. Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the city for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such city. Any funds in the special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. The director shall keep accurate records of the amounts in the fund, and such records shall be open to the inspection of the officers of such city and to the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director shall distribute all moneys deposited in the fund during the preceding month to the city. Such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the city, and all expenditures of moneys from the fund shall be by an appropriation ordinance enacted by the governing body of the city.

4. On or after the effective date of the tax, the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, shall apply. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the city may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, RSMo, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the city shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

5. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.524, RSMo, governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, RSMo, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057, RSMo, and sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo, are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for the tax and penalties under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalties shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525, RSMo.

6. The governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters on any date available for elections for the city. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the city) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of providing revenues for the operation of public safety departments of the city?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

7. Whenever the governing body of any city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by a number of registered voters of the city equal to at least two percent of the number of registered voters of the city voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the city a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the city shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least ninety days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such city, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the city and close the account of that city. The director shall notify each city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city.”; and

On motion of Representative Dempsey, the House recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The hour of recess having expired, the House was called to order by Speaker Jetton.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Stephen S. Davis, Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives, was presented with the following resolution.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3506

WHEREAS, as a third year law student at the University of Missouri - Columbia, Stephen Sharp Davis completed a legal externship in the Missouri House of Representatives research department in 1999; and

WHEREAS, on May 9th, 1999 Stephen Sharp Davis was awarded the degree of Juris Doctorate from the University of Missouri - Columbia and was subsequently admitted to the Missouri Bar Association on September 24th of that year; and

WHEREAS, in August of that year, Stephen Sharp Davis accepted a position as the Administrative Assistant to the House Minority Leader, Representative Delbert Scott of Lowry City, in which he ably served to provide assistance and leadership to members of the House Minority Caucus; and

WHEREAS, Stephen Sharp Davis retained his position as Administrative Assistant to the House Minority Leader, as Representative Catherine Hanaway of Des Peres assumed that leadership position; and

WHEREAS, on January 8th, 2003, Stephen Sharp Davis was nominated by Speaker Catherine Hanaway and unanimously elected by the members of the Missouri House of Representatives to serve during the 92nd General Assembly as the sixty-second Chief Clerk of the House; and

WHEREAS, on January 5th, 2005, Stephen Sharp Davis was nominated by Speaker Rod Jetton and unanimously elected by the members of the Missouri House of Representatives to continue his service as Chief Clerk of the House during the 93rd General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Stephen Sharp Davis has with due diligence, compassionate demeanor, and principle-centered leadership endeavored to make the State of Missouri a better place in which to live, work, and raise a family; and

WHEREAS, Stephen Sharp Davis and his supportive wife Cara are about to undertake a new series of life challenges by moving their place of residence to the Missouri community of Crestwood to develop a new home for their three sons, Joshua, Caleb, and Aaron; and

WHEREAS, on July 10th, 2005 Stephen Sharp Davis will continue his service to the people of Missouri as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of Missouri in an effort to guard the principles of the United States Department of Justice through the effective and efficient administration of justice:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding and diverse contributions so generously given by Stephen Sharp Davis and his family in support of the Missouri House of Representatives and to convey to them this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations and best wishes as they begin the next phase of their lives together.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Stephen Sharp Davis and his family.

BILL IN CONFERENCE

CCR HCS SCS SB 616, as amended, relating to assisted living facilities, was taken up by Representative Bruns.

Representative Bruns moved that CCR HCS SCS SB 616, as amended, be adopted.

Representative Wright (137) made a substitute motion that the House request the Senate to recede from its position on CCR HCS SCS SB 616, as amended, and truly agree to and finally pass HCS SCS SB 616, as amended.

Representative Skaggs raised a point of order that the substitute motion is a negative motion.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Dempsey moved the previous question.

Which motion was adopted by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-FOURTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 18, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Deeken in the Chair.

Prayer by Tina Nickelson, Office of the Speaker.

Our most gracious and heavenly Father, thank You for giving us this day and the possibilities that are within it. Thank You for the opportunity that each of us has to serve You as we serve others. Shine the light of Your goodness deep into all of our hearts in order for us to be reminded of our invaluable worth as Your child. Help us each to be mindful in our actions towards others that they too share this invaluable worth. Remind us that the decisions we make today can change the lives of generations to come, help us to each leave legacies that are pleasing to You.

Call on our hearts, open our minds, extend our hands and reassure us that You are the one in control. For it is in Your name we pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

RECESS

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-FIFTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 26, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Stephen S. Davis, Chief Clerk of the House.

Our most kind and gracious Father in Heaven, at the close of this legislative session and in benediction, we express our gratitude to Thee for the opportunity of serving here and thank Thee for watching over us and blessing our efforts. We thank Thee for the freedoms, rights, and privileges we enjoy in this country and for Thy hand in establishing our Constitution and government.

We ask Thy blessings upon the members and staff of this House and upon the leaders of our state and country. Bless our President and our Governor. We pray that Thou would bless and redeem this state, so that it may fulfill its calling and potential.

We pray for Thy Spirit to distill upon our minds that we may better seek, know, and strive to bring about Thy will. Help us to have faith to seek Thy will, for we know that Thou loves us and that Thy ways are higher than our ways, and Thy thoughts are higher than our thoughts. Help us elevate our ways and our thoughts to be in harmony with Thine. For as now we see through a glass, darkly, help us open our minds, ears, and hearts to Thee, so that we will see as we are seen, and know as we are known. Please help us to serve one another and to gain and keep the true perspective of life and our purpose here.

As we part, we ask Thee to bless the members of this House to return here safely when next they meet. Please be with us till we meet again. This we pray in the name of the God of this land. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Allyson Seaton, Clayton Oetting, Jessica Fencil, Candice Johnson, Rachel Kopp, Sarah Raffurty and Katie Selby.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

VETO SESSION

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2006

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Lanie Black.

What an honor to have been asked to pray on my last day as a member of this body.

I have thought about it for some time and believe that if we are to be successful, your business must become our business. We must love one another. We must forgive one another whether they be a member of our own party or a member of the other party.

We pray for Your inspiration and wisdom during the years to come.

We lift up the members of our armed forces where ever they are serving in the world.

We pray for our state and our nation during the upcoming elections in early November.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

The Blair Oaks Falcons Baseball Team was introduced by Representative Bruns and recognized for attaining the Class 2A State Championship.

The Daniel Boone National All-Star Team was introduced by Representative Baker (25) and recognized for their participation in the 2006 Little League World Series.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

Representative Dempsey offered House Resolution No. 1, which was read.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, inform the Governor and the Senate that the House is duly convened and is now in session in the 2006 Constitutional Veto Session and ready for consideration of business.

On motion of Representative Dempsey, House Resolution No. 1 was adopted by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SR 1.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate that the Secretary of Senate inform the House of Representatives that the Senate is duly convened and is now in session as provided by Article III, Section 32 of the Constitution and is ready for the consideration of its business.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

June 21, 2006

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1003 entitled:

“AN ACT”

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Higher Education, the several divisions, programs, and institutions of higher education included therein to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds for the period beginning July 1, 2006 and ending June 30, 2007.

Section 3.078

I hereby veto $10,000,000 general revenue for the Access Missouri Scholarship Program. The failure to pass House Bill No. 1865 was clearly due to the General Assembly’s lack of agreement with regard to the scholarship program and a much larger higher education initiative.

Said section is vetoed in its entirety by $10,000,000 to $0 from General Revenue Fund.
From $10,000,000 to $0 in total for the section.

On June 21, 2006, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1003.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matt Blunt
Governor

June 29, 2006

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1004 entitled:

“AN ACT”

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Revenue, Department of Transportation, Office of Administration, the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds for the period beginning July 1, 2006 and ending June 30, 2007.

Section 4.243

I hereby veto $25,000 State Highways and Transportation Department Fund for the Mississippi River Parkway Commission. Section 226.445, RSMo directs that expenses of commission members shall be reimbursed from appropriations of general revenue. This appropriation is in conflict with that statute.

Said section is vetoed in its entirety by $25,000 to $0 from State Highways and Transportation Department Fund. From $25,000 to $0 in total for this section.

On June 29, 2006, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1004, except for those items specifically vetoed and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matt Blunt
Governor

June 29, 2006

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1007 entitled:

“AN ACT”

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Economic Development, Department of Insurance, and Department of Labor and Industrial Relations and the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds for the period beginning July 1, 2006 and ending June 30, 2007.

Section 7.205

I hereby veto $254,469 Public Counsel funds for the Office of Public Counsel. Enacting legislation was not passed; therefore, this funding mechanism does not exist.

Personal Service by $219,708 from $219,708 to $0 from Public Counsel Fund.
Expense and Equipment by $34,761 from $34,761 to $0 from Public Counsel Fund.
From $254,469 to $0 in total from Public Counsel Fund.
From $994,779 to $740,310 in total for the section.

On June 29, 2006, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1007, except for those items specifically vetoed and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matt Blunt
Governor

June 29, 2006

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1012 entitled:

“AN ACT”

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Chief Executive’s Office and Mansion, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer, Attorney General, Missouri Prosecuting Attorneys and Circuit Attorneys Retirement Systems, and the Judiciary and the Office of the State Public Defender, and the several divisions and programs thereof, and for the payment of salaries and mileage of members of the State Senate and the House of Representatives and contingent expenses of the General Assembly, including salaries and expenses of elective and appointive officers and necessary capital improvements expenditures; for salaries and expenses of members and employees and other necessary operating expenses of the Missouri Commission on Interstate Cooperation, the Committee on Legislative Research, various joint committees, for the expenses of the joint and interim committees established by the General Assembly, and to transfer money among certain funds, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, for the period beginning July 1, 2006 and ending June 30, 2007.

Section 12.400

I hereby veto $155,760 general revenue for parking expenses. Under Section 600.040.1, RSMo these expenses are the responsibility of the participating counties.

Personal Service and/or Expense and Equipment by $155,760 from $28,252,080 to 28,096,320 from General Revenue Fund.

From $30,493,582 to $30,337,822 in total from General Revenue Fund.

From $32,941,411 to $32,785,651 in total for the section.

On June 29, 2006, I approved said Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1012, except for those items specifically vetoed and not approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matt Blunt
Governor
